At the Court at Buckingham Palace, July 6, 1857.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the Knights Companions hereinafter named, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Green Drawing-Room ; viz. :

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the Marquess of Exeter, the Duke of Buccleuch, the Marquess of Lansdowne, the Marquess of Salisbury, the Duke of Cleveland, the Earl de Grey, the Marquess Camden, the Earl of Clarendon, the Earl Spencer, the Earl Fitzwilliam, the Duke of Northumberland, the Earl of Aberdeen, the Earl Fortescue, and Viscount Palmerston, attended by the Officers of the Order : the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate ; the Lord Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor ; the Honourable and Reverend Gerald Wellesley, Dean of Windsor, Register; Sir Charles-George Young, Knight, Garter; and Sir Augustus William James Clifford, Baronet, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At three o'clock the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, when (Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort having passed into the Chapter-Room) they proceeded, with the Officers of the Order, into the presence of the Sovereign.

The Chancellor then signified to the Chapter Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that the two vacant stalls in the Royal Chapel of Saint George, at Windsor, be filled; and as, by the statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, the Right Honourable Granville-George, Earl Granville, was introduced by Garter and Black Rod, and knighted by Her Majesty with the sword of state; and his lordship having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired.

The Most Honourable Richard, Marquess of Westminster, was next introduced, and having been knighted, with the same ceremony, retired.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who commanded him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Right Honourable Granville-George Earl Granville, Lord President of Her Majesty's Council, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Lordship was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Earl Fortescue and Viscount Palmerston, the two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod.

Earl Granville, kneeling near the Sovereign, Garter, on his knees, presented the Garter, and Her Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, and His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Lordship's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next, in like manner, presented the Ribband and George, and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over his Lordship's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition ; the Earl then again kissed Her Majesty's hand, and having received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, retired.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were presented to the Sovereign, when the Most Honourable Richard, Marquess of Westminster, was, by Her Majesty's command, declared duly elected, and his Lordship was introduced and invested with the Garter and the Ribband and George, with the like ceremonies.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by Her Majesty's command, again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual reverences.

A CHAPTER of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Brethren, in their Mantles and Collars, assembled in the Green Drawing-room, viz. :

(Lancaster Herald), Deputy to Sir John-Stewart Richardson, Baronet, Secretary of the Order, and Frederic-Peel Round, Esq., Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod.

At half-past three o'clock the Knights Brethren were called over by the Deputy Secretary, when (Her Majesty and His Royal Highness The Prince Consort having passed into the Chapter Room), they proceeded, with the Officers of the Order, into the presence of the Sovereign.

The Queen being seated in her Chair of State, and His Royal Highness The Prince Consort at the table on the right hand of Her Majesty, the Sovereign was pleased to command the other Knights Brethren to take their seats at the table, according to their seniority in the Order, the Officers of the Order standing at the bottom of the table.

The Sovereign was then pleased to signify Her royal pleasure touching the election of a Knight into the Order; whereupon the Knights Brethren proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Deputy Secretary (commencing with the Junior Knight), were by him, kneeling, presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to declare that the Right Honourable George-William-Fox, Lord Kinnaird, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.

Then, by command of the Sovereign, Lord Kinnaird was received at the door of the Chapter-room, by Lord Panmure and the Duke of Argyll, the two Junior Knights Brethren, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by the Deputy Secretary (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a velvet cushion), and by the Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod.

The Sword of State being thereupon delivered to the Sovereign, Lord Kinnaird kneeling near The Queen was knighted therewith; after which his Lordship had the honour to kiss Her Majesty's hand; Lord Kinnaird rising, the Oath was administered to his Lordship by the Deputy Secretary.

Lord Kinnaird, then again kneeling, and the Deputy Secretary on his knee, presenting to Her Majesty the Ribband and Jewel of the Order, The Queen, assisted by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, the Senior Knight was graciously pleased to place the same over his Lordship's left shoulder.

His Lordship, having again kissed the Sovereign's hand, and after receiving the congratulations of the Knights Brethren, retired.

NOTICE TO SHIP OWNERS AND MASTERS.

Formalities enjoined by the Turkish Authorities for Vessels passing through the Dardanelles.

The Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch and its inclosures from Lord Stratford de Redcliffe, calling attention to the disregard shewn by British Ship Masters to the regulations laid down by the Turkish authorities for all ships passing through the Dardanelles.

Shipowners and Masters are accordingly cautioned, that the facilities which were temporarily granted to Transports passing through the Dardanelles during the late War have been withdrawn, and that vessels are now required as formerly to stop at the Dardanelles for the purpose of completing the necessary formalities, and of delivering the Firmans granted to them at Constantinople.

Hitherto, upon the non-observance of these regulations, the Turkish authorities have been in the habit of firing blank cartridge to attract the attention of vessels passing by the forts; but as this lenient mode of proceeding has not had the desired effect, the Pacha in command has signified to Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople his determination no longer to tolerate such unwarrantable and manifestly wilful irregularities, and has ordered that (after allowing a reasonable time for the notification to masters of steam vessels and their agents at Constantinople of his intention) shotted guns shall be fired into any vessel attempting to evade the regulations in question.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order, in accordance with the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1855, that from and after the date of this present Order, the dues in respect of the lighthouse upon Cape Race, in the colony of Newfoundland, to be paid for every ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom, except ships belonging to Her Majesty, Her heirs, and successors, shall be one sixteenth of a penny per ton, of the burthen of every such ship, for every such voyage as aforesaid.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of June, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to approve and ratify the schemes duly prepared (as set forth in this Gazette) by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England—

PARLIAMENT.

The Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, in the room of Charles Neate, Esq., whose election has been declared void.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 22, 1857.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Acting Consul at Bangkok, transmitting the following copy of Regulations for the Custom House at that port :

On and after Monday next, the 27th day of April, a Custom House will be opened within the Dockyard of H. E. Soundel Oug Noi, (about 200 yards south of the new site for the British Consulate), where all business will be transacted in conformity with the general regulations under which trade is to be conducted at Siam.

The following additional rules have likewise been entered into by the undersigned, and the Siamese authorities :

1. Every English Merchant having cargo to load or discharge, must give due intimation thereof to the Custom House, where a pass, if for export cargo, will be granted on application for each lighter proceeding to deliver cargo at the Bar ; on arrival at Pateman this pass must be delivered to the chief authority there.

2. Both import and export duties must be paid at the Custom House ; and upon a vessel being ready to proceed to sea, the master or consignee, on application at the Custom House, will receive two certificates, the one for the payment of import the other of export duties. These being obtained the master will proceed to the British Consulate and deliver unto the Consul a true manifest of outward cargo, together with the certificates. The ship's papers will then be returned to the master and the vessel allowed to leave.

(Signed), W. R. GINGELL.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 22, 1857.*

The Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, information, communicated by Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, as to the continued imposition, in Spanish ports, of terms of quarantine on British vessels, although arriving with clean bills of health, and certificates from Spanish Consuls attesting that there is no epidemic disease whatsoever in the place of departure or its vicinity, but that the port is in communication with all the world.

As the Government of Spain, notwithstanding uniform remonstrance, firmly refuse to make any change in the system under which British shipping is thus subjected to detention and its consequences, the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade think it their duty, for the information and guidance of the owners of British vessels, to give publicity to the existence and enforcement of these vexatious regulations of the Spanish Boards of Health.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of, letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

And whereas by the said Act, powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post, of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage, is extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon and for other purposes relating to the Post-office," the provision fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the first-mentioned Act is repealed; and in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk or an inconvenient size being transmitted by the post, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any time or times thereafter, by Warrant under their hands to fix the maximum weight of letters to be sent by post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum of weight in lieu thereof. And it is provided that all letters shall be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered, by the post in conformity with any such Warrant, and also in conformity with, and under and subject to, all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations, and restrictions, as to the form, size, or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct. And by the said Act power is also given to the Postmaster-General to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letters sent by the post to be prepaid either in money or in stamps as he may think fit on the same being put into the Post-office. And also with such consent to abolish or restrict the prepayment in money of postage on letters sent by the post either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post, any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made. And it is also declared and enacted that in all cases in which the British postage chargeable on any letters sent by the post shall exceed the sum of one penny, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, reduce such postage to any other rate of postage they may from time to time think fit. And also that the Postmaster-General may, if he shall think fit (with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury) allow any printed words, writing, or marks (in addition to the direction) to be put on any printed newspapers or other printed papers sent by the post, or on the covers thereof; and that any such newspapers or other printed papers shall from thenceforth be forwarded either free of postage or subject to such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct; and it is also declared and enacted that the Postmaster-General and any officer of the Post-office may detain any letters which shall be posted or sent by the post, contrary to the regulations of that Act or the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to any regulations made under the authority of that Act, or of the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to the regulations of any Treasury Warrant to be issued under or by virtue of that Act, or which had been or should be issued under or by virtue of the first-mentioned Act, and open such letters, and either return them to the senders thereof, or forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from time to time direct.

And whereas the Postmaster-General hath with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have at various times since the passing of the said two before-mentioned Acts, and in pursuance and in exercise of the powers reserved to them thereby, by divers Warrants, under their hands, made and given certain orders, directions and regulations relating to the weight, size and dimensions, and to the rates of postage in conformity with and under, and subject to which certain printed papers and parliamentary proceedings therein respectively mentioned, were to be transmitted by the post, certain of which said Warrants, since the making thereof respectively, have been wholly, and others have been in part repealed and revoked. And it is expedient that certain other Warrants of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, made for the like purpose and now in force respectively, and bearing date respectively, the 22nd day of February, 1855, the 31st day of March, 1855 (which last-mentioned Warrant relates to the transmission of packets between the United Kingdom and the colony of Sierra Leone), the 12th day of January, 1856, the 12th day of May, 1856, the 15th day of August, 1856, the 8th day of December, 1856, and the 19th day of May, 1857, and the several orders, directions, regulations and rates of postage therein respectively mentioned and contained, should also be repealed and revoked, and that such other orders, directions, regulations and rates should be made and substituted in lieu thereof, as are hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare, as follows ;

1. The said several Warrants of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date, respectively, the 22nd day of February, 1855, the 31st day of March, 1855 (which last-mentioned Warrant relates to the transmission of packets between the United Kingdom and the colony of Sierra Leone), the 12th day of January, 1856, the 12th day of May, 1856, the 15th day of August, 1856, the 8th day of December, 1856, and the 19th day of May, 1857, and every of them, shall be, and the same are, hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled, respectively ; and that the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage in such several Warrants respectively made, mentioned, and set forth, shall wholly cease and determine ; nevertheless, no Treasury Warrant or part of a Treasury Warrant, repealed by the said several last-mentioned Treasury Warrants respectively, or either of them, shall be revived by this Warrant.

2. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the several places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule A, to this Warrant annexed ; and all packets consisting of books, publications), or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between the several colonies and places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule B to this Warrant annexed ; and that all such respective packets shall be so transmitted respectively, in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter respectively mentioned and contained, and that as respects certain of the said places in the said schedules respectively mentioned, such transmission may also be by the routes mentioned against such places in such schedules respectively; and that the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof, respectively, shall be that which is mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively, in the said Schedules A and B; and that all such respective packets so transmitted, shall be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say :

On every such packet so transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant as aforesaid, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for the transmission thereof respectively, as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage which is mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively, in the said Schedules A and B.

And on every such packet, exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say: on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight; and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

No such packet which in length, or breadth, or width, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post, under the provisions aforesaid.

No such packet, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales, addressed to the United Kingdom, exceeding the weight of three pounds, shall be forwarded by the post, under the provisions aforesaid.

The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," in this Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as, in their general character, are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions, as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvass, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass, or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering, of or upon, or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other thing usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong ; Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorise the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any patterns, or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever.

That every packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope, open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed or any other person), nor any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure, not authorised by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof.

Upon every packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, between the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule A., which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account ; and upon every such packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, between the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule A., which shall be posted in any of the colonies respectively mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule A., to this Warrant annexed, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted ; and upon every packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, between the several places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule B, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by the proper colonial postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

3. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post any officer of the Post-office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

4. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to extend to interfere with or in anywise to affect any privileges relating to the transmission by the post of printed newspapers or any printed publications which are allowed to pass by the post under the newspaper privilege ; nevertheless, any printed newspapers which are not authorised to be transmitted by the post under such privileges, may be transmitted by the post at the rates of postage, and under the regulations contained in this Warrant.

5. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales, addressed to the United Kingdom, shall exceed the weight of three pounds, or if any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, between the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule A, or if any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, between the several places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule B, shall in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any packet, or the cover or envelope of any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if there shall be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for, the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), every such respective packet, shall, and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, and such postage may be either paid by the sender or be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

6. If any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, between the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned and set forth in the said schedule A, or between the several places mentioned and set forth in the said schedule B shall contain any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such letter or communication or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post-office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case not only with the full rates of postage, as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

7. If any packet sent or tendered or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant respectively, between the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned and set forth in the said schedule A (any such packet sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted), shall be posted in the United Kingdom, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto and the postage to which such package would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; but if any such packet shall be posted in the United Kingdom having thereon, or affixed thereto, a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, or if any packet sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant respectively, between the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule A (any such packet sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted), shall be posted in the United Kingdom without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp; every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as is herein-before directed with respect to any packet not open at the ends or sides, or exceeding in length, or breadth, or width, the dimensions of two feet.

8. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant respectively, between the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned and set forth in the said Schedule A, shall be posted in any of the colonies respectively mentioned in the said Schedule A, and the postage paid thereon at the time of the same being posted, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions and conditions herein-before contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant, if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight ; every such packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight ; but if any such packet shall be posted in any of the colonies mentioned in the said schedule A, without any postage having been paid thereon or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, every such last mentioned packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination. And every such last mentioned packet, on being so returned given up or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, and such postage may be either paid by the sender or may be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

9. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant respectively, between the several places mentioned and set forth in the said schedule B shall be posted in any of the colonies respectively mentioned in the schedule B, and the postage paid thereon or postage stamps affixed thereto at the time of the same being posted, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight, every such packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, or postage stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; but if any such packet shall be posted in any of the colonies mentioned in the said schedule B, without any postage having been paid thereon, or any postage stamp affixed thereto, or with a postage paid thereon or postage stamp affixed thereto less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant, every such last-mentioned packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination, and every such last-mentioned packet, on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted. And such postage may be either paid by the sender or may be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

10. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any packet sent through France or any other foreign country to which a transit rate of postage would be payable thereon.

11. The Postmaster-General shall and may have and exercise the option of sending any packets hereby authorised to be sent by the post under the provisions aforesaid, either by packet-boat or by private ship at the same rate of postage as by packet-boat, when and as he shall think fit.

12. The respective packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

13. The term "by the post," used in this Warrant, or in any Schedule hereto annexed, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by any British or colonial packet-boat, and also by private ship when sent by the Postmaster-General, in accordance with the eleventh clause hereinbefore contained, and the option thereby given to the Postmaster-General; and that the term "East Indies," used in this Warrant, or in any Schedule hereto annexed, shall be construed to mean every port or place in Asia within the limits of the charter of the East India Company (China, Hong Kong, Ceylon, the Mauritius, Java, Borneo, and Australia excepted); and that the term "British West Indies," used in this Warrant, or in any schedule hereto, shall be construed to include the Bermudas, the Bahamas, and other British islands, called the West Indies, as also the colonies of British Guiana and Honduras, and their respective dependencies (the islands of Barbadoes, Trinidad, and Turks' Islands excepted); and that the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant, or in any schedule hereto annexed, shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

14. The Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury, may, by Warrant under their hands or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

15. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of October next.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY of AUGUST 1, 1857.

Admiralty, August 1, 1857.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, at a late hour last night, received Despatches from Rear-Admiral Sir Michael Seymour, of which the following are copies :

OPERATIONS IN CANTON RIVER.

No. 133.

Calcutta, at Hong Kong,

SIR,

June 10, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to report proceedings in the Canton River since my letter by the packet of 25th May.

2. The arrival of the Tribune and Amethyst having enabled me to reinforce Commodore Honourable C. G. J. B. Elliot, the senior officer in the river, that officer at once commenced offensive operations against the junk forces ; and on the 25th and 27th ultimo, he took the gun-boats and the boats of Her Majesty's ships under his orders, up the Escape Creek, against the fleet which has been so long stationed in its inner waters, where he had the good fortune to capture or destroy about forty Mandarin war-junks, in a manner which has called forth my entire approval. I beg to invite the attention of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to Commodore Elliot's enclosed report of his proceedings, and to the officers he has named for their conduct in the affair.

3. In my letter, No. 119, I signified my intention of proceeding up the Canton River. I accordingly embarked in the Coromandel steam tender, Lieutenant Sholto Douglas commanding, on the 29th May, and with the remaining gun-boats, and the boats of Her Majesty's ship Calcutta, under the command of Commander W. R. Rolland, arrived the same day at the second bar.

4. I was reluctantly under the necessity of depriving myself of the urgently proffered services of my Flag Captain, Wm. K. Hall, whose presence at Hong Kong has long, under trying circumstances, proved most beneficial to the colony.

5. Having now an adequate force at my disposal, I lost no time in taking the necessary steps for an attack on the war junks, which have been visible up the Fatsham Creek since 4th January last, when they made so determined and well arranged an attempt to recapture the Macao Fort and block up the channel. The enclosed copy of a General Memorandum to the squadron, and abstract statement (numbered 2 and 3) will shew my arrangements and the disposition and nature of the force selected for the purpose, which proceeded on the 31st May to the upper part of the river.

6. Just before daybreak on the 1st of June I advanced up the Fatsham Creek in the Coromandel, the Haughty following, having in both vessels detachments of seamen, under the command of Commodore the Honourable Charles Elliot, and of Royal Marines in charge of Captain Robert Boyle, R.M., and the other officers and boats attached to the First Division, in order to capture a fort with outworks, mounting 19 guns, on an advanced elevated point, which commanded the approach to the position occupied by the junk forces. The flight of several signal rockets showed that the Chinese were fully alive to our proceedings. When within about 1500 yards of the fort the Coromandel grounded on a barrier of sunken junks filled with stones, and the enemy opened fire. The landing party of seamen and marines were immediately put in the boats, and sent ahead, and under a very heavy fire of round and grape, in which the junk fleet joined, the fort was almost immediately in our possession, Commodore Elliot setting the good example of being one of the first in it. The landing was partially covered by the fire from the Haughty. One or two of the guns in the fort were immediately turned on the war junks. Happily this important service was effected without loss. The position was a remarkably strong one, and, defended by a body of resolute troops, might have bid defiance to any attack. The Haughty, having landed her party, went on with Commodore Elliot and the boats of the 1st Division, to co-operate with Commodore Keppel. I ordered a portion of the Royal Marines, under Lieutenant and Adjutant Burton, to remain as a garrison in the fort, and sent Captain Boyle, with the remainder, about 150 in number, to the scene of operations by land, to cut off the enemy retreating from the junks, and to prevent the advancing boats being annoyed by gingalls or matchlocks from a large village adjoining,—a favourite tactic with the Chinese. One half of this force was ultimately sent back to the fort, and the remainder rejoined the squadron up the creek.

7. As soon as Commodore the Honourable H. Keppel perceived the men of the 1st division ascending the heights, he advanced up the channel on the east side of Hyacinth Island, with the gun and other boats of the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th divisions, in the order stated in the programme. With the exception of the Haughty and Plover, the gun-boats soon grounded, but, agreeably with my instructions, the boats were pushed a-head. The junks which were admirably moored in position to enfilade the whole of the attacking force, soon opened a very heavy fire, keeping it up with great spirit until our boats were close alongside, when the crews commenced to abandon their vessels, and to effect their escape across the paddy fields. The blowing up of one or two junks hastened this movement. In about twenty minutes we had possession of fifty junks.

8. Leaving the 3rd and 4th divisions to secure the prizes, Commodore Keppel then proceeded about three miles further up the creek, where more mast-heads were visible, and found 20 junks moored across the stream in a very strong position, which opened such a well directed and destructive fire, that he was obliged to retire and wait for reinforcements. The launch of the Calcutta was sunk by a round shot, the Commodore's galley had three round shot through her, and several other boats were much injured. On additional boats coming up, the Commodore shifted to the Calcutta's black barge and again advanced, and after a severe action, the enemy gave way. They were pursued as far as Fatshan, a distance of seven miles, and seventeen of them captured and burnt. In consequence of my orders not to molest this large and important city, the three junks which passed through the creek on which it is built effected their escape.

9. The result of the expedition was the capture of between seventy and eighty heavily-armed junks, mounting, on an average, from ten to fourteen guns, (many of them long 32-pounders,) nearly all of European manufacture. As no object would have been gained by removing the prizes, I caused them, with a few exceptions, to be burnt; and the flames and numerous heavy explosions must have been seen and heard far and wide.

10. This engagement opens a new era in Chinese naval warfare. Great judgment was shewn in selecting the position for the fleet, and the Chinese, particularly the last division attacked by Commodore Keppel, defended their ships with skill, courage and effect. I enclose a list of casualties, which I regret to state is large, amounting to 3 officers and 10 seamen and marines killed, and 4 officers and 40 seamen and marines wounded, but it is to me a matter of surprise that under the circumstances of the case the loss was not greater.

11. I deeply regret to report the death of Major Kearney, Deputy-Assistant Quartermaster-General to the China Expeditionary force. This officer was on duty in the Canton River, and gallantly volunteered his services in the boats. He was killed by a round shot in the Fury's gig in the attack upon the upper division of junks.

12. I had the wounded collected as soon as possible, and sent them to Hong Kong the same evening, in charge of Dr. Anderson, Staff-Surgeon of the Calcutta.

13. The force remained at anchor on the night of the 1st June, in the position before occupied by the junk fleet, and on the following morning dropped down to the main river, towing five of the captured vessels, which were the only ones saved from the general conflagration.

14. In the execution of these important services I need hardly state that every captain, officer, and man did his duty, and where all have so distinguished themselves I refrain from making individual selections. Should their lordships, therefore, consider the two engagements as worthy of special marks of their approval, I would beg to suggest that due regard should be paid to seniority and services.

15. I must not, however, omit to bring to their lordship's notice the gallant and efficient assistance afforded me by Commodores Keppel and Elliot, and the captains in charge of the several divisions. Commodore Keppel led the attack on the junks, and the fact of his galley having had three round shot through it, and five men, out of her crew of six, killed or wounded, is the best proof of the manner in which he maintained his position.

Commodore Keppel's report of his proceedings is herewith enclosed, and I beg to add a tracing of the Fatsham Creek, showing the position of the Forts and of the junk forces, before the commencement of the attack.

I left the river on the afternoon of the 3rd, for the purpose of receiving the mails from England, and of waiting the arrival of Lord Elgin.

All is perfectly quiet to the northward. The squadron continues generally healthy, but latterly there has been a slight increase of fever and dysentery, which may be expected at this season of the year.

I have, &c.

M. SEYMOUR, Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-chief.

I beg to add that Mr. George Raymond, Master of the Encounter, at Macao, volunteered his ser-

OPERATIONS AGAINST MANDARIN JUNKS, &C., UP

Sybillie, 2nd Bar, Canton River,

SIR,

May 29, 1857.

I HAD the honour to report to you, yesterday, that Her Majesty's gun-boats, tenders, and ships' boats captured or destroyed about 40 mandarin junks (snake boats) on the 25th and 27th instant. I beg now to report the nature of the operations more in detail.

2. The fleet of junks which formerly remained near the main branch of the river, had moved to a position about five or six miles up the Escape Creek.

As it was very doubtful whether our small steamers could get up to them, it was necessary to have a sufficient boat force to follow up the creek, independent of gun-boat support. The arrangements I thought it necessary to make are chiefly embodied in a memorandum, of which I enclose a copy.

3. At daylight on the 25th, our force was in the creek, and soon afterwards a Mandarin fleet of about 40 junks was observed, moored in good order across the stream; the tide was a strong ebb, which rendered it less easy for the junks to escape, and although it made our progress slow, it enabled us the better to thread the way amongst the shoals.

4. A heavy fire from the junks opened upon the leading steamers as they approached, but at too great a distance to tell with effect. Shortly afterwards, as the Hong Kong got within good range, she opened fire, and was soon supported by the Bustard and Starling, the others being at distant range.

The fire from the junks then slackened, and they got under weigh, some were soon afterwards abandoned, and the rest plying their oars, endeavoured to escape up the creek.

5. The steamers followed, though very slowly, on account of the shoal water, the Sir Charles Forbes and Staunch grounded early, then the Starling, and eventually the Hong Kong ran ashore.

The signal was immediately made for the boats to go ahead, and a general chase took place.

The junk force divided, the main body of about 15 continuing up the main channel, were followed by the boats led by Captain Edgell, who detached four pinnaces up a creek to the left to follow the smaller division. Commander Forsyth accompanied these pinnaces, which succeeded in capturing them all (10 in number). Commander Forsyth speaks highly of the gallant way the Hornet's pinnace, under Mr. R. A. Brown, Acting Mate, dashed in unsupported by the other boats, which she had distanced, against 3 of these heavily armed junks, which struck to her.

6. The main body, followed by Captain Edgell were soon beyond range of all except the Hornet's rocket boat and Sybille's pinnace, which kept within reach of them for a long time; and Captain Edgell brings to my notice the behaviour and most accurate fire kept up by Lieutenant Brock in the former boat, and by Mr. Hudson, Acting Mate, in the latter. The chase was continued by this division, which I accompanied 12 or 14 miles, far above the place where the steamers had grounded, when the work for the men at the oars having been excessive, I decided to turn back, but with the view of getting at the junks, which we still had in sight, at a future time by another passage.

7. Near the point at which we turned at the village Tseen Tsune, we found the lorcha Anonyma, which was captured last December while in tow of the steamer Thistle, and burnt her.

8. On getting back to the gun-boats at night, I found that Commander Corbett, who had very properly remained with the Staunch on her grounding, the other Commanders having gone on, had sent the Inflexible's paddle-box boat after a junk that tried to escape down a creek to the right and captured her. Commander Forsyth had returned with his party, and Lieutenant Dent, assisted by the officers of the other gun-boats, had secured or destroyed all the prizes. The Chinese having returned to one of the junks below, she was captured by Mr. Molloy, Second Master, with the Starling and Hong Kong's boats. Lieutenant Dent brought to my notice the conduct of that officer.

9. In all 27 heavily-armed snake-boats (belonging to the Admiral Sonhay) were captured or destroyed. Their armament consisted of one heavy gun in the bow, generally a long 32 or 24-pounder, with from four to six lighter guns: each vessel pulls about 40 oars. This service was fortunately accomplished with the loss of two men only wounded. The day was excessively hot, and I cannot speak too highly of the spirit with which the men stuck to their oars, through a harder day's work than I have ever before witnessed under a tropical sun. One or two cases (but not severe) of sun stroke occurred in the gun-boats.

10. At daylight next morning the steamers proceeded down the creek with the boats and ten prizes in tow, and anchored with the Sybille, at the 2nd bar.

11. Further arrangements were now made to follow up the war boats that had got away. I had already the previous day stationed the Tribune off Sawshee Channel, and I now moored the Inflexible abreast of the 2nd bar creek, down which her guns could then range. From the knowledge I now possessed respecting the various creeks from Escape Creek downward, I considered it possible to guard all the outlets to the river, and with a force of boats to scour the inland creeks and compel any junks there, either to meet that force or retire towards the main river. The enclosed memorandum which was issued for the information of the officers engaged, shows the principal arrangements made to attain that object. Commander Forsyth, with his division, took up his station in Escape Creek in the evening.

12. At daylight on the 27th, I proceeded up the Sawshee Channel, as previously arranged, the boats being towed by the steamers for ten or twelve miles. I then sent the Bustard to strengthen Commander Forsyth's division, and desired Lieutenant Dent, in the Hong Kong, to take with him the Inflexible's pinnace, and go a short distance up the 2nd bar creek; he succeeded in passing completely through into Escape Creek, and met Commander Forsyth. Casting off from the steamer, the boats pulled up the Sawshee Channel, and we soon heard from the natives (who showed us every good feeling), that four of Sonhay's retreating squadron had, on the 25th, gone up Young Kōnan, and that there were other mandarin junks there. I beg here to mention the very great assistance I have received from Rev. Samuel Beal, Chaplain of this ship, who was good enough at my request to accompany me each day as Chinese Interpreter; to his aid the successes of the expedition are in a great degree due, as I had failed to obtain an Interpreter from Hong Kong.

13. About ten miles from where the steamers were left, we opened the city of Toung Kōnan, and observed the mastheads of the war junks. The boats now gave way with a will, and though the junks were in sight, fully two miles off, they succeeded in taking them completely by surprise. The boats, as they dashed in, firing into a small battery which commanded the river and into the war junks, caused them to be immediately abandoned. The junks lay scattered along the whole length of the town, through which the river runs, and preparations were now made to destroy them, with the exception of one, the finest and heaviest armed war junk I have seen in China, and which I hoped to be able to take away.

14. It soon became apparent that the Chinese troops were not going quietly to submit to this proceeding without further resistance, and the creek being narrow, with houses on either side, they had every facility to pick off our men. As we first passed up only a few gingalls and matchlocks opened, these increasing in number presently gave considerable annoyance, and it was necessary to keep up a continued fire with some of the boats' guns, from musketry, and from the 'Tribune's' rocket-boat, which did good service, while other parties were employed destroying the junks, which occupied some time, as it was necessary to burn those at the upper end of the town first, and so on in succession, to enable our boats to get back.

15. The chief attacks from the shore took place towards our rear, at the battery at the lower end of the town, where most of the casualties occurred.

Commander Turnour was there most active and useful, and on two occasions landed in a very gallant manner with small parties of marines, under Lieutenant G. L. Blake, R.M., charged some 200 men, well armed, and drove them beyond the embankments.

16. An attempt was made to tow down the fine war junk already noticed, but she accidentally caught fire, and was, therefore, destroyed with the others. That being accomplished the boats returned down the creek.

17. This again was a severe day's work, officers and men behaved admirably and with the greatest spirit. I beg to report to you the able assistance I received from Captain Edgell, and from Commanders Forsyth, Corbett, and Turnour, during the two days' operations. Their zeal and activity the last day (as before) were emulated by the officers of all ranks under them, from Lieutenant Nares, the Senior Lieutenant, to the Junior Cadet.

18. Captain Edgell brings to my notice the active share taken by Lieutenant Staniforth, in the Tribune's barge; and the services of Mr. Hudson, Acting Mate of this ship, I beg particularly to notice.

Lieutenant Richard Cox, of the 38th Regiment Madras Rifles, accompanied the expedition each day as a volunteer, and made himself very useful.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed)

GENERAL MEMORANDUM.

IT being my intention to take the gun-boats and ships' boats into Escape Creek to-morrow morning at dawn of day, to endeavour to get at the war boats lying there, the following arrangements are to be attended to :

1. The Hornet is to move down the river and anchor below Escape Creek, where I wish her to arrive by half-past three, A.M. (if the Hornet comes down before that time, she is to anchor lower down the river, but above the 2nd bar), her boats manned and armed, and provisioned for two days, under Commander Forsyth, are then (at half-past three, A.M.) to go to the Starling.

2. The Starling is to accompany the Hornet, and is to tow down the Sybille's barge, and the Niger's pinnace (if available) to where the Hornet anchors, and on meeting the Hong Kong there, the Sybille's barge is to go to her.

3. All the boats to be employed are to be provisioned for two days.

4. The Hong Kong is to tow the Sybille's boats.

The Bustard is to tow the Tribune's boats.

The Sir Charles Forbes is to tow the Raleigh's boats.

The Staunch is to tow the Inflexible's boats.

The Starling is to tow the Hornet and Fury's boats.

5. The order of sailing is as follows:

FIRST DIVISION.

Hong Kong, Starling, Bustard,
The boats of which are under the orders of Commander Forsyth.

SECOND DIVISION.

Sir Charles Forbes, Staunch,
The boats of which are under the orders of Commander Corbett.

The whole under the orders of Captain Edgell.

6. The gun-boats are to follow the Hong Kong in very open order to avoid confusion in the event of the water shoaling or a vessel getting aground, and to give time in such cases for those ahead to find the proper channel.

7. It must be recollected that the steam tenders have only Wilmot's signals, which code will be used.

8. In the event of the gun-boats getting within range of the junks, firing is not to commence generally, even if the leading vessel opens, till the signal (No. 3) is made or permission be otherwise obtained, and then great steadiness of fire must be observed, care being taken that neither shells nor rockets are fired unless all our boats and vessels are very wide of the line of fire.

9. Letter R being hoisted is the signal for the boats to shove off, and pull past the leading steamers.

10. Commander Turnour is to keep with the sternmost boats, to see that proper assistance is given to any boat that grounds or gets into difficulty, and that any heavy pulling boats, which cannot keep up, are taken in tow by the lighter ones.

11. The Commander of each gun-boat will have a copy of the plan of the entrance to Escape Creek, in order to avoid the shoals there.

12. The boats are to be alongside their respective gun-boats, ready for towing, at half past two, A.M. The gun-boats are then to be ready to weigh, and are to follow the Hong Kong.

13. The officers are to take care, and are to caution their men, that unarmed Chinese are in no way to be molested, and that, afloat or on shore, private property is not unnecessarily injured.

Majesty's ships and vessels pre-

GENERAL MEMORANDUM.

WITH the view of getting at the war boats that escaped yesterday, the following arrangements are to be attended to.

The second division to be under the orders of Commander Forsyth.

The Hornet is to anchor off Escape Creek.

The Sir Charles Forbes and Bustard, with the launches of the Raleigh and Sybillic, and the Hornet's boats, are this evening to take up a position off the lower lime-kilns, about three miles up Escape Creek, in order to prevent the war junks escaping to Canton by the small creeks leading up towards Whampoa. The first division to be under the orders of Captain Edgell.

The remainder of the gun-boats, steam tenders, and ship boats, with the exception of the Inflexible's pinnace, are to be ready to proceed down the river at 5 P.M. to day, to join the Tribune off Sawshee Channel, up which it is my intention to go to-morrow morning. Commanders Corbett and Turnour will command respectively the van and rear of this division under Captain Edgell.

On account of the delay and inconvenience that may be caused by any boats separating from the others, I look upon it to be an important part of the duty of the officer stationed in the rear, to see that all the boats are up with him.

The boats are to take two days' provisions with them.

and Senior Officer in the Canton River.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR ATTACK ON WAR JUNKS IN FATSHAM CREEK.

Coromandel, at Macao Barrier, 31st May, 1857.

GENERAL ORDER.

HAVING determined on attacking the junk fleet above Hyacinth Island, in the Fatsham Creek, the following arrangements are made known for the guidance of the Commodores, Captains, and other officers to be employed in that operation.

The whole of the ships' boats, manned and armed, are to be ready at 3.30 o'clock on Monday morning the 1st June, the crews having previously breakfasted and been victualled for two days, according to memorandum already issued. Particular attention is called to the division of the forces as hereafter enumerated. The gun-boats and boats will advance in the order in which they stand, in such full open order as will prevent crowding or the possibility of accident.

The movement will commence by the Hornet,* Cruiser,* and Coromandel, moving up to a berth as close to Hyacinth Island as depth of water will permit, convenient for landing the Seamen and Royal Marines told off for the attack on the fort and guns in position for the defence of the junks; but the general advance of the gun and other boats is not to be impeded by the possibility of the two first named ships not being able to get into their positions.

When the forts and outworks are taken possession of, they are to be held, if desirable, and the officer commanding will determine either to advance by land or to re-embark in the boats, to unite with the other divisional attacks on the junk forces. The Commander-in-Chief objects to long range firing, and in the advance, the return to the Chinese fire is to be regulated by the officer commanding the leading division. The all important object is to reach the junks through narrow and shallow water, requiring attention to navigation, which should not be diverted by a too hasty discharge of guns. The Niger is to provide a second guns' crew to the Plover, and the Fury to the Bustard.

It is to be understood that if any impediments exist to the steam gun-boats' progress up the creek, which cannot be overcome, it is not to delay the prompt advance of the row-boats. All casualties for hospital treatment, are ultimately to be conveyed to the Inflexible, for conveyance to Hong Kong.

The Commander-in-Chief impresses on the officers the necessity of restraining their men from attacking unarmed people, confining operations against the war junks and troops, and they are strictly to respect and protect the persons and property of the peaceable inhabitants.

CAPTURE OF JUNK FORCES IN THE FATSHAM CREEK.

SIR, Canton River, June 2, 1857.

IN accordance with your Excellency's previous arrangements for the capture and destruction of the Mandarin junks at anchor in the Fatsham and adjacent branches of the Canton River, I have the honour to inform you that yesterday morning as soon as I perceived the first division ascending the heights for the Capture fort commanding the approaches to the enemy's position, I advanced in the Hong Kong steamer with the second, third and fourth divisions which you were pleased to place under my command.

2. The Hong-Kong having grounded shortly afterwards, we advanced with the boats, reserving our fire until within 600 yards of the enemy, when a sharp and spirited engagement ensued, the enemy continuing their fire until our men were close alongside.

3. Leaving the Third and Fourth Divisions to secure the prizes, we pushed forward up the Fatsham Branch, in which direction I shortly afterwards observed the mast heads of other war junks.

4. On approaching a bend of the river near the village of Foutchin, about three miles in advance of the position in which the enemy were first attacked, we came to a small flat island off the southern side of which several of the boom boats grounded, the deeper but more circuitous and confined channel we found was to the northward.

5. There were now in advance, Calcutta's barge, the Raleigh's 2nd cutter and pinnace, Fury's 1st gig, Hornet's rocket cutter, Sybille's launch, and Calcutta's black pinnace, with others close at hand, the tide was flowing, and before the boats mounting guns could be brought to the front, we were carried to within 800 yards of the enemy who were found to consist of twenty vessels anchored in close and compact line, presenting a front of heavy guns that could not have been more regularly placed had they formed the broadside of one long frigate, and their fire was so well directed that I found it necessary to retire, and endeavour to reform with the additional assistance of the steam gun-boats, at that time trying to get up, but detained by the shoalness of the water.

6. The Hong Kong having floated shortly after my reaching her, and she being within range of the enemy, I would have proceeded in her, but on her again grounding and on my observing the near approach of the increase to our force, which your Excellency had hurried on to the front from less important service, we again advanced with the boats, and after a second sharp engagement of a quarter of an hour's duration, the enemy slipped from their anchors and proceeded up the river, making use of their oars, and when the course of the river allowed them to do so, of their sails likewise.

7. A running engagement and exciting chase for about seven miles, led by Captain the Honourable A. Cochrane, now took place, the enemy quitting their vessels as they became disabled or leaky from the effects of our shot. Twelve of them were come up with in this manner; eight reached the extensive and populous town of Fatsham, three of which got in and escaped, as we could not follow and capture them without damaging the town (which is not fortified), or by otherwise annoying the peaceable inhabitants, contrary to your Excellency's instructions.

8. The other five junks we secured at the entrance to Fatsham, and have brought them down as prizes ; the twelve taken on the way up have been burnt ; each of these vessels mounted from ten to fourteen guns, the bow and stern being long 32-pounders.

9. With so large a force, I have not commented on the individual zeal or gallantry of any particular officer ; there was plenty to do for the whole of them, and your Excellency is the best judge of how they performed their duty. I have contented myself with enclosing a list of the steam, gun, boom, and other boats, with the names of the officers who commanded or served in them, and I might venture to remark that, with such material, failure would almost appear to be impossible.

10. I have not had an opportunity of ascertaining the amount of injury sustained by all the steam, gun, and other boats of my divisions, but the Hong Kong was hulled eleven or twelve times, the Plover, Starling, and Haughty gun-boats were struck, the Calcutta's launch was swamped, and several others much damaged.

11. I have the honour to enclose a list of casualties which, fortunately, is not so large as might have been expected from the nature of the service.

12. I have also endeavoured by a rough sketch to explain the position of the second division of the enemy at the time we met with our temporary check.

I have, &c.

(Signed) HENRY KEPPEL,

Commodore.

To His Excellency Rear-Admiral Sir

Michael Seymour, &c., &c., &c.,

*Fort William, Foreign Department,
June 18, 1857.*

No. 139.

Authentic intelligence having been received that the Ratifications of the Treaty, which was signed at Paris by the Plenipotentiaries of England and Persia on the 4th March last, were exchanged at Baghdad on the 2nd of May, the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that a Royal Salute shall be fired from the Ramparts of Fort William, as well as at every principal Station of the Army, in honor of the Peace which has been concluded.

No. 140.

The Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council has had the satisfaction of announcing, from time to time, the signal successes which have been achieved by the combined action of the Military and Naval Forces, under the direction of Lieutenant-General Sir James Outram, K.C.B., on the coasts and in the interior of Persia.

The surrender of Bushire on the 10th of December, after a brief and ineffectual opposition ; the operations against the Persian entrenched camp at Borazgoon ; and the complete victory obtained over the Persian Army at Khooshab on the 8th of February ; the bombardment and capture of Mo-hamreh on the 26th of March ; and the brilliant attack, by a few hundred men, against Ahwaz, on the 1st of April, followed by the precipitate flight of the whole Persian Army serving in that quarter, have signally instanced the vigor, the enterprising spirit, and the intrepidity with which the operations against Persia, both by sea and land, have been directed, and have earned for those who had a share in their execution the cordial approbation and the thanks of the Government of India.

The Governor General in Council has now the gratification of announcing that the Ratifications of the Treaty, which was signed at Paris by the Plenipotentiaries of England and Persia on the 4th of March last, were exchanged at Baghdad on the 2nd of May ; and the entire withdrawal of the British Forces from the soil and the waters of Persia awaits only the fulfilment of the conditions of Peace, which were accepted by the Plenipotentiary of Persia on her behalf.

The Peace which has been thus concluded accomplishes the principal objects of the War, without needless humiliation to Persia, and places the relations of the British Government with that country, both political and commercial, on an improved footing. Though the negotiations by which this result has been obtained, were conducted in Europe, their rapid and unchecked progress, and their early completion must be ascribed, in no small degree, to the vigorous operations and the successful achievements of the Persian Expeditionary Force.

The brilliant reputation of Lieutenant-General

Sir James Outram, K.C.B., has acquired additional lustre from the promptitude, the vigorous energy and ability with which he has exercised the command entrusted to him; and the Governor-General in Council desires to record his high sense of the important services rendered by this distinguished officer.

The Governor-General in Council deeply laments that Major-General Stalker, C.B., should not have lived to witness the successful completion of the War, in the commencement of which he took so prominent and conspicuous a part.

His Lordship in Council cordially appreciates the zealous and active exertions of Brigadier-General Havelock, C.B., and commends the order and despatch with which the troops were landed and formed at Mohamreh under his direction.

To Brigadier Honner, who shared with his Brigade in the attack on Bushire, and in the operations against Borazgoon; to Brigadier Wilson, K.H., who commanded the 1st Brigade of Infantry at Borazgoon and Mohamreh; to Brigadiers Hamilton and Hale, who were present with their brigades in the advance upon Mohamreh; and to Brigadier Stuart, who was at the head of the Cavalry of the 2nd Division on the same occasion; to Lieutenant-Colonel Shephard, who succeeded to the command of the 1st Infantry Brigade on the lamented death of Brigadier Stopford; to Colonel Stisted, who led the 1st Brigade, 2nd Division, in the march on Borazgoon and the victory of Khooshab; to Lieutenant-Colonel Tapp, who commanded the Cavalry Brigade on the same occasion as well as at Bushire; and to Lieutenant-Colonel Trevelyan, Commanding Artillery, who took a part in every operation of the troops, except that against Ahwaz; to all these, whose valuable services have been gratefully acknowledged by the late Major-General Stalker, C.B., and Lieutenant-General Sir James Outram, K.C.B., the Governor-General in Council begs to offer his warmest thanks and the assurance of his heartfelt approbation.

The late Major-General Stalker, and Lieutenant-General Sir James Outram, K.C.B., have expressed their obligations to the Officers Commanding Regiments and Batteries of Artillery on the several occasions which called for their exertions, and the Governor-General in Council has great satisfaction in publicly tendering his best thanks to Major Stirling, of H. M.'s 64th Foot ; to Major McIntyre, who took command of H. M.'s 78th Highlanders during the expedition to Borazgoon ; to Lieutenant-Colonel J. S. Ramsay, of the 2nd Bombay European Light Infantry ; to Major Manson, of the 4th Bombay Rifles ; to Lieutenant-Colonel Shepheard, and Captain Macleod, of the 20th ; Major Travers, of the 23rd ; and Colonel Macan and Captain Bowdich, of the 26th Bombay Native Infantry ; to Captain L. Stephen Hough, of the 2nd Belooch Battalion ; to Major Blake, Captain Hatch, Captain Gibbard, and Captain Aitkin, commanding—the first, a Troop of Horse Artillery, and the others, Light Field Batteries ; to Captain Dickinson, of the Sappers and Miners ; and to Captain Forbes, of the 3rd Bombay Light Cavalry, whose gallantry on the field of Khooshab was conspicuous.

The Governor-General in Council cordially unites with the late Major-General and the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Expeditionary Force in expressing his marked acknowledgments of the ever-ready and efficient assistance afforded by Colonel Lugard, C.B., H. M.'s 29th Foot, the Chief of the Staff, and the several Officers composing the General Staff.* To Captain Malcolm Green, Military Secretary, Lieutenant Sykes, and Captain Hervey, A.D.C., Captain Arthur, Persian Interpreter, and Major Taylor, transferred from the Persian Mission in the capacity of Political Secretary, as well as to Lieutenant-Colonel Lord Dunkellin, detached from the Staff of the Governor-General, who volunteered his aid on the Personal Staff of Lieutenant-General Sir James Outram, K.C.B.; to Captain Hunter, who served as A.D.C. to the late Major-General Stalker on the attack on Bushire; and to Mr. Johnstone, of the Indian Navy, to whose knowledge of the country and unwearied zeal the late Major-General was much indebted, the Governor-General in Council begs to offer the expression of his approbation.

The valuable assistance afforded on every occasion of difficulty and danger, and especially in the brilliant expedition against Ahwaz, by Captain Kemball, Political Agent in Turkish Arabia and Consul-General at Baghdad, has been highly commended by Lieutenant-General Sir James Outram, K.C.B., and merits the unqualified approbation and the hearty thanks of the Governor-General in Council, no less than does the gallantry of Captain Hunt, Her Majesty's 78th Highlanders, and of the other Military* Officers who accompanied the expedition in question.

The Indian Navy has taken a conspicuous part in the operations which have now been brought to a termination, and the Governor-General in Council must not omit to put on record the high sense which he entertains of its most valuable and important services.

To Rear-Admiral Sir H. Leeke, K.H., Royal Navy, the Governor-General in Council begs again to offer his sincere acknowledgments for the promptitude and energy with which he gave his assistance in landing the troops at Hallila Bay, and in attacking the fortifications of Bushire. To Captain Griffith Jenkins, Captain of the Fleet, to Acting Commander Adams, of the Assaye and Lieutenant Clarkson, of the same vessel, to Captain Young, Commanders Rennie and Macdonald, and Acting Commander Foulerton, much praise is due for their gallantry on the same occasion.

The Governor-General in Council, however, desires specially to record his admiration both of the skill and energy displayed by Acting Commodore Young, I. N. (upon whom the command of the Gulf Squadron devolved on the lamented death of Commodore Ethersey), in the conduct of the difficult naval operations against Mohamreh, and of the signal success with which they were crowned.

* Captain Wray, Deputy Quartermaster-General.

Captain Green, Military Secretary.

Lieutenant Baigrie, Commissariat Department.

The Governor-General in Council has further remarked, with the highest gratification, the distinguished conduct of Commander J. Rennie, who, since the departure of Captain Young, has most efficiently commanded the Naval Forces in the Persian Gulf. In the enterprising advance upon Ahwaz, the signal success obtained was due, in a very large measure, to the judgment and resolute gallantry of this able Officer.

The acknowledgments of the Government are also due to Commander Selby, of the Semiramis; Commander Grieve, of the Clive; Acting Commander Manners of the Victoria; and to Lieutenants Commanding Tronson, of the Falkland; and Wersley, of the Ajdaha, who contributed largely to the success of the day : and the special thanks of the Government are claimed for Commander Adams, for the efficient manner in which he seconded the attack on the Northern Forts at Mohamreh.

Finally, the Governor-General in Council wishes to offer his hearty thanks to all the officers and non-commissioned officers, of whatever designation, and to all the soldiers and sailors of the Force, for the bravery, the endurance, and good conduct which they have displayed during the several operations in which they have been engaged.

It will afford the highest gratification to the Governor-General in Council to recommend the arduous and successful services of the Military and Naval Forces on the coasts, and in the interior of Persia, to the most favourable consideration of the Honorable Court of Directors and Her Majesty's Government.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of the Provisional Police Regulations for the Port of Sulina, established by the European Commission for Improving the Navigation of the Danube, of which the following is a translation :—

ART. 1.—Merchant vessels entering the Port of Sulina, whether entering from the sea or descending the river, are bound to follow strictly the orders of the Captain of the Port or his officers, in all that relates to the service of the port and the police of the navigation.

ART. 2.—A guard-boat will be stationed at each of the entrances to the port, one at the sea-side the other at the river entrance. These boats will show to captains entering the port where they should cast anchor.

ART. 3.—The Port of Sulina will be divided into five transverse sections, numbered from 1 to 5, commencing from the side next the sea, which will be distinguished by posts of different colours on each side of the river.

The 1st section will be reserved for vessels of war, transports in the service of the European Commission, and steam-vessels.

The 2nd for merchant vessels, which after having discharged are ready for sea, and for lighters into which the vessels have discharged a part of their cargo.

3rd, for vessels which have yet to discharge a part of their cargo.

4th, for vessels going to depart, but which only await a favourable wind.

5th, for emptying lighters,—which are strictly forbidden to approach those which are loaded. The space between the 1st section and the lighthouse must always remain quite clear, except in case of necessity.

ART. 4.—Any captain who disobeys the rules of the preceding article in casting anchor in a forbidden spot, and who, on a summons from either of the guard-ships, does not immediately return to the anchorage which has been assigned to him, will be liable to a fine of from 15 to 25 ducats, as fixed by Article 19 below.

ART. 5.—Also after taking position at the anchorage, every captain of a sailing-vessel or his second in command, is bound to go to the Captain of the Port to present his bill of health and other papers.

Of the vessels remaining less than 24 hours at Sulina, these papers will be at once returned to the captain after being viséed, otherwise they will remain at the office of the Captain of the Port.

ART. 6.—Every captain must pay the dues at once to the Captain of the Port on receipt of acknowledgment.

A receipt signed by the Captain of the Port must be produced for all payments, or they will be considered void.

ART. 7.—Vessels after anchoring must be moored by ropes to posts placed along the banks of the river for the purpose, or to vessels already moored.

ART. 8.—After the regulations of the preceding article have been fulfilled, vessels must draw in their jibbooms (batons de foc) and their booms (bouts dehors) to which boats must in no case be fastened.

Whilst vessels are anchored the yards must be braced fore and aft (de l'avant à l'arrière).

ART. 9.—The Port Captain will fix, as soon as possible, in the first of the five sections mentioned in Article 3 permanent moorings and landing places for steamers making periodical voyages.

ART. 10.—No vessel must enter or leave the port of Sulina without hoisting its national flag ; the authorities will not allow any ship to enter or leave without displaying a flag.

ART. 11.—The Port Captain will regulate the movement of vessels as follows, for entering and clearing on certain days (jours de Bogas).

1. No vessel can raise anchor nor quit its moorings before the signal for departure has been given, by means of a ball hoisted on a staff on the top of a lighthouse.
2. Vessels must leave the port one after another in proper turn, the guardship No. 1 will watch the movement and prevent the departure of any vessel which does not present the receipt of the Port Captain for the port dues.
3. The Chief Pilot will remain at the bar to direct vessels crossing it and to prevent difficulties and collisions.

ART. 12.—Small coasting vessels, as well as lighters, will be placed under strict surveillance of the Port Captain, who will prevent their moving about during the night, i.e., between the evening and morning gun.

No goods can be moved from shore or ship during the night unless a bright light is carried.

ART. 13.—It is forbidden to heat tar or pitch on board ships within the port or do anything which might cause a fire.

ART. 14.—There must be no fire kept up on board ship after gun fire in the evening ; captains will see that no lights are used on board except glass lamps or lanterns.

ART. 15. - In case of fire on board the captains of all vessels at anchor must send a party from their vessel to help save the ship and cargo in danger.

Sailors not ordered for this duty must remain on board their ship.

ART. 16.—Repairs can only be done in the places specially set aside for the purpose.

The Port Captain will see that these works of repair offer no obstacles to free navigation.

ART. 17.—Sailors are to return aboard ship after gun-fire in the evening.

ART. 18.—In conformity with Article 14 of the provisional regulations which were made by the European Commission on the 28th February, 1857, the Port Captain will decide summarily on all disputes between captains and their crews, with the assistance of two captains of the nation of the disputants, or in their absence, of two other captains.

He will not, however, exercise this part of his functions unless one of the interested parties shall have demanded his intervention, and no other competent authority is to be found on the spot.

ART. 19.—Every infraction of the rules in Articles 7, 8, 10, 12, and 14, will be punished with a fine of 1 to 5 ducats, which will be doubled in case of opposition. For breaking the rules of Articles 2, 3, 11, and 13, fines will be levied of 15 to 25 ducats, which will also be doubled in case of resistance.

In case of the refusal of the captain who has transgressed to pay the fine demanded, the Port Captain will seize the ship, and immediately apply to the proper authority to enforce payment.

ART. 20.—The Port Captain will decide how the fines which are levied for breach of these regulations shall be disposed of.

In case of an appeal against the Port Captain's decisions, the amount of fine shall be placed in the hands of the authorities to whom the defendant has paid the fine, until the case has been heard.

ART. 21.—The owners and masters of vessels shall be held personally responsible for the actions of their crew.

ART. 22.—In cases where his own and his agents' force is insufficient to carry out their orders, the Port Captain may apply for assistance to the vessels of war on the station, who will afford their aid within the limits of their instructions.

ART. 23.—The present regulations shall come into force as soon as publication shall have been made by hand bills to the Port Captains of Sulina and the ports of Galatz and Braila. The text shall be communicated, with translations in English, Italian, German, and Greek, to the consular authorities at Constantinople, Galatz, Braila, and Toultscha, to the local authorities of the three last named places, to the authorities of Ismail and Reni, and to the commanders of vessels of war summoned in virtue of Art. 19 of the Treaty of Paris, to superintend the execution of the regulations for the navigation of the mouths of the Danube.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at St. Petersburg, enclosing a circular which has been addressed to him by the Minister for Foreign Affairs, calling attention to certain regulations which have been laid down for vessels navigating the River Neva, of which the following is a translation:—

In the course of this navigation many captains of merchant-vessels of great draught of water, enter the channel of the Neva in spite of injunctions from the authorities of the Ports of St. Petersburg and Cronstadt, and often venture into the channel without a pilot, and there run aground and stop the passage of other vessels.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the undermentioned

In the Great Synagogue Jewish Burial-ground, in the parish of St. Matthew, BETHNAL GREEN, from the first of August to the first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ; in the parish churchyard of CHOBHAM, Surrey, from the first of September next, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ; in Christ Church Burial-ground, Every-street, Ancoats, in MANCHESTER, from the first of September next to the first of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, on condition that all the regulations prescribed by certain Orders in Council of the seventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and twenty-second of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in reference to this burial-ground, be strictly observed ; in the churchyard of the parish of SARRATT, Herts, from the first of August to the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ; in the churchyard of Saint Gregory, SUDBURY, from the thirty-first of March to the first of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, so far as relates to the new portion of the same ; in the parish churchyard, in the burial-ground of the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, and in Brook-street Burial-ground, TOTTENHAM, from the first of September next to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ; in the parish churchyard of TWEEDMOUTH, from the first of September next to the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ; in the New Synagogue Jewish Burial-ground, in the parish of St. Mary, WHITECHAPEL, from

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, interments were directed to be wholly discontinued, except in then existing private vaults and graves, in the churchyard of St. Mark Woodhouse, in LEEDS, and certain regulations were made in respect of interments in such private vaults and graves, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order in lieu thereof, and it is hereby ordered, that interment in the said churchyard be discontinued except so far as is compatible with the following regulations, viz.: that there be no burial within sixteen feet of the church wall; that one body only be buried in any grave, and that no grave or vault previously buried in be re-opened except to bury another member of the same family; that every coffin buried in a vault or walled grave be imbedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner; that no coffin in an earthen grave be buried within a foot of any other coffin, or less than four feet beneath the level of the ground; and that no remains be exposed in opening or forming any grave or vault.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the eighth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed wholly to cease in the churchyard of All Saints Chorlton, in MANCHESTER, from and after the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order in lieu thereof, and it is hereby ordered, that in the said churchyard interment be discontinued on and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; and that in the meantime no coffin be buried therein within a foot of any other coffin, or less than four and a half feet below the surface of the soil, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be imbedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner, and except in now existing private graves.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the fourth of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyard of OLD SWINFORD, with certain exceptions so far as regarded vaults and brick graves, and also except (as respected part of the churchyard) in other graves so far as was compatible with the observance of certain regulations therein set forth, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that one foot in thickness of earth be left above a previously interred coffin, and between new and old graves, in the new part of the said churchyard, instead of half a yard, as directed by the said Order in Council.

ORDINANCE framed by the COMMISSIONERS appointed for the Purposes of the STATUTE 17th and 18th Vict., c. 81, in relation to WINCHESTER COLLEGE.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further Provision for the good Government and Extension of the University of Oxford, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of Saint Mary Winchester," ordain as follows in relation 1857.

to the College of Saint Mary of Winchester, near Winchester, otherwise and hereinafter called Winchester College:—

1. No person shall be incapable of being elected or appointed Warden of the said College by reason of his not being or not having been a Fellow thereof, or a Fellow of the College of Saint Mary of Winchester, in the University of Oxford, otherwise and hereinafter called New College. No person shall be capable of being elected or appointed who shall not be a Priest of the United Church of England and Ireland, and either a Graduate in Theology or Law, or a Master of Arts. The electors shall choose, and in case of lapse the Bishop of Winchester for the time being shall appoint the person (being otherwise duly qualified according to the Statutes of the College in force for the time being), who in their or his judgment, as the case may be, shall be most fit for the government of the College as a place of religion, learning, and education.

2. The Warden shall be required to reside in the College eight calendar months at least in each year: Provided, that in case of the Warden's sickness or for any other urgent cause, it shall be lawful for the Visitor to dispense with the Warden's residence for such a period as may seem to the Visitor to be required by the necessities of the case. This regulation shall take effect in lieu of the provisions of the existing Statutes relating to the residence of the Warden.

3. The Warden and Fellows may at any time hereafter, if they shall think fit, commute the emoluments of the Wardenship, wholly or partially, for a stipend or annual sum of money payable in any other manner out of the revenues of the College, or for a certain proportion of the said revenues; and may fix the time at which such commutation shall take effect, and may also from time to time regulate, increase, or diminish the Warden's emoluments, whether commuted or uncommuted, as they shall think proper: Provided, that no exercise of this power shall affect the person then being Warden without his consent: Provided also, that the Visitor, upon the petition of the Warden or of any one or more of the Fellows, may disallow any such commutation, regulation, increase, or diminution, if he shall think fit.

4. If at any time it shall appear that the Warden has become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Sub-Warden shall, upon the request of any two or more Fellows, convene a meeting of the Fellows, after notice sent to such of them as may be within the United Kingdom, for the consideration of the matter; and it shall be lawful for a majority of the Fellows present at such meeting to present a petition to the Visitor, setting forth the circumstances of the case, and praying the Visitor to inquire into the truth of them; and the Visitor shall institute such inquiry accordingly. And if upon such inquiry, or upon a petition presented by the Warden (as the case may be), it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Visitor that the Warden has become permanently incapable of performing his duties, then the Visitor shall nominate one of such two Fellows as, by the vote of the greatest number of the Fellows present at a meeting convened by the Sub-Warden, shall be presented to him, to be Pro-Warden of the College, and shall assign to him for his maintenance, in addition to his Fellowship, so much (not exceeding one-third) of the Warden's emoluments as the Visitor shall think fit; provided that the Warden shall be at liberty to retain his lodgings. And such Pro-Warden shall, so long as the Warden shall retain his office and be incapable of performing its duties, receive the proportion so assigned to him, and shall exercise and perform all the functions and duties and have all the powers and authorities of Warden except the power of consenting to any commutation, regulation, or diminution of the Warden's emoluments, and shall be bound to residence in the same manner, and shall be liable to deprivation for the same causes, and in the same manner. If any Pro-Warden shall die, resign his office, vacate or be deprived of his Fellowship, or become incapable, the Visitor shall appoint a new Pro-Warden in the same manner. It shall be lawful for the Visitor, if at any time he shall be satisfied that the Warden's incapacity has ceased, and that he is capable of performing the duties of his office, to reinstate him in his powers and functions, and in the receipt of his whole emoluments.

5. In elections to Fellowships within the College, the electors shall (subject to the provisions in that behalf of the Statutes in force for the time being) choose that person who shall appear to them to be of the greatest merit, and most fit to be a Fellow of the College as a place of religion, learning, and education. The preference given by the existing Statutes to those who are or have been Fellows of New College shall be extended alike to the Master, Usher, and Assistant Masters of the School of Winchester College for the time being, and to those who shall have held any of the said offices, and to those who shall have been educated for two years at the said School. No person shall be entitled to preference by reason of his place of birth.

6. Thirty days, at least, before the day of election to a Fellowship, notice of such intended election, and of the conditions of election, shall be given by the Warden, in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity.

7. It shall be lawful for the Warden and Fellows to elect distinguished persons to Honorary Fellowships within the College. Persons so selected shall be termed Honorary Fellows, and shall not be entitled to vote on any occasion as Fellows, or to receive any emolument whatever, but shall be entitled to enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Warden and Fellows shall, by resolution, from time to time determine. The conditions of eligibility to and tenure of Honorary Fellowships, and the time and mode of election thereto, may also be determined by the Warden and Fellows from time to time. Honorary Fellows shall not, in the construction of this Ordinance, be counted among the Fellows of the College, nor Honorary Fellowships among the Fellowships of the College.

8. The provisions respecting the residence of Fellows and Scholars, and the mode of granting leave of absence from the College, contained in the existing Statutes, shall be henceforth void. Such regulations respecting the residence of Fellows and Scholars within the College, and respecting the mode in which and the conditions under which leave of absence may be granted to any Fellow or Scholar, as may be expedient for the interests of the College as a place of learning and education, shall be made with all convenient speed, and may be varied from time to time, and may be enforced by pecuniary penalties, and in case of non-compliance, by deprivation. Such regulations shall be made and varied, so far as they may relate to Fellows, by the Warden and Fellows; so far as they may relate to Scholars, by the Warden alone.

9. Thirty additional Scholarships shall be established and maintained within the College; and twenty Exhibitions, of the annual value of Fifty pounds each, shall be established and maintained within the School of the College.

10. The first, third, fifth, and seventh Fellowships, or, if the Warden and Fellows shall deem it more desirable for the interests of the College, the second, fourth, sixth, and eighth, which shall become vaeant after the approval of this Ordinance by Her Majesty in Council, shall not be filled up, and the emoluments thereof shall be applied, together with any other available resources of the College, in establishing and maintaining the said thirty Scholarships and twenty Exhibitions. The emoluments of the Fellowships hereby directed to be not filled up shall be the sums which would in each year have been payable to the holders of the same if the same had been filled up. If any Fellowship or Fellowships shall be vaeant at the time of the approval aforesaid, such Fellowship or Fellowships shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be considered as having become vaeant immediately after such approval.

11. Provision shall be made from time to time by the Warden and Fellows for the board of the Scholars out of the revenues of the College, in lieu of the commons assigned to them by the existing Statutes. No Scholar shall be entitled to receive any special allowanees in respect of his being of the blood or kindred of the Founder.

12. In elections to Scholarships within the College, no person shall be either entitled to preference or ineligible by reason of his being or not being of the blood or kindred of William of Wykeham, the Founder of the College, or by reason of his place of birth. No person shall be ineligible by reason of his having any bodily imperfection which might operate as a disqualification for Holy Orders, or of his not being instructed in plain song, or by reason of any restriction in respect of property or pecuniary circumstances contained in the existing Statutes; but the electors may refuse to admit as a candidate any one whom they may deem to be not in need of a Scholarship, and all other things being equal in candidates, shall have regard to the pecuniary circumstances of such candidates. No person shall be eligible to a Scholarship who shall have attained the age of fourteen years. The conditions of tenure in respect of age shall be the same for all persons, whether of the blood or kindred of the Founder or not.

13. The candidates for Scholarships shall be examined in such subjects as the electors shall from time to time determine, and those candidates (being otherwise duly qualified according to the Statutes in force for the time being) shall be elected, who after such examination shall appear to the electors to be most proficient and most fit to be Scholars of the College.

14. The electors to the Scholarships of Winchester College and to those of New College shall not, in electing thereto, be bound to observe any regulations contained in the existing Statutes of Winchester College, which shall be inconsistent with the Statutes of New College in force for the time being.

15. It shall be lawful for the electors to Scholarships, so soon as in their judgment it can be done without injustice to the candidates of the year in which the change shall be made, to discontinue the practice of electing to prospective vacancies.

16. The Warden and Fellows may deprive any Scholar of his Scholarship for any misconduct which, in their judgment, shall merit deprivation, subject to such appeal to the Visitor as is hereinafter provided.

17. No Fellow of New College shall be incapable of being appointed an elector to the Scholarships of Winchester College by reason of his faculty.

18. The electors, and the time and mode of examination and election, and the conditions of election in reference to superior proficiency and fitness, shall be the same in the case of Exhibitions as in the case of Scholarships, but no person shall be eligible to an Exhibition who shall have attained the age of fifteen years, and all other things being equal in candidates the electors shall have regard to the pecuniary circumstances of such candidates.

19. Thirty days at least before the annual day of election to Scholarships and Exhibitions, notice of such intended election shall be given by the Warden of Winchester College in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity.

20. Every Scholar, who shall be elected to an Exhibition shall thereby vacate his Scholarship, and every Exhibitioner who shall be elected to a Scholarship shall thereby vacate his Exhibition.

21. The Master of the School shall, immediately before every annual election to Scholarships and Exhibitions, make a report to the electors respecting the conduct and proficiency of each Exhibitioner; and it shall be lawful for the electors, or the major part of them, on such report, to terminate any Exhibitioner's tenure of his Exhibition. Subject to the foregoing provision, each Exhibitioner shall hold his Exhibition, as long as he remains at the School, or until he is elected to a Scholarship. The Exhibitioners shall be subject to such regulations respecting residence at the School as the Warden shall from time to time appoint.

22. Eight Exhibitions shall be established previous to any increase in the number of Scholarships; the relative rate at which the remaining twelve Exhibitions, and the thirty additional Scholarships shall be established, shall be in the discretion of the Warden and Fellows.

23. When the thirty additional Scholarships shall have been established, it shall be lawful for the Warden and Fellows, if they shall have sufficient means at their disposal, to increase the number of Exhibitions to forty, and when the number of Exhibitions shall have been increased to forty, it shall be lawful, in like manner, for the Warden and Fellows to restore the four Fellowships hereinbefore directed to be not filled up.

24. In addition to the branches of instruction specifically mentioned in the Statutes, the Scholars and Exhibitioners shall be instructed in the mathematical and physical sciences, and such other branches of instruction as are proper to complete a liberal and religious education.

25. The number of Fellowships within the College shall never be less than six, unless the Visitor shall think fit, on a petition in writing presented and subscribed by the Warden and not less than three-fourths of the Fellows of the College, to direct that the number shall be diminished, either permanently or during any limited period, by not filling up vacancies, for the purpose either of increasing the emoluments of the Warden and Fellows, if the same shall appear to be insufficient, or of augmenting the number or emoluments of the Scholars or Exhibitioners, or of improving the property of the College, or in order to apply the surplus income to be obtained by such diminution to any purpose specified in the petition, and directly expedient for the interests of the College as a place of religion, learning, and education.

26. The Warden and Fellows shall, once at least in every ten years, lay before the Visitor a statement in writing of the annual revenue and expenditure of the College for the preceding ten years, or for the period which shall have elapsed since the date of the last statement (as the case may be); and shall also furnish to the Visitor such additional information (if any) as he shall require for enabling him to form a judgment of the means and requirements and general state and condition of the College.

27. The Warden and Fellows shall not, by reason of any clause or provision in the existing Statutes of the College, be prohibited or restrained from dividing amongst themselves or otherwise disposing of the clear surplus of the corporate revenues of the College, as they might have done if the Statutes had contained no such clause or provision.

28. The Warden and Fellows may, if they shall think fit, commute the allowances now payable to Fellows, or any part thereof, for annual stipends or aliquot shares of the corporate revenues of the College. It shall be lawful for the Visitor, upon the petition of any person who shall be a Fellow at the time of such commutation being determined on, and shall feel himself aggrieved thereby, to disallow such commutation, if he shall think fit.

29. The Warden and Fellows may from time to time appoint such officers as they may deem expedient for the better instruction and discipline of the School, and may assign to such officers such stipends or emoluments as the Warden and Fellows shall think proper.

30. The Warden shall, as soon as conveniently may be, make regulations for the performance of Divine Service according to the Liturgy of the United Church of England and Ireland, within the College, and for attendance on the same, and may vary such regulations from time to time; but the Visitor shall have power to disallow and annul any such regulations, or any variation thereof. The provisions of the existing Statutes relating to Divine Service shall be henceforth void.

31. The oaths prescribed by the existing Statutes shall not hereafter be taken ; but every person elected or admitted to any place or office (other than a Scholarship), on election or admission to which an oath is now required, shall, at the time of his election or admission, take an oath or make a declaration, as the Warden and Fellows shall by resolution determine, to the effect that he will faithfully perform the duties of such place or office, and obey the Statutes and Byelaws of the College in force for the time being so far as they may concern him ; and the electors to any place or office before electing to which an oath is now required (not being an annual office), shall, before electing, take an oath or make a declaration, as the Warden and Fellows shall by resolution determine, to the effect that they will elect the person best qualified in their judgment for such place or office.

32. The common seal of the College may be affixed by the Warden, if he shall think fit, to any act or document at any meeting at which the major part of all the Fellows shall be present, with the consent of the major part of the Fellows so present.

33. The power which is given by the existing Statutes to the Sub-Warden to act in place of the Warden, and the power of any officer of the College who may hereafter be authorized by any Statute or Byelaw to act in place of the Warden, shall be deemed to extend to all the acts which the Warden is hereby authorized or directed to do, except the giving consent to any commutation, regulation, or diminution of the Warden's emoluments.

34. The particular provisions of the existing Statutes respecting the devotions, dress, recreations, and other personal habits of the members of the College, and the clothing to be provided for them respectively, and the conditions of their going beyond the precincts of the College; and respecting the meals of the members of the College, and the mode of serving and conducting the same; and respecting the inquiries to be made into the life and conduct of the members of the College, and the mode of making the same; and respecting the punishments for offences not being such as require deprivation; and respecting the treatment and support of Fellows and Scholars in case of sickness or infirmity; and respecting the distribution of the rooms, and the use of the Common Hall and other common rooms or buildings of the College; and respecting the use of the Library; and respecting the times of opening and closing the gates and doors of the College; and respecting the admission of strangers into the precincts of the College; and respecting the reading of the Statutes; and respecting the service of the College; and respecting progresses and other matters relative to the supervision of the property of the College; and respecting the custody and inspection of the monies, plate, and other goods of the College other than the muniments and seals, shall be henceforth void. Such regulations shall be made from time to time as may be deemed necessary or desirable for effecting the main objects which the aforesaid provisions or any of them are respectively intended to effect; and may be enforced by such penalties as may be thought fit, subject to such right of appeal to the Visitor as is hereinafter provided. Such regulations shall be made, so far as they may relate to the Warden and Fellows, by the Warden and Fellows ; and so far as they may relate to Scholars, by the Warden alone.

35. No member of the College who may be charged with any offence, shall, by reason of any provision in the existing Statutes, be prohibited or restrained from calling for a copy of the charges made against him, or for the name or names of the person or persons making such charges.

36. If in any case it shall appear to the Visitor that, by reason of any change in the value of money, any specific sum fixed by this Ordinance, or which may be hereafter fixed in exercise of any power given by this Ordinance, has become insufficient or excessive, and that such insufficiency or excess is productive of injustice or hardship, or is injurious to the general interests of the College, it shall be lawful for the Visitor, from time to time, for the purpose of correcting or obviating such injustice, hardship, or injury, to direct that such annual sum shall be increased or diminished as he shall think fit, and the increased or diminished sum shall thenceforth be substituted for and stand in the place of the sum originally fixed as aforesaid.

37. It shall be lawful for the Visitor in person, or by his Commissary or Commissaries duly appointed, once in every ten years (or oftener, if and whenever he shall deem it expedient for enforcing the due observance of the Statutes in force for the time being to do so), without any request or application by the College or any of its members, to visit the College, and to exercise at such visitation all the powers which are by law incident to the office of General Visitor of a College, any Statute or usage of the College to the contrary notwithstanding. It shall be lawful for the Visitor at any such visitation, or, if he shall think fit at other times, to require the Warden and Fellows to answer in writing touching any matter as to which the Visitor may deem it expedient to inquire, for the purpose of satisfying himself whether the Statutes in force for the time being are duly observed.

38. As often as any question shall arise on which the Warden and Fellows shall be unable to agree, depending wholly or in part on the construction of any of the Statutes of the College, it shall be lawful for the Warden and Fellows, or for the Warden or any three of the Fellows, to submit the same to the Visitor ; and it shall be lawful for the Visitor to declare what is the true construction of such Statute or Statutes with reference to the case submitted to him.

39. It shall be lawful for the Warden, or for any Fellow, if he shall conceive himself aggrieved by any act or decision of the Warden and Fellows, and for any Scholar who shall have been deprived of his Scholarship, to appeal against such act or decision or sentence to the Visitor ; and it shall be lawful for the Visitor to adjudicate on such appeal, and to disallow and annul such act or decision, and to reverse or vary such sentence, as he shall deem just.

40. It shall be lawful for the Visitor, either propria motu, or on the complaint of the Warden or of any of the Fellows, to disallow and annul any Byelaw or resolution of the Warden and Fellows which shall in the Visitor's judgement be repugnant to any of the Statutes of the College in force for the time being.

41. The Warden and Fellows, by a majority consisting of not less than two-thirds of the votes of those present at a meeting convened by the Warden for that purpose, may from time to time, subject to the provisions of the section, numbered XL, in the Queen's Printers' copy of the said Act, amend the Statutes of the College in force for the time being, with the consent of the Visitor.

42. This Ordinance shall be without prejudice to any existing interest (being such an interest as is intended to be saved by the said Act) of any member of the College, and shall be construed to speak and take effect as if framed immediately before the approval thereof by Her Majesty in Council.

Given under our Common Seal this fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

WHEREAS the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 17th and 18th Vict., cap. 81, intituled "An Act to make further provisions for the good government and extension of the University of Oxford, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of Saint Mary, Winchester," have framed the following ORDINANCE, dated the 24th of June, 1857, in relation to NEW COLLEGE, in the UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD; and whereas the said Ordinance has been submitted to the said College, and the Visitor thereof, and has not been objected to by two-thirds of the Governing Body of the said College, and the said Ordinance has been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same is published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act; AND NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 35th section

In appointments to the Exhibition of the foundation of Nicholas Aspinall, Clerk, no person shall be ineligible or entitled to preference by reason of his place of birth.

It shall be lawful for the Warden and Fellows to dispose in every year of the emoluments specified in the Schedule hereto, in such manner as they shall deem best for promoting study and improvement among the undergraduate members of the College, or to bestow the same, or any of them, on such undergraduate members of the College as they may deem to stand in need of support at the University.

ORDINANCE above referred to.

ORDINANCE made by the Master and Fellows of BALLIOL COLLEGE, OXFORD, for the amendment of an Ordinance made by the Oxford University Commissioners, and approved by Her Majesty in Council, dated the ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

Whereas the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act, passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Oxford, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of Saint Mary, Winchester," framed and settled an Ordinance, dated the ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, for the consolidation of Scholarships within Balliol College, in the said University, and for other purposes, and such Ordinance, after being submitted to the College in manner directed by the said Act, was duly approved by Her Majesty in Council on the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas the said Ordinance after directing (amongst other things) that certain Scholarships and Exhibitions within the College should be consolidated into eight Scholarships in manner therein mentioned, contains the following clause or portion of a clause :—

"The holders of the eight Scholarships to be established pursuant to this Ordinance and the two scholars on Dr. Bell's foundation, shall be entitled, in addition to their respective stipends or emoluments, to receive tuition free from all charges, and shall be elected on the same days, by the same persons, and in the same manner, and shall be liable to deprivation by the same authority, for the same causes, and in the same manner as the Scholars of the original foundation are now elected and liable, and shall be subject to such regulations as to their instruction, discipline and attendance on divine worship as the Master and Fellows may from time to time prescribe."

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
August 26, 1857.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Acting Consul at Naples, reporting that the permission to export lupins, maccaroni, paste, and biscuits has been extended to the 31st of December next.

NOTICE TO SHIPOWNERS AND MASTERS.

REGULATIONS of the Turkish Authorities for Merchant Vessels passing through the Dardanelles.

THE Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople, enclosing a copy of the Regulations of the Turkish Government now in force for vessels passing through the Dardanelles, of which the following is a translation:—

(Copy.)

(Translation.)

REGULATIONS drawn up for the protection of the Dardanelles and Bosphorus, as agreed upon by the Sublime Porte.

Merchant ships in general belonging to foreign nations or to subjects of the Ottoman Empire, have been from former times prohibited from passing through the above straits after sunset, and also, with regard to steamers engaged in commerce, it has been officially notified to foreign missions that these are not to enter or leave the straits after sunset, but regulate the periods of their course accordingly ; and this arrangement has been accepted and confirmed by the above missions. Accordingly, upon any merchant vessel, whether steam or otherwise, persisting in trying to pass the straits after sunset, the prohibition will first be stated and made known, and, if not attended to, a blank gun will be fired three times, and, should the vessel still persist in her course, however much the principle of exclusion from the straits applies to men-of-war, it is equally applicable at night time to merchant ships, seeing that by night it is impossible to distinguish between the two classes, consequently such vessel will be subject to the treatment above specified with regard to men-of-war. She will be fired at with shotted guns, and prevented from entering under any circumstances.

As above stated, vessels are prevented by treaty from passing the Bosphorus and Dardanelles after sunset ; the former strait, however, is not in the same category as the latter, and when a vessel is overtaken by heavy weather she cannot lie to or find a safe harbour there, before she gets to Buyuk Liman. On the appearance of a vessel off the Black Sea mouth of the Bosphorus, by night, she is signalled to from the two lighthouses by burning blue lights and powder, in order to stop her ; if she holds on her course, she is signalled to stop in like manner from the batteries of Til Bumu and Buyuk Liman, and if she still persists, shotted guns are fired to stop her. Vessels putting in under stress of weather are allowed to proceed as far as Buyuk Liman, where they are detained, and the (necessity of the) circumstance investigated by day light, when they are allowed to continue their course. The above is the current practice and usual proceeding, and attention will be paid to the continuance of its operation for the future being confined to the Bosphorus, at the same time that the strictest regard is paid to the important circumstance of the prohibition (in general).

Dated 13th Zilhijeh, 1260 (1844).

Although the principle of closing the straits was recently suspended on account of the late war, yet as that event is now terminated and exchanged for peace and harmony, and as communications have taken place with the Porte upon the subject of carrying the ancient principle into execution, calculating from the 30th of March last, the straits are now closed for the future, the exclusion having commenced on that day.

nel, in the Bay of Bengal, in lat. $21^{\circ} 6'$ N., long. $88^{\circ} 48'$ east nearly, in 10 fathoms' depth of water, at about 7 miles south-east of the Outer or Bulcherry reef Buoy.

The vessel will exhibit a clear white light, at an elevation of about 30 feet above the level of the sea, which would be visible from the deck of a ship in the ordinary state of the weather at a distance of about 7 miles.

The vessel will carry a Red Flag at the main mast head by day, and, if she continues in her position, will fire a rocket at 8 P.M., at midnight, and at 4 A.M., from the 15th March until the 16th October. For the present a pilot brig will show the light.

Houses of Refuge.

Similar notice has been given, that Houses of Refuge for shipwrecked mariners cast ashore on the sea face of the Sunderbunds have been put up as follows :—

No. 1.—Painted Red. Just to the northward of Jackson's grove on Seyer's point, forming the eastern entrance to Channel creek. It is on an extensive plain, covered with short grass, inside or to the eastward of some high sand hills that here line the shore.

No. 2.—Painted White. At the eastern entrance to the Subtermookey channel, 400 yards to the northward of the point that forms from Bulcherry island, and 200 yards from high-water mark. It is in the midst of thick low jungle.

No. 3.—Painted Black. At the eastern entrance to the Jumera channel, 400 yards to the north of the point that forms from the entrance of the Subtermookey channel, and 200 yards from high-water mark.

No. 4.—Painted White. On the south-east part of Dalhousie island, at the eastern entrance of the Mutlah river, on a sandy patch, about five feet above high-water mark, and about 100 feet in shore, distinguishable by a White Flag from a long spar and bamboo, which have been put up close alongside of the House, visible above the surrounding trees.

No. 5.—Painted White. On Bangadoonee island, about seven miles eastward of No. 4. It stands on the south-eastern part of the island, above a small sandy beach, about 100 feet from high-water mark. A long spar and bamboo, with a Flag, have been put up alongside, and may be seen considerably above the trees.

In each House, there is a supply of water and biscuit, a Catamaran and paddles, a letter of instructions, and a Chart of the Sunderbunds.

Persons cast away reaching land to the east of Saugor, should make search for the Houses of Refuge ; and it should be borne in mind, that when a vessel is lost with a pilot on board, the fact would soon become known at the Pilot Station and in Calcutta. Parties, therefore, finding their way to the houses should remain there, and husband the means of subsistence, in the assurance that succour will speedily reach them ; or if compelled to leave, endeavour to get westward to Saugor island, and travel along the beach until they arrive at the lighthouse ; or make their way to a large fishing village, situated on the south-east side of Saugor island, using the Catamaran as far as practicable.

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

1st June, 1857.

The positions of the Light Vessel and of the Houses of Refuge have been laid down in the Admiralty Chart of the Bay of Bengal, Sheet 5, No. 1681, and in the East India Company's Chart of the Sunderbunds. See also East India Lights List, 1857, No. 52.

Floating Lights in the Rio de la Plata.

The Captain of the Port at Buenos Ayres has given notice, that the following lights have recently been established in the Rio de la Plata :—

1. A light vessel off Point Indio, carrying a fixed white light at a height of about 30 feet above the level of the sea, visible from the deck of a ship at a distance of from eight to ten miles in clear weather.

The vessel lies in $3\frac{1}{4}$ fathoms water N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. of Point Indio, at about eight miles from the land, near the edge of the bank or shelf that extends to that distance off shore, and at about nine miles S.S.W. of the tail or south-eastern extremity of the Ortiz bank, in lat. $35^{\circ} 11\frac{1}{2}'$ S., long. $57^{\circ} 1'$ W. of Greenwich.

2. A light vessel off the north end of the Chico Bank, showing a fixed white light, visible from eight to ten miles in clear weather. The vessel lies in 5 fathoms' water, N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., 13 miles from Point Atalaya, and about 33 miles N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. from the before-named Point of Indio light vessel, in lat. $34^{\circ} 46'$ S., long. $57^{\circ} 28'$ W.

3. A fixed white light is shown from the hulk or guard-ship, that lies in the Outer Road at Buenos Ayres, in $2\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms' water, at about $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles E.N.E. of the city, and 40 miles W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N.

from the above named Chico light vessel. It may be seen seven miles in clear weather.

Further notice has been given, that a light vessel is shortly to be placed off the north spit of the English bank, at a distance of 11 miles S. by E. from Flores revolving light; also a light on the south point of Lobos Island, off Maldonado, near the north entrance of the River Plata.

It is further proposed to place a refuge raft on the English bank.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 18.) ATLANTIC OCEAN—COAST OF PORTUGAL.

Fixed Light on Cape Mondego.

The Minister of Marine, at Lisbon, has given notice, that on and after the 1st day of August, 1857, a light will be exhibited from the lighthouse recently erected on Cape Mondego, at the entrance to Figueira, on the coast of Portugal.

The light will be a fixed bright light, placed at an elevation of 300 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship, in clear weather, at a distance of 20 miles, from S.S.W., round westerly to N.N.E.

The character and order of the illuminating apparatus and the form, colour, and height of the light tower are not stated.

The lighthouse stands near the southern extremity of the cape, in lat. $40^{\circ} 11' N.$ long., $8^{\circ} 55'$ west from Greenwich.

Observations.—Mariners coming from the north should not steer to the southward of S.S.W. until they round the cape, if bound to Figueira.

The coast between Cape Mondego and Aveiro is more dangerous than it is generally understood to be; at some distance from the sandy beach banks of sand form at intervals, caused by the influence of the winds or the currents, and disperse and form again at other points along that coast, on which vessels in fine weather have grounded.

There is good anchorage for vessels on the south side of Cape Mondego, with the wind from north to east, opposite to the fishing town of Buarcos.

[All bearings are magnetic. Var. $22^{\circ} 15'$ in January, 1857.]

(No. 19.) MEDITERRANEAN—GULF OF GENOA.

Fixed Light on Cape Delle Mele.

The Sardinian Government has given notice, that a light has been established on Cape Delle Mele, on the Western shore of the Gulf of Genoa, in the Department of Genoa.

The light is a fixed bright light, placed at an elevation of 307 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in ordinary weather at a distance of 20 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or a Fresnel lens of the first order. The light tower stands on the pitch of the Cape, in lat. $43^{\circ} 57' 16''$ N., long. $8^{\circ} 10' 38''$ West of Greenwich, nearly. The form, colour, and height of the light tower are not stated.

Cagliari Harbour Lights, Sardinia.

Some error respecting the lights in the Gulf of Cagliari having crept into all English charts, the British Consul at that port has made known that the fixed light said to be on Point Fanale does not exist.

A new light-house, to carry a first-class light, is now building on Cavoli island, off Cape Carbonera; and the Government has decreed the erection of another, to show a fourth-class light, on Cape St. Elia, which, however, is not yet begun. The only lights now in the Bay are two small red fixed lights, one on each side of the entrance of the Darsena, or inner harbour.

Change of Light at Messina, Sicily.

The Sicilian Government has given notice, that on and after the 15th day of July, 1857, a fixed white light, varied by a red flash every two minutes, will be substituted for the former light on the tower of San Ranieri, Messina.

The illuminating apparatus is a Fresnel lens of the second order. The light is placed at an elevation of 132 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in ordinary weather at a distance of 12 miles.

The tower is square, about 124 feet high from the base, and stands on the east part of the Citadel point, in lat. $38^{\circ} 11' 30''$ N., long. $15^{\circ} 34' 50''$ East of Greenwich.

Owers Light Vessel.

The Corporation of the Trinity House of London have issued the following notices :—

In the first week of August, the Owers Light Vessel, which lies off the east end of the shoals, near Selsea Bill, to the eastward of Portsmouth, was removed about one mile S.S.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. of her former position, and into a depth of 19 fathoms, at low water, of spring tides, and now lies with the following marks : The east end of a clump of trees in line with Pagham Church, N. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. ; Eastborough Head beacon buoy N.N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. ; Mixon beacon, N.N.W. ; Elbow of the Owers, N.N.W. distant $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile.

Red Buoy on the Varne Sand.

A large spiral buoy, coloured red, and surmounted by a staff and ball, has been placed in 12 fathoms at low water spring tides on the north-west side of the Varne Sand, off Folkestone, and to the westward of the shoalest water (9 feet), with the following marks and bearings, viz.: Dover Castle, N.N.E., distant $9\frac{1}{4}$ miles; Dungeness Lighthouse W. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., distant 14 miles.

Masters of vessels, pilots, and others, are hereby cautioned not to cross the Varne Sand, on either side, to the north-eastward or south-westward of the above-named buoy.

White Buoy off Dover Pier End.

A white spiral buoy, with the words "Admiralty Pier Works," marked thereon, in black letters, and fitted with a fog bell, has been placed 80 yards, in a S.E. direction, from the outer edge of the staging of the works of the pier now in course of construction at Dover.

The pier now extends 300 yards off shore, in a S. by E. direction from Cheeseman Head; and as the work advances the Blue light at its extremity will be moved outwards, and the buoy kept about 80 yards in advance of the staging.

Temporary Light on Cay Piedras.

The Spanish Government has given notice, that a temporary fixed light has been placed on Cay Piedras, at the entrance of Cardenas Bay, on the north side of the island of Cuba, in lieu of the lighthouse at that place, which was blown down in the gale of the 28th August, 1856. The light stands at a height of 64 English feet above the mean sea level, and should be visible from the deck of a ship in ordinary weather at a distance of 10 miles. Lat. $23^{\circ} 14' 21''$ N. Long. $81^{\circ} 7' 43''$ West of Greenwich.

Day-Marks along the Florida Reefs.

The Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey has given notice, that the following Day-marks have been erected along the Florida Reefs, from Sand Cay Lighthouse north-eastward to Cape Florida.

These Beacons occupy the positions of the signals used in the survey of these reefs, and consist of an iron shaft 36 feet high, erected upon an iron screw foundation, distinguished by a vane marked by a letter, and above it a lattice-work hoop-iron cylinder or barrel. They are painted Black, White, and Red, and so combined that no two adjacent beacons have the same colours upon like parts.

Masters of vessels may ascertain their latitude and longitude with tolerable certainty by examining closely the colours of the beacons as they are approached, and if the letter painted on the vane is distinguished, there can be no mistake in determining their positions.

These Day-marks are placed on the most projecting and dangerous points of the Florida Reef; and are in general from four to six miles from the outside (seaward) shores of the Florida Cays, and within half a mile, in every case, of the edge of the Gulf Stream.

The depth of water where these signals stand does not exceed four feet at low tide in any case; and just outside of them to the eastward, in the Gulf Stream, it is of unknown depths.

These Day-marks may be approached from seaward within a few hundred yards; but it would always be prudent, and particularly with very light winds, or in bad weather, to give them a good berth.

In moderate weather it often happens, especially after easterly gales, that the force and direction of the Gulf Stream sets across the reefs, and then vessels are imperceptibly carried amid its dangers, although the course steered should, if made good, carry them outside of all danger.

When the master of a vessel finds one of these beacons to the eastward of him, he may be sure that he is between the reefs and Cays, and consequently surrounded by shoals and dangerous rocks:

Sand Cay Lighthouse.—An iron pile structure, 121 feet high, painted a dark colour, surmounted by a lantern painted White. Lat. $24^{\circ} 27' 9.5''$ N. Long. $81^{\circ} 52' 43.5''$ W.

To enable mariners, chart makers, and agents for the sale of charts, to correct the numerous charts and sailing directions now in use, all of which have the variation incorrectly marked.

From Shetland, the Orkneys, and Hebrides, to the northern coasts of France between Calais and Ushant, the present general direction of the lines of equal variation is S.S.W. and N.N.E. (true), ranging in amount from 21° to 28° westerly.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of SEPTEMBER 1, 1857.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, August 28, 1857.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to release you from further attendance in Parliament; and at the same time to express to you Her Majesty's cordial acknowledgments for the zeal and assiduity with which you have performed your important duties during a Session which, though shorter than usual, has nevertheless been unusually laborious.

Her Majesty commands us to express to you Her satisfaction that the present state of affairs in Europe inspires a well-grounded confidence in the continuance of Peace.

The arrangements connected with the full execution of the stipulations of the Treaty of Paris have from various causes not yet been completed; but Her Majesty trusts that by the earnest efforts of the contracting parties to that Treaty all that remains to be done with reference to its stipulations may ere long be satisfactorily settled.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that the extensive mutinies which have broken out among the Native troops of the army of Bengal, followed by serious disturbances in many parts of that Presidency, have occasioned to Her Majesty extreme concern ; and the barbarities which have been inflicted upon many of Her Majesty's subjects in India, and the sufferings which have been endured, have filled Her Majesty's heart with the deepest grief ; while the conduct of many civil and military officers, who have been placed in circumstances of much difficulty, and have been exposed to great danger, has excited Her Majesty's warmest admiration.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that She will omit no measure calculated to quell these grave disorders ; and Her Majesty is confident that, with the blessing of providence, the powerful means at Her disposal will enable Her to accomplish that end.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty commands us to thank you for the liberal supplies which you have voted for the service of the present year, and for the assurances which you have given Her of your readiness to afford Her Majesty whatever support may be necessary for the restoration of tranquillity in India.

Her Majesty has been gratified to find that you have been enabled to provide the amount required to be paid to Denmark for the redemption of the Sound dues, without on that account adding to the National Debt.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Her Majesty commands us to convey to you Her heartfelt acknowledgments for the provision which you have made for Her beloved daughter the Princess Royal, on Her approaching marriage with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you, that She has seen with satisfaction that, although the present Session has been short, you have been able to pass many Acts of great importance, and to which Her Majesty has given Her cordial assent.

The Acts for establishing a more efficient jurisdiction for the proving of wills in England and Ireland correct defects which have for many years been complained of.

The Act for amending the law relating to divorce and to matrimonial causes will remedy evils which have long been felt.

The several Acts for the punishment of fraudulent breaches of trust ;

For amending the law relating to secondary punishments ;

For amending the law concerning joint stock banks ;

For consolidating and amending the law relating to bankruptcy and insolvency in Ireland ;

For the better care and treatment of pauper lunatics in Scotland ;

For improving the organization of the county police in Scotland ;

Together with other Acts of less importance, but likewise tending to the progressive improvement of the law, have met with Her Majesty's ready assent.

We are commanded by Her Majesty to express to you Her confidence, that, on your return to your several counties, you will employ that influence which so justly belongs to you, to promote the welfare and happiness of Her loyal and faithful people ; and She prays that the blessing of Almighty God may attend and prosper your endeavours.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read ; after which the Lord Chancellor said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great-Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Friday the sixth day of November next, to be then here holden ; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Friday the sixth day of November next.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorize the embodying of "the Militia," after reciting that whereas the sudden demand for the services in India of a large body of Her Majesty's regular forces, may render it expedient to draw out and embody the militia or some part of the militia of the United Kingdom ; it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, respectively, at any time after the passing of this Act, and before the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, to cause all or any part of the respective militias in England, Scotland, and Ireland, to be drawn out and embodied in like manner as in the respective cases in which such militia are now by law authorized to be drawn out and embodied.

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct that the Lieutenants of the several counties, ridings, and places in England, and of the counties, stewartries, cities, and places in Scotland, and also the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to draw out and embody all the regiments, battalions, and corps of militia, appointed to be raised and trained, or so many of them, or such part or proportion of them, or any of them, as Her Majesty shall judge necessary.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby order and direct the Lieutenants of the several counties, ridings, and places in England, and of the counties, stewartries, cities, and places in Scotland, and also the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, to draw out and embody all the regiments, battalions, and corps of militia, appointed to be raised and trained, or so many of them, or such part or portion of them, as Her Majesty shall judge necessary.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Westminster, August 28, 1857.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to an Act agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Act, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas an Act of Parliament was passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage.”

And whereas another Act of Parliament was passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon and for other purposes relating to the Post-office.”

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did, by a certain Warrant in writing, under the hands of two of them the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 21st day of July, 1857, order, direct and declare amongst other things that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the colonial legislatures, might be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom, and any part of the several places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule A to the said now reciting Warrant annexed, and all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the colonial legislatures might be transmitted by the post between the several colonies and places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule B to the said now reciting Warrant annexed ; and that all such respective packets should be so transmitted respectively, in conformity with, and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions and conditions thereafter respectively mentioned and contained. And that the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof respectively should be that which was mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively in the said Schedules A and B. And that all such respective packets so transmitted should be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage thereafter mentioned.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said recited Warrant (except as hereinafter mentioned) to packets of a like kind to be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the colony of Ascension, and also between Hong Kong and the other colonies hereinafter mentioned.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct as follows :

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or the colonial legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the colony of Ascension, and all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or the colonial legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between Hong Kong and the East Indies, Ceylon, the Mauritius, or Australia (without passing through the United Kingdom); and on every such packet so transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant as aforesaid, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken and paid for the transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage of three pence; and on every such packet exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken and paid such progressive and additional rates of postage as are directed to be charged, taken and paid on and in respect of the several packets mentioned and contained in, and authorized to be transmitted by the post under the provisions of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857.

2. All packets to be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall be so transmitted respectively in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions respectively mentioned and contained in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, with respect to the several packets therein mentioned (except such as relate exclusively to packets posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales addressed to the United Kingdom), that is to say: All such respective packets, so to be transmitted under the provisions of this present Warrant, between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the colony of Ascension, shall be subject as well to the several progressive and additional rates of postage aforesaid as also to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except as aforesaid) respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, so far as the same respectively are applicable to packets transmitted between any part of the United Kingdom and the several places mentioned in the said Schedule A to the said recited Warrant annexed ; and all such respective packets, so to be transmitted under the provisions of this present Warrant, between Hong Kong and the East Indies, Ceylon, the Mauritius, or Australia (without passing through the United Kingdom), shall be subject as well to the several progressive and additional rates of postage aforesaid as also to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except as aforesaid) respectively mentioned, expressed, and contained in and by the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, so far as the same respectively are applicable to packets transmitted between the several colonies and places mentioned in the said Schedule B to the said recited Warrant annexed, in like manner in all respects, and as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if the said several progressive and additional rates of postage, and the said several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions (except such only as relate exclusively to packets posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales addressed to the United Kingdom) respectively mentioned and contained in the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July 1857, were contained, inserted, expressed, and repeated in this present Warrant, and as if the said colony of Ascension, with a single rate of postage of three pence set forth against such colony, had been and was mentioned and contained and included in the said Schedule A annexed to the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, and as if the words "between Hong Kong and the East Indies, Ceylon, the Mauritius, or Australia, without passing through the United Kingdom," with a single rate of postage of three pence set forth against such last-mentioned words had been and were mentioned and contained and included in the said Schedule B annexed to the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857.

3. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as the like terms and expressions used in the said recited Warrant, bearing date the 21st day of July, 1857.

4. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by a certain other Warrant in writing under their hands, bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 11th day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1843, did amongst other things direct that on all letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post (whether by packet boat or private ship) between any place in the United Kingdom, and any place in British North America, or the British West Indies wherever situated (letters posted or delivered at the port in British North America, or the British West Indies, at which the letters might be landed, or from which they might be despatched excepted, and which letters were to be charged the rates of British postage only), there should be paid in addition to the rates of British postage payable on such letters under the said Act, passed in the fourth year of Her present Majesty, an uniform colonial rate of two pence, whether such letters should pass between British North America, or the British West Indies and the United Kingdom, direct or viâ the United States; provided always, that if any such letters passing through the United States should be charged with any foreign postage, such foreign postage should be charged on such letters in addition to the British postage and the said colonial rate; and it was by the now reciting Warrant directed, that on all such letters if exceeding half an ounce in weight, there should be charged and paid the progressive and additional colonial rates according to the scale of weight and number of rates therein mentioned.

And whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said last-mentioned Warrant, as imposes the said uniform colonial rate of two pence, and the said progressive and additional colonial rates.

5. Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant order and direct, that so much of the said recited Warrant, bearing date the 11th day of October, 1843, as imposes the said uniform colonial rate of two pence on all letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post (whether by packet boat or private ship) between any place in the United Kingdom, and any place in British North America, or the British West Indies, wherever situated, in addition to the rates of British postage payable on such letters and any progressive and additional colonial rates payable under or by virtue of such Warrant on all letters so transmitted, if exceeding half an ounce in weight, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled, and that the said uniform colonial rate of two pence and any progressive and additional colonial rates mentioned and imposed in and by the said recited Warrant of the 11th day of October, 1843, on the letters in this clause mentioned and the several orders, regulations, and directions relating to the same shall wholly cease and determine. Nevertheless nothing herein contained shall affect any foreign postage imposed or payable upon such letters in and by the said recited Warrant of the 11th day of October, 1843.

6. And we do further order and direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of October next.

Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, the second day of September, 1857.

Convention between Her Majesty and the Queen of Spain, for the Establishment of International Copyright.

Signed at Madrid, July 7, 1857.

[Ratifications exchanged at Madrid, September 5, 1857.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Her Majesty the Queen of Spain, being equally desirous of extending in each country the enjoyment of copyright to works of literature and of the fine arts which may be first published in the other; Her Britannic Majesty and Her Catholic Majesty have deemed it expedient to conclude a special Convention for that purpose, and have therefore named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say :—

Her Britannic Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Her Catholic Majesty, &c., &c. ;

And Her Majesty the Queen of Spain, &c., &c., &c. Don Pedro José Pidal, Marquis of Pidal, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal and distinguished Order of Charles the Third, of that of St. Ferdinand and of Merit of the Two Sicilies, of the Pontifical Order of Pius the Ninth, of that of the Lion of the Netherlands, of those of Christ and of the Conception of Villaviciosa of Portugal, of that of Leopold of Belgium, of that of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus of Sardinia, of that of St. Alexander Newsky of Russia, and of the Legion of Honour of France, Knight of the First Class of the Nischan Iftijar of Turkey, of that of the Order of Leopold of Austria, and of that of the Sun and Lion of Persia, Member of the Royal Spanish Academy, and of the Academy of History, and of that of St. Ferdinand, and Honorary Member of the Academy of St. Charles of Valencia, Deputy to the Cortes, and First Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs of Her Catholic Majesty, &c., &c. ;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

From and after the date on which, according to the provisions of Article XIII, the present Convention shall come into operation, the authors of works of literature or of art, to whom the laws of either of the two countries do now or may hereafter give the right of property, or copyright, shall be entitled to exercise that right in the territories of the other of such countries for the same term, and to the same extent, as the authors of works of the same nature, if published in such other country, would therein be entitled to exercise such right ; so that the re-publication or piracy, in either country, of any work of literature or of art published in the other shall be dealt with in the same manner as the re-publication or piracy of a work of the same nature first published in such other country ; and so that such authors in the one country shall have the same remedies before the courts of justice in the other country, and shall enjoy in that other country the same protection against piracy and unauthorized re-publication, as the law now does or may hereafter grant to authors in that country.

The terms "works of literature or of art," employed at the beginning of this Article, shall be understood to comprise publications of books, of dramatic works, of musical compositions, of drawing, of painting, of sculpture, of engraving, of lithography, and of any other works whatsoever of literature and of the fine arts.

The lawful representatives or assigns of authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers, shall, in all respects, enjoy the same rights which by the present Convention are granted to the authors, translators, composers, painters, sculptors, or engravers themselves.

ARTICLE II.

The protection granted to original works is extended to translations ; it being, however, clearly understood that the intention of the present Article is simply to protect a translator in respect of his own translation, and that it is not intended to confer upon the first translator of any work the exclusive right of translating that work, except in the case and to the extent provided for in the following Article.

ARTICLE III.

The author of any work published in either of the two countries, who may choose to reserve the right of translating it, shall, until the expiration of five years from the date of the first publication of the translation thereof authorized by him, be, in the following cases, entitled to protection from the publication in the other country of any translation of such work not so authorized by him:—

§ 1. If the original work shall have been registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other ;

§ 2. If the author has notified on the title-page of his work his intention to reserve the right of translating it ;

§ 3. Provided always, that at least a part of the authorized translation shall have appeared within a year after the registration and deposit of the original, and that the whole shall have been published within three years after the date of such deposit ;

§ 4. And provided that the publication of the translation shall take place within one of the two countries, and that it shall be registered and deposited according to the provisions of Article VIII.

With regard to works which are published in parts, it will be sufficient if the declaration of the author that he reserves the right of translation shall appear in the first part. But with reference to the period of five years limited by this Article for the exercise of the exclusive right of translation, each part shall be treated as a separate work, and each part shall be registered and deposited in the one country within three months after its first publication in the other.

ARTICLE IV.

The stipulations of the preceding Articles shall also be applicable to the representation of dramatic works, and to the performance of musical compositions, in so far as the laws of each of the two countries are or shall be applicable in this respect to dramatic and musical works first publicly represented or performed therein.

In order, however, to entitle the author to legal protection in regard to the translation of a dramatic work, such translation must appear within three months after the registration and deposit of the original.

It is understood that the protection stipulated by the present Article is not intended to prohibit fair imitations, or adaptations of dramatic works to the stage in England and Spain respectively, but is only meant to prevent piratical translations.

The question whether a work is an imitation or a piracy, shall in all cases be decided by the courts of justice of the respective countries, according to the laws in force in each.

ARTICLE V.

Notwithstanding the stipulations of Articles I and II of the present Convention, articles extracted from newspapers or periodicals published in either of the two countries, may be re-published or translated in the newspapers or periodicals of the other country, provided the source from whence such articles are taken be acknowledged.

Nevertheless, this permission shall not be construed to authorize the re-publication in one of the two countries, of articles other than those of political discussion, from newspapers or periodicals published in the other country, the authors of which shall have notified in a conspicuous manner in the journal or periodical in which such articles have appeared, that they forbid the re-publication thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

The importation into and the sale in either of the two countries of piratical copies of works which are protected from piracy under Articles I, II, III, and V of the present Convention, are prohibited, whether such piratical copies originate in the country where the work was published, or in any other country.

ARTICLE VII.

In the event of an infraction of the provisions of the foregoing Articles, the pirated works or articles shall be seized and destroyed ; and the persons who may have committed such infraction shall be liable in each country to the penalties and actions which are or may be prescribed by the laws of that country for such offences, committed in respect of a work or production of home origin.

ARTICLE VIII.

Neither authors, nor translators, nor their lawful representatives or assigns, shall be entitled in either country to the protection stipulated by the preceding Articles, nor shall copyright be claimable in either country, unless the work shall have been registered in the manner following: that is to say :

1. If the work be one that has first appeared in Spain, it must be registered at the Hall of the Company of Stationers in London ;

2. If the work be one that has first appeared in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, it must be registered at the Ministry of Public Works (Ministerio de Fomento) at Madrid.

No person shall be entitled to such protection as aforesaid, unless he shall have duly complied with the laws and regulations of the respective countries in regard to the work in respect of which such protection may be claimed. With regard to books, maps, and prints, and also with regard to dramatic works and musical compositions (unless such dramatic works and musical compositions shall be in manuscript only), no person shall be entitled to such protection unless he shall have delivered gratuitously, at one or other of the places mentioned above, as the case may be, one copy of the best edition, or in the best state, in order to its being deposited at the place appointed for that purpose in each of the two countries ; that is to say, in Great Britain, at the British Museum at London ; and in Spain, at the National Library at Madrid.

In every case, the formality of deposit and registration must be fulfilled within three months after the first publication of the work in the other country. With regard to works published in parts, each part shall be treated as a separate work.

A certified copy of the entry in the Register Book of the Company of Stationers in London shall confer, within the British dominions, the exclusive right of re-publication, until a better right shall have been established by any other party before a court of justice.

The certificate given under the laws of Spain, proving the registration of any work in that country, shall be valid for the same purpose throughout the territories of Her Catholic Majesty.

A certificate or certified copy of the registration of any work so registered in either country shall, if required, be delivered at the time of registration ; and such certificate shall state the exact date at which the registration was made.

The charge for the registration of a single work, under the stipulations of this Article, shall not exceed one shilling in England, nor five rials vellon in Spain ; and the further charge for a certificate of such registration shall not exceed the sum of five shillings in England, nor twenty-five rials vellon in Spain.

The provisions of this Article shall not extend to articles which may appear in newspapers or periodicals ; which shall be protected from re-publication or translation simply by a notice from the author, as prescribed by Article V. But if any article or work which has originally appeared in a newspaper or periodical shall afterwards be published in a separate form, it shall then become subject to the stipulations of the present Article.

ARTICLE IX.

With regard to any article other than books, prints, maps, and musical publications, in respect to which protection may be claimable under Article I of the present Convention, it is agreed, that any other mode of registration than that prescribed in the preceding Article, which is or may be applicable by law in one of the two countries to any work or article first published in such country, for the purpose of affording protection to copyright in such work or article, shall be extended on equal terms to any similar work or article first published in the other country.

ARTICLE X.

In order to facilitate the execution of the present Convention, the two High Contracting Parties engage to communicate to each other the laws and regulations which may hereafter be established in their respective territories, with respect to copyright in works or productions protected by the stipulations of the present Convention.

ARTICLE XI.

The stipulations of the present Convention shall in no way affect the right which each of the two High Contracting Parties expressly reserves to itself, of controlling or of prohibiting, by measures of legislation or of internal police, the sale, circulation, representation, or exhibition of any work or production in regard to which either country may deem it expedient to exercise that right.

ARTICLE XII.

Nothing in this Convention shall be construed to affect the right of either of the two High Contracting Parties to prohibit the importation into its own dominions of such books as, by its internal law, or under engagements with other States, are or may be declared to be piracies, or infringements of copyright,

ARTICLE XIII.

The present Convention shall come into operation as soon as possible after the exchange of the ratifications. Due notice shall be given beforehand in each country, by the Government of that country, of the day which may be fixed upon for its coming into operation ; and the stipulations of the Convention shall apply only to works or articles published after that day.

The Convention shall continue in force for six years from the day on which it may come into operation ; and if neither Party shall, twelve months before the expiration of the said period of six years, give notice of its intention to terminate its operation, the Convention shall continue in force for a year longer, and so on from year to year, until the expiration of a year's notice from either Party for its termination.

The High Contracting Parties, however, reserve to themselves the power of making by common consent, in this Convention, any modifications which may not be inconsistent with its spirit and principles, and which experience of its working may show to be desirable.

ARTICLE XIV.

The present Convention shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Madrid as soon as may be within three months from the date of signature.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same in duplicate, and have affixed thereto their respective seals.

Done at Madrid, on the seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is amongst other things enacted that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, on the second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to make, by Order in Council, provision for the due exercise of the jurisdiction possessed by Her Majesty as aforesaid, in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased on the twenty-fourth of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to make, by Order in Council, other and further provisions for the due exercise of the power and jurisdiction aforesaid:

And whereas it is expedient at the present time to still further provide for the more efficient exercise of the power and jurisdiction customarily and as of right exercised on behalf of Her Majesty by Her Majesty's Ambassadors and other officers within the said dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte:

Now therefore, in pursuance of the above-recited Act of Parliament, and in execution of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council vested, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the above-cited Orders of Her Majesty in Council of the 2nd of October, 1843, as far as the same is not repealed by any subsequent Order, and of the 19th of June, 1844, and of the 24th of April, 1847, respectively, shall continue to have full force and effect, except in so far as the same may be in any way altered by the present Order.

And for the better maintenance of order among

British subjects and persons enjoying British protection, residing in, or resorting to, the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and for the more effectual administration of justice among all classes of Her Majesty's subjects, within the said dominions, it is hereby further ordered:

I. That the power and jurisdiction hitherto exercised by Her Majesty's Consul-General at Constantinople, so far as the same relates to the repression and punishment of crimes and offences committed within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and to the judicial settlement and determination of all manner of differences, contentions, suits, and variances, that might or should happen to arise between British subjects, or between British subjects and the subjects of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or between British subjects and the subjects of any foreign Power, shall be vested in an officer who shall represent the Consul-General, and be called "the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court of Constantinople," and such officer shall hold by special commission from Her Majesty the appointment of Vice-Consul, but notwithstanding such commission, or any regulations concerning the precedence and comparative rank of Consuls, shall in all respects be of equal rank with Her Majesty's Consuls-General; and the said Judge shall, in his capacity of representative of the Consul-General, have the same power and jurisdiction to hold the said Consular Court of Constantinople, and therein try, determine, adjudicate, and act upon all matters properly brought before the said Court, whether the same be of a civil or criminal nature, as Her Majesty's Consul-General has customarily, or by virtue of any Act of Parliament or Order in Council, exercised on behalf of Her Majesty within the said dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

II. And it is further ordered that the Judge of the said Consular Court shall have attached to him, for the purpose of better enabling him to carry out the provisions of this Order, a Vice-Consul Cancellier, who shall act as Registrar of the said Court; as also a Law Clerk, or Secretary, and such other subordinate officers as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying on the business of the said Consular Court.

III. And it is further ordered that the term "Judge" shall be construed to mean the Chief Judicial Officer for the time being of the Supreme Consular Court of Constantinople, or the person duly authorized to act as such, and engaged in carrying out the provisions of this Order; and the term "Consul" shall be construed to include all and every officer in Her Majesty's service, whether Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, or any other person duly authorized to act in any of the aforesaid capacities within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte; and the term "British subject" shall be held to mean all subjects of Her Majesty wheresoever born or resident, whether natives of Great Britain and Ireland or of any of the Colonies, or of the dominions of Her Majesty in India or of Malta, and likewise all citizens of the Ionian Islands, and persons under British protection in Turkey; and that wherever, in this Order, with reference to any person, matter, or thing, any word or words is or are used importing the singular number, or the masculine gender only, such word or words shall be understood to include several persons as well as one person, females as well as males, and several matters or things as well as one matter or thing, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

IV. And be it further ordered, that the Judge of the said Supreme Consular Court at Constantinople, acting in the representative capacity aforesaid, shall have full power and authority to cause to be apprehended and brought before him any British subject charged with having committed any crime or offence within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or within any British ship being within one hundred miles of the coast of Turkey, or within any ship or vessel on the high seas within the same limits, not being lawfully entitled to claim the protection of any flag of any State or nation, and having inquired of, tried, and determined according to the practice of English Criminal Courts, except where such practice is modified or altered by the provisions of this or any future Order, any charge which may be brought before him, save and except such as may be of a capital nature, to sentence the party convicted to transportation for life, or for any less term, or in lieu thereof to penal servitude according to the provisions of an Act passed in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter ninety-nine, or to deportation, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years, or to the payment of a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds sterling: Provided always, that no act shall be deemed or taken to be a crime or offence rendering the person committing the same liable to punishment under this Order, unless it be such that if done or committed in England, the party so doing or committing it would be liable to punishment in England according to English law, or unless it be an act made liable to punishment by some previous Order in Council applicable to the dominions of the Sublime Porte.

V. And it is further ordered, that if the crime or offence whereof any person, being a British subject, may be accused before such Judge, shall appear to be of a capital nature, then, having taken the depositions in writing and on oath, and in such form and with such ceremony as the party deposing may declare to be binding on his conscience, of all such witnesses as may be competent to give evidence as to the guilt or innocence of the party so charged, and having bound over such witnesses, being British subjects, in their own recognizances to appear and give such evidence when and wherever they may be called upon so to do, it shall be lawful for such Judge to send such accused party to England or Malta, or if an Ionian, to Corfu, there to be tried according to the law and practice of the criminal Courts in these countries.

VI. And it is further ordered, that the Judge on any occasion of sending a prisoner to England, Malta, or Corfu, shall observe the provisions in an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same effectual."

VII. And be it further ordered, that if the crime or offence whereof any person, being a British subject, may be accused before the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court shall be above the degree of misdemeanour, then such Judge shall summon, by warrant under the seal of the Consular Court, six indifferent British subjects of good repute, residing within the district of the said Court, to serve as jurymen upon the trial of such accused person, in the same way, and subject to the same form, observances, right of challenge, and penalties, so far as circumstances will admit, as persons serving on juries in England; and such Judge shall, with the assistance of such jury, proceed to try the accused in the same manner and according to the same forms, as nearly as may be, as is now practised in England upon the trial of parties charged with criminal offences.

VIII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Judge, if to him it shall seem fit, to cause any person convicted before him of any crime, over and above any fine or imprisonment which may be awarded to such person, to be sent out of the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, in the manner pointed out by Her Majesty, by her Order in Council of the nineteenth of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, notwithstanding the crime laid to the charge of such person may be the first of which he has been convicted before the Judge.

IX. And it is further ordered, that the Judge shall have power in a civil suit to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremony as he may declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him, and shall have power, on the application of any party in the said suit, to issue a compulsory order for the attendance of any person being a British subject, who may be competent to give evidence in such suit ; and any British subject having been duly served with any such compulsory order, and with a reasonable notice of the day of the hearing of such suit, shall on his wilful default to appear as a witness at the hearing of such suit, be punished with a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds sterling or with imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days, at the discretion of the said Judge ; and every witness being a British subject so examined as aforesaid, in case of wilful or false testimony, may be convicted of and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury. And the Judge shall, when the circumstances of the case appear to justify it, and when he thinks fit, order that the expenses of a witness, on his appearing to give evidence, shall be defrayed either by the party at whose application he shall have been ordered to attend, or by the party against whom such evidence has been given.

X. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Judge from time to time to establish rules of practice to be observed in proceedings before the said Judge, such rules to be as far as possible in conformity with those which are established in the County Courts of England, regard being had to the difference of local circumstances and long-established custom, and to make regulations for defraying the expenses of witnesses in such proceedings, and the cost of criminal prosecutions; and also to establish rates of fees to be taken in regard to civil suits heard and determined before the Judge, and it shall be lawful for the Judge to enforce by seizure and sale of goods, or, if there be no goods, by imprisonment, the payment of such established fees and of such expenses as may be adjudged against the parties or either of them: Provided always, that a table, specifying the rates of fees to be so taken, shall be affixed and kept exhibited in the public office of the said Consular Court.

XI. And be it further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Judge from time to time and as he shall think fit, to order the observance by all the Consuls holding Consular Courts within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, of such rules of practice in the proceedings before them as he shall in that behalf establish.

XII. And it is further ordered, that all rules and regulations heretofore made and continuing unrepealed, or to be hereafter made by the Judge as aforesaid, shall forthwith be printed, and a copy of the same be affixed, and kept affixed and exhibited in some conspicuous place in the public office of the Judge, and printed copies of the said rules and regulations shall be provided by the Judge, and sold at a price not exceeding five shillings for each copy ; and for the purpose of convicting any person offending against the said rules and regulations, and for all other purposes of law whatsoever, a printed copy of the said rules and regulations, certified under the hand of the Judge and seal of the Court to be a true copy thereof, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of such rules and regulations, and no penalty shall be incurred or shall be enforced for the breach of any such rules or regulations to be hereafter made, until the same shall have been so affixed and exhibited for one calendar month in the Court of the Consular district within which the breach of such rules or regulations shall be alleged to have been committed.

XIII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Judge to promote the settlement of any suit of a civil nature by amicable agreement between the parties, and, with the consent of the several parties, to refer the decision of any such suit to one or more arbitrators, and to take security from the parties that they will be bound by the result of such reference ; and the award of such arbitrator or arbitrators, shall be to all intents and purposes deemed to be a judgment or sentence of the Judge in such suit, and shall be entered and recorded as such, and shall have the like effect and operation, and shall be enforced accordingly, and shall not be open to appeal : and it is further ordered, that in cases of assault it shall be lawful for the Judge to promote reconciliation between the parties upon such terms, either of payment of compensation or otherwise, as he shall think fit, and to order the proceedings thereupon to be stayed.

XIV. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Judge to enforce his decision against a British subject, in any suit of a civil nature, by distress or imprisonment, in like manner as a decision of the Courts of Law in England in a civil suit is enforced.

XV. And it is further ordered, that all fines and penalties imposed under this Order may be levied by distress and seizure, and sale of ships and goods and chattels ; and no bill of sale, mortgage, or transfer of property, made after the apprehension of a party, or with a view to security in regard to crimes or offences committed or to be committed, shall avail to defeat any of the provisions of this Order.

XVI. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Judge to hear and determine any suit of a civil nature which may be brought before him in the Supreme Consular Court of Constantinople, on appeal from the decision made by any Consul, with or without the aid of Assessors ; and such Consul, on notice of the intention of either party to the suit to appeal from his decision, shall forthwith furnish the Judge with a report of the case, with the notes taken by him of the evidence adduced at the trial, together with a copy of the judgment delivered by the said Consul : Provided always, that notice of such appeal shall have been given within the time limited by such rules and regulations as the Judge may establish under the Xth Article of this Order, and further, that the party appealing shall have, in all other respects, complied with such rules.

XVII. And it is further ordered, that in any case in which a Consul shall have heard and determined a suit in the presence and with the assistance of Assessors, in which such Assessors or either of them shall dissent from the decision of the Consul, the Consul shall enter the fact of such dissent and the grounds thereof in the Minutes of the proceedings, and such decision shall, in the event of no appeal being entered as aforesaid, be submitted to the Judge for revision in the same manner as if such decision had been made the subject of an appeal by either of the parties to the suit.

XVIII. And it is further ordered, that in an appeal to the Judge from the decision of a Consul, it shall not be open to either party to adduce any further evidence than that which has been laid before the Consul, and that a party shall not be required to appear personally to prosecute an appeal or support a sentence, unless specially required by the Judge to do so : Provided always, that in all appeals from the decision of a Consul it shall be lawful for a party to allege facts essential to the issue of the suit which have come to his knowledge subsequently to the decision of the Consul, and to produce evidence in support of such facts : And provided also, that in an appeal to the Supreme Consular Court it shall, moreover, be lawful for the Judge to admit any further legal evidence, besides that adduced before the Consul, on its being established to the satisfaction of the said Supreme Court, by oath or affidavit, that the party desiring to produce such further evidence was ignorant of the existence of such evidence, or was taken by surprise at the hearing before the Consul, or was unable to produce it before the Consul after due and reasonable diligence and exertion on his part in that behalf, or where, under the circumstances of the case, it shall appear to the said Supreme Court that further evidence ought to be received.

XIX. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consuls resident within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte shall, every six months, deliver to the Judge of the Supreme Consular Court at Constantinople a full and faithful report of every cause, civil and criminal, which may have been brought before such Consuls, in such form and with such particulars as the Judge may, in the rules and regulations to be by him framed under the Xth Article of this Order, think fit to require.

XX. And it is further ordered, that in all cases in which a British subject shall have been sentenced to be sent out of the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, as provided in Articles V, VI, and VIII of this Order, the Consul so sentencing him shall forthwith report such sentence of deportation, with the grounds of his decision, to the Supreme Consular Court; and it shall be lawful for the Judge, if he shall consider that any such act of deportation inflicts upon the party a severer punishment than his offence has deserved, to vary or remit such punishment in such way as to him shall seem fit.

XXI. And it is further ordered, that if either party to a suit of a civil nature before the Judge shall be dissatisfied with the decision given by such Judge, it shall be lawful for such party, within fifteen days, to give to the Judge notice of his intention to appeal; and such appeal shall be made by petition to Her Majesty, subject to such rules as the Judge shall make in the Rules and Regulations which he shall, under Article X of the present Order, establish; and such appeal shall be decided by the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, upon a written statement by both parties to the suit, together with the Judge's notes of the evidence adduced at the trial, and his Judgment therein: Provided always, that the subject matter of such suit is of the value of one thousand pounds sterling, and that the party appealing shall have given security, to the satisfaction of the Judge, that such party shall abide by the decision to be given by the Court of Appeal.

XXII. And it is further ordered, that the Judge shall, in the exercise of his discretion and upon the petition of either of the parties to a suit, permit such party to appeal, in the same way and subject to the same conditions as in Article XXI hereinbefore mentioned, in respect of suits the subject matter of which shall be under the value of one thousand pounds: Provided that such party shall give such security as the Judge shall direct, to abide by the decision of the said Court, or shall conditionally perform the judgment given by the Judge in the first instance.

XXIII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Judge or Consul of the district within which the party sued shall be found, in like manner to hear and determine any suit of a civil nature arising within any part of the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte instituted by a British subject against a subject of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or against a subject or citizen of a foreign State in amity with Her Majesty: Provided, that the defendant in such suit shall consent to submit to his jurisdiction, and give sufficient security that he will abide by the decision of the Judge or Consul, or in case of appeal from the decision of the Consul by that of the Judge, and will pay such damages and expenses as the Judge or Consul shall order; and if either or any party in such suit shall be dissatisfied with the decision given by such Consul it shall be lawful for such party, within fifteen days, to give to the Consul notice of appeal to the Judge; and the proceedings in such a suit, or in an appeal arising therefrom, shall be conformable to and under the same conditions as the proceedings in a suit, or in an appeal arising therefrom, in which a British subject is defendant, and a subject of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, or a subject or citizen of a foreign State in amity with Her Majesty, is plaintiff.

XXIV. And it is further ordered, that whenever it shall be necessary for the Judge acting as the representative of the Consul-General, to communicate with the Government of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, whether in the way of complaint against any matter or thing done, or neglected to be done, by any agent or officer of the said Government, or by way of remonstrance, or for any other purpose, such communication shall be made under the seal of the Consular Court, through Her Majesty's Ambassador at the said Porte, and through his interposition, and not otherwise ; and Her Majesty's Ambassador shall thereupon, if he shall think fit, make such communication, or in case Her Majesty's Ambassador shall consider it undesirable to make such communication, then such Ambassador shall state his reasons in writing, for the information of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and transmit the same, together with a copy of the communication itself, and of the reasons given by the Judge for requesting the same to be made, to the said Secretary of State.

XXV. And it is further ordered, that whenever any British subject shall, within the district of the said Consular Court of Constantinople, become bankrupt or insolvent, or unable or refuse to pay his just debts, it shall be lawful for the Judge of the Consular Court, on the petition of any creditor, to cite such person to appear before him for the purpose of answering such questions touching his estate, both real and personal, as such Judge shall think fit ; and if such person shall neglect to appear when so summoned, it shall be lawful for the Judge to issue a warrant, under the seal of the said Court, for his apprehension, and cause him to be taken into custody ; and upon his so appearing he shall be proceeded against in the said Consular Court in the same way, so far as circumstances will admit, as if he were within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Bankruptcy or Insolvency in England ; and such Judge shall for the purposes aforesaid possess and have all the powers, authority, and jurisdiction of the Commissioners of Insolvency or Bankruptcy in England.

XXVI. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Judge to hear and decide all cases of appeal in bankruptcy or insolvency, which shall be brought either by the petitioning creditor of any bankrupt, or by the bankrupt himself, against the decision of any Consul sitting in bankruptcy or insolvency, in the same way as such Judge shall hear and decide all other cases of appeal under the XVIth and XVIIth Articles of this Order.

XXVII. And it is further ordered, that in the event of any question of law or fact, or of mixed law and fact, arising out of the administration of any estate of a deceased British subject within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, it shall be lawful for the Consul-General, or other Consular Officer under whose authority and direction such estate is being administered, to direct the parties interested in such estate, and raising such question as aforesaid, to prepare a special case according to the rules and regulations to be laid down by the Judge under Article X of this Order, for his decision and direction, and such Judge shall thereupon make such order in the matter as he shall think fit.

XXVIII. And it is further ordered, that a Minute of the proceedings in every case heard and determined before the Judge, or before any Consul, in pursuance of this or any other Order, shall be drawn up and be signed by the Judge or Consul, and shall, in cases where Assessors are present, be open for the inspection of such Assessors, and for their signature if they shall therein concur ; and such Minute, together with the depositions of the witnesses or notes of the evidence taken at such trial by the Judge or Consul, shall be preserved in the public office of the said Judge or Consul, and a copy of every such Minute shall be transmitted by the Judge or Consul, in such form as shall hereafter be determined to Her Majesty's Chief Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs every six months.

XXIX. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for every Consul within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte to execute the writs and orders issuing from the Supreme Consular Court at Constantinople, and take security from each and every party named in such writ or order for his appearance in person or by his attorney, and in default of such security, or when specially ordered by the said Court, to send such party to Constantinople in the manner pointed out in the VIIth Article of the Order in Council, of the date of the nineteenth of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

XXX. And it is further ordered, that any suit or action brought against the Judge or Consul in any Consular Court by reason of anything done under the authority and in execution of the power or jurisdiction of Her Majesty intrusted to him or them by this or any other Order, or in execution of any power or jurisdiction heretofore customarily exercised by any of Her Majesty's Consuls or officers on her behalf, shall be commenced or prosecuted within six months after he or they shall have been within the jurisdiction of the said Court, and not otherwise; and the defendant in every such action or suit shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions made with respect to defendants in actions or suits, in an Act passed in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter forty-four; and in an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual."

XXXI. And it is further ordered, that all fees, penalties, fines, and forfeitures levied under this or any other Order, save and except such fees as may be raised by a percentage on the estates of bankrupts or insolvents, or in respect of the administration of the estate of deceased persons, or of a deposit of moneys with any Consular officer, shall be paid to the public account, and be applied in diminution of the public expenditure on account of the Consular service in the Levant.

XXXII. And it is further ordered, that if any provision of any Article of this order shall be in anywise repugnant to or at variance with certain Orders passed by Her Majesty on the second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three; the nineteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four; and the twenty-fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, respectively, or either of them, then such provision of such Article of this Order, so long as the same shall be in force, shall be obeyed and observed, anything in the said recited Orders in Council contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXXIII. And it is further ordered, that this Order shall take effect from and after the first day of November next ensuing.

XXXIV. And the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, and the Right Honourable Henry Labouchere, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 27th day of August, 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 6th and 7th years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions, in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory :

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of His Majesty the Sultan of Morocco :

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the due and effectual exercise of such power and jurisdiction :

I. Now therefore, in pursuance and by virtue of the said recited Act of Parliament, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Her Majesty's Consuls appointed to reside in the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco shall have full power and authority to carry into effect, and to enforce by the means and in the manner hereinafter mentioned and provided, the observance of the stipulations of any Treaty or Convention, or of any Regulations appended to any Treaty or Convention now existing, or which may hereafter be made between Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, and the Sultan of Morocco, his heirs and successors; and to make and to enforce, by fine or imprisonment, or both, Rules and Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty or Convention, and for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco, his heirs and successors.

II. And it is further ordered, that a copy of all such Rules and Regulations made by the said Consul shall forthwith be affixed, and kept affixed and exhibited in some conspicuous place in the public office of the said Consul, and that printed copies of the said Rules and Regulations shall, as soon as possible, be provided by the said Consul, and sold at a price not exceeding one dollar for each copy: and for the purpose of convicting any person offending against the said Rules and Regulations, and for all other purposes of law whatsoever, a printed copy of the said Rules and Regulations certified under the hand of the said Consul to be a true copy thereof, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of such Rules and Regulations and all things therein respectively contained, and no penalty shall be incurred or shall be enforced for the breach of any such Rules and Regulations to be hereafter made, until the same shall have been so affixed and exhibited for one calendar month in the public office of the Consul: Provided always, that any such Rule or Regulation made by Her Majesty's Consul, and to be enforced by a penalty, shall, before the first day on which the same shall be so affixed or exhibited, be transmitted to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for allowance or disallowance; and if any such Rule or Regulation shall be disallowed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the same shall cease to have effect from the receipt by the Consul of such disallowance ; nevertheless, the Consul shall not be liable to be proceeded against in any of Her Majesty's Courts in regard to any act done by him under such Rule or Regulation previously to the receipt of its disallowance by such Consul.

III. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul as aforesaid upon information or upon the complaint of any person that a British subject has violated any of the stipulations of any Treaty or Convention, or of any regulations appended to any Treaty or Convention, between Her Majesty and the Sultan of Morocco, or has disregarded or infringed any of the Rules or Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty or Convention, affixed and exhibited according to the provisions of the next preceding Article of this Order, to summon before him the accused person and to receive evidence and to examine witnesses on oath, as to the guilt or innocence of such person in regard to the offence laid to his charge ; and to award such penalty of fine or imprisonment against any person convicted of an offence against any such Treaty or Convention or appended Regulations, or against the said Rules and Regulations, as may be specified therein respectively ; and any charge against a British subject for a breach of any such Treaty or Convention, or appended Regulations, or for a breach of such Rules and Regulations for the observance of any such Treaty, shall be heard and determined by the Consul without Assessors : Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty to be incurred by a breach of such Rules and Regulations exceed five hundred dollars or three calendar months' imprisonment.

IV. And it is further ordered, that any charge against a British subject for a breach of Rules and Regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties, shall, in like manner, be heard and determined by Her Majesty's Consul; and in all cases in which the penalty shall not exceed two hundred dollars, or one calendar month's imprisonment, the Consul shall hear and determine the charge summarily without the aid of Assessors; but where a penalty attached to a breach of the Rules and Regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties, shall amount to more than two hundred dollars or to imprisonment for more than one calendar month, the Consul, before he shall proceed to hear the charge, shall summon two disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as Assessors, which Assessors, however, shall have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the person charged, or on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him on conviction, but it shall rest with the Consul to decide on the guilt or innocence of the person charged, and on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him: Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty be attached to a breach of Rules and Regulations other than those for the observance of Treaties exceed five hundred dollars or three calendar months' imprisonment; and provided further, that in the event of the said Assessors, or either of them, dissenting from the conviction of the party charged, or from the penalty of fine or imprisonment awarded to him by the Consul, the Consul shall take a note of such dissent, with the grounds thereof, and shall require good and sufficient security for the appearance of the person convicted at a future time, in order to undergo his sentence or receive his discharge; and in default of such security being given, it shall be lawful for the Consul to cause the person to be detained in custody until such security is given ; and the Consul shall, with as little delay as possible, report his decision, with all the particulars of the case, together with the dissent of the Assessors or Assessor, and the grounds thereof, to Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in Morocco, who shall have authority in all such cases to confirm, or vary, or reverse the decision of the Consul, as to him may seem fit.

V. And it is further ordered, that upon any question relating to the observance of any Treaty or Convention, or of Rules and Regulations for the observance of any Treaty or Convention, or of Rules and Regulations other than those for the observance of any Treaty or Convention, a report of every decision made by a subordinate Consular Officer, whether with or without the aid of Assessors, shall be sent in by him to the superior Consular Officer of the district ; and such superior Consular Officer, on the receipt of such report, shall proceed, without Assessors, to revise such decision as to him shall seem fit ; and such revision shall have, for the purposes of this Order, the same effect as if the case had been originally heard and determined by such superior Consular Officer, with or without the aid of Assessors : Provided, that in any case in which the Assessors, or either of them, shall have dissented from the decision of the subordinate Consular Officer, such decision shall not be subject to revision by the superior Consular Officer, but the same shall be submitted for revision to Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General, in the same manner as if such decision had been made by the superior Consular Officer.

VI. And it is further ordered, that every person tried and convicted before the Consul for a breach of any Treaty or Convention, between Her Ma-

XI. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to summon not less than two, and not more than four, disinterested British subjects, of good repute, to sit with him as Assessors at the hearing of any suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation whatever, of a civil nature, brought before him for decision, and in case the sum sought to be recovered shall exceed five hundred dollars such suit shall not be heard by the Consul without Assessors, if within a reasonable time such Assessors can be procured; but the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the merits of such suit, but in the event of such Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the decision of the Consul, the Consul shall enter the fact of such dissent and the grounds thereof in the minutes of the proceedings, and in case of appeal shall transmit the same to the Supreme Court of Her Majesty's garrison and territory of Gibraltar, together with the documents relating to the suit.

XII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to enforce his decision in favour of or against a British subject in a civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, by distress and sale, or imprisonment, in like manner as a decision of the Supreme Court of Her Majesty's garrison and territory of Gibraltar in a civil suit is enforced within the same.

XIII. And it is further ordered, that in case of an appeal to the Supreme Court of Her Majesty's garrison and territory of Gibraltar from the decision of Her Majesty's Consul, it shall be lawful for the said Supreme Court, upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as it shall think proper, to admit any further legal evidence besides that adduced before the Consul, on its being established to the satisfaction of the said Supreme Court, by oath or affidavit, that the party desiring to produce such further evidence was ignorant of the existence of such evidence, or was taken by surprise at the hearing before the Consul, or was unable to produce it before the Consul after due and reasonable diligence and exertion on his part, or where, under the circumstances of the case, it shall appear to the said Supreme Court that further evidence ought to be received.

XV. Every witness, being a British subject, so examined on oath, whether before the Consul or before the Moorish Governor or Kadi, who shall in any such examination give wilfully false testimony, may be convicted of and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

XVI. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to promote the settlement of any civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, by amicable agreement between the parties; and, with the consent of the several parties, to refer the decision of a suit or contention to one or more Arbitrators, and to take security from the parties that they will be bound by the result of such arbitration; and the award of such Arbitrator or Arbitrators shall be, to all intents and purposes, deemed and taken to be a judgment or sentence of Her Majesty's Consul in such civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, and shall be entered and recorded as such, and shall have the like effect and operation, and shall be enforced accordingly, and shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes, and shall not be open to appeal, unless the same shall, within a reasonable time, have been ordered by the Consul to be set aside, on the ground that it is not final, or is defective, or that the Arbitrator or Arbitrators have exceeded their authority, or have been guilty of misconduct in the matter.

XVII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause to be apprehended and brought before him, any British subject who may be charged with having com-dissent, and the Consul shall forthwith report to Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General for Morocco, the fact of such dissent and of its having been so recorded in the minutes of the proceedings, and shall, as soon as possible, lay before the said Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General, copies of the whole of the depositions and proceedings, with the dissent of the Assessor or Assessors recorded therein, and it shall be lawful thereupon for Her Majesty's said Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General, by warrant under his hand and seal addressed to the Consul, to confirm, or vary, or remit altogether, as to him may seem fit, the sentence and punishment awarded to the party accused, and such Consul shall give immediate effect to the injunction of any such warrant: Provided always, that in any case in which the Assessor or Assessors shall dissent from the conviction of or from the amount of punishment awarded to the accused party, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to take good and sufficient bail from the accused party to appear and undergo the punishment awarded to him, provided the same or any portion thereof be confirmed by Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General, which punishment so confirmed shall commence and take effect from the day on which the decision of Her Majesty's said Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General shall be notified to the party accused.

XIX. And in order more effectually to repress crimes and offences on the part of British subjects within the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco, it is further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause any British subject who shall have been twice convicted before him of any crime or offence, and punished for the same, and who, after execution of the sentence of

XX. And it is further ordered, that in any case in which any British subject shall be accused before Her Majesty's Consul of the crime of arson, or house-breaking, or cutting and maiming, or stabbing or wounding, or of any assault endangering life, or of wilfully causing any bodily injury dangerous to life, or of wilful or corrupt perjury, the proceedings before the Consul shall be carried on with the aid of Assessors convened in the manner aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Consul, if to him it shall seem fit, to cause any person convicted before him of any of the crimes aforesaid, over and above any fine or imprisonment which may be awarded to such person, to be sent out of the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco for such time as to him shall seem meet, in the manner pointed out in the next preceding Article of this Order, notwithstanding the crime laid to the charge of such person may be the first of which he has been convicted before the Consul.

XXI. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul within the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco, upon information laid before him by one or more credible witnesses. that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject is about to commit a breach of the public peace, to cause such British subject to be brought before him, and to require such British subject to give sufficient security to keep the peace; and in the event of any British subject being convicted of and punished for a breach of the peace, to cause such British subject, after he shall have undergone the punishment which may have been awarded to him by the Consul, to find security for his good behaviour; and in the event of any British subject who may be required as aforesaid to give sufficient security to keep the peace, or to find security for his good behaviour, being unable or wilfully omitting to do so, then and in any such case it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to send such British subject out of the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco, in the manner pointed out in Article XIX of this order.

XXII. And it is further ordered, that in all cases in which a British subject shall have been sent out of the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco, as provided in the three next preceding Articles of this Order, the Consul sending him out shall forthwith report such act of deportation, with the grounds of his decision thereon, to Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in Morocco.

XXIII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause to be apprehended and brought before him any British subject who may be charged with smuggling or importing into the dominions of the said Sultan any goods whereon any duty shall be charged or payable to the said Sultan, with intent to evade the payment of such duty, or any goods the importation whereof shall be prohibited; and such Consul shall thereupon proceed with all convenient speed to inquire into the same on oath or solemn affirmation, and to hear the witnesses on both sides, with like powers and in like manner in all respects as is provided by Article XIV of this Order. And it shall be lawful for the Consul, having inquired into and heard the said charge, to determine the same, and if he shall find the party guilty, if the charge against him shall be of importing into the said dominions prohibited goods, then to award him to pay a fine not exceeding treble the value of the said goods at the current price of the day; and if the charge shall be of smuggling or importing goods with intent to evade the payment of duty as aforesaid, then to award him to pay a fine not exceeding treble the amount of the duties leviable thereon, and in case of non-payment of any such fine or fines to award him to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months, or it shall be lawful for such Consul, without awarding the payment of any fine, to award that such party shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months in such place as he shall appoint: Provided always, that no British subject charged only with importing prohibited goods shall be apprehended, unless and until he shall have had one week's notice to appear and answer the charge, and shall have refused, failed, or omitted so to appear.

XXIV. And it is further ordered, that a report of every sentence passed by a subordinate Consular Officer in respect of any of the matters mentioned in Articles XVII, XVIII, XIX, XX, and XXI of this Order, and awarding a fine exceeding two hundred dollars, or imprisonment for a term exceeding one calendar month, shall be sent in by such Consular Officer to the superior Consular Officer of the district; and on the receipt of such report, such superior Consular Officer shall proceed, without Assessors, to revise such sentence as to him shall seem fit; and in the case of every sentence pronounced by the subordinate Consular Officer without Assessors, or with the concurrence of Assessors, the decision of the superior Consular Officer shall be final and conclusive; but in the case of any sentence pronounced by the subordinate Consular Officer, from which the Assessors, or either of them, shall have dissented, the superior Consular Officer shall not proceed to revise such sentence, but shall submit all the proceedings to Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General, in the same manner as if the case had been originally heard and decided by the superior Consular Officer with dissent on the part of the Assessors, or either of them.

XXV. And it is further ordered, that in cases of common assault, it shall be lawful for the Consul before whom the complaint is made, to promote reconciliation between the parties, and to suffer compensation and amends to be made, and the proceedings thereby to be finally stayed.

XXX. And it is further ordered, that the Supreme Court of Her Majesty's garrison and territory of Gibraltar shall have and may exercise, concurrently with Her Majesty's Consul, authority and jurisdiction in regard to all suits of a civil nature between British subjects arising within any part of the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco: Provided always, that the said Supreme Court shall not be bound, unless in a fit case it shall deem it right so to do, by writ of certiorari or otherwise, to debar or prohibit the Consul from hearing and determining, pursuant to the provisions of the several Articles of this Order, any suit of a civil nature between British subjects, or to stay the proceedings of the Consul in any such matter.

XXXI. And it is further ordered, that all fines and penalties imposed under this Order may be levied by distress and seizure, and sale of ships, and of goods and chattels; and no bill of sale, mortgage, or transfer of property made by a party accused after his apprehension, or with a view to XXXV. And it is further ordered, that a register shall be kept by Her Majesty's Consul of all British subjects residing within the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco; and that every British subject now residing within such dominions, who shall not have been already enrolled in such Consular register, shall within a reasonable time after the promulgation of this Order, such time to be specified in a note affixed and publicly exhibited in the Consular Office, apply to the Consul to be enrolled in such register; and every British subject who may arrive within the said dominions (except British subjects borne on the muster-roll of any British ship arriving in any port of Morocco) shall, within a reasonable time after his arrival, such time to be specified as aforesaid, also apply to the Consul to be enrolled in such register; and any British subject who shall refuse or neglect to comply to be so enrolled as hereinbefore mentioned, and who shall not excuse such refusal or neglect to the satisfaction of the Consul, shall not be entitled to be recognised or protected as a British subject in respect to any suit, dispute, or difficulty in which he may have been, or may be, engaged or involved within the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco, at any time when he shall not have been, or shall not be so enrolled.

XXXVI. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul shall and may exercise all or any of the powers which, by any Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament for the regulation of merchant seamen, or for the regulation of the mercantile marine, may now at any time hereafter be exercised by any Justice or Justices of the Peace within Her Majesty's dominions.

XXXVII. And it is further ordered, that nothing in this Order contained, shall be deemed or construed to prevent Her Majesty's Consul within the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco from doing or performing any act whatsoever which British Consuls within any other State in amity with Her Majesty are by law, usage, or sufferance entitled or enabled to do or perform.

XXXVIII. And it is further ordered, that every action or suit brought against Her Majesty's Consul by reason of anything done under the authority of this Order, shall be commenced within six calendar months next after the doing thereof, and not otherwise; and the defendant in every such action or suit shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions made with respect to defendants in actions or suits in the said hereinbefore recited Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign.

XXXIX. And it is further ordered, that the word "Consul" in this Order shall include every Consul-General, Consul, Vice-Consul, and Consular Agent, and every person duly authorised to act in any of the aforesaid capacities, within the dominions of the Sultan of Morocco; and that, in the construction of this Order, words importing the singular number shall, if necessary, be understood to include several persons, matters, or things; and words importing the masculine gender only shall, if necessary, be understood to import the feminine gender, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

FROM THE SUPPLEMENT
LONDON GAZETTE of OCTOBER 9, 1857.

India Board, October 1857.

THE following dispatches have been at various times received at the East India House, and are now inserted in the London Gazette, although previous publication has not taken place in India.

No. 1.

The Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army to the Secretary to the Government of India.

SIR, Delhi, June 13, 1857.

IN continuation of letter of 27th ultimo, to your address, from the late Adjutant-General of the Army, reporting the death of the Commander-in-chief on that day, I am now desired by Major-General T. Reed, C.B., commanding the forces in Bengal, to request that you will inform the Governor-General in Council that the Major-General having left Rawul Pindee on the 28th ultimo, reached the camp of the force under Major-General Sir H. Barnard, K.C.B., at Alleepore, one march from Delhi, about 1 A.M. of the 8th instant, when the troops were on the point of moving to drive in the posts of the mutineers outside Delhi.

2. Sir H. Barnard had been joined on the previous day by Brigadier A. Wilson with troops from Meerut, and on the 6th instant by the siege train with its escort, so that the total force in camp was as enumerated in the margin.*

3. I beg to inclose copies of the Major-General's two reports of the successful operations of this day, and am only to add that Major-General Reed entirely approves of the whole of the dispositions made, and cordially concurs in the approbation bestowed on the officers and troops engaged, and particularly on those who are more especially mentioned.

4. The commander of the forces, I am to state, was unable from severe sickness and fatigue to accompany the troops, and in no way interfered with the arrangements of Sir H. Barnard, who was attended in the field by the head-quarters' staff.

5. Major-General Reed desires to express his deep regret at the loss of the Adjutant-General of the army, Colonel C. Chester, who was killed by a cannon-shot in the first advance on the enemy's heavy battery at Badulee Ke-Serai. The loss of this officer at the present juncture is deeply deplored by the Commander of the forces.

* 4 guns, 2nd Troop, 1st Brigade; 2nd and 3rd Troops, 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery; 3rd Company, 3rd Battalion, Artillery, and No. 14 Horse Field Battery; 4th Company, 6th Battalion, Artillery; Detachment Artillery Recruits; Head-quarters' Detachment Sappers and Miners; Her Majesty's 9th Lancers; two Squadrons Her Majesty's 6th Dragoon Guards; Head-quarters and six Companies 60th Royal Rifles; Head-quarters and nine Companies of Her Majesty's 75th Regiment; 1st Bengal Fusiliers; Head-quarters and six Companies 2nd Fusiliers; Sirmoor Battalion.

6. Since the arrival of the troops at Delhi, several affairs have taken place, in all of which the troops engaged have greatly distinguished themselves. The most important of these occurred yesterday morning, when our position was attacked in great force, and the enemy completely repulsed with much loss. Sir H. Barnard's report of this action is enclosed.

7. The Guide Corps, under Captain Daly, arrived on the morning of the 9th instant, having marched from Murdan in Eusufzaie, a distance of 580 miles in twenty-two days.

8. The Engineer and Artillery portions of the force have been actively employed in throwing up batteries, and in maintaining a fire on the city. The mutineers have mounted a very formidable Artillery, and their practice is excellent and usually well sustained; but the Major-General trusts ere long we shall be enabled to strike a decisive blow at the place.

9. In addition to the inclosures already referred to, I am directed to attach copies of Brigadier Wilson's reports of his two actions at Ghazee-odeen Nuggur.

SIR, Ghazee-od-deen Nuggur, May 31, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Major-General Sir H. Barnard, K.C.B., commanding the Umballa force, that, as reported in my brief dispatch of last night, my advanced piquets were driven in at about four o'clock yesterday afternoon, and that I was attacked by a large force of mutineers, accompanied by heavy guns, from Delhi.

I immediately sent off a company of Her Majesty's 60th Royal Rifles, with another in support, to hold the iron bridge, which is the key of my position; and I detached the four guns of Major Tombs' troop, supported by a squadron of Carabineers, right along the bank of the Hindun river.

The insurgents opened upon these advanced parties with heavy guns. I ordered two more companies of the 60th to support their advance, and brought up four guns of Major Scott's battery, the Sappers, and a troop of Carabineers to their support, leaving two guns and a troop of Carabineers to protect the camp.

The first few rounds from the insurgents' guns were admirably aimed, plunging through our camp; but they were ably replied to by our two 18-pounders, in position under Lieutenant Light and Major Tombs' troop, most admirably led by Lieutenant-Colonel M. Mackenzie, who, raking them in flank with his 6-pounders, first made their fire unsteady, and in a short time silenced these heavy guns.

On remarking the unsteadiness of their fire, I ordered Lieutenant-Colonel Jones to advance his Rifles and attack. This was done in a most spirited manner. They drove the enemy from the guns; but in the act of taking possession of two heavy pieces on the causeway, close to the toll-house, I regret to say, that Captain Andrews and four of his men, were blown up by the explosion of an ammunition waggon, fired by one of the mutineers.

The insurgents were now in full retreat, leaving in our hands ordnance, ammunition, and stores, as detailed in the accompanying statement. They were followed for a considerable distance on the Delhi road by Lieutenant-Colonel Custance, commanding the Carabiniers with the force.

Where all behaved so well and showed such gallant conduct it is almost invidious to particularise, but I wish to bring to Major-General Sir H. Barnard's notice, and through him to the Commander of the Forces, Lieutenant-Colonel Mackenzie, 1st Brigade Horse Artillery, who so ably led ; Major Tombs, who so gallantly fought the 2nd troop of that brigade (the latter had his horse shot under him) ; Lieutenant-Colonel Custance, commanding the Carabiniers ; Lieutenant-Colonel Jones, who so gallantly led the 60th Royal Rifles, and Major Scott, who ably supported that regiment.

I beg to inclose the reports I have received from officers commanding detachments, with a return of killed and wounded, and of the captured ordnance and ammunition.

Mr. Greathed, the Commissioner, attended on me during the whole of the action. From this gentleman and four of my own personal staff—Captain Johnson, Staff Officer of the Force ; Captain O'Hamilton, Officiating Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General ; Captain Russell, of the 54th ; and Lieutenant Barchard of the 20th Native Infantry ; my orderly officers ; and Lieutenant Waterfield, of the Commissariat Department, I received every assistance.

The casualties may not be considered great, under the advantages we have gained ; but with my small force I cannot afford to lose men. I have applied to Major-General Hewitt, commanding Meerut Division, for a reinforcement, as I consider my present force much too small for the position

I am placed in—liable to constant attacks from Delhi. Parties of horse have been seen from that quarter reconnoitring my position all the morning, and it is very harassing to the men to be kept so constantly on the alert.

I have, &c.,
A. WILSON,
Brigadier, Commanding Field Force.

SIR, Ghazee-od-deen Nuggur, June 1, 1857.

IN continuation of my demi-official express of last night's date, I have the honor to report, for the information of Major-General Sir H. Barnard, K.C.B., and through him of the Commander of the Forces, that the insurgents attacked me again yesterday afternoon, at about one o'clock, in force.

They took up a position extending fully a mile on the high ridge, on the opposite side of the Hindun, about a mile from my advanced picquet, in front of the bridge, and commenced a fire with their guns from this long distance.

The guns of the Horse Artillery, supported by a squadron of Carabiniers, immediately moved forward to reply to the fire; and the two 18-pounders under Lieutenant Light, moved to the bank of the river for the same purpose. The Rifles, leaving one company in camp, moved forward to the support of the picquet at the bridge, supported by two guns of Major Scott's battery and a troop of Carabiniers.

Perceiving that the Horse Artillery were exposed to a very heavy fire, I advanced two more guns of Major Scott's battery, under Lieutenant Davidson, to support them.

For nearly two hours the action was one of Artillery chiefly.

The Rifles clearing the village on the left of the toll-bar, and the fire of the enemy's guns slackening, I ordered a general advance, the insurgents retiring, continuing their fire, until we drove them from their position and crowned the ridge, from which we could see them in full retreat to Delhi.

My men were so knocked up by the heat of the sun, by which many officers and men were struck down, that I could not follow them further, as I wished. I therefore withdrew the force into camp, after having first burnt a village on our right flank, from which the insurgents had given us much annoyance.

All the force performed their duty well, and to my satisfaction; and in addition to those officers whom I brought to notice in my dispatch of yesterday, detailing the action of the 30th, I wish to report favorably of Lieutenant Elliot, of Artillery, who supported the Rifles with two guns of Major Scott's battery, in the most steady and determined manner; Lieutenant Light also did admirable service with his 18-pounders. The Sappers and Miners under Lieutenant Maunsell, whom I brought up in support of Lieutenant Elliot's guns, performed most efficient service.

I have to regret the loss of Lieutenant Perkins, of Horse Artillery, an invaluable officer, and a great loss to me.

I beg to enclose reports from the commanding officers, and a return of killed and wounded.

I regret to say that the insurgents were enabled to carry off all their guns, which appeared to me to consist of two heavy pieces, on the Delhi road, and five light guns, most probably the remains of Captain de Teissier's battery; one of their ammunition-waggons only was destroyed.

I have, &c.,

A. WILSON, Brigadier, Commanding Field Force.

No. 4.

Lieutenant-Colonel J. G. Neill, of the Madras Army, to the Adjutant-General of the Bengal Army.

SIR, Benares, June 6, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-chief, that I arrived here on the 3rd instant with a detachment of the regiment under my command (1st Madras Fusiliers), and found sixty of my men and three officers, who had preceded me here. A company of men were about two days in rear, and three more were following up by bullock-train. I had arranged to start with a detachment of the regiment for Cawnpore on the afternoon of the 4th, but on that afternoon intelligence was received from Lieutenant Palliser, in command of a detachment of fifty Sowars of the 13th Irregular Cavalry, sent out to escort treasure from Azimghur to this, that the 17th Regiment had broken out into open mutiny, and, joined by the city people and jail prisoners, had left the station and attacked his party and captured the treasure, his Infantry escort acting with them. On this intelligence reaching Benares, Brigadier Ponsonby consulted with me about taking the muskets from the 37th, leaving them their side-arms. He proposed waiting until the following morning to do this. I urged its being done at once, to which he agreed, and left my quarters to make his arrangements, directing me to be present with the Europeans, as per margin,* at 5 P.M. The Seikh regiment, in which Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon placed much confidence, and a party of about seventy of the 13th Irregular Cavalry, who were dispatched, were to join the Europeans in their demonstration. Brigadier Ponsonby came on parade at the hour appointed, but I observed that he appeared far from well, and perfectly unable to act with energy or the vigour required on the emergency. We moved up the Europeans and guns towards the 37th, the Seikhs advancing upon the other flank of that corps, followed by Irregular Cavalry. On approaching the bells of arms of the 37th, the sepoys of that corps seized their arms, loaded them, and opened fire upon us, which was immediately returned with considerable execution by the Artillery and Europeans, the Seikh regiment not having yet come up. At this time several of our men fell wounded, and the Brigadier was on his back on the ground, seemingly struck by a stroke of the sun, and declared himself quite unfit for anything, and begged that being the next senior officer, I would at once assume command, which I accordingly did, and directed a dash on the lines with the Europeans and Seikhs in line on each flank of the Artillery. I was on the right of our men in the lines when an alarm was given, and I found the Seikhs had suddenly halted, wavered, and eventually gone about and dispersed, having first, however, fired at and tried to shoot their Commanding Officer and Adjutant, and fired upon and wounded several other officers, and fired upon the squadron of Irregular Cavalry drawn up in rear of them.

2. I believe, from all I have observed and been told, that with a few exceptions, the Seikhs were supposed to be quite staunch; they seemed in the greatest spirits and anxious to be led against the 37th. The cause of their sudden panic and extraordinary conduct is supposed to have been the turmoil caused in their rear by a Sowar of the 13th Irregular Cavalry having fired at and attempted to cut down the Brigade-Major, Captain Dodgson, on his riding up to assume command of them by the Brigadier's order (their own Commanding Officer having been killed before reaching parade by the men of the 37th Native Infantry). On hearing the shot and shouts, the Seikhs turned round and fired on their officers and our men; one man who had fired at Colonel Gordon was immediately shot by one of his Havildars.

3. The Artillery, on observing the disaffection of the Seikhs, opened upon them with considerable effect; they broke and ran as did the Irregular Cavalry. After this I completed the expulsion of the 37th Regiment from their lines, and burnt them, and withdrew my men and guns into position in the harrack, securing myself for the night.

4. Early next morning I sent out parties and brought in the arms, accoutrements, and colours of the 37th that had been left in their lines, as also some of the Seikhs. I also arranged with the civil authorities to remove the treasure from its most insecure and unmilitary position in the civil lines, and detached a party, consisting of 100 men of Her Majesty's 10th and Madras Fusiliers, and twenty-five Sowars, Irregular Cavalry, under Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon, and had it all brought up and secured in the harracks.

5. On my arriving here, I had observed and expressed my opinion on the insecurity of this treasure, under charge only of a native guard of Seikhs who, however, stood firm and deserve the greatest credit for their loyal conduct. I consider the peril in which this treasure has been placed has been for some time imminent; and I feel assured that had the steps taken against the 37th been deferred until the following morning, the outbreak would have taken place that night when unprepared, and no efficient assistance could have been rendered by the troops to the European families in cantonments, who would have been left to the mercy of the miscreants let loose on such an occasion. I had a party of Madras Fusiliers at a building called the mint, and arranged with the Brigadier before going on parade that, should any disturbance occur, all the families should go there for protection. This was carried out, the party of Europeans there giving confidence and acting as a check to plunderers ; the mutineers, who broke and fled, deserted cantonments rapidly, many of them throwing away their arms. I now hold the barracks and mint-house between cantonments and city with my Europeans, and have some Native guards of trustworthy men as pickets in different parts of cantonments, and feel the cantonments are all safe ; and when a few more European troops come up, I intend planting a picket at the church, when all the houses in cantonments may, I consider, with safety be again occupied. About ninety of the Irregular Cavalry remained faithful, and are now doing duty, patrolling and keeping off the “Budmashes” from the city from entering cantonments. About 190 of the Seikh Regiment, who were on treasure and other guards, are still with us, and remain faithful. A few of them I have promoted for their good conduct when the regiment broke and fled. A further report will be made on this subject, as well as regarding some men of the Irregular Cavalry I have also promoted for loyalty and good conduct.

I beg to state, that we have lost several officers and soldiers on this unfortunate occasion, as follows :—

Killed.

Captain Guise, commanding Irregular Cavalry, murdered by 37th men.

One apothecary, Her Majesty's 10th, ditto.

Two men, Her Majesty's 10th, shot on parade.

Wounded.—Shot on parade.

Ensign Chapman, 37th Regiment, Native Infantry, dangerously.

Ensign Hayter, 25th Native Infantry, doing duty, 37th, dangerously.

 Quartermaster-Serjeant Maidman, 25th Native
 Infantry, doing duty with Seikh Regiment, severely.

All ranks behaved as British soldiers ; the hard work and exposure to the sun was most cheerfully borne. I beg to bring to notice, particularly, the assistance I have received from Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon, commanding the Seikhs, Lieutenant-Colonel Spottiswoode, 37th, the Brigade-Major, Captain Dodgson, Captain Olpherts, commanding the Artillery, and Lieutenant Gosling, Adjutant, Madras Fusiliers.

I have, &c.

J. G. NEILL, Lieutenant-Colonel

P.S.—I have strengthened Chunar by a small detachment of Her Majesty's 84th, with three officers of 37th, and dispatched to Allahabad by Garee Horse Dawk this evening 50 men of Madras Fusiliers, the same number following to-morrow, and as quick as I can spare them to that post and Cawnpore.

SIR, Delhi Cantonments, June 8, 1857.

THE forces under my command marched from Allipore at 1 A.M. this morning, and on reaching Badulee Ke-Serai, found the enemy strongly posted in an entrenched position, which I have the satisfaction to inform you was carried after an engagement of about three-quarters of an hour, and proceeded to take up our present position, which we found to be over disputed ground the whole way, and finally, in a well-defended line of defence, from the signal-tower to Hindoo Rao's house. Our troops behaved with the greatest gallantry and persevering endurance, and after facing a very determined resistance drove the enemy within the walls of Delhi: all this was accomplished by 9 o'clock in the morning. Our loss has been comparatively trifling, only one officer being killed, but I regret to say that officer is Colonel Chester, Adjutant-General of the army, who was esteemed by all for every qualification that can adorn the soldier. I have not been able to ascertain the particulars of our loss, or our capture of guns, but I fear I cannot estimate the former under forty to fifty killed, the number of guns taken to be about sixteen or eighteen. I do not in this hurried dispatch attempt to recommend any one, but I cannot pass over the assistance I received from Brigadier-General Wilson, whose cool judgment entitles him to an equal share of any merit that may be given to the officer in command. From the Brigadier-General and staff of the army attached to me from the divisional staff, I received every support, and from my personal staff, Captain Barnard and Lieutenant Turnbull, the most daring devotion. The conduct of the Ghoorka Battalion, the Sappers, and other Native troops employed, was most praiseworthy; they vied with their European comrades in forward daring. The troops of the Native contingents did equally good service, including those of the Jheend Rajah; and I cannot close this without especial mention of many gentlemen attached to the army in civil capacities, who not only accompanied us into the field, but did every service the extended nature of our position rendered prominent in keeping up mutual communication.

I hope to send you a fuller detail to-morrow. Our siege-train is up, and I hope to open on the town without a moment's delay.

P.S.—I find the captured guns amount to twenty-six, and I desire to add to this, in justice to myself, special notice of the assistance I received from Colouel Congreve, C.B., Acting Adjutant-General of Her Majesty's Forces in India ; Colonel Becher, Quartermaster-General of the Army ; and Colonel the Honorable R. Curzou, Military Secretary to the late Commander-in-chief, who never left me ; Captain Norman, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army, and on whom the important duties of Adjutant-General devolved on the death of Colonel Chester, and Colonel Young, Judge Advocate-General of the Army, who accompanied me during the whole of the action.

No. 6.

SIR, Delhi Cantonment, June 11, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of General Reed, commanding the forces, that the enemy attacked the position occupied by the troops under my command this morning in force. The troops acted throughout with gallantry and coolness, and the affair ended in the total repulse of the enemy, who have retreated to the city. At about a quarter to 5 A.M., the attack first began. On my ascertaining that both flanks were being attacked, the usual supports were not only sent up to the position on the heights, but the whole of the troops under my command were speedily under arms, and marched up to reinforce the picquets, and to drive back the enemy. This was first accomplished on the left, the enemy falling back under the fire of the troops ; and after being beaten back from the right, they came on again for a second attack, under cover of the thickly-wooded gardens near the Subjee Mundee. The 1st Bengal European Fusiliers were sent against them, under the command of Major Jacob, and succeeded most gallantly in not only driving the enemy back, but pursued them, skirmishing all through the thickly-wooded gardens of the Subjee Mundee. It was about half-past 7 A.M. when the troops began to be recalled, and the assembly first sounded for the skirmishers.

In comparison with the strength of the attack, our loss was small, and I trust to be able to send in without delay the official returns of the killed and wounded. I have heard as yet of only one casualty among the officers, Captain Knox, 75th Regiment, who was killed when reinforcing the picquet at the Flag-staff Tower, and while driving back the enemy. The loss on the other side, to the enemy, must have been considerable, and although difficult to estimate, could not have been less than 250.

No. 7.

Major-General Sir H. Barnard to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR,

Delhi, June 12, 1857.

WITH reference to my hurried despatch of the 8th instant, I have now the honor, for the information of the General Commanding the forces, to submit a more detailed account of the action of Badulee Ke-Serai, and seizure of the position on the ridge above the cantonments of Delhi, necessary to hold with regard to ultimate operations against that city.

Having been joined by the force under Brigadier-General Wilson, I broke up the camp at Allipore without delay, and, on ascertaining that the enemy had made preparations to oppose our advance, and had occupied a fortified position at Badulee Ke-Serai, made the following disposition of the forces :—Brigadier-General Grant, C.B., with the force as per margin*, was to gain the opposite side of the canal, and recross it below and in rear of the enemy's position, so soon as he heard the action commence, with a view of taking the enemy in flank. The 1st Brigade, under Brigadier-General Showers, was to act on the right side of the main-trunk road, along which the column was to advance, and the 2nd Brigade, under Brigadier-General Graves, was to take the left; the heavy guns were to remain in position on the road, the rest of the Artillery to act on either side. As soon as our advanced picquet met the enemy, these brigades deployed, leaving the main road clear. The enemy soon opened a very heavy fire upon us, and finding that our light field-pieces did not silence their battery, and that we were losing men fast, I called upon the 75th Regiment to make a dashing charge and take the place at the point of the bayonet; this service was done with the most heroic gallantry, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Herbert, and every officer, non-commissioned officer, and men of the 75th Regiment, my thanks are most especially due; the 1st Europeans supported the attack, and on the 2nd Brigade coming up and threatening their right, and Brigadier-General Grant showing the head of his column and guns on their left rear, the enemy abandoned the position entirely, leaving his guns on the ground. The action lasted nearly one hour, and I regret to say cost many valuable lives.

Although the men were much exhausted, I determined to push on, under the impression that, if I halted, a similar difficulty might be opposed to me the following day in gaining the requisite position, and on the road separating, it became desirable to act in two columns, sending one along the main trunk road, and taking the other to the left through the cantonments. To Brigadier-General Wilson, supported by Brigadier-General Showers' brigade, I confided the conduct of this column, which had to fight its way through gardens with high walls and other obstacles, the whole way; and taking the 2nd Brigade, with Brigadier-General Graves, with myself, I proceeded to the left. I soon found that the enemy had posted himself strongly on the ridge over the cantonments, with guns in position, and under the range of which we soon found ourselves, upon which I determined on a rapid flank movement to the left, in the hope of gaining the ridge under cover of the cantonments, and taking the position in flank.

This was happily successful; the enemy got their guns hastily into a position to meet me; and Brigadier-General Graves' Brigade, consisting of the 60th Rifles, under Lieutenant-Colonel Jones, supported by the 2nd Europeans, under Captain Boyd, advanced gallantly, supported by Captain Money's troop of Horse Artillery, carried the position, and the enemy, finding himself taken in flank and rear, abandoned his guns, and we swept the whole ridge from the Flag-staff to Hindoo Rao's house, where I had the satisfaction of meeting Brigadier-General Wilson, and, the object of the day having been thus effected, the force was at once placed in position before Delhi.

I have already mentioned to the Commander in-chief the names of officers to whom I am indebted, and whom I desire in justice to call to his notice, and to whose names I beg to add those of Major Ewart, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General, Captain Shute, Assistant Quartermaster-General, and Captain Maisey, Deputy Judge-Advocate-General, and beg to state that I fully concur in the merit of those recommended by my Brigadiers.

SIR, Calcutta, June 26, 1857.

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-chief, to annex, for submission to the Governor-General of India in Council, letters in original, of the 17th and 19th instant, from the officer commanding at Allahabad, reporting his own operations at that station since his assumption of the command, and those of Captain Fraser of the 1st Madras Fusiliers, whilst employed in opening the communication between Benares and Allahabad, all of which have met with the warm approbation of the Commander-in-chief, who has desired that his best thanks shall be expressed to both officers for the excellent and useful service they have rendered with the troops under their command.

2. The return of the original inclosures is solicited when no longer required.

SIR,

Allahabad, June 17, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report my arrival here on the afternoon of the 11th instant, with a party of forty men, the Fusiliers having had more difficulty in getting on from Benares, consequent on the disturbed state of the country, the road being partly deserted, and all the dâk horses taken away by the insurgents. I found Allahabad closely invested, except on the river side, it being only approachable from the rivers; the bridge of boats on the Ganges partly destroyed; it, and the village of Deeragunge, in possession of the insurgents. On arriving at the end of the Benares road, at the village of Jansee, I was obliged to move down to my left; was fortunate to bribe some natives to bring a boat over to the left bank of the Ganges, in which I embarked part of my men: the people in the fort, having by this time seen us, sent over boats some way down; by these means we all got into the fort, almost completely exhausted from our long night's march and the intense heat. On assuming command, I at once determined to drive the enemy away and open up some communication with the country; on the following morning I opened fire with several round shots, on those parts of Deeragunge occupied by the worst description of Natives, attacked the place with detachments of Fusiliers and Seikhs, drove the enemy out with considerable loss, burnt part of the village, and took possession of a repaired bridge, placing a company of Seikhs at its head for its protection. The next day Major Stephenson's detachment of 100 men which had left Benares by bullock train the same evening I had, crossed the bridge into the front. On the morning of the 13th I attacked the insurgents in the village of Kydgunge, on the left bank of the Jumna, and drove them out with loss. On the 14th, I could do little or nothing. Ever since I arrived here, I have observed great drinking among the Seikhs, and the Europeans of all classes, and it was not long before I learnt that large Godowns, belonging to merchants and river stean companies, had been broken into and plundered, and the contents were distributed all over the place; quantities of all kinds of spirits and wine were brought into the fort by the Seikhs, sold to our soldiers at the lowest prices,* and the consequence was drunkenness to a disgraceful extent in the garrison. The Seikhs showed anything but a subordinate spirit, and, being in the same range of barracks with our men, caused me no small anxiety. I endeavoured to get hold of or destroy all the liquor and rum, and succeeded in both by directing the Commissariat to purchase all the liquor the Seikhs had to sell; I sent out the only two carts I had to empty what remained in the Godowns

into the Commissariat stores, and destroyed all that I could otherwise lay hold of. It appeared to me most desirable to get the Seikhs out of the fort ; they were very loath to go, and their officers did not appear to me to have that authority over them to oblige them ; it required some tact and management, and was happily effected by Captain Brasyer, who deserves the greatest credit ; they are now outside in some houses, the old Native Hospital, and others on the bank of the Jumna, under the guns of the fort, and although attacked and obliged to retire on the night of the 14th instant, some, including the Adjutant, wounded, yet they soon regained their position. I felt that Allahabad was really safe when every Native soldier and sentry was out of it, and as long as I command I shall not allow one to be on duty in it. On the evening of the 14th I threw a shell from a howitzer on the brutes, into Kydgunge, and the morning of the 15th early, opened the same fire with round shot also upon it at daylight. I sent a steamer up the Jumna with a howitzer, under command of Captain Harwood of the Artillery, and a party of twenty picked shots of the Fusiliers, under Lieutenant Arnold of that corps, who went up the river, some distance above the city, and did much execution. The Seikhs were directed to attack and clear Kydgunge and Mootingunge on the Jumna, and were supported on the right by fifty of the Fusiliers, under Lieutenant Bailey, and the small party of Irregular Cavalry. The troops behaved with great gallantry and spirit in the heat of the sun ; the Seikhs had the legs of the European, and the country they had to go over was less difficult ; the opposition they met with was not so great ; they, however, punished the enemy severely, although they fire badly, and are very wild. The Fusiliers met with some resistance ; did good execution among the enemy, but had two men killed and six wounded, all severely, one dangerously, including Lieutenant Bailey, shot through the thigh. The insurgents were so thoroughly beaten at all points, and our men had followed them up so close to the city, that we have since been informed the greatest terror seized them all, and they all fled from the city during the night. They had also lost several of their chiefs ; and the Moulvie, the chief of the insurrection, is now, I understand, with a few followers about fourteen miles off. There are still some villages in the neighbourhood inhabited by Mahomedan tawnties, who took a prominent and active part in the night of the mutiny, I will make an example of ; but I cannot march out until I get sufficient cattle for my Artillery, and also to draw carriages to convey wounded or men knocked over by the sun. Many sepoys supposed to be from Delhi, fought against us. We have had intelligence from the city of the dispersion and flight of most of the ringleaders. The Moulvie has fled, and two of his men of rank were slain on the 15th. Our two guns, taken away from the bridge of boats by the 6th, were sent in to our outposts, yesterday morning ; also, Mr. Cheek, of the 6th, since dead, and Mr. Conductor Coleman and his family, who escaped the night of the mutiny, although severely wounded and badly treated. The troops are in high spirits and as good health as can be expected this fearful weather. The Fusiliers have endured more exposure and fatigue than most soldiers ; their conduct has been admirable. I cannot speak too highly of Captain Brasyer of the Seikhs ; he alone has kept that regiment together, and all right here ; he deserves the greatest credit ; he assisted me very greatly indeed in getting the Seikhs out of the fort. I almost feared at one time that force would have to be employed ; it was a very near thing indeed ; fortunately I was able to employ the Seikhs in the constant attacks, which assisted. The Fusiliers now here consist of 11 officers and 360 men.

J. G. NEILL, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Commanding Allahabad.

No. 10.

Lieutenant-Colonel Neill to the Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army.

(Extract) Allahabad, June 19, 1857.

I LAST did myself the honor of addressing you on the 17th instant. On the following morning I moved out with all my force, having the previous day obtained bullocks for my two guns. I sent one party of 80 Fusiliers and 100 Seikhs in the steamer, with a howitzer, up the river, to attack and destroy the Pathan village of Derryabad and the Mewattie villages of Sydabad and Russelpore, and to co-operate with me. I marched from cantonments, with 200 Fusiliers, two guns, all the Seikhs and Irregular Cavalry, and proceeded as far as the jail, thus getting between the city and the villages belonging to and said to be occupied by the insurgents. I met with no opposition, the enemy, I regret to say, having disappeared during the night; I swept and destroyed these villages, and collected all my force on the parade-ground of the 6th Bengal Native Infantry. It was my intention to have occupied the church and other buildings during the heat of the day; but as symptoms of cholera amongst the Fusiliers had occurred during the night, one man having been taken ill en route, I determined to return to the fort with all the Europeaus, and leave Captain Brasyer and his Seikhs, with the Irregular Cavalry, accompanied by Mr. Court, Collector and Magistrate, to destroy several villages beyond the church, which work was properly done. I got back to the fort about 7 A. M., and regret to say, that several of the men came into hospital with cholera in its worst form. Eight men were buried last evening, and twenty this evening ; there are still many cases in hospital, but of a milder nature, and I hope, with God's blessing, for the best.

I had before this, fearing disease from the crowded state in which I found the fort, sent off two steamer loads of women and children, and as the cantonment is now safe, I directed all the non-combatants out of the fort ; this order has been attended to. I have also established an European hospital in a Masonic building, a short distance from the fort, to which I have removed all cholera patients. I have also occupied the dâk bungalow near it, with a subaltern's party for its protection ; 100 Europeans are in tents on the glacis, and I move out 200 to-morrow to a tope of trees, near the dâk bungalow. No rain has yet fallen, the heat is intense, and the soldiers, after their hard work and exposure, are much prostrated. The barracks here are in bad order, followers of any description being almost unprocurable ; there are but few punkahs and no tatties ; the men have, therefore, not the proper advantages of barrack accommodation for this hot season. I regret to add, that the supply of medicines here has failed ; there appears to have been little or none kept in Allahabad, and our detachments only brought up sufficient for the march.

I am now in expectation of the arrival of the "Mirzapore," which was also detained by the same authorities, which, I hope, has some little medicine on board. At the same time, I have also to complain of the civil authorities at Ghazeepore presuming to keep back and not delivering to the Officer commanding troops on board the "Mirzaporee," in Calcutta, written orders I sent through them, for the removal of the treasure, at that station, on board the steamer, to be brought by the Europeans to Benares.

Two hundred bullocks with drivers were brought in here yesterday ; this is all our public carriage at present ; our Commissariat officer is away, and that Department is, in consequence, inefficient. I am prevented, therefore, from pushing on, as I wish, troops to Cawnpore ; his Excellency may feel assured that I will do so as soon as I possibly can. I, however, apprehend that nothing can be done until we have had a shower of rain. A detachment of the 84th Queen's may be in to-morrow ; I shall place them in the church, and the other European troops, as they arrive, in other buildings in the cantonment. I beg to inclose Captain Fraser's report of his march from Benares to this place ; much good service has been done by so thoroughly opening the road ; the men of the detachment acquitted themselves in their usual soldierlike and enduring manner, and I beg to bring to the notice of his Excellency, Captain Fraser, an intelligent and energetic officer, in whom I have the utmost confidence in any emergency. I am organizing a body of Irregular Cavalry, by joining Captain Palliser's detachment of the 13th Irregular Cavalry with the few men of Captain Alexander's corps still remaining faithful to us, and expect to entertain some sowars. I have established a system of patrolling in the neighbourhood with the troopers, to encourage the people to bring in supplies.

The Moulvie has left this with about 3,000 followers, his destination is unknown, but supposed to be Lucknow, or in this neighbourhood. I have arranged to beat up his camp if it is.

No. 11.

SIR, Allahabad, June 19, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to inform you that agreeably to instructions received from the officer commanding Benares, a detachment of Madras Fusiliers, strength as per margin,* under my command, marched on June 13, 1857, from Benares, for the purpose of acting against the marauders and disturbers of the peace, and with the view of opening the communication along the road to Allahabad, which for some time had been interrupted.

2. Mr. Chapman, a gentleman well acquainted with the country, accompanied the party.

3. At Gopaegunj, a detachment of the 13th Irregular Cavalry, of eighty men, under the command of Lieutenant Palliser, joined the expedition.

4. On the 14th instant, information having been received on oath that the inhabitants of two villages within a mile of the Grand Trunk Road, near Gopaegunj, had been plundering the grain and stopping the communication, I proceeded with a party of the Fusiliers to the said villages, and called upon the principals to appear, but they had made their escape, and I ordered their houses to be burned.

5. On the 15th instant, intelligence having been received that three Zemindars, who had proclaimed themselves Rajahs, and had been plundering, were then in a village about three miles from Gopaegunj, fifty men of the 13th Irregular Cavalry, under Lieutenant Palliser, proceeded to the village, accompanied by Mr. Chapman and Mr. Moore, of the civil service, who joined our party from Mirzapore.

* 1 Captain, 4 Lieutenants, 1 Second Lieutenant, 1 Assistant Surgeon, and 150 Native Infantry, Rank and File.

They succeeded in capturing the Zemindars, and bringing them into camp, where they were tried immediately by court-martial, and hanged by eight o'clock the same evening.

6. At midnight the detachment marched for Baroad, where we arrived at day-break on the 16th, when I immediately proceeded, with a party of 100 men of the Madras Fusiliers, and the whole of the Irregular Cavalry, to apprehend, if possible, a man named Belour Sing, who, with 1,200 followers, was reported to be in a village about five miles from the Grand Trunk Road, and had been plundering the neighbouring villages. On arriving at the village named Dobaar, I found it deserted, and everything carried off, with the exception of some grain, and a small quantity of gunpowder. I ordered Belour Sing's house and village to be burned, and a reward of 200 rupees was offered by Mr. Chapman for his capture.

7. On the evening of the 16th instant, a Zemindar came to the camp, accompanied by a Duffadar, who was in command of twelve sepoy, who formed a guard over some Government treasure in a village about a mile off the road half-way between Baroad and Sydabad. Mr. Chapman and myself arranged that the detachment should be halted at the nearest point on the road on our march to Sydabad, and a party proceeded to the village to recover the treasure. About one A.M. on the 17th, Mr. Chapman and myself, with twenty-five men of the Fusiliers, went to this village and carried off the treasure, which was said to amount to 12,000 rupees, and had been defended by the sepoy guard in charge of it, although the village had been attacked by Dacoits and burned. The treasure was brought into Allahabad escorted by half the sepoy guard, the remainder of the guard having been left to protect the village. The treasure was handed over on arrival here to Mr. Court, and I think that the sepoys are fairly entitled to some remuneration from Government for having protected the treasure.

8. The punishment inflicted on the three Zemindars at Gopaegunj, and the fact of its being known that the detachment was able to march against and punish marauders at considerable distances from the high road, had the effect of intimidating those who had been plundering; and when the detachment was at Baroad, twenty-three Government bullocks made their appearance, evidently brought to the neighborhood of the camp by the people who had carried them off, but had become afraid to retain them. When the detachment was at Sydabad, some more bullocks and horses were brought back in the same way.

9. On arriving at Sydabad on the morning of the 17th instant, a party of the Irregular Cavalry, under Lieutenant Palliser, proceeded to a village about three miles off, in which it was reported certain people resided who had plundered the dâk bungalow, and carried off the Government bullocks from Sydabad. Lieutenant Palliser's party secured several prisoners, who were brought into camp and tried by court-martial. A party of the Fusiliers proceeded to another village belonging to the same people, but it was found deserted, and I ordered it to be burned. A few Government bullocks were recovered. Two villages were burned by the Irregular Cavalry.

10 On the morning of the 18th June, the detachment arrived at Allahabad. I found the road clear the whole way, and am of opinion that any party of European troops, however small, may now travel the road with safety; but to keep the dâk open, I believe it is necessary, in the meantime, to establish a post of Europeans at Gopaegunj, and another half way between that place and Allahabad, and Colonel Gordon, commanding Benares, has, I understand, ordered this to be done.

11. It is impossible to speak too highly of Mr. Chapman's services, and I am convinced that the measures adopted by him as magistrate at the different places we passed through, if carried out by the police authorities, will have the effect of keeping the road perfectly quiet in future.

12. The conduct of the Fusiliers on the march was most praiseworthy in every respect.

13. The Irregular Cavalry gave me every satisfaction, and I requested Lieutenant Palliser to convey my thanks to his men for their services.

14. Dâk letters, I understand, arrived last night from Benares for the first time, and I trust that there will be no further interruption on this line.

I am, &c.,

J. G. FRASER, Captain, Commanding
Detachment Madras Fusiliers.

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-chief, to inclose for submission to the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council, copy of a dispatch from Major-General Sir H. Parnard, K.C.B., Commanding the Field Force before Delhi, inclosing copy of a report from Brigadier H. Grant, C.B., of an action fought with the mutineers in rear of our camp on the 19th ultimo, in which the troops engaged behaved with great gallantry, and the Brigadier who conducted the affair, displayed much colness and judgment.

2. Major-General Reed desires to support Major-

*Major-General Sir H. Barnard, K.C.B., Commanding Field Force, to the Adjutant-General of

SIR, Camp before Delhi, June 23, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to submit, for the information of the Commander-in-chief, the report of Brigadier Grant, C.B., of the affair of the 19th instant.

These repeated attacks upon our position with the small force we have to repel them, are rendered most harassing by the uncertainty of the point on which it is to be threatened, it being always doubtful whether it is to be confined to one, and can only be successfully repulsed by the untiring and unflinching gallantry of the small bodies who alone can be directed against the enemy, and I can assure you, that under no circumstances did officers and men merit greater praise

I have to deplore the loss of Lieut.-Colonel Yule, 9th Lancers, an officer of great merit, and Lieutenant Alexander, of the 3rd Native Infantry, a young officer of much promise ; also, that Colonel Belcher, Quarter-Master General, and Captain Daly, of the Guides, were wounded, and that I shall be deprived for some time of the services of these officers, an irreparable loss at this moment.

The Native Irregular Cavalry-man mentioned by Brigadier Grant, C.B., has been rewarded by the Order of Merit, which carries the highest pension, and I would venture to recommend Privates Hancock and Purcell, 9th Lancers, for the Victoria Cross.

My thanks are due to Brigadier Grant, C.B., who, on this as on all occasions, evinces the highest qualifications for a cavalry officer.

Our loss I regret to say was severe, but taking the great superiority of the enemy in number into consideration, I am only thankful it should not have been greater.

I inclose a return of casualties.

Brigadier J. H. Grant, C.B., Commanding Cavalry Brigade of the Field Force, to the Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General of Division.

SIR, Camp, Delhi, June 22, 1857.

ON the afternoon of the 19th instant information was brought in, that the camp was to be attacked in the rear.

The safety of the camp being under my direction, I immediately proceeded with a squadron of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers, two guns of Major Scott's, two of Captain Money's, and two of Major Turner's, under command of Lieutenant Bishop, to prevent the near approach of the enemy to our camp. When this force got to the right of the Ochterlony Gardens a heavy fire of artillery was opened upon it, to which our guns replied. The troops from camp now began to arrive and the action became general.

The enemy had taken up a position about half a mile in rear of the Ochterlony Gardens, and from thence opened a very severe fire of round shot, grape and canister. I advanced our guns right up to them, and our artillery replied to their fire with the greatest spirit.

As long as it was light we succeeded in driving the rebels back, but in the dusk of the evening the enemy, who were in great numbers, very nearly succeeded in turning our flank, and for some time two guns were in great jeopardy.

It now became very dark, but I succeeded, with Lieut. Martin, of the 9th Lancers, in getting a few men together, and we charged into the enemy.

The guns, I am happy to say, were saved, but a waggon of Major Scott's battery was blown up. I must not fail to mention the excellent conduct of a Sowar, of the 4th Irregular Cavalry, and two men of the 9th Lancers, privates Thomas Hancock and John Purcell, who when my horse was shot down remained by me throughout. One of these men and the Sowar offered me their horses, and I was dragged out by the Sowar's horse. Private Hancock was severely wounded, and Private Purcell's horse was killed under him. The Sowar's name is Roopur Khan.

Our fire re-opened, and the enemy were driven back to the town.

On the left flank two squadrons of the 9th Lancers, under Colonel Yule, one troop of the Carabiniers, under Lieutenant Ellis, and the Guide Corps, under Captain Daly, proceeded in support of Major Tombs' and Major Turner's guns. The former proceeded with the Guide Corps, the latter with the 9th Lancers, in support to the left of the Ochterlony Gardens, and both opened fire.

A squadron of the 9th Lancers, under Captain Anson, then charged down the road, and the third squadron, under Lieutenant Jones, with Colonel Yule followed in support. Colonel Yule, I regret to say, fell at this time, having received a shot in his leg and was killed by the enemy. He is a severe loss to the 9th Lancers.

The Guide Corps, under Captain Daly, gallantly charged twice, and I regret to say this excellent officer was severely wounded in the shoulder, but the enemy were beaten, and retired to the town.

The following morning I was ordered by the Major-General Commanding to take a force out on the same ground, and drive the enemy away if any were still left. I proceeded, but found only a strong picquet of the enemy, which was easily driven back, and we captured a gun and two waggons, which they had left the night previous.

I beg to bring to the immediate notice of Major-General Sir H. Barnard, the names of the officers who had command of guns and squadrons. Major Scott, Captain Money, and Lieutenant Bishop, commanded the guns on the right, and nothing could be better than the way in which they brought their guns forward, and opened them on the enemy fearless of danger; also Captain Head, who was on the right, and Captain Anson and Lieutenant Jones, who commanded squadrons on the left; the conduct of all has been reported most favourably to me. Major Turner and Major Tombs' names, I presume, will be mentioned by Brigadier Wilson, and it would be needless my saying anything in their favour.

I beg also to bring the name of Captain Daly before Sir Henry, a most gallant and excellent officer.

I regret to say the loss in the 9th Lancers was severe,—five men killed and 8 wounded, and thirty-one horses killed, wounded, and missing.

SIR, Calcutta, July 16, 1857.

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-chief, to forward, for the information of the Governor-General in Council, a letter, in original, from the officer commanding at Benares, of the 8th instant, with its inclosures, reporting an attack made on the insurgents assembled in the neighbourhood on the 6th idem, by Brevet-Major J. F. Haliburton, of the 78th Highlanders, for the conduct of which his Excellency has expressed to that officer his acknowledgments.

2. I am to request that you will be good enough to draw the attention of Government to the favorable mention made of the conduct of the detachments of the 47th and 65th Native Infantry, and to express the pleasure it gave Sir P. Grant to see them so creditably reported of.

3. The promotion of Sowar Hyat Khan to Duffadar, for his gallant conduct in rescuing Lieutenant G. H. Hale, under a heavy fire, has Sir P. Grant's warm approval.

4. The return of the inclosure is requested.

W. MAYHEW, Major.

No. 16.

Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR,

Benares, July 8, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to transmit, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-chief, the report of Major Haliburton, Her Majesty's 78th Highlanders, who commanded the detachment employed against the insurgents assembled in this neighbourhood on the 6th instant.

2. I am sorry to observe that Major Haliburton was not quite satisfied with the conduct of the party of the 12th Irregular Cavalry, and as his Excellency would doubtless require more detailed particulars, I inclose with this the explanation furnished by Captain Boileau on my requisition.

3. The Sowar named by Captain Boileau as having specially distinguished himself by gallantly rescuing a dismounted officer whose horse had been killed, was yesterday named in Brigade Orders, and promoted to the rank of Duffadar. The sowar, I am informed, is a Punjaabee.

4. His Excellency will be pleased to hear that the sepoys of the 47th and 65th appear disposed to act with energy and good faith against marauders, as shown from the reports from Azimghur and Mirzapore, annexed.

I have, &c.,

P. GORDON, Lieutenant-Colonel, Commanding Benares District.

Major Haliburton to Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon.

SIR,

Benares, July 7, 1857.

IN compliance with my instructions, I advanced yesterday morning about 10 A.M., with the force under my command, about eight miles on the road to Azimghur. Here the advanced Cavalry reported a large body of men half-a-mile in front. On examination I found them posted across the road, their flanks resting on villages; the road through their centre; their left, their stronghold, shaded with trees, their right partially concealed by rising ground in front, their numbers thus left doubtful.

Owing to the very heavy rain, which had still continued to fall, the guns were confined to the road

Advancing with the Highlanders on the left centre, the Cavalry again on my left, the guns protected by a detachment of Her Majesty's 37th Regiment, the Seikhs turning the right of the rebels, it was my intention (and my orders were issued to that effect) to have approached within 350 yards of their position, and then opened fire with the guns on both flanks.

This was entirely frustrated by the gun-bullocks, which refused to move in the right direction, and got into confusion. Some little delay occurred, when I advanced the Highlanders without them, the Cavalry going rapidly to the front on seeing symptoms of the break-up of the rebel force, which was soon in retreat in all directions, the guns from their position in rear opening upon the fugitives with some effect.

The Cavalry met with combined and determined opposition at close quarters, as well from matchlock as from sword, most of the horses of the Gentlemen Volunteers being badly cut and one killed.

For the conduct of this force at large I refer you more particularly to Captain Boileau in command, but even during my own advance, I myself saw sufficient to weaken confidence in the zeal of the sowars.

The conduct of Surat Sing, a Seikh gentleman, was most decided and courageous. To his example and that of the other gentlemen the success of the Cavalry party must be entirely attributed.

I regret much to have to report that Surat Sing was very seriously wounded by a sword-cut in the knee. The Cavalry killed all they overtook ; the Infantry made many good shots : at least some sixty or seventy met their fate.

The two villages were set on fire.

The armed force of the rebels I would calculate to have been not less than 400 or 500 (it may have been much more), mixed up with and assisted by crowds of villagers ready for the fray, making the collected force, I should fancy, not less than 1000, and which might soon, from all appearance, have been increased to double.

I reached quarters last evening about 9 o'clock.

I have, &c ,

J. F. HALIBURTON, Brevet Major,
78th Highlanders.

No. 18.

Captain Boileau to the Major of Brigade, Benares.

SIR,

Benares, July 7, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, that in an engagement with some insurgents yesterday, one sowar and two horses of my escort were wounded severely, and one horse missing.

I regret to add that the horses of Lieutenants Miles, Hale, and Campbell, were all badly wounded, and are disabled from work for some time to come.

I beg you will bring to the notice of Colonel Gordon the gallant example shown by these officers to the men, and the good conduct of Sowar Hyat Khan, who under a heavy fire went to the rescue of Lieutenant Hale when dismounted, and who subsequently killed two men with his own hand. I would solicit his promotion.

I have, &c.,

GEO. BOILEAU, Captain,
Oude Irregular Cavalry.

No. 19.

Captain Boileau to Lieutenant-Colonel Gordon.

SIR,

Benares, July 7, 1857.

IN reply to your letter of this day's date, calling upon me to report upon the conduct of the sowars employed yesterday under my command, I have the honor to state, that although the sowars cut up nearly every man of that portion of the enemy to which they were immediately opposed, they nevertheless did not show that alacrity in closing with them which might have been expected.

Whether to attribute their conduct to timidity or want of zeal I am in doubt.

Their number was small (only twenty). The insurgents appealed to their religious feelings, and they were exposed to a sharp fire of matchlocks, as is apparent from the number of casualties in horses of officers and men.

These men are quite unknown to me, having only been very recently placed at my disposal as an escort.

I have, &c.,

GEO. BOILEAU, Captain,
Oude Irregular Cavalry.

Major General Reed, C.B., to the Secretary to the Government of India.

SIR, Camp before Delhi, July 16, 1857.

ON the morning of the 14th, the mutineers moved out of the city and attacked our batteries at Hindoo Rao's house* and picket in the Subzee Mundee suburb, all under the command of Major Reid, of the Sirmoor Battalion. Our troops remained on the defensive until 3 p.m., maintaining their position against a force believed to consist of twenty Regiments of Infantry, a large body of Cavalry, and several field pieces, and supported by a fire of heavy artillery from the walls.

2. At 3 o'clock, a column was formed as per margin,† under command of Brigadier Showers, to drive the enemy out of the suburbs; Major Reid, with the troops from Hindoo Rao's picket, co-operating on the left.

3. This service was effectually and gallantly performed, and the enemy driven in confusion, and with much loss, under the cover of a very heavy fire of grape and musketry from the walls of Delhi, and very nearly losing some of the field guns they had brought outside.

4. Our own loss, I am sorry to say, was severe, as will be seen by the accompanying return, and I extremely regret to report that Brigadier General Chamberlain, the Acting Adjutant General of the Army, who accompanied Brigadier Showers' column, was severely wounded. The duties of the Adjutant General's department have therefore again devolved on Captain Norman.

5. Yesterday and to-day the enemy have remained perfectly quiet, with the exception of a fire of Artillery at intervals from the walls, to which our heavy batteries have replied.

*The Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army to the

SIR, Calcutta, July 18, 1857.

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-chief. to transmit in original, a dispatch under date the 12th instant, from Brigadier-General H. Havelock, C.B., commanding the moveable column from Allahabad, giving a detailed account of the operations of the troops under his command, and of those under Major Renaud, of the 1st Madras Fusiliers, and of the very decisive action fought by the combined force at Futtehpoore, on the above date, which has ended in the complete discomfiture of the enemy.

2. In submitting these documents to the Governor-General in Council, I am instructed to say that his Excellency feels assured that his Lordship will agree with him that the Brigadier-General, and the officers and men of every arm under his command, have well earned the cordial thanks and acknowledgments of the Government of India, for the excellent service they have rendered, and the cheerful alacrity with which they have borne their fatigue and exposure.

3. The return of the documents when done with is requested.

I have, &c.,

W. MAYHEW, Major.

No. 22.

Brigadier-General Havelock to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Camp, Futtehpore, July 12, 1857.

BY telegrams and reports in various shapes, the Commander-in-chief has been kept informed of the operations of Major Renaud, 1st Madras Fusiliers, on the Grand Trunk road, between the 1st and 11th instant, at the head of a force of 400 British and 420 native troops, with two pieces of cannon. He has everywhere pacificated the country, by punishing the ringleaders in mutiny and rebellion, wherever they have fallen into his hands, and earned, as I venture to think, the best thanks of his Excellency.

2. But on the 10th instant his position became critical.

Cawnpore had suddenly fallen, by an act of treachery unequalled in our annals, save by one fatal event beyond the Indus; and the rebel force, thus freed from occupation, had rapidly pushed down a force to the vicinity of this place, within five miles of which the Major would arrive on the morning of the 12th. He would thus be exposed to the attack of 3,500 rebels with 12 guns.

3. No time was to be lost; so on the 10th my column marched, under a frightful sun, fifteen miles, to Synee, and, resuming their course at 11 o'clock at night, joined Major Renaud on the road, by moonlight, and with him marched to Khaga, five miles from Futtehpore, soon after dawn, and took up a position.

4. The heat was excessive, but there were now on a point 1,400 British bayonets, and eight guns, united to a small native force. The whole is detailed in the margin.*

5. Our information had been better than that of the enemy, for when Lieutenant-Colonel Tytler pushed a reconnaissance up to the town they evidently supposed they had only Major Renaud's gallant but small force in their front, for after firing on the Lieutenant-Colonel and his escort, they insolently pushed forward two guns and a force of Infantry and Cavalry, cannonaded our front, and threatened our flanks.

6. I wished earnestly to give our harassed soldiers rest, and so waited until this ebullition should expend itself, making no counter disposition, beyond posting 100 Enfield Riflemen (64th) in an advanced copse. But the enemy maintained his attack with the audacity which his first supposition had inspired, and my inertness fostered. It would have injured the morale of my troops to permit them thus to be bearded, so I determined at once to bring on an action.

7. Futtehpore constitutes a position of no small strength. The hard dry Grand Trunk Road subdivides it, and is the only means of convenient access, for the plains on both sides are covered at this season by heavy lodgments of water, to the depth of two, three, and four feet. It is surrounded by garden inclosures of great strength, with high walls, and has within it many houses of good masonry. In front of the swamps are hillocks, villages, and mangoe groves, which the enemy already occupied in force.

8. I estimate his number as set forth in the margin.*

9. I made my dispositions. The guns, now eight in number, were formed on and close to the chaussée, in the centre, under Captain Maude, Royal Artillery, protected and aided by 100 Enfield Riflemen of the 64th. The detachments of Infantry were, at the same moment, thrown into line of quarter-distance columns, at deploying distance, and thus advanced in support, covered at discretion by Enfield skirmishers. The small force of volunteers and Irregular Cavalry moved forward on the flanks, on harder ground.

10. I might say that in ten minutes the action was decided, for in that short space of time the spirit of the enemy was utterly subdued; the rifle fire, reaching them at an unexpected distance, filled them with dismay, and when Captain Maude was enabled to push his guns through flanking swamps to point-blank range, his surprisingly accurate fire demolished their little remaining confidence. In a moment three guns were abandoned to us on the chaussée, and the force advanced steadily, driving the enemy before it on every point.

11. Major Renaud won a hillock on the right in good style, and struggled on through the inundation. The 78th, in extension, kept up his communication with the centre ; the 64th gave strength to the centre and left ; on the left the 84th and regiment of Ferozepore pressed back the enemy's right.

12. As we moved forward the enemy's guns continued to fall into our hands, and then in succession they were driven by skirmishers and columns from the garden inclosures, from a strong barricade on the road, from the town-wall, into and through, out of and beyond, the town. They endeavoured to make a stand a mile in advance of it. My troops were in such a state of exhaustion that I almost despaired of driving them further. At the same time, the mutineers of the 2nd Light Cavalry made an effort to renew the combat by charging, with some success, our Irregular Horse, whose disposition throughout the fight was, I regret to say, worse than doubtful. But again our guns and riflemen were, with great labour, pushed to the front. Their fire soon put the enemy to final and irretrievable flight, and my force took up its present position in triumph, and parked twelve captured guns.

13. I must endeavour, in this hasty despatch, to do justice to those who led the troops to this easy victory :—

First on the list I must place Major Renaud, whose exertions at the head of the advanced column I cannot sufficiently praise. His coolness and conduct in the action are equally entitled to my highest commendation.

I hope that it will be in the power of his Excellency the Commander-in-chief to bring speedily to the notice of His Royal Highness the General commanding-in-chief the courage and skill of Captain Maude, Royal Artillery. I have seen some Artillery fights in my time, but never beheld guns better served, or practice more effective, than that of my battery under this officer.

Colonel Hamilton led his Highlanders well, and they followed him full of spirit and devotion.

I have every reason to be satisfied with the conduct in this combat of Major Stirling at the head of the 64th; of Lieutenant Ayrton, in command of the 84th detachment; of Captain Brasyer, Regiment of Ferozepore; of Captain Barrow, leading the Volunteer Cavalry; and Lieutenant Palliser, at the head of the Irregular Horse.

I have next to speak of the Staff:—

Captain Beatson, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, has given me entire satisfaction in the performance of his ordinary duties, and I was much gratified by his boldness and activity in the fight.

Lieutenant-Colonel Tytler is indefatigable, and most intelligent in a sphere of duty entirely new to him.

Captain McBean's commissariat arrangements, chiefly with the advanced column, have hitherto been every way successful.

My orders were conveyed in the field boldly, actively, and intelligently, by my Aide-de-camp, Lieutenant Havelock, 10th Foot, and the following officers: Lieutenant Morland, 1st Fusiliers; Lieutenant Moorsom, Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry; Captain Sheehy, Her Majesty's 81st Regiment; Captain Russell, Engineers; and Captain McBean.

14. I inclose the list of casualties; the lightest, I suppose, that ever accompanied the announcement of such a success. Twelve British soldiers were struck down by the sun, and never rose again. But our fight was fought neither with musket nor bayonet and sabre, but with Enfield rifles and cannon; so we took no men. The enemy's fire scarcely reached us; ours, for four hours, allowed him no repose.

15. A return of captured ordnance also accompanies this report.

I have, &c.,
H. HAVELOCK.

The Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army, to the Secretary to the Government of India.

SIR, Calcutta, July 31, 1857.

I HAVE the honor, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for submission to the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, two dispatches received from Brigadier-General H. Havelock, C.B., commanding the moveable column, dated the 15th and 20th of July, giving an account of his engagements with the rebels under the Nena Sahib, at the bridge over the Pandoo Nuddee, and at the recapture of Cawnpore from the same enemy.

2. His Excellency considers that the greatest credit is due to the Brigadier-General and to the brave troops under his command. They have marched 130 miles in eight days, at the most trying season of the year, fought three obstinately contested combats, in each of which the insurgents have been signally beaten, destroyed the stronghold of that arch fiend and traitor the Nena Sahib, and captured 44 pieces of ordnance, many of which are of large calibre.

3. General Havelock has, on many occasions, handled his force with the ability which might have been expected from his well won reputation as a brave, skilful, and experienced soldier, and Sir P. Grant begs to recommend him, and the several officers he has specified in his dispatches, to the most favorable consideration of his Lordship in Council; and his Excellency desires further to draw especial attention to the glowing terms in which General Havelock describes the excellent conduct, and gallantry under fire, of the troops of all arms serving with him in the field.

4. The return of the enclosure is requested.

I have, &c.,

W. MAYHEW.

SIR, Camp, Pandoo Nuddee, July 15, 1857.

I HAVE the satisfaction to acquaint you, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-chief, that the troops under my command have been twice successfully engaged with the enemy to-day, and have captured four guns.

2. Whilst prosecuting my march towards Cawnpore, it became a matter of deep interest to me to learn whether the fine bridge over the Pandoo Nuddee had been destroyed or not. The stream is not at this season fordable, and the delay in crossing by other means, or at any other point, would have been most damaging to the objects of the expedition.

3. Intelligence meanwhile came in to the effect that the village of Aeng was strongly occupied by the enemy, that he was entrenched across the road, and had two Horse-Artillery guns in position.

4. I therefore reinforced the advanced guard, under Lieutenant-Colonel Tytler, by attaching to him, in addition to the small body of Volunteer Cavalry, six guns of Captain Maude's battery, and the detachment of Her Majesty's 64th Regiment.

5. The enemy's entrenchments were not formidable, but the country being thickly wooded, he was enabled to maintain himself for some time against our fire, during which interval large bodies of Cavalry advanced on both flanks, with the intention of capturing our baggage. These attacks were very persevering, and, to defeat them, as I had only twenty horse, I was compelled to protect the flanks with the Infantry in second line, and by Artillery fire. It is gratifying to have to report that the enemy was unable to capture a single baggage animal, or follower. The last attempt was defeated by the Baggage-Guards, whose fire was very effective.

6. Soon, however, the Lieutenant-Colonel overcame all resistance, drove the enemy before him, and captured his cannon. The road was strewn for miles with abandoned tents, ammunition, and other materials of war. He reports to me, in high terms of commendation, the conduct of the troops immediately under his command, of Captain Maude, commanding the battery, and of Lieutenant Havelock, 10th Foot, my aide-de-camp; and Lieutenant Moorsom, 52nd Light Infantry, whom I had placed at his disposal.

7. The troops were halted for refreshment and short repose, when authentic information was received that the bridge on the Pandoo stream was not destroyed but defended by entrenchments and two guns of garrison calibre.

8. Disposition had to be made to force the passage of the stream. Fortunately, the bridge was at a salient bend of the river in our direction. Captain Maude at once suggested to me his desire to envelope it with his Artillery fire, by placing three guns on the road, and three on either flank. The whole of the Madras Fusiliers were extended as Enfield Riflemen, as being the most practised workmen in the force. They lined the banks of the stream and kept up a biting fire.

9. The enemy opened an effective cannonade upon our column as they advanced along the road. They therefore deployed and advanced with great steadiness in parade order in support of the guns and riflemen. Captain Maude's bullets soon produced an evident effect, and then the right wing of the Fusiliers, suddenly closing, threw themselves with rare gallantry upon the bridge, carried it, and captured both guns. These two affairs cost me 25 killed and wounded, as shown in the accompanying return. Amongst the latter I regret to have to particularize Major Renaud, 1st Madras Fusiliers, to whose gallantry and intelligence I have been under great obligations. His left thigh was broken by a musket-ball in the skirmish at Aeng, but I hope, from the fortitude with which he endures all suffering, a favorable result.

I have, &c.,

H. HAVELOCK,
Brigadier-General, Commanding Allahabad
Moveable Column.

S. BEATSON,
Captain, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General.

No. 25.

SIR, Cawnpore, July 20, 1857.

I HAVE the pleasure to announce that the triumph of the Marhatta pretender Nena Sahib, adopted nephew of the late "Ex Peshwa Bajee Rao," has been of short duration. The treacherous proceedings by which he compassed the destruction of the force under the gallant Sir Hugh Wheeler have already been reported to the Commander-in-chief.

I have now to announce the complete discomfiture of his force, under his personal command, and the capture of his cannon, followed by the re-occupation of this station, which, since the 6th June, he has been devastating and desecrating by every form of cruelty and oppression.

2. He filled up the measure of his iniquities on the 15th ; for, on hearing that the bridge at the Pandoo Nuddee was forced, he ordered the immediate massacre of the wives and children of our British soldiers still in his possession in this cantonment, which was carried out by his followers with every circumstance of barbarous malignity.

3. My information was in every respect good, and I ascertained that he had taken up a position at the village of Ahirwa where the grand trunk road unites with that which leads direct to the Military Cantonment of Cawnpore

4. His entrenchments cut and rendered impassable both roads, and his guns, seven in number, two light and five siege calibre, were disposed along his position which consists of a series of villages. Behind these his infantry, consisting of mutinous troops, and his own armed followers was disposed for defence. It was evident that an attack in front would expose the British to a murderous fire from his heavy guns sheltered in his intrenchment. I resolved therefore to manœuvre to turn his left. My camp and baggage were accordingly kept back, under proper escort, at the village of Maharajpoor, and I halted my troops there two or three hours in mango-groves to cook, and gain shelter from a burning sun.

5. My column then moved off, right in front : the Fusiliers led, followed by two guns ; then came the Highlanders, in rear of whom was the central battery of six guns under Captain Maude. The 64th and 84th had two guns more in their rear, and the Regiment of Ferozepore closed the column.

6. My troops, defiling at a steady pace, soon changed direction and began to circle round the enemy's left. They were shrouded for some time by clumps of mango ; but as soon as the enemy comprehended the object of their march, an evident sensation was created in his lines. He pushed forward on his left in large body of horse, and opened a fire of shot and shell from the whole of his guns. But he was evidently disconcerted by our advance on his flank, and anxious for his communication with Cawnpore. My troops continued their progress until his left was wholly opened to our attack, and then formed line and advanced in direct echelon of regiments and batteries from the right. A wing of the Fusiliers again covered the advance extended as Riflemen.

7. The opportunity had arrived for which I have long anxiously waited, of developing the prowess of the 78th Highlanders. Three guns of the enemy were strongly posted behind a lofty hamlet well entrenched. I directed this regiment to advance, and never have I witnessed conduct more admirable. They were led by Colonel Hamilton, and followed him with surpassing steadiness and gallantry under a heavy fire. As they approached the village they cheered and charged with the bayonet, the pipes sounding the pibroch. Need I add that the enemy fled, the village was taken, and the guns captured.

8. On the left Major Stirling with the 64th was equally successful against another village, and took three guns.

9. The enemy's Infantry appeared to be everywhere in full retreat, and I had ordered the fire to cease, when a reserve 24-pounder was opened on the Cawnpore road, which caused considerable loss to my force ; and, under cover of its fire, two large bodies of Cavalry at the same time riding insolently over the plain, the Infantry once more rallied. The beating of their large drums, and numerous mounted officers in front, announced the definitive struggle of the "Nena" for his usurped dominion.

10. I had previously ordered my volunteer Cavalry to adventure a charge on a more advanced party of the enemy's horse, and I have the satisfaction to report that they conducted themselves most creditably. One of their number, Mr. Carr, was killed in the charge.

11. But the final crisis approached. My Artillery cattle, wearied by the length of the march, could not bring up the guns to my assistance; and the 1st Madras Fusiliers, 64th, 84th, and 78th detachments, formed in line, were exposed to a heavy fire from the 24-pounder on the road. I was resolved this state of things should not last, so calling upon my men, who were lying down in line, to leap on their feet, I directed another steady advance. It was irresistible. The enemy sent round shot into our ranks until we were within three hundred yards, and then poured in grape with such precision and determination as I have seldom witnessed. But the 64th, led by Major Stirling and my Aide-de-camp, who had placed himself in their front, were not to be denied. Their rear showed the ground strewn with wounded; but on they steadily and silently came, then with a cheer charged, and captured the unwieldy trophy of their valour.

12. The enemy lost all heart, and after a hurried fire of musquetry gave way in total rout. Four of my guns came up and completed their discomfiture by a heavy cannonade; and as it grew dark, the roofless barracks of our Artillery were dimly descried in advance, and it was evident that Cawnpore was once more in our possession.

13. The points of this victory I shall have afterwards to describe. The troops had been thirteen hours in their bivouac when a tremendous explosion shook the earth. "Nena Sahib" in full retreat to Bithoor, had blown up the Cawnpore Magazine.

The first movements of the Marhatta indicated a determination to defend himself desperately. Reports from the front assured us that he had assembled 5000 men, and placed 45 guns in position for the defence of his stronghold ; but his followers have since despaired, and I have taken possession of Bithoor without a shot

14. I was joined by the steamer "Burrumputoor" this morning, which is now in easy communication with me.

15. I must reiterate my obligations to the officers commanding my detachments and batteries, to Major Stephenson, Madras Fusiliers ; Colonel Hamilton, the leader of my Highlanders, who had his horse shot ; Major Stirling, 64th, who is slightly wounded ; Captain Curric, 84th, severely, I fear, dangerously wounded (since dead) ; Captain Maude, Artillery ; Captain Brasyer, commanding the regiment of Ferozepore ; and Captain Barrow, commanding my small body of horse. Lieut.-Colonel Tytler's zeal and gallantry have been beyond all praise.

16. It was my desire to have offered my thanks in like terms to Captain Beatson, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General ; but I can now only record my opinion over his grave. He was attacked by cholera on the morning of this fight, and though he did his duty throughout it, and bivouacked with the troops, he sunk in three days under the violence of his disorder. Lieutenant Moorsom, Her Majesty's Light Infantry, assisted in carrying my orders, and displayed great courage and much intelligence.

I have already mentioned the conduct of my Aide-de-camp in front of the 64th throughout the fight: he was seen wherever danger was most pressing, and I beg specially to commend him to the protection and favour of his Excellency the Commander-in-chief.

I enclose returns of killed, wounded, and missing, and Ordnance captured.

Camp, Buseerut Gunge, July 29, 1857.

(Extract).

I MOVED forward from the strong position of Munghowar on the 19th instant, and soon became engaged with the enemy near the town of Unao.

2. It is necessary to describe the enemy's position: his right was protected by a swamp which could neither be forced or turned; his advance was drawn up in a garden enclosure, which in this warlike district had purposely or accidentally assumed the form of a bastion. The rest of his force was posted in and behind a village, the houses of which were loopholed. The passage between the village and the large town of Unao is narrow. The town itself extended three-quarters of a mile to our right. The flooded state of the country precluded the possibility of turning in this direction. The swamp shut us on the left. Thus an attack in front became unavoidable.

3. It was commenced by the 78th Highlanders and 1st Fusiliers with two guns, and soon became exceedingly warm. The enemy were driven out of the bastioned enclosure, but when our troops approached the village a destructive fire was opened upon them from the loopholed houses. It became necessary to bring up the 64th under Colonel Wilson, K. H. Here some daring feats of bravery were performed: Private Patrick Cavanagh, 64th, was cut literally in pieces by the enemy, whilst setting an example of distinguished gallantry. Had he lived I should have deemed him worthy of the Victoria Cross. It could never have glittered on a more gallant breast.

4. Lieutenant Bogle, 78th Highlanders, in an attempt to penetrate into a house filled with desperate fanatics of the Mussulman faith was badly wounded. The village was set on fire. Still its defenders resisted obstinately. Finally, the guns were captured, and the whole force was enabled to debouch by the narrow passage between the village and the town of Unao, and formed in line. It found the enemy rallied and re-formed in great force. Infantry guns and cavalry were drawn up in line on the plain. They were attacked in direct echelon of detachments and batteries, their guns taken, and the Infantry and Horse put to flight. During the whole of the action a large detachment of the troops of Nena Sahib threatened our left flank.

5. The troops halted three hours, and then moved on towards Buseerut Gunge. It is a walled town with wet ditches. The gate is defended by a round tower, on and near which four pieces of cannon were mounted, the adjacent building being loop-holed and otherwise strengthened. In rear of the town is a broad and deep inundation, crossed by a narrow chaussée and bridge. The guns pushed on in admirable order, supported by the 1st Fusiliers skirmishing, and the 78th Highlanders, and 64th Regiment in line.

6. The enemy's cannonade was well sustained; nevertheless, our force continued to gain ground. The 64th were then directed to turn the town by our left, and penetrate between it and the swamp, thus cutting off the enemy from the chaussée and bridge. The Fusiliers and the Highlanders precipitated themselves on the earth-works, broke through the entrenchment, and captured the town.

7. The whole of the guns of 5th Company of 7th Battalion Artillery were taken by us, with nearly all its ammunition. It had come from Fyzabad and Lucknow. The ground on both sides of the road at Unao was so flooded that it was impossible for Cavalry to act. My Volunteer Horse were therefore reduced to inactivity, though most anxious to engage.

8. The loss of the enemy at Unao is estimated by Native report at 1,500 killed and wounded. It might in truth amount to 500. It was lighter at Buseerut Gunge, in consequence of the mistake already noticed.

9. In these two combats 19 guns were captured from the enemy.

10. I must praise the conduct of all my staff-officers. Lieutenant-Colonel Tytler, hardly able from indisposition to sit on his horse, set throughout the day an example of daring and activity; Lieutenant Havelock, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General, had a horse shot under him; Lieutenant Seton, my Acting Aide-de-camp, was severely wounded. Major Stephenson, at the head of the Madras Fusiliers, showed throughout the day how the calmest forethought can be united with the utmost daring.

11. I forward returns of killed and wounded, and of captured ordnance

No. 940 of 1857.—THE Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following authentic Report of the occurrences at the Delhi magazine on the 11th of May last, when attacked by mutineers, and of the noble and cool soldiership of its gallant defenders, commanded by Lieutenant G. D. Willoughby, Commissary of Ordnance.

The Governor-General in Council desires to offer his cordial thanks to Lieutenants Raynor and Forrest, and the other survivors amongst the brave men mentioned in this report, and to express the admiration with which he regards the daring and heroic conduct of Lieutenant G. D. Willoughby and the warrant and non-commissioned officers by whom he was supported on that occasion. Their names are Lieutenants Raynor and Forrest, Conductors Shaw, Buckley, Scully, Sub-conductor Crow, Serjeants Edwards and Stewart.

The family of the late Conductor Scully, who so devotedly sacrificed himself in the explosion of the magazine, will be liberally provided for, should it be ascertained that they have survived him.

No. 29.

From Lieutenant G. Forrest, Assistant Commissary of Ordnance, to Colonel A. Abbott, C.B., Inspector-General of Ordnance and Magazines, Fort William.

SIR, Meerut, May 27, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Government, and in the absence of my Commanding Officer, Lieutenant Willoughby, Artillery, supposed to be killed on his retreat from Delhi to this Station, the following facts as regards the capture of the Delhi Magazine by the mutineers and insurgents on the 11th instant. On the morning of that date, between 7 and 8 A.M., Sir Theophilus Metcalfe came to my house, and requested that I would accompany him to the magazine for the purpose of having two guns placed on the bridge, so as to prevent the mutineers from passing over. On our arrival at the magazine we found present Lieutenants Willoughby and Raynor, with Conductors Buckley, Shaw, Scully, and Acting Sub-Conductor Crow, and Serjeants Edwards and Stewart, with the Native Establishment. On Sir Theophilus Metcalfe alighting from his buggy, Lieutenant Willoughby and I accompanied him to the small bastion on the river face, which commanded a full view of the bridge, from which we could distinctly see the mutineers marching in open column headed by the cavalry; and the Delhi side of the bridge was already in the possession of a body of cavalry. On Sir Theophilus Metcalfe observing this, he proceeded with Lieutenant Willoughby to see if the City Gate was closed against the mutineers. However, this step was needless, as the mutineers were admitted directly to the palace, through which they passed cheering. On Lieutenant Willoughby's return to the magazine, the gates of the magazine were closed and barricaded, and every possible arrangement that could be made was at once commenced on. Inside the gate leading to the Park were placed two 6-pounders, double charged with grape, one under Acting Sub-Conductor Crow and Serjeant Stewart, with the lighted matches in their hands, and with orders that if any attempt was made to force that gate, both guns were to be fired at once, and they were to fall back on that part of the magazine in which Lieutenant Willoughby and I were posted. The principal gate of the magazine was similarly defended by two guns, with the chevaux de frize laid down on the inside. For the further defence of this gate and the magazine in its vicinity, there were two 6-pounders so placed as either to command the gate and a small bastion in its vicinity. Within 60 yards of the gate and in front of the office, and commanding two cross roads, were three 6-pounders and one 24-pounder howitzer, which could be so managed as to act upon any part of the magazine in that neighbourhood. After all these guns and howitzers had been placed in the several positions above-named, they were loaded with double charges of grape. The next step taken was to place arms in the hands of the Native Establishment, which they most reluctantly received, and appeared to be in a state not only of excitement, but also of insubordination, as they refused to obey any orders issued by the Europeans, particularly the Mussulman portion of the Establishment. After the above arrangements had been made, a train was laid by Conductors Buckley, Scully, and Serjeant Stewart, ready to be fired by a preconcerted signal, which was that of Conductor Buckley raising his hat from his head, on the order being given by Lieutenant Willoughby. The train was fired by Conductor Scully, but not until such time as the last round from the howitzers had been fired. So soon as the above arrangements had been made, guards from the palace came and demanded the possession of the magazine in the name of the King of Delhi, to which no reply was given.

Immediately after this, the Subadar of the Guard on duty at the magazine informed Lieutenant Willoughby and me, that the King of Delhi had sent down word to the mutineers that he would without delay send scaling ladders from the palace for the purpose of scaling the walls, and which shortly after arrived. On the ladders being erected against the wall, the whole of our Native Establishment deserted us by climbing up the sloped sheds on the inside of the magazine, and descending the ladders on the outside, after which the enemy appeared in great number on the top of the walls, and on whom we kept up an incessant fire of grape, every round of which told well, as long as a single round remained. Previous to the natives deserting us, they hid the priming pouches, and one man in particular, Kurreenbuksh, a durwan, appeared to keep up a constant communication with the enemy on the outside, and keep them informed of our situation. Lieutenant Willoughby was so annoyed at this man's conduct, that he gave me an order to shoot him, should he again approach the gate.

Lieutenant Raynor, with the other Europeans, did everything that possibly could be done for the defence of the magazine, and where all have behaved so bravely, it is almost impossible for me to point out any particular individual. However, I am in duty bound to bring to the notice of Government the gallantry of Conductors Buckley and Scully on this trying occasion. The former, assisted only by myself, loaded and fired in rapid succession the several guns above detailed, firing at least four rounds from each gun, and with the same steadiness as if standing on parade, although the enemy were then some hundreds in number, and kept up a continual fire of musketry on us, within 40 or 50 yards. After firing the last round, Conductor Buckley received a musket-ball in his arm, above the elbow, which has since been extracted here. I, at the same time, was struck in the left hand by two musket-balls, which disabled me for the time. It was at this critical moment that Lieutenant Willoughby gave the order for firing the magazine, which was at once responded to by Conductor Scully firing the several trains. Indeed, from the very commencement, he evinced his gallantry by volunteering his services for blowing up the magazine, and remained true to his trust to the last moment. As soon as the explosion took place, such as escaped from beneath the ruins, and none escaped unhurt, retreated through the sally-port on the river face. Lieutenant Willoughby and I succeeded in reaching the Cashmere Gate. What became of the other parties, it is impossible for me to say. Lieutenant Raynor and Conductor Buckley have escaped to this Station. Severe indisposition prevented my sending in this Report sooner.

I have, &c.,

G. FORREST,

Lieut., Asst. Commy. of Ordnance.

N.B.—After crossing the river, on the night of the 11th, I observed the whole of the magazine to be on fire, so that I am in hopes that little of the property fell into the hands of the enemy. Park Serjeant Hoyle was shot about 11 A.M. by the mutineers, in attempting to reach the magazine to aid in its defence.

No. 30.

The Officer commanding at Dinapore to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, August 4, 1857. 2, 15, P.M.

FOR submission to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, I have the gratification of forwarding herewith two despatches as per margin,* just received from Major V. Eyre, artillery, commanding a field force formed at Buxar, detailing his operations and successful engagement with the mutineers, joined by Koor Sing and his followers, near the town of Arrah on the 2nd instant.

A summary of intelligence received last night by private channels from Arrah, was sent hence at 8, 30 A.M. this day, to his Excellency's Military Secretary.

I have, &c.;
S. CUMBERLEGE, Colonel,
Commanding at Dinapore.

No. 31.

Major Vincent Eyre to the Assistant Adjutant-General at Dinapore.

Camp near Arrah.

SIR, August 3, 1857.

I HAVE much pleasure in reporting for the information of Major-General Lloyd, Commanding Dinapore Division, the safe arrival here of the field force under my command, and the relief of the party defending themselves at Arrah, with whom I have just opened a satisfactory communication, and have received your letter dated the 31st ultimo, from which I exceedingly regret to learn the severe loss sustained by the detachment co-operating with us on the Dinapore side, but I venture to affirm, confidently, that no such disaster would have been likely to occur, had that detachment advanced less precipitately, so as to have given full time for my force to approach direct from the opposite side, for the rebels would then have been hemmed in between the two opposing forces, and must have been utterly routed.

My former letters of the 30th ultimo, and 1st instant, will, I hope, have informed you of my advance from Buxar on the evening of the first-named date ; we pushed on with all practicable speed to Shawpore, distant 28 miles, where rumours of the Dinapore disaster reached us. Hearing that the enemy designed to destroy the bridges en route, we again pushed on at 2 P.M., as far as Bullowtee, where we found the bridge just cut through. An hour's halt sufficed to repair it, which we employed also in burning the villages on either side, since we had caught their inhabitants in the act of destruction. Arriving at Goojerajgunge by night-fall, I was delighted to find the bridge entire ; where we bivouacked for the night, and at day-break next morning resumed our march, but had only proceeded about a mile beyond Goojerajgunge, when we discovered the enemy in great force in possession of the woods to our front and flanks. The road by which we had to reach the wood in our front was bounded by inundated paddy-fields on either side. I halted to observe the best course to pursue, and finding that the enemy were weakening their front to take us on both flanks, I boldly pushed forward, throwing out skirmishers in every direction. The Enfield rifles kept our foes at a distance, and we succeeded in forcing the wood, beyond which, as far as Beebeegunge, it lay across an open swamp, which greatly befriended us. Meanwhile, the baffled enemy were observed hurrying round to oppose us at Beebeegunge, which is situated on the opposite side of a bridge, by which we had hoped to cross the river. There I again halted, to refresh the troops and to reconnoitre.

Finding the bridge had been destroyed, extensive earthen breastworks raised on the other side, flanking the bridge, and the mutinous regiments in force occupying the houses in the village, I determined on making a detour to the right as far as the railway earth-works, about a mile off. I masked this movement for a time by the fire of my guns, but no sooner did the enemy discover our purpose than they hurried with their entire strength to intercept us at a wood which it was necessary for us to pass ; a portion of them followed us up in the rear, and by the time we reached the wood we found quite as much on our hands as we could manage.

They mustered some 2,000 to 2,500 strong in Sepoys alone, besides Rajah Koor Sing's irregular forces, of whom, however, we made little account. The Rajah was apparently present in person, and for upwards of an hour we were compelled to act solely on the defensive. The sepoy apparently emboldened by their recent success beyond Arrah, advanced to the assault with a vigour quite unexpected, and twice, with their bugles sounding first the "assembly," then the "advance" and the "double," made determined rushes on the guns, but were on both occasions repulsed with showers of grape. Meanwhile, Captain L'Estrange with the gallant 5th was not idle as will be seen by his own report hereto appended. Finding at length that the enemy grew emboldened by the superiority of their numbers, and the advantage of their positions I determined on trying the effect of a general charge of the Infantry, and sent Captain the Honorable E. P. Hastings to Captain L'Estrange with orders to that effect ; promptly and gallantly he obeyed the order ; the skirmishers on the right turned their flank ; the guns with grape and shrapnel drove in the centre ; and the troops advancing on all sides drove the enemy panic struck in all directions. Thus our road was cleared ; all beyond the country was open, and we proceeded without further interruption to within four miles of Arrah, when we were suddenly brought up by an impassable river, and have since been employed in attempting to bridge it over.* In this work the railway engineers headed by Mr. Kelly have rendered the most valuable aid ; meanwhile most of the rebels returned to Arrah, but precipitately left it during the night. Rajah Koor Sing accompanied them to save his family. Their loss is reported to have been severe. We hear that not a Sepoy now remains in Arrah, and that the mass have gone off towards Rhotas, or scattered themselves in various directions.

I have now to commend to the notice of the Major-General the gallant conduct of the officers and troops whom I have the honor to command, on this occasion : under circumstances of great peril and difficulty they have exhibited those soldierly qualities which seldom fail to ensure success. To Captains L'Estrange and Scott of Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers, my special thanks are due for the prompt and gallant way in which they seconded my efforts, more particularly in the final charge which was executed against twenty times their number of brave and disciplined troops. Captain L'Estrange reports highly of Ensigns Oldfield, Lewis, and Mason. To Captain the Honorable E. P. Hastings,

* 11 A.M. The guns have just crossed safely.

Staff-Officer of this force, much of the success of this expedition may be attributed; whether on the march, or in action with the enemy. he was everywhere to be found at the right time and in the right place to aid us with his energy in overcoming all difficulties; of the others who especially distinguished themselves I feel bound to make honorable mention of Messrs. Kelly, Barber, Burroughs, Nicholl and Hughes, of the Buxar Gentlemen Volunteers, who rendered excellent service under their gallant leader Lieutenant Jackson, 12th Native Infantry. Assistant-Surgeon Eteson in charge of the Field Hospital, and Staff-Sergeant Melville of the 1st Company 5th Battalion of Artillery, also merit particular notice for their zeal and energy on duty.

My future movements must be guided in a great measure by the information I may receive from other quarters. Meanwhile a good supply of ammunition is urgently required for Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers, to the extent of 80 rounds per man, and grape for 2 nine-pounders and howitzer.

Enclosed are the returns of casualties on the 2nd instant. I have, &c.

No. 32.

Captain F. L'Estrange to the Assistant Adjutant-General at Dinapore.

Near Arrah,

SIR, August 3, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report that on the arrival of the detachment of the 5th Fusiliers (160 men) under my command at Buxar on the 30th ultimo, I found that our services were required to co-operate with Major Eyre, Bengal Artillery, to march on Arrah, where we understood that some 2000 or 3000 of the mutineers had assembled. On the following evening, our force, consisting of three guns 154 men, with Captain Scott, Ensigns Lewis, Oldfield, and Mason, all of the 5th Fusiliers, under my command, 12 Mounted Volunteers of the Railway and Engineer Department, the whole under the command of Major Eyre, left Buxar "en route" for Arrah.

We came on the enemy on the morning of the 2nd instant; we found that they had assembled in immense force, and the woods for miles around us seemed to be swarming with rebel sepoys. Major Eyre immediately fired some rounds of shell among the enemy who were in our front, and I sent a skirmishing party under the command of Captain Scott to drive the rebels out of the woods. In consequence of an extensive swamp on the left of the road, our skirmishers were delayed for a short time, but at length reached the woods under a very heavy fire from the mutineers; our skirmishers soon cleared the woods on the right and left of the road, during which time the right skirmishing party sustained a severe cross-fire and three men of the 5th were wounded ; our whole force then gained the open country, but with the loss of a considerable quantity of baggage. The enemy had surrounded us on all sides, and our main body being within the enemy's rifle-range, the drivers left the elephants and baggage-carts, and made off into the woods.

A mile further on we found that the Bunhee-junge bridge had been completely destroyed by the rebels who had there concentrated their forces, and were determined to dispute our further advance.

Finding that the re-construction of a bridge in face of such a large force of the enemy was impossible, and that the river could not be forded, we made a flank movement so as to gain the railway embankment on our right, and thus proceed direct to Arrah.

The enemy immediately left their position behind Buuhce-junge Bridge, and proceeded in a parallel direction with us. They kept up their fire on us, but the ground being favorable for our skirmishers, who were judiciously led by Captain Scott, no great difficulty was experienced by our force until we arrived within about 300 yards of the railway embankment. The ground here being very much broken, and as we were unable to get the guns on to the railway line, the rebels clearly saw the difficulties we had to encounter, and made certain of our complete destruction. Notwithstanding Major Eyre having opened on the enemy with shell and round shot, and although our skirmishers made excellent practice with their Enfield rifles, still no impression could be made on the rebels, who advanced in large numbers and came rushing on to the mouth of the guns.

In the wood on our left, an immense body of the rebels had assembled and poured a tremendous fire upon our line, the left of which with two guns occupied a "tope," and the right was close up to the railway bank under shelter of some brick-kilns and other sort of cover.

Our line was then about 300 yards in length, and the enemy came pouring down on us in large numbers. At this time we were in imminent danger, when Major Eyre ordered us to charge the enemy. This movement was perfectly successful, and our line advancing at the charge, the mutineers fled from the woods, from whence emerging, Major Eyre opened on them with grape, and the enemy cleared off in all directions.

One officer and 8 men were wounded during the operations of the day, which commenced at about 6 A.M. and lasted until 3 P.M.

I beg to bring to your especial notice the gallant conduct of Captain Scott, Ensigns Lewis and Mason, who prevented the enemy from turning our right, and maintained their position under a tremendous fire.*

Ensign Oldfield, who was wounded in the face by a rifle-ball, was nevertheless most efficient at his post, namely, with the two guns on the left. Lieutenant Wild (of the late 40th Bengal Regiment), our Interpreter, rendered us great assistance, skirmishing with our men when they were thus employed, charging with our line, and performing all his other duties with extreme intelligence.

I flatter myself that with respect to the conduct of the Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of the 5th Fusiliers, no comments or recommendations to praise can be required at my hands.

I wish to avail myself of this opportunity of acknowledging the many services which the gentle-

ACCOMPANYING this, is a letter from Captain L'Estrange, commanding detachment Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers, supplying an omission in his first dispatch reporting on the action of the 2nd instant against the rebels of Dinapore and Arrah.

I take advantage of the same opportunity to mention that in the first attack made upon us near Goojrajgung on the same morning, Lieutenant Wild, 40th Native Infantry (my Acting Interpreter and Quartermaster), greatly distinguished himself in leading on a party of Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers to force the wood in our front. His gallant bearing was the subject of general remark subsequently.

SIR, Arrah, August 4, 1857.

WHEN I had the honour of addressing you, on the morning of the 2nd instant, from our camp, near this place, I was so anxious to finish my dispatch, and to include it with that of Major Eyre, that time did not permit me to do more than record the services and gallantry of the officers belonging and attached to the detachment of the 5th Fusiliers, which was under my command on the eventful day of Sunday the 2nd instant.

It is with feelings of the greatest pleasure that I have now to speak of the eminent services which were rendered to our force by Captain the Honorable E. P. Hastings, from the first moment when our expedition was projected, up to the present time.

The gallantry of this officer was so conspicuous that it excited universal admiration, while I can at the same time assert with equal confidence, that nothing could have surpassed the exertions which he made for providing every comfort and assistance for our men during their long and fatiguing march, followed as it was by the hard fought contest against a host of rebels and marauders. As I have before observed, I was unable in my dispatch from the camp to give you these details of the obligations under which we are to our Acting Quartermaster-General, and at the same time I have to request that you will consider this report as supplementary to my previous one.

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of the Acting Commander-in-chief, that a detachment of Her Majesty's 10th Foot (of the strength as per margin),* marched from this station on the 7th instant, with instructions to join the force under the command of Major Eyre, B.A. at Arrah, and to act according to his orders.

2. The object in view is to enable Major Eyre to make an attack on Koor Sing at Jugdispore (12 miles distant from Arrah), to which place he is known to have retired with the greater part of the mutinous Sepoys.

3. Major Eyre has reported the arrival of the Detachment at Arrah on the 8th instant, and on the Force being completed by a party of 100 Seikhs (which should join him this day) that he will be in a condition to commence operations.

SIR,

I HAVE the pleasure to report the total rout of the rebel force under Koor Sing this day, by the force under my command, as per margin*

2. The enemy mustered, as far as can be ascertained, about 3000 strong, of whom 1,500 were Sepoys.

3. The action commenced at the village of Dulloor at 11 A.M., where a strong position had been taken up and entrenchments raised. Here they made a resolute stand for about an hour, when they fell back upon the dense and formidable jungle, which extends from thence about a mile and a half to Jugdispore: a running fight was kept up to that place which we entered in triumph at 1 o'clock, and immediately occupied Koor Sing's residence, where much promiscuous property fell into our hands.

4. Two guns were captured in the action.

5. Koor Sing has fled to the South, and I hear that his army is dispersing, and I trust the blow now struck may be the means of effectually destroying his influence.

6. In my next I will give full details of my march from Arrah, and of the services performed by my force, making special mention of those who distinguished themselves.

7. A return of killed and wounded shall be sent with my next dispatch; our loss was trifling, that of the enemy severe.

I AM directed by the Lieutenant-Governor to request that you will lay before the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council, the accompanying copy of a letter from the Commissioner of the Patna Division, No. 747, of the 8th instant, and of its inclosures, in which is described the gallant defence by the Officers of the station and other gentlemen, aided by 50 men (Seikhs) of the Bengal Police Corps, against three regiments of mutineers from Dinapore and a large number of insurgents under Koor Sing of Jugdespore.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor doubts not that his Lordship in Council will read this report with the same interest that he has himself felt, and desires to express his sense of the excellent conduct of the officers and gentlemen concerned, as well as of the courage and loyalty evinced by the Seikhs, which, in his Honor's opinion, calls for the most marked approbation and acknowledgments of the Government.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor earnestly solicits that the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council may at once be accorded to the proposal for promoting the native officers, and bestowing a gratuity of twelve months' pay on all the men of the Bengal Police Corps present on the occasion.

(Extract.) Patna, August 8, 1857.

HEREWITH I have the honour to forward a copy of a very interesting report from Mr. Wake, reporting officially the events that occurred at Arrah since the mutiny.

The conduct of the garrison is most creditable, and the gallantry and fidelity of the Seikhs beyond all praise.

I have no time at present to make any lengthened remarks on the subject, but will submit a full report hereafter.

Meanwhile I beg to recommend that the thanks of Government be conveyed to all who held the garrison, and especially to Mr. Wake and Mr. Boyle; that the native officers of the Seikhs be immediately promoted, and that twelve months' pay be given to all the soldiers concerned.

No. 40.

H. C. Wake, Esq., Magistrate of Shahabad, to W. Tayler, Esq., Commissioner of Patna Division.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to forward for the information of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the following narrative of our extraordinary defence and providential escape.

On the evening of Saturday, July the 25th, I received an express from Dinapore, warning us that a disturbance was apprehended on that day, but giving us no other information. On the morning of July 26, a Sowar whom I had posted at Koelwar Ghat, on the Soane, came in and reported that numbers of Sepoys had crossed, and that more were crossing.

I found that Mr. Palin, the Railway Engineer, stationed at Koelwar, had contented himself with sending over for the boats to the Arrah side the night before, but, when leaving, had failed to destroy them as he had promised to do. The police, I imagine, bolted at the first alarm.

All efforts to ascertain the amount of the force of the rebels were unavailing, and the police left the city on Sunday the 26th. Thinking it highly inadvisable to abandon the station when the rebels might be few, and having fifty Seikhs on the spot, and finding the rest of the officers of the station of the same opinion, and the few residents in the district who had come in to us, willing to remain, we, on the night of Sunday the 26th, went into a small bungalow previously fortified as much as possible by Mr. Boyle, the District Engineer of the Railway Company.

Our force consisted of 1 jemadar, 2 havildars, 2 naiks, 45 privates, a bishtee and cook of Captain Rattray's Seikh police battalion; Mr. Little-dale, Judge; Mr. Combe, officiating collector; Mr. Wake, magistrate; Mr. Colvin, assistant; Dr. Holls, Civil Assistant-Surgeon; Mr. Field, Sub-Deputy Opium Agent; Mr. Anderson, his assistant; Mr. Boyle, District Engineer to the Railway Company; Syed Azumooddeen Hossein, Deputy Collector; Mr. Dacosta, Moonsiff; Mr. Godfrey, School-master; Mr. Cock, Officiating Head Clerk of the Collectorate; Mr. Tait, Secretary to Mr. Boyle; Messrs. Delpiere and Hoyle, Railway Inspectors, and Mr. D Souza.

We had enough otta and grain for some days of short allowance, and a good deal of water for ourselves, but, owing to the shortness of our notice, nothing but the barest necessities could be brought in, and the Seikhs had only a few lays' water, but, as we expected the rebels to be followed up immediately, we had not much anxiety on that score.

On Monday the 27th July, about 8 A.M., the insurgent Sepoys, the whole of the 7th, 8th, and 10th Native Infantry, arrived in the station, and, having first released the prisoners, rushed to the Collectorate, where they were at once joined by the Nujeebs, and looted the treasure, amounting to 85,000 rupees. This did not take long, and they then charged our bungalow from every side, but being met with a steady and well directed fire, they changed their tactics, and, hiding behind the trees with which the compound is filled, and occupying the out-houses and Mr. Boyle's residence, which was unfortunately within sixty yards of our fortification, they kept up an incessant and galling fire on us during the whole day. They were joined by numbers of Koor Sing's men, and the Sepoys repeatedly declared that they were acting under his express orders, and after a short time he was seen on the parade, and remained during the seige. Every endeavour was made by the rebels to induce the Seikhs to abandon us; heavy bribes were offered to them, and their own countrymen employed as mediators. They treated every offer with derision, showing perfect obedience and discipline.

On the 28th, two small cannons were brought to play upon our bungalow, one throwing 4lb shot, and these were daily shifted to what the rebels thought to be our weakest spots; finally, the largest was placed on the roof of Mr. Boyle's dwelling-house, completely commanding the inside of our bungalow, and the smaller behind it at a distance of twenty yards. Nothing but cowardice, want of unanimity, and only the ignorance of our enemies, prevented our fortification being brought down about our ears.

During the entire siege, which lasted seven days, every possible stratagem was practised against us. The cannons were fired as frequently as they could prepare shot, with which they were at first unprovided, and incessant assaults were made upon the bungalow; not only did our Seikhs behave with perfect coolness and patience, but their untiring labour met and prevented every threatened disaster. Water began to run short; a well eighteen feet by four was dug in less than twelve hours. The rebels raised a barricade on the top of the opposite house, our own grew in the same proportion; a shot shook a weak place in our defence, the place was made twice as strong as before. We began to feel the want of animal food and short allowance of grain, a sally was made at night and four sheep brought in; and finally, when we ascertained beyond a doubt that the enemy was undermining us, a countermine was quickly dug. On the 30th, the troops sent to our relief from Dinapore, were attacked and beaten back close to the entrance of the town. On the next day the rebels returned, and, telling us that they had annihilated our relief, offered the Seikhs and the women and children (of which there were none with us) their lives and liberty if they would give up the Government officers.

August the 1st we were all offered our lives, and leave to go to Calcutta. if we should give up our arms. On the 2nd, the greater part of the Sepoys went out to meet Major Eyre's field force, and, on their being soundly thrashed, the rest of them deserted the station, and that night we went out and found their mine had reached our foundations, and a canvass tube, filled with gunpowder, was lying handy to blow us up, in which, however, I do not think they would have succeeded, as the powder was dry, and another stroke of the pick would have broken into our countermine; we also brought in the one gun which they had left on the top of the opposite house. During the whole siege, only one man, a Seikh, was severely wounded, though two or three got scratches and blows from splinters and bricks. Everybody in our garrison behaved well, but I should be neglecting a duty did I omit to mention specially Mr Boyle, to whose engineering skill and untiring exertions we, in a great measure, owe our preservation, and Mr. Colvin, who rendered the most valuable assistance, and who rested neither night nor day, and took on himself far more than his share of every disagreeable duty. In conclusion I must earnestly beg that his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor will signally reward the whole of our gallant little detachment of Seikhs, whose services and fidelity cannot be overrated. The Jemadar should at once be made a Subadar, and many of the rest are fit for promotion, and when required I will submit a list with details.

I have, &c.,

H. C. WAKE, Magistrate.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein mentioned.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post-office.

And whercas by a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the 8th day of April, 1857, it was ordered and directed that packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art might be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, subject to the several rates of postage and regulations therein contained.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Warrant should be repealed, and that such rates of postage should be charged and such other regulations made with respect to certain packets sent by the post as are hereinafter contained.

1. Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order and direct that the said Warrant, dated the 8th day of April, 1857, and the several rates of postage. and the several orders, directions, and regulations therein mentioned and set forth, relating to the transmission by the post of packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art within the United Kingdom shall cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed and revoked ; nevertheless no Treasury Warrant repealed by the said Warrant of the 8th day of April, 1857, shall be revived by this Warrant.

2. And we do further order and direct, that all packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, posted in the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, subject to the several rates and regulations hereinafter contained ; that is to say :

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of one penny.

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of two pence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of four pence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of six pence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of eight pence.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight, of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged and taken an additional rate of postage of two pence, and every fractional part of every such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as one half of a pound in weight.

3. And we do further order and direct, that no such packet which in length, or width, or depth, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

4. And we do further order and direct, that the postage of all such packets as aforesaid, shall in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet, near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account.

5. And we do further order and direct, that for the purposes of this Warrant, the terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," shall mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs when not on glass, or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering of, or upon or belonging to, any such article or production or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other thing usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong, provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any patterns or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever unless such patterns consist merely of paper.

6. And we do further order and direct, that every such packet shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and that there shall be no written letter either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for, the person to whom the packet shall be directed or any other person), nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof.

7. And in order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, we do further order and direct, that it shall be lawful for any officer of the Post-office to delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be dispatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

8. And we do further order and direct, that the transmission of the packets aforesaid, under this present Warrant, shall be restricted to such as shall be sent by the post between places within the United Kingdom, and by the post of any post town in the United Kingdom. And that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend, to interfere with, or in anywise to affect any privileges relating to the transmission by the post, of printed votes and proceedings of Parliament sent by the post, under the regulations prescribed by the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or of printed newspapers sent by the post under and pursuant to certain orders and regulations made by the Postmaster-General, for the transmission by the post of printed newspapers and certain periodical publications, and dated the 24th day of December, 1855; nevertheless any printed votes and proceedings of Parliament, or printed newspapers which are not authorized to be transmitted by the post under the said respective regulations, may be transmitted by the post at the rates of postage and under the regulations contained in this Warrant ; nor shall this present Warrant be construed to extend to any packet sent by the post between the United Kingdom and places beyond the seas.

9. And we do further order and direct, that if any packet, or the cover or envelope of any packet, sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this present Warrant, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall in length or width or depth exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if there shall be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, every such packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender hereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination ; and every such packet, on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with a postage of double the amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter, if the postage had been paid by stamps when posted, and such double postage may be either paid by the sender, or be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be given up or forwarded.

10. And we do further order and direct, that if any packet sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such letter or communication, or enclosure, may be taken out by any officer of the Post-office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet, charged, not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of one penny, and the remainder of the packet, if duly pre-paid by stamps, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

11. And we do further order and direct, that if any packet, sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant (any such packet sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted), shall be posted, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable, under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to one penny at the least, every such last-mentioned packet shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of one penny; and if any such packet shall be posted without having thereon or affixed thereto any postage stamp, every such last-mentioned packet shall and may be detained and opened at any place in the United Kingdom, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as hereinbefore directed, with respect to any packet not open at the ends or sides, or exceeding in length or width, or depth, the dimensions of two feet.

12. And we do hereby further order and direct, that in every case in which the postage, chargeable on any packet under the provisions of this Warrant, shall exceed the rates of postage to which any such packet would be liable as a letter, no higher amount than the letter rates shall be charged thereon.

13. And we do hereby further order and direct, that the several packets transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post, so far as the same are applicable to such packets, provided always that the redirected rates of postage upon such packets shall be of the same amount as the first prepaid rate payable upon any such packet, and shall be chargeable and charged accordingly.

14. And we do further order and direct, that the terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

15. And we do further order and direct, that this Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of November, 1857.

16. And we do further order and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant duly made at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates of postage or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates of postage that may be payable are to be paid.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 33.) PACIFIC OCEAN.—CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA.

The following notices have been received at the Admiralty :—

Fixed Light at Punta Arenas.

A fixed light has been established at Punta Arenas, in the Gulf of Nicoya, at an elevation of 65 feet above the mean level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship, in ordinary weather, at a distance of 10 miles.

The lighthouse stands between the point and the town, in lat. $9^{\circ} 5' 40''$ North, long. $84^{\circ} 45'$ West of Greenwich.

The light may be plainly seen when a vessel is a little to the southward of the Sail rock, and by not bringing the light to the northward of N.N.W. it will lead clear of all danger up to the anchorage off the town.

Rock in Herradura Bay.

A dangerous rock has been discovered in Herradura bay, on the eastern shore of the Gulf of Nicoya. It has a depth of only 2 feet on it at low water of spring tides, and is sometimes visible when there is much swell on. It lies nearly in the middle of the bay, with a house on the beach bearing N.E. $\frac{1}{3}$ N. eight cables' lengths, and Caño pinnacle S.W. by S. nine cables' length. At full and change of the moon the tide rises about $9\frac{1}{2}$ feet.

Shoal off the River Lempa.

An extensive shoal, having only 12 feet of water over it, on which two vessels have recently struck, is reported to lie off the river Lempa, about 10 miles off shore, and directly in the track of vessels bound from La Union to Acajutla. The shoal is about 3 miles long, in a N.E. and S.W. direction, and from its centre the volcano of San Miguel (6790 feet high) bears N.N.E. It lies in lat. $13^{\circ} 2'$ North, long. $88^{\circ} 19'$ West of Greenwich, nearly. There is reason to believe that the whole of this coast of Central America, is placed in our charts about 8 miles too far north.

Rocks in Smyth Channel, Magellan Strait.

A shoal in Smyth channel, at the north-west end of Magellan strait, was struck upon by H.M.S. Vixen when steering to the northward and attempting to take the passage between the east side of Long island and King William Land. It extends across the passage, from the shore under Rose hill to within half a cable's length of the beach on Long island, has only 6 feet water on it, and the depths decrease suddenly from 25 to $4\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms close to. The bearings from the vessel when aground were, the south-east extreme of Long Island S. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. ; and the highest point of the island W. by S.

This extensive shoal, with a patch of rocks immediately in the fair way (steep to, with only 9 feet water on them), renders this passage unnavigable ; and vessels should follow the channel recommended in the Sailing Directions for South America, Part 11, page 264, viz., to the eastward of the Otter islands, and then between the Summer isles and Long island.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation in 1857: In Gulf of Nicoya, $7\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ East ; off the Lempa, $7\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ East ; off N.W. end of Magellan Strait, $22\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$ East.]

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

This notice affects the following Admiralty charts : Central America, West Coast, sheet 4, No. 2145 ; Sheet 7, No. 2148 ; Nicoya Gulf, No. 1931 ; and South America, West Coast, Sheet 1, Magellan Strait to Gulf of Trinidad, No. 560 ; Pacific Ocean, Sheet 8, No. 2466. NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 34.) MEDITERRANEAN—GIBRALTAR BAY.

The Captain-Superintendent of Her Majesty's Naval Yard, at Gibraltar, has given notice, that on and after the 25th day of August, 1857, a temporary coloured light would be placed at the outer extremity of the new works now in course of construction at the New Mole in Gibraltar Bay ; and in order that the temporary light may be distinguished from the fixed red light at the original Mole Head, it will show a red, white, and green light ; viz ;

Green to the North.

White to the West.

Red to the South.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation in 1857, 20° W.]

By command of their Lordships,

John Washington, Hydrographer.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts, viz. :—Gibraltar, No. 144 ; Gibraltar Strait, No. 142 ; Mediterranean, General, No. 2158 ; Sheet 1, Gibraltar to Alicante, No. 1186 ; also Mediterranean Light List, No. 4*.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 35.) ATLANTIC OCEAN—UNITED STATES.

Charleston, South Carolina.

The United States Lighthouse Board has issued notices to the following effect :—

Beacon Light, Sullivan Island.

The front range beacon on Sullivan Island which was burnt down on the 18th of April, 1857, has been replaced, and a fixed light was to be exhibited therefrom on the 1st day of September, at an elevation of 50 feet above the sea, and which would be visible through an arc of 15° of the horizon.

The illuminating apparatus is a Fresnel lens, placed in a light room, on a wooden frame, both of which are painted light brown.

Beacon Light, Morris Island.

A new beacon, ranging with Charleston lighthouse, has been erected on Morris Island as a substitute for the present brick range building, which is out of place in consequence of the shifting of the main ship channel to the south-west. The new range beacon is $41\frac{1}{2}$ feet west of the old one; and when in line with Charleston lighthouse, correctly marks the deepest water in the main ship channel.

The light is at the height of 50 feet above the sea, and illuminates an arc of 15° of the horizon; it was to be exhibited on the 10th of September, after which the old beacon tower would be removed.

The illuminating apparatus is a Fresnel lens, placed in a lantern, on a wooden frame, both of which are painted red.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE of OCTOBER 27,
 1857.

India Board, October 24, 1857.

THE following Dispatch has been received at the East India House.

The Governor-General of India in Council to the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

No. 57.

(Extract.) Fort William, September 9, 1857.

WE have the honour to forward for your information the accompanying copy of a minute recorded by the Governor-General, relative to the death of Sir Henry Lawrence; the appointment of General Sir James Outram to the united command of all the troops in the Dinapore and Cawnpore divisions; and his re-appointment as Chief Commissioner in Oude.

*Minute by the Governor-General of India,
 September 8, 1857.*

RECENTLY the Government availed itself of Major-General Outram's presence in Calcutta, to appoint him to the united command of all the troops in the Dinapore and Cawnpore divisions.

Major-General Outram is now approaching Cawnpore. He will accompany the reinforced column of Brigadier-General Havelock in its advance upon Lucknow, and, as circumstances may arise calling for the exercise of civil and political authority on Major-General Outram's part within the province of Oude, it becomes necessary for me to place on record the determination which was formed by the Government some time ago, of re-appointing Major-General Outram, for the present, to the post of Chief Commissioner in Oude, vacated by the lamented death of Sir Henry Lawrence, K.C.B.

I beg to submit this proposal for the concurrence of my colleagues.

Although intelligence of Sir H. Lawrence's death reached the Government long ago, no official announcement of this sad event, and none of the particulars connected with it, were received until some time after the first reports; and the details are not even now very fully known.

A wound received whilst leading an attack on the 2nd of July against the insurgents, and believed to have been slight in itself, but acting doubtless on a constitution impaired by protracted labours in an exhausting climate, and on a frame weakened by the unusual fatigues, anxieties, and responsibilities of the preceding month, sufficed to close the career of one of the most valued and best loved men whom India has counted amongst her servants and benefactors.

In the course of his service, extending over thirty-five years, in Burmah, in Affghanistan, in Nepal, in the Punjab, and in Rajpootana, Sir Henry Lawrence was distinguished for eminent ability, devoted zeal, and generous and self-denying exertions for the welfare of the people among whom he was placed. As a soldier, an administrator, and a statesman, he has deservedly earned an exalted reputation amongst the foremost, and has been an honour to the Government he served.

Impressed with a sense of his great qualifications I selected him to be Chief Commissioner in the province of Oude. In that position, from the first appearance of disaffection amongst the troops quartered in the province, his conduct of affairs was marked by foresight, calm judgment, and courage. If any thing could have averted the calamitous outbreak which has been followed by the temporary subversion of our authority in Oude, I believe that the measures which were taken by Sir Henry Lawrence, and the confidence which all men, high and low, Native and European, felt in his energy, his wisdom, and his spirit of justice and kindliness, would have accomplished that end. As long as there was any hope of restraining the wavering soldiery by appeals to their sense of duty and honour, he left no becoming means untried to conciliate them. When violent and open mutiny called for stern retribution, he did not shrink from the (to him) uncongenial task of inflicting severe punishment. When general disorder and armed rebellion threatened, he was undaunted, and completed rapidly and effectively the precautionary preparations which, from the beginning, he had had in view. And, though he has been prematurely removed from the scene, it is due mainly to his exertions, judgment, and professional skill, that the Lucknow garrison has been able to defy the assaults of its assailants, and still maintains its ground.

There is not, I am sure, an Englishman in India who does not regard the loss of Sir Henry Lawrence, in the present circumstances of the country, as one of the heaviest of public calamities.

There is not, I believe, a native of the provinces where he has held authority, who will not remember his name as that of a friend and generous benefactor to the races of India.

For myself, short as has been my personal intercourse with that distinguished man, it is a grateful though a mournful duty, to record my appreciation of his eminent services to this Government, my admiration of his high character, and my affectionate respect for his memory.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were directed to be discontinued in the parish church, and with certain exceptions, in the churchyard of SOUTHERY, Nor-

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 6, 1857.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, enclosing copies of two French Imperial Decrees, with reference to the duties upon the importation of iron, and of which the following is a translation :

DECREE No. 1.—The admission of bar-iron, under the provisions of the Decree of the 17th

October, 1855, is restricted to bars of the following dimensions :

Flat bars, of the width multiplied by the thickness, of 458 millimètres, or more.

Square bars measuring 22 millimètres or more on each face.

Round bars measuring more than 15 millimètres or more in diameter.

Flattened iron, of irregular shape, and similar to the above, will enjoy the same freedom from duty.

With the following exceptions, the undermentioned articles will not be admitted in discharge of the Customs' Warrants :

Articles manufactured from iron bars of irregular form, except those of similarly irregular shape to the bars from which they are manufactured.

Articles manufactured from round bar iron, except those which are obviously manufactured from round bar iron.

Wrought iron, except such is of more than 2 millimètres in thickness, or articles of wrought iron not exceeding that thickness.

The provisions of the decree are extended only to shipbuilders or manufacturers of articles required for the fitting out or rigging ships.

The period fixed by Article 2, of the Decree of the 17th October, 1855, for permitting the nationalization of foreign sea-going vessels, whether sailing or steam, on payment of 10 per cent. on the value, is prolonged until the 17th October, 1858.

DECREE No. 2.—The undermentioned articles will be admitted, under the following conditions, free of import duty, conformably with Article 5 of the Law of the 5th July, 1836, if imported for Masters of Forges, Builders, or Manufacturers, who can certify to foreign orders :

Rough cast iron, bar iron, wrought iron, gutters and T pieces (cornières), steel in bars, and copper laminated, pure or with alloy, imported from abroad, to be re-exported after having been applied in French manufactories, &c., to the construction of iron ships or boats, or machines, or apparatus, whether for railways or for other works.

The above named metals must be imported either under the French flag, or under that of the country of production.

The regulations respecting the importations of iron bars, &c., under the provisions of this decree are similar to those contained in Decree No. 1, having reference to the same Articles.

Importers must give real security either to re-export or to return to the dépôt, within a period not exceeding six months, the articles manufactured from metals admitted under the present decree, no deduction for difference of weight being allowed.

In none of the above cases will metals be permitted to be imported, or the articles manufactured from them to be exported, otherwise than through the established entrepôts, or through the Custom Houses, whether those of transit or those opened for merchandise rated at more than 20 francs the 100 kilogrammes.

Manufactured articles, which instead of being placed in dépôt, are at once exported, should be forwarded either under the general transit regulations, or under Articles 61 and 62 of the Law of the 21st April, 1818, accordingly as they may be despatched by land or by sea.

FROM THE

of NOVEMBER 14, 1857.*

India-Board, November 14, 1857.

THE following Notifications by the Governor-General of India in Council have been this day received at the East India House.

No. 1238 of 1857.

Fort William, 2nd October, 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Governor-General in Council rejoices to announce that information has been this day received from Major-General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., showing that the Residency at Lucknow was in the possession of Brigadier-General Havelock's force on the 25th ultimo, and that the Garrison is saved.

Rarely has a Commander been so fortunate as to relieve, by his success, so many aching hearts, or to reap so rich a reward of gratitude as will deservedly be offered to Brigadier-General Havelock and his gallant band wherever their triumph shall become known.

The Governor-General in Council tenders to Sir James Outram and to Brigadier-General Havelock his earnest thanks and congratulations upon the joyful result of which a Merciful Providence has made them the chief instruments.

The Governor-General in Council forbears to observe further upon information which is necessarily imperfect; but he cannot refrain from expressing the deep regret with which he hears of the death of Brigadier-General Neill, of the 1st Madras European Fusiliers, of which it is to be feared that no doubt exists.

Brigadier-General Neill, during his short but active career in Bengal, had won the respect and confidence of the Government of India; he had made himself conspicuous as an intelligent, prompt, self-reliant soldier, ready of resource and stout of heart; and the Governor-General in Council offers to the Government and to the Army of Madras his sincere condolence upon the loss of one who was an honor to the Service of their Presidency.

By order of the Governor-General of India in Council.

R. J. H. BIRCH, Colonel,
Secretary to the Government of India,
in the Military Department.

No. 1237 of 1857.

Fort William, 2nd October, 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council has received, by a Telegraphic Message, the gratifying announcement that Delhi is entirely in the hands of Major-General Wilson's Army.

Delhi, the focus of the treason and revolt which for four months have harassed Hindostan, and the stronghold in which the Mutinous Army of Bengal has sought to concentrate its power, has been wrested from the Rebels. The King is a Prisoner in the Palace. The Head Quarters of Major-General Wilson are established in the Dewan Khas. A strong column is in pursuit of the fugitives.

Whatever may be the motives and passions by which the mutinous soldiery, and those who are leagued with them, have been instigated to faithlessness, rebellion, and crimes at which the heart sickens, it is certain that they have found encouragement in the delusive belief that India was weakly guarded by England, and that before the Government could gather together its strength against them, their ends would be gained.

They are now undeceived.

Before a single soldier of the many thousands who are hastening from England to uphold the supremacy of the British power has set foot on these shores, the rebel force, where it was strongest and most united, and where it had the command of unbounded military appliances, has been destroyed or scattered by an Army collected within the limits of the North-Western Provinces and the Punjab alone.

The work has been done before the support of those battalions which have been collected in Bengal from the forces of the Queen in China and in Her Majesty's eastern colonies could reach Major-General Wilson's Army; and it is by the courage and endurance of that gallant Army alone; by the skill, sound judgment, and steady resolution of its brave Commander; and by the aid of some Native Chiefs true to their allegiance that, under the blessing of God, the head of rebellion has been crushed, and the cause of loyalty, humanity, and rightful authority vindicated.

The Governor-General in Council hopes that the receipt of Despatches from Major-General Wilson will soon place it in his power to make known the details of the operations against Delhi, and to record, fully and publicly, the thanks and commendations which are due to the Officers and Men by whose guidance, courage, and exertions those operations have been brought to a successful issue.

But the Governor-General in Council will not postpone, till then, his grateful acknowledgment of the services which have been rendered to the Empire, at this juncture, by the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab.

To Sir John Lawrence, K.C.B., it is owing that the Army before Delhi, long ago cut off from all direct support from the Lower Provinces, has been constantly recruited and strengthened so effectually as to enable its Commander not only to hold his position unshaken, but to achieve complete success.

To Sir John Lawrence's unceasing vigilance, and to his energetic and judicious employment of the trustworthy forces at his own disposal, it is due that Major-General Wilson's Army has not been harassed or threatened on the side of the Punjab, and that the authority of the Government in the Punjab itself has been sustained and generally respected.

The Governor-General in Council seizes, with pleasure, the earliest opportunity of testifying his high appreciation of these great and timely services.

By Order of the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council.

R. J. H. BIRCH, Colonel,
Secretary to the Government of India,
in the Military Department.

Fort William, October 8, 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the Governor General in Council has the great satisfaction of publishing the subjoined letter of this day's date, from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, accompanied by letters from the General in Command and from the Adjutant-General of the Army at Delhi.

It will be seen that further and more complete reports from Major-General Wilson are yet to follow.

Most cordially does the Governor General in Council join in the high encomium passed upon Major-General Wilson and his brave Troops by General Sir Colin Campbell; from whom praise so hearty and so just will not fail to be appreciated by every Soldier, British or Native, in the Army of the North-West.

The noble qualities which that Army has evinced during the arduous and wearing struggle of the last three months are indeed worthy of the highest admiration and praise. Its steady perseverance and eager, resistless courage have gloriously upheld the authority and will not disappoint the expectations of England.

By Order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council.

Secretary to the Government of India,
in the Military Department.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to forward for submission to his Lordship the Governor General in Council two Despatches, which have arrived from Major-General Wilson, Commanding the Field Force before Delhi, and the Adjutant-General of the Army.

I beg very particularly to call the attention of his Lordship to the matter contained in these two communications, and to give expression to the very cordial feeling I experience towards Major-General Wilson and the force under his command.

It is impossible to be too lavish of praise for the untiring energy, invincible fortitude, and splendid gallantry by which this force has been distinguished, from the General in Command to the private soldier in the ranks.

All have done their duty most nobly; and the steadfast courage of the men has enabled the General to carry out his enterprise, in spite of scanty means and a deadly season.

I have, &c.,

C. CAMPBELL. General, Commander-in-Chief.

Head Quarters, Field Force, Delhi, 16th September, 1857.

To Captain H. W. Norman, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR,

I HAVE the high satisfaction of reporting, for the information of the Major-General Commanding in the Upper Provinces, and through him of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and of Government, that on the morning of the 14th instant, the force under my command successfully assaulted the city of Delhi.

Under present circumstances, Major-General Gowan will, I trust, allow me to withhold for a time a full and complete detail of the operations from their commencement to their close, and to limit myself to a summary of events.

After six days of open trenches, during which the Artillery and Engineers, under their respective Commanding Officers, Major Gaitskell and Lieutenant-Colonel Baird Smith, vied with each other in pressing forward the work, two excellent and most practicable breaches were formed in the walls of the place, one in the curtain to the right of the Cashmere Bastion, the other to the left of the Water Bastion, the defences of those bastions and the parapets giving musquetry cover to the Enemy commanding the breaches, having also been destroyed by the Artillery.

The assault was delivered on four points. The 1st column under Brigadier J. Nicholson, consisting of Her Majesty's 75th Regiment (300 men), the 1st European Bengal Fusiliers (200 men), and the 2nd Punjab Infantry (450 men), assaulted the main breach, their advance being admirably covered by the 1st Battalion, Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, under Colonel J. Jones. The operation was crowned with brilliant success, the enemy after severe resistance being driven from the Cashmere Bastion, the main guard, and its vicinity, in complete rout.

The 2nd Column, under Brigadier Jones, of Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, consisting of Her Majesty's 8th Regiment (250 men), the 2nd European Bengal Fusiliers (250 men), and the 4th Regiment of Seikhs (350 men), similarly covered by the 60th Rifles, advanced on the Water Bastion, carried the breach, and drove the enemy from his guns and position, with a determination and spirit which gave me the highest satisfaction.

The 3rd Column, under Colonel Campbell, of Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry, consisting of 200 of his own regiment, the Kemaon Battalion (250 men), and the 1st Punjab Infantry (500 men), was directed against the Cashmere Gateway. This column was preceded by an explosion party, under Lieutenants Home and Salkeld, of the Engineers, covered by the 60th Rifles. The demolition of the gate having been accomplished, the column forced an entrance, overcoming a strenuous opposition from the enemy's infantry and heavy artillery, which had been brought to bear on the position. I cannot express too warmly my admiration of the gallantry of all concerned in this difficult operation.

The reserve, under Brigadier Longfield, Her Majesty's 8th Regiment, composed of Her Majesty's 61st Regiment (250 men), the 4th Regiment Rifles (450 men), the Belooch Battalion (300 men), the Jheend Rajah's Auxiliaries (300 men), and 200 of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, who joined after the assault had been made, awaited the result of the attack, and on the columns entering the place, took possession of the posts I had previously assigned to it. This duty was ultimately performed to my entire satisfaction.

The firm establishment of the reserve rendering the assaulting columns free to act in advance Brigadier-General Nicholson, supported by Brigadier Jones, swept the ramparts of the place from the Cashmere to the Cabul Gates, occupying the bastions and defences, capturing the guns, and driving the enemy before him.

During the advance, Brigadier-General Nicholson was, to the grief of myself and the whole Army, dangerously wounded. The command consequently devolved on Brigadier Jones, who, finding the enemy in great force, occupying and pouring a destructive fire from the roofs of strong and commanding houses in the city on all sides, the ramparts themselves being enfiladed by guns, prudently resolved on retaining possession of the Cabul Gate, which his troops had so gallantly won, in which he firmly established himself, awaiting the result of the operations of the other columns of occupation.

Colonel Campbell, with the column under his command, advanced successfully from the Cashmere Gate by one of the main streets beyond the "Chandnee Chouk," the central and principal street of the city towards the Jumma Musjid, with the intention of occupying that important post. The opposition, however, which he met from the great concentration of the enemy, at the Jumma Musjid and the houses in the neighbourhood, he himself, I regret to state, being wounded, satisfied him that his most prudent course was not to maintain so advanced a position with the comparatively limited force at his disposal, and he accordingly withdrew the head of his Column and placed himself in communication with the Reserve, a measure which had my entire approval; I having previously determined that, in the event of serious opposition being encountered in the town itself, it would be most inexpedient to commit my small force to a succession of street fights, in which their gallantry, discipline, and organization could avail them so little.

My present position, therefore, is that which, under such a contingency, I had resolved to occupy and establish myself in firmly as the base of my systematic operations for the complete possession of the city. This embraces the magazine on one side, and the Cabul Gate on the other, with the Moree, Cashmere and Water Bastions, and strong intermediate posts with secure communication along the front and to the rear.

From this base, I am now cautiously pressing the enemy on all points, with a view to establishing myself in a second advanced position, and I trust before many days to have it in my power to announce to the Supreme Government, that the enemy have been driven from their last stronghold in the Palace, Fort and streets of the city of Delhi.

Simultaneously with the operations above detailed, an attack was made on the enemy's strong position outside the city, in the suburbs of Kissen-gunge and Pahareepore, with a view of driving in the rebels, and supporting the main attack by effecting an entrance at the Cabul Gate after it should be taken.

The force employed on this difficult duty, I entrusted to that admirable officer, Major C. Reid, commanding the Sirmoor battalion, whose distinguished conduct I have already had occasion to bring prominently to the notice of superior authority, and who was, I much regret, severely wounded on this occasion. His column consisted of his own battalion, the Guides, and the men on duty at Hindoo Raos (the main picquet), numbering in all about 1,000, supported by the auxiliary troops of His Highness the Moharajah Rumbeir Singh, under Captain R. Lawrence.

The strength of the positions, however, and the desperate resistance offered by the enemy, withstood for a time the efforts of our troops, gallant though they were, and the combination was unable to be effected. The delay, I am happy to say, has been only temporary, for the enemy have subsequently abandoned their positions, leaving their guns in our hands.

In this attack I found it necessary to support Major Reid with Cavalry and Horse Artillery, both of which Arms were admirably handled respectively by Brigadier Hope Grant, of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers, commanding the Cavalry Brigade, and Major H. Tombs, of the Horse Artillery, who inflicted severe punishment on the enemy, though I regret their own loss was very heavy.

The resistance of the rebels up to this time has been that of desperate men, and to this must be attributed the severe loss we have sustained, amounting proximately, so far as I am able to judge, in the absence of casualty returns, to 46 officers killed and wounded, and about 800 men. Amongst those of whose services the State has been deprived, are many officers of distinction and merit, holding superior commands, whose places cannot be supplied; and I have specially to lament the loss which has been sustained by that splendid corps, the Engineers, nine officers of that Arm having fallen in the gallant performance of their duty.

Until I am in possession of reports from Brigadiers and other Commanding Officers, I shall be unable to enter more fully into the details of these operations, and I trust the circumstances under which I write, will excuse any slight inaccuracies or imperfections which my despatch may exhibit.

The absence of such reports also prevents my bringing to notice the names of those officers and men who have specially distinguished themselves. This will be my grateful duty hereafter. But I cannot defer the expression of my admiration for the intrepidity, coolness, and determination of all engaged, Europeans and Natives, of all Arms of the Service.

I have, &c.,

A. WILSON, Major-General,
Commanding Field Force.

City of Delhi, September 18, 1857.

*From the Adjutant-General of the Army to the

SIR,

ON the afternoon of the 14th I despatched a messenger to you, intimating the success of the assault in Delhi, which took place that morning, and that we held from the Cabul Gate to the College ; since then we have pushed on, and now occupy from the Cabul Gate along the line of the canal, with our left holding the bank which opens on the Chandnee Chouk. The Magazine was breached during the 15th, and taken by assault at day-brea' on the 16th. You will understand from this that the Mutineers occupy the Burn Bastion, and all that portion of the City to its south, excepting the bank : they also still occupy the Palace and Selimgurh, and have a camp pitched outside, near the Ajmere Gate. The Palace wall will be breached as soon as we attain a suitable site for our battery, which we have not yet acquired. Our mortars have been brought into the town and are shelling the Palace. The guns taken on the works have also been turned upon the portions of the town which are in possession of the Mutineers, and we are gradually pressing forwards. The usual license which invariably accompanies an assault of a large city has somewhat retarded our advance, but order is fast being restored. At first, the Mutineers offered obstinate resistance, but they have become less active. The townspeople are flying the city in crowds, and the Mutineers themselves are deserting in large bodies, their cavalry it is reported having almost entirely disappeared. We can get no good information as to the Mutineers' line of retreat, but some say Gwalior. Few pass over the bridge. Their positions at Kissengunge were abandoned on the day after the assault, seven guns being left behind in position. Our casualties on the day of the assault were :—Europeans, killed, 8 officers, 162 rank and file ; wounded, 52 officers, 510 rank and file. Natives, killed, 103 ; wounded, 310. Missing, 10 Europeans. Total, Europeans and Natives, killed and wounded, 1,145. The following Officers killed :—Engineer, Lieutenant Tandy, H.M.'s 75th ; Lieutenant Fitzgerald, H.M.'s 52nd ; Lieutenant Bradshaw, H.M.'s 8th ; Lieutenant Webb, 1st Fusiliers ; Major Jacob ; Captain MacBarnet, 55th N.I., doing duty ; Lieutenant Davidson, 26th N.I., doing duty with 2nd Punjaub Infantry ; Lieutenant Murray, 42nd

N.I., doing duty with Guides. Wounded—Artillery, Major Tombs, Lieutenant Lindsay; Engineers, Lieutenants Greathead, Maunsell, Medley, Salkeld (dangerously), Chesney, Brownlow (dangerously), Hovenden, Pemberton; Local Ensign Gustavinske, 6th Dragoons; Captain Rosser (mortally), 84th Foot, (doing duty with 9th Lancers); Captain the Honorable A. Anson; Lieutenant B. Cuppage, 6th Light Cavalry, doing duty with 9th Lancers; H. M.'s 75th Foot, Colonel Herbert; Lieutenants Armstrong, Watson, Dayrell, 58th Native Infantry (doing duty) 2nd Fusiliers; Captain Hay, 60th Native Infantry (doing duty), dangerously; Lieutenant Elderton, Lieutenant Gambier, 38th Native Infantry (doing duty), dangerously; Lieutenant Walker, 60th Native Infantry (doing duty), H. M.'s 52nd; Colonel Campbell, Captain Bayley, Lieutenant Atkinson, H. M.'s 60th Rifles; Captain Waters, Lieutenant Curtis, Sirmoor Battalion; Major C. Reid, H. M.'s 8th; Lieutenant-Colonel Brooke, Major Bayne (dangerously); Captain Beere; Captain Sandilands; Lieutenant Pogson (since dead); Lieutenant Walker, Lieutenant Metge, H. M.'s 61st; Captain Deacon, Lieutenant Moore, Lieutenant A. E. Young, Lieutenant Jenkins, 57th Native Infantry, attached to 4th Sikhs; Brigadier-General Nicholson, dangerously, 1st Fusiliers; Captain Greville; Captain Caulfield, 3rd Native Infantry (doing duty); Captain Graydon, 16th Native Infantry (doing duty); Lieutenants Wemyss Owen, Lambert, Woodcock, 55th Native Infantry (doing duty); Lieutenant Speke, 65th Native Infantry, (doing duty) 1st Punjaub Infantry; Lieutenant Nicholson; 2nd Punjaub Cavalry (doing duty); Lieutenant Shelley, 11th Native Infantry (doing duty); Ensign Prior, Local Officer (doing duty), 2nd Punjaub Infantry; Captain Green, Lieutenant Frankland, Madras Infantry; 4th Punjaub Infantry, Lieutenant Remfray (since dead); Guide Infantry; Lieutenant Bond, 57th Native Infantry (doing duty). The following Ordnance has been captured:—In position and in the streets, 35 pieces of sorts; in the Magazine 171; total 206. The amount of shot and shell is unlimited. I have communicated the contents of this to Government.

I am, &c.,

NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN,

Adjt.-Genl. of the Army.

P.S.—19th. During the night we advanced our left up to Abbott's house, and also Khan Mahomed's house. This gives us a strong position up to within 150 yards of the Palace walls. All our mortars are bearing upon the Jumma Musjid and the Southern part of the Town, which is being fast evacuated, the resistance becoming much less on our right: we are also progressing by working through the houses. The King and Royal Family are said to have evacuated the Palace and gone to the old fort outside the city to the south. Our very small number make it necessary to be cautious in taking possession of so large a city, for from the great number we have of sick and wounded, and our loss on the day of the assault have reduced us very much. This was too late to be sent yesterday.

No. 2.

Major-General Sir H. Barnard to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Camp, before Delhi, June 28, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Commander-in-chief, that, on the 23rd instant, the insurgents renewed their attack upon us; and, owing to some religious feeling, kept it up during the whole day. Knowing they had come out of the town the day before, and had not been seen returning at night, I became anxious for the safety of a valuable convoy, which was to march into camp on the morning of the 23rd, and sent a strong escort out to meet it. This was successful; but the convoy had scarcely arrived in camp, ere my attention was called to the right or Hindoo Rao position, where, during the whole of the rest of the day, the combat was maintained. The enemy having lodged themselves in some loop-holed houses, and a serai and mosque, occasioned some loss; and I regret to say Colonel Welchman, of the 1st Bengal European Fusiliers, was severely wounded.

The loss on the part of the rebels was very serious.

I submit a Casualty Return.

I have, &c.

H. W. BARNARD.

SIR,

July 9, 1857.

I HAVE the honour, by direction of the Provincial Commander-in-chief, to forward, for submission to the Governor-General in Council, copy of a report, dated the 5th instant, from Brevet-Major J. Coke, 1st Punjaub Infantry, who was employed, on the 4th instant, in command of a

No. 6.

Brevet-Major Coke to Major Ewart.

SIR, Camp before Delhi, July 5, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Major-General Sir H. Barnard, K.C.B., commanding the force before Delhi, that, in accordance with orders, the force as per margin,* marched at half-past 2 o'clock A.M. yesterday, to attack the body of mutineers who had left Delhi on the previous evening.

On arriving at the junction of the roads from the city and cantonments, it seemed very doubtful whether the rebels would return by the right or left bank of the Canal from Allipore; I therefore sent on Lieutenant Roberts by the main road to feel for the enemy, and Captain Hodson, of the Guides, to the right bank of the canal.

I found the enemy were retiring by the Robtuck road to Delhi, but spread all over the country.

On crossing the canal, a considerable body, with guns, were seen at a village about a mile from the bridge, when I at once proceeded to attack them. After a few rounds from their guns they carried them off in the direction of the city, before we could get up to them, which they were enabled to do, as they were on a road, whereas we had to advance over the open country, which was in many places a swamp, through which our guns and troops could only make their way with much difficulty.

A number of the enemy were killed who had thrown themselves into the village on our front; the rest fled in every direction. The Cavalry of the Guides followed them with the greatest spirit, and succeeded in cutting up some more of the enemy.

It was useless to attempt any further pursuit, for the heat was great, and the European soldiers exhausted; I therefore returned to the banks of the canal, and allowed the men to rest under the shade of the trees.

While I was bringing the Infantry back, the Artillery, by some misconception, returned to camp,

During the time we were resting under the trees on the canal, the enemy had collected their forces, and, coming up under cover of the canal, made an attack on the Infantry. We beat them back, and pursued them for a considerable distance, but, seeing that there was a larger force collecting behind them, I withdrew the Infantry, and took up a position that commanded the bridge, and, as I expected they were bringing up guns, I sent into camp for Artillery. Before the guns arrived, however, the enemy made a second attack, and were beaten back with considerable loss. Soon after, the Artillery and Cavalry came up, and followed the enemy, who again dispersed and fled in all directions.

I left the guns and Cavalry at the canal bridge, and brought back the Infantry to camp, where we arrived about 4 o'clock.

There were about 100 of the enemy killed in these attacks.

Inclosed is a Return of our loss, which was very small.

SIR, July 17, 1857.

I HAVE the honour, by desire of the Provincial Commander-in-chief, to inclose, for submission to the Governor-General in Council, copy of the Order issued this day by Major-General Reed, on quitting the Delhi field force.

2. I am further to inclose, for his Lordship's information, a state of the force, dated the 16th instant.

General Orders by Major-General Reed, Provincial Commander-in-Chief.

*Head-Quarters. Camp before Delhi,
July 17, 1857.*

LIEUTENANT-GENERAL SIR P. GRANT, K.C.B., having in a General Order, dated the 17th June, at Calcutta, announced his having assumed command of the Bengal army from that date, Major-General Reed has ceased to exercise the duties of Provincial Commander-in-chief.

Major-General Reed, having been recommended by his medical advisers to avail himself of a sick certificate to repair to the hills, as the only chance of recovering his shattered health, which has latterly prevented him from taking an active part in the field operations, has made over the command and charge of this force to Brigadier-General A. Wilson.

It is with the greatest reluctance the Major-General has come to the determination to take this step, but his duty to his country must be paramount to any selfish consideration; and being incapacitated himself for the post by disease and weakness, he has no alternative than to devolve his arduous duties upon another.

Of Brigadier-General Wilson's merits it is unnecessary for Major-General Reed to speak; his judgment, gallantry, and conduct have been conspicuous since he led his small but victorious band from Meerut up to this day.

It only remains for the Major-General to congratulate the forces before Delhi on being placed under so able a commander as Brigadier-General Wilson.

Major-General Reed takes this opportunity of requesting the head-quarters and divisional staff to accept his thanks for the great assistance received by him and by his lamented predecessor, Major-General Sir H. Barnard, K.C.B., not only in the exercise of their departmental duties, but also in the operations in the field.

To Brigadier-General Chamberlain, Acting Adjutant-General of the Army; Colonel Congreve, C.B., Acting-Adjutant General, Her Majesty's Forces; Colonel Becher,[†] Quartermaster General of the Army; Lieutenant-Colonel the Honourable R. W. P. Curzon, Acting Quartermaster-General, Her Majesty's Forces; Lieutenant-Colonel Young, Judge Advocate-General; Captain Norman, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army; Captains Garstin and Hodson, Officiating Deputy Assistant Quartermasters-General of the Army; Major Ewart, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, and Captain Stewart, Officiating Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General; Captain Maisey, Deputy Judge Advocate-General; and Captain Shute, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General of Division;—his acknowledgments are eminently due.

The Major-General's warmest thanks are due to the whole Artillery of the Force, who have on all occasions behaved with conspicuous gallantry, and have ever maintained the reputation of their distinguished corps.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Baird Smith, and the Engineer Department, Major-General Reed offers his most sincere acknowledgments for the valuable services they have rendered.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Thomson, Deputy Commissary-General and his assistants ; to Superintending Surgeon Tritton, and all the officers of the Medical Department ; the Major-General's best thanks are due for their indefatigable and successful exertions.

To Brigadiers Grant, Longfield, Jones, and Showers, and to the gallant officers and troops, European and Native, under their orders, the Major-General begs to award his tribute of admiration for their brilliant and distinguished conduct in a succession of attacks, in which the enemy have, on every occasion, been repulsed. The behaviour of the troops has been beyond all praise.

Major-General Reed cannot forbear from recording the name of Major Reid, as having commanded the post which has been subject to the most frequent and constant attacks of the enemy, from which they have always been driven with great loss by the able dispositions of that officer, so admirably seconded by the troops under his command, comprising parties of Her Majesty's 60th Royal Rifles, and other corps, with the gallant Sirinoor battalion, and Corps of Guides.

In conclusion, the Major-General desires to express his thanks to the officers of his personal Staff for the uniform assistance he has received from them upon every occasion, and he only regrets he has not had more frequent opportunities of witnessing their distinguished conduct in the field ; to Captains Lowe, Reed, and Turnbull, Aides-de-camp ; to Assistant-Surgeon W. F. Mactier ; and to Lieutenant R. C. Low, Orderly Officer ; as well as to Lieutenant W. H. Greathed, of Engineers, who acted as Aid-de-camp to the General commanding from the 7th ultimo, besides performing the duty of Field-Engineer, when his services were needed in that capacity.

(Extract) Lahore, July 18, 1857.

BY direction of the Chief Commissioner, I have the honour to forward, for submission to the Governor-General in Council, a copy of a letter of the 4th instant, from General Van Cortlandt, commanding Bhutteana field force, detailing particulars of an engagement with a body of Bhuttee rebels, on the 19th June.

The Chief Commissioner has already, in a letter dated _____, referred to this affair, which is very honourable to General Van Cortlandt and the officers and men under him.

 No. 11.

General Van Cortlandt, commanding the Bhutteana Irregular Force, to Colonel Macpherson, Military Secretary to the Chief Commissioner, Punjab.

SIR, Sirsah, July 4, 1857.

WITH reference to my demi-official letter of the 19th June, I have now the honour to report, for the information of the Chief Commissioner, that on the morning of that day I marched from Sohoo-walla, en route for Sirsah.

2. When within a short distance of the village of Khyracka, through which the road runs, each portion forming a separate entrenched village, my suspicions of an attack were aroused by a large number of cattle being driven down on my line of march, so great that it was with difficulty the road could be kept clear. I immediately threw out Cavalry skirmishers to the front and both flanks, and obtained intelligence that the village of Khyracka above named, and the village of Saharun on the left, both of which are situated on the bank of the dry bed of the Guggur river, were both strongly occupied by the Bhuttee rebels.

3. I accordingly detached the sowars of the mounted police, under Lieutenant Pearse, to the left, to prevent that portion of the enemy which occupied the village of Saharun from entering and reinforcing the village of Khyracka, and formed my small force in order of battle as follows : Jowahir Sing's troops, under Lieutenant Sadlier, on the left ; my two guns, under Lieutenant Walcott, in the centre ; and the new levies, under Captain Bloomfield, with Lieutenant Hunt, as second in command, on the right ; with about twenty Irregular Horse, entertained by me, on the extreme right, and the baggage in the rear. Jowahir Sing's force was thus facing that portion of the village of Khyracka on the left of the road ; my two guns were so placed as to keep the road clear, and prevent the enemy going from one portion to the other ; the new levies were opposite the right portion of the village ; while the few Irregular Horse were ready to cut off any of the enemy attempting to escape across the low bed of Guggur river to the village of Mirpoor on the further bank.

4. Khyracka, like all villages in this part of the country, is very strong, each portion being surrounded by a deep ditch with a strong embankment, and having but one gateway.

5. Having made the dispositions of my force as above described, I advanced on the village ; when about 350 yards from it the enemy opened fire upon me with their matchlocks, from under cover of their embankments. I then directed Lieutenant Sadlier to take half Jowahir Sing's force, and enter the extreme left of the left portion of the village, and Lieutenant Hunt, with a company of the new levies, to attack in a like manner the right flank of that on the right. Both officers carried out my instructions with the most praiseworthy zeal and ability.

6. The main body advanced simultaneously with those detached, a portion of Jowahir Sing's troops and the new levies protecting the guns, and the remainder, under Captain Bloomfield, advancing directly on the portions of the village to which they were respectively opposed.

7. The embankments of both villages were taken possession of at once, the enemy, though fighting bravely, being driven back into the villages; they fought from house to house and fired from every available cover, and in many instances our men had to remove the roofs of the houses to enable them to get at those of the enemy who were firing on us from the interior. Some of the houses, too, were fired to drive them out. Twice the men from the left village made a rush into that on the right, and were fired into with canister, from the Artillery, under Lieutenant Walcott, with good effect, several being killed.

8. There was a good deal of hand-to-hand hard fighting, but after the lapse of about two hours from the first shot being fired, we had gained possession of both portions of the village. Only nine men managed to escape over the village embankment towards the village of Meerpore; these were immediately pursued by the Irregular Cavalry on the right, five killed and four taken prisoners.

9. When both officers and men behaved alike as well and bravely, it is difficult to specify the services of any particularly; suffice it to say of the officers that they fully realised the expectations I had formed of them in selecting them, and that Captain Robertson, Superintendent of Sirsah, who was with me throughout the day, assisted me both with his advice, which his long residence here rendered particularly valuable, and by carrying instructions during the engagement.

10. Jowahir Sing's Dogras behaved most admirably, and to three of them; who most particularly distinguished themselves by acts of bravery, I gave rewards of 20 rupees each ; while the spirit and dash of the new levies would have done credit to the most experienced troops.

11. Not a man of the rebels escaped; about 250 were killed, and 18, all of whom were wounded, made prisoners.

12. My own loss, considering the position, was slight, consisting of 6 killed and 33 wounded.

13. I burnt the village on the right, and encamped on the left of the left village, facing Saharun, so as to attend to my wounded, and, if necessary, attack that village, and others which Lieutenant Pearse had been watching.

14. Subsequent to the engagement I found that between 2,000 and 3,000 men of the surrounding villages had collected, and were coming on the village of Khyracka. These arrangements were, however, disconcerted by the want of success of their use of driving cattle in our way, which they thought we would have plundered, and by the alacrity of our subsequent movements, and the promptitude with which the villages were gained, notwithstanding the obstinate resistance offered by their picked men.

15. The moral effect of their complete destruction was great; the Lumberdars of all the surrounding villages came in, and the villagers vied with each other in bringing water and supplies for the force.

16. In conclusion, I beg to recommend for favourable consideration of Government, that pensions should be granted to the families of those men who have fallen, who, though but newly raised and quite undisciplined, fell fighting bravely for the Government whose service they had but just entered.

I have, &c.

W. VAN CORTLANDT,
General commanding Bhutteana Irregular Force.

No. 12.

Major-General Lloyd to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Dinapore, August, 1, 1857.

IN continuation of the postscript to my despatch of the 27th ultimo, I have the honour to report, for the information of his Excellency the Acting Commander-in-chief, as follows, in connection with the expedition then stated to be in the course of preparation for moving to Arrah, in view to dispersing the mutineers there assembled, as also to rescuing the European community hemmed in by them.

2. Unfortunately the "Horungotta" steamer, conveying the detachments of 37th Foot (previously reported as having been ordered, upon the afternoon of the 27th instant, to land the men and a party of 50 sick within ten miles of Arrah, for the purpose of effecting the above object), grounded after three hours' steaming, without any prospect of getting off, unless by a rise of the water, which frustrated the first-formed plan.

3. On the evening of the 28th, the steamer "Bombay" arrived off the station on her downward passage, when it was determined to send up on her and flat attached, 250 men and the headquarters 10th Foot, to be joined by the 37th Detachment and Sikhs, on the "Horungotta," which was afloat; the united detachment afterwards proceeded up the river to the point, and for the purpose already indicated, recent information having been obtained that the European residents still hold out. Part of this plan, however, was necessarily abandoned, in consequence of the Commander of the "Bombay," when the time of embarkation (morning of 28th) arrived, objecting to tugging both flats; and as means were thus wanting for sending up more than 150 men of the 10th, the detachment was reduced to that number, and Captain Dunbar detailed to command it. This officer, as senior, eventually assumed command of the entire party* destined for Arrah.

4. The steamer took the flat in tow, according to arrangement above mentioned, and arrived in good time off the place of debarkation. The accompanying report, dated 31st ultimo, by Captain Harrison, the senior surviving officer of the party, will put his Excellency in possession of the very untoward events which attended the subsequent progress of the expedition.

5. From what is apparent on the face of the inclosed report, and from information I have derived, it seems to me that this disastrous affair may be attributed—

1st. To the men commencing the land journey without previously taking food, which evidently much impaired their efficiency during the harassing circumstances in which they were placed.

2nd. From the late commanding officer of the detachment, when in the immediate vicinity of the mutineers, and with the knowledge that his movements were watched,† pushing on in the dark, against the strong representation of the second in command and others of the party, and thus allowing himself to be entrapped in an ambuscade, the effects of which quite disheartened and demoralized the troops, and, combined with their physical exhaustion, led to a complete rout, defying the P.S.—A report from Lieutenant Waller, late Acting Deputy, with a party of the Bengal Police Battalion attached to the European detachment, likewise accompanies, for submission.

No. 13.

Captain Harrison to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Dinapore.

SIR, Dinapore, July 31, 1857.

IT is with much concern that I have to report, for the information of the Major-General commanding Division, on the following occurrence connected with the expedition to Arrah, for the purpose of relieving the European inhabitants at that station.

At 3 o'clock P.M. of the 29th instant, the steamer carrying the detachment as per margin,* arrived off the point of debarkation, about three miles from the mainland. The party of Sikhs were detached, and shortly afterwards reached the shore for the purpose of seizing boats to enable the detachments to pass over. On arriving there, under the command of Lieutenant Ingilby, 7th Native Infantry, the party were fired upon by some of the rebels posted on the spot to prevent the seizure of the boats by us. These, however, we landed, after some shots were fired in direction; and after about three hours and a half the passage was accomplished.

* Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, 3 officers, 150 men; Her Majesty's 37th Regiment, 7 officers, 190 men; Sikhs, 1 officer, 65 men. Total, 11 officers, 405 men.

Having formed, the detachments commenced their march towards Arrah at 7 o'clock P.M., and, with the exception of a few shots being fired at the Sikhs thrown out on our flanks, we reached without opposition a bridge distant from Arrah about one mile and a half. This was the place where I had represented to Captain Dunbar the expediency of halting until daylight ; to which he replied he had heard from the magistrate of the improbability of our meeting with any opposition ; he thought it was preferable to push on.

After advancing from the bridge about half-an-hour, we were assailed from the embankment of a wood on the right of the road, by a large body of the rebels firing about thirty yards' distance on the flank of the column, which at once did severe execution, and was followed up by a continued running fire, that caused great destruction amongst officers and men : here I believe Captain Dunbar fell.

The men endeavoured to gain shelter on the other side of the road, but it being quite dark, they fell down a steep embankment (about six feet), and many men lost their firelocks. After straggling some distance, the officers succeeded in re-forming the men in a field some 400 yards from the ambuscade, and took up a position for the night (it was then about midnight, and very dark), in a field adjoining, which seemed to afford some protection. Here we remained until daylight, the rebels keeping up a fire during the night on our position.

We then commenced our retreat towards the steamer, twelve miles distant. In consequence of the men of both regiments having fasted such a long time, they were too exhausted and tired to act as skirmishers. However, our rear-guard and files on the flanks frequently kept up a fire until all their ammunition was expended, by which time we arrived at the bank of the river. We were compelled to march in column, the rebels pursuing us in large bodies the whole distance to the ghauts, both on flank and rear; but their fire visibly slackened the last two miles. The rebels, it was supposed, were running short of ammunition, and wished to reserve it.

On our arriving at the ghauts, notwithstanding the efforts of the officers, the men made a rush to the boats; immediately upon which the rebels advanced upon us, and commenced a heavy fire of musketry and two guns upon the boats, which were forsaken by the boatmen. This caused great loss, and one fired one of the boats.

The remnants of the detachment gained the steamer, which I immediately ordered to Dinapore, to gain assistance for the wounded.

The loss we inflicted on the rebels I believe to be small, on account of the darkness, and the men being too exhausted to fire.

The people of the country turned out against us.

Commanding detachment of Her Majesty's
37th Regiment.

SIR, Dinapore, July 31, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to report for the information of the Major-General commanding the station, that, hearing on the evening of the 29th, that a party of Her Majesty's 10th Regiment was ordered to proceed to Arrah, I volunteered to accompany them. We started from here at daylight on the 30th, in the steamer , and proceeded up the river to where the flat attached to the Government steamer "Horungotta" was, and took her in tow, with a party of Her Majesty's 37th Regiment, and fifty Sikhs of Captain Rattery's police corps on board ; the steamer "Horungotta" being aground.

We then proceeded to Beharee-Ghaut and anchored. Lieutenant Ingilby, 7th Native Infantry, then gave me command of the fifty Sikhs ; Ensign Anderson, 22nd Native Infantry, and Ensign Venour, of my own regiment, volunteering to do duty with me.

Lieutenant Ingilby then proceeded, with fifteen men, Sikhs of the 7th and 8th Native Infantry, whom he had taken from here with him, to a nullah about two miles off, for the purpose of seizing the boats to cross the detachment. About twenty minutes after Lieutenant Ingilby had left, I heard shots in the direction of the nullah, and immediately started with my fifty men ; but when I got up to the place the firing had stopped, except a few shots which were fired to stop a boat that was sailing up the river, although desired to stop. Lieutenant Ingilby then crossed the nullah with his fifteen men, leaving me on the other side.

I then sent off one of my men to Captain Dunbar, to tell him we needed no assistance, hoping I should be in time to prevent his coming with his detachment, who were cooking when I left ; but they had got about half-way before my messenger reached them. Upon the arrival of the 10th and 37th Regiments at the nullah, the order was given to cross, which took up a long time, as the current of the river was very strong, and the boats large and heavy ; we had finished crossing by 6 o'clock P.M., and then commenced our march : except that the road was dreadfully uneven, and very distressing to the feet, we had no difficulties of any kind ; it was a moonlight night, and the only armed men we saw from the time we left the steamer until our arrival at Arrah, were the few men who fired at

Lieutenant Ingilby, and who were left (so the villagers said) by Baboo Koowar Sing, to give him news as soon as we arrived, which showed, with what occurred afterwards, that they were well aware of the party having been sent against them. We arrived in Arrah about 11 o'clock (it was then quite dark, as the moon had gone down), and were proceeding quickly through the outskirts of the town, in following order:—Lieutenant Ingilby a short way a-head of the column with his fifteen men; then Her Majesty's 10th, followed by my Sikhs; and Her Majesty's 37th brought up the rear; when, in passing by a large tope of mango trees, which Lieutenant Ingilby had passed without seeing or hearing anything, we received a most dreadfully severe fire, which I heard killed a good number of our men, who, not being prepared, and the fire being so heavy and so very close to us, ran off the road into the fields on the other side, and from thence commenced firing on the tope. I lost on the road the native officer, a first rate fellow, who was shot close to me, and also some men, but how many I do not know, as we did not go near the place again. The men were dreadfully scattered, and there was great difficulty in collecting them; some did not join us till the next day, and others were dropping in all night. We then retreated to another road, and lay down behind a small "bund," which rose along both sides of the road facing the topes in which the rebels were, and which afforded a capital shelter from the fire, which was kept up at short intervals all night. It was after retreating to this bund, that Ensign Anderson was killed; poor fellow! he was shot dead through the heart. We remained here during the whole night, and at daylight started back for the steamer, a distance of about thirteen miles. We were followed in large numbers by the rebels; the main body would not come within range, but they sent out a great number of sepoys (picked shots, I fancy) right and left, who took advantage of every tree and inequality of the ground the whole way, and kept up, without the least cessation, a most severe fire on our column the whole march—nearly all, or a great part, of their shot telling on us, whereas they were so much scattered, and so well covered, that they did not suffer much loss: however, though we lost a great number of men, we arrived at the ghaut with comparatively very little loss to what we expected.

When we arrived at the nullah we found a number of large boats on this side, into which the men immediately rushed, and commenced trying to shove the boats across, but most of them were aground, and the others were so large that the men could not manage them, and all the boatmen had been driven away by the sepoys; every time a man showed himself outside a boat he was fired at from the village, which was close by, and at last the men gave up altogether the idea of getting across in boats, and, taking off all their clothes, those that could, swam across.

Upon getting down to the nullah, Ensign Venour and I got into a boat with some of the men, and, while I was shoving out the boat, we tried with a rifle to shoot some of the fellows who were making a mark of me. He knocked over one, but, unfortunately, got shot himself immediately after through the thigh, and dropped. I tied up his leg as well as I could, and, getting some more help, I succeeded in getting the boat off, but the fire was so hot, as they saw a chance of our getting away from them, that I and four men left the boat and swam ashore, being fired at the whole way across. Ensign Venour also left the boat a short time afterwards, and, although wounded, managed to swim ashore; the fire from the village the whole time was most severe, killing and wounding a great number.

After those who could swim got away, the sepoys first opened a most severe fire on the few who remained in the boats that were aground, and, after wounding most of the men in them, they all rushed down and set fire to the roof.

It was here that poor Lieutenant Ingilby was killed, and a great number of wounded, who had been carried so far, were obliged to be left; a few escaped in a small boat in which some Sikhs took some wounded officers across (Ensign Erskine amongst others), whom they brought for about five miles on a bed, procured in a village. They returned a second time with the boat, in despite of the fire.

Nothing could be better than the way in which the Sikhs behaved from the time I got command of them; they made themselves extremely useful in every way, and were always cool, steady, and under perfect control.

SIR, Camp, Mungulwar, August 6, 1857.

I BEG you will acquaint his Excellency the Commander-in-chief that, having received information that the enemy had re-occupied Busherutgunge in force, I advanced against that place yesterday, turned the left of the position with the Highlanders, Sikhs, and Captain Maude's battery, under Colonel Hamilton. Attacking in front with the rest of my force, I drove the enemy out of the town, and across the narrow causeway and bridge, with great slaughter, and returned to this position at night. Not a soldier or armed villager on the enemy's side dared to follow me.

The insurgents had eight or ten guns beyond the causeway; two on this side of it. Two of those beyond were 24-pounders. The whole were kept at such a distance, and withdrawn so rapidly, that we never got a fair sight of them. None, therefore, fell into our hands; but two on the walls, which had been captured on the 29th ultimo, and dismantled by the Commandant of Artillery, so imperfectly, however, that the enemy again fired out of them.

I estimate the loss of the enemy at 300 killed and wounded; mine was 25.

The enemy will not, I fear, again venture to fight with a narrow causeway and swamp in his rear.

I inclose a return of the casualties; also a sketch of the ground.

Bivouac, Mungulwar, Oude, August, 12, 1857.

SIR,

BE pleased to inform the Commander-in-chief that I was yesterday prepared to cross over to

* Two of these very slightly, almost nominally.

Jawnpore by the bridges and boat-equipage which Lieutenant-Colonel Tytler and Captain Crommelin have established ; but I had determined that, if there should be any considerable assemblage of hostile troops in my front, I would not await their attack in this strong position, but take the initiative, and strike a blow against them.

In the course of the day, a succession of spies brought me information of about 4,000 men, with some guns, having come forward from Nawabgunge to Busherutgunge. I at once put my force in motion, although its baggage and spare ammunition, additional doolies, &c., were already on the right bank. My advanced guard pushed the enemy's parties out of Onao, where my force bivouacked under trees. Marching at dawn, it found him for the third time prepared to defend Busherutgunge, and thus came on our eighth combat since the 12th July.

The insurgents were about 4,000 in number, with six field-guns. They had varied their mode of defence by entrenching the village of Boorbee-ake-chowkee, in advance of Busherut. My superior artillery-fire would soon have crushed them, but I could only slowly bring my batteries and echeloned troops across the wilds and deep morasses which protected their front ; meanwhile, their shot and shell caused some loss in my ranks ; but when these obstacles were passed, success was speedily achieved. The Highlanders, without firing a shot, precipitated themselves with a cheer upon the principal redoubt, and captured two out of the three horse-battery guns with which it was armed. The Fusiliers at the same time drove the enemy's extreme left before them, and their whole line was speedily in full retreat.

I estimate their loss at 300 killed and wounded ; my own was 35.

I retraced my steps leisurely to this position.

A body of troops under Munsoob Alee, a rebellious Talookdar, made an effort to interrupt our progress by a demonstration on our right flank, but were compelled to retreat by our artillery-fire.

This action has inspired much terror amongst the enemy, and, I trust, will prevent his effectually opposing our embarkation at Cawnpore, which is a difficult operation.

Major-General Gowan to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Lahore, August 17, 1857.

I DO myself the honour to inclose, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-chief in Bengal, and of the Supreme Government, copy of a letter dated the 13th instant, from Brigadier-General A. Wilson, commanding the field force before Delhi, giving cover to two reports, dated respectively the 4th and 12th idem, from Major C. Reid, of the Sirmoor battalion, and in command of the main picquet before Delhi at Hindoo Rao's house

I beg to record my full concurrence in all the Brigadier-General's sentiments, as expressed in his letter; and to indulge a hope that the noble and praiseworthy conduct of Major Reid and his gallant band may meet with the reward so highly earned.

I have, &c.

G. E. GOWAN, Major-General, Commanding in the Upper Provinces.

No. 23.

Brigadier-General Wilson to the Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Camp before Delhi, August 13, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of Major-General Gowan, C.B., commanding the forces in the Upper Provinces, a report by Major Reid, commanding the Sirmoor Battalion, of the result of repeated attacks made by a large force of the insurgents upon his post during the night of the 1st, and continued during the greater part of the 2nd instant.

The report speaks for itself; but I cannot refrain from bringing to the notice of Major-General Gowan, with a view to the same being submitted to his Excellency the Commander-in-chief, and through him to the Supreme Government, the admiration with which I, as well as the whole force, have viewed the gallantry with which this noble officer, with the gallant band under him, has held the important post entrusted to his command.

With the aid of Her Majesty's 60th Royal Rifles, his own regiment, the Sirmoor Battalion, assisted by reliefs from the Guide Corps of Infantry, the 4th Sikh Regiment, and the 1st Punjaub Infantry, this officer has from the 8th of June, the date of the arrival of this force at Delhi, sustained and defeated twenty-four separate attacks upon his position up to the 6th instant; and, from that date to the present, constant worrying attacks, day and night, by both Infantry and Artillery.

I have no words to express my admiration of the endurance and gallantry displayed throughout this long period by Major Reid and the officers and men who have served under him; but I now thus briefly record my opinion of their merits, in the certain hope that Major-General Gowan, C.B., will recommend them to higher authority for the greatest honours that can be bestowed upon them.

Appended to Major Reid's report is a letter from him of yesterday's date, bringing to favourable notice the names of officers who have served under him since the 8th June last.

*Main Picket, Hindoo Rao's House,
August 4, 1857.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Brigadier-General commanding the forces, that about 4.30 P.M., on the 1st instant, I observed, from my look-out on the top of this house, that mutineers were turning out of the Ajmere and Toorkman Gates in considerable force; they assembled on the open plain in front of the above-mentioned gates, but as they did not move off, I took but little notice of them, beyond directing my look-out man to watch all their movements; on looking to my right rear, I perceived the whole of the force which had moved out of the city on the 31st ultimo, returning over the ridge (Kolapahar) and by the Rohtuck Road, with all the guns they had taken out, viz., six Horse-Artillery guns, four 9-pounder guns, and three heavy mortars, with the whole of their camp equipage, &c., and elephants and camels. This force halted about a mile from the Edgha Serai, and a little before sunset was joined by the mutineers from the city. For some little time I was doubtful as to their intentions, but as the sun went down, about 5,000 or 6,000 Infantry came down with six light guns, through the Kissengunge and Pahareeporee Buildings, taking advantage of the cover as they advanced. The Sammy-house was attacked, and here I had 100 of Major Coke's Regiment, and 50 Guides, the picket under command of Captain Travers (who, I much regret to say, was mortally wounded during the night, and is since dead); I sent orders to him to encourage the enemy to approach, and not to fire until his men were sure of their aim; shortly after this, I heard a rattle of musketry from the breastwork on the right of the Sammy-house, as also from the inclosure, and the enemy then opened with their light guns on the crow's nest, the breastwork, and our right flank batteries. It became necessary, about 7 o'clock, to send reinforcements to the Sammy-house, so I accordingly directed Lieutenant McGill, with his company (60th Rifles), which had come up in support, to proceed to the breastwork on the right, whilst I sent Captain Derby, with fifty men of the 61st Foot, to the inclosure.

Repeated attacks were made throughout the night, and at one time the enemy came up within twenty paces of the Sammy-house in very considerable force, but, as on all former occasions, was driven back, with, I should say, very great loss; but, owing to the cover they had, they were able to remove their dead without being seen: 127 bodies have, however, been since counted between the breastwork and the Tobewalah Bazaar.

A little before daybreak on the 2nd, fresh troops were brought up, and another attack was made on the Sammy-house and breastwork, on which I directed a company of the 60th Rifles, under the command of Captain Sir E. Campbell, to aid in driving the enemy back. A large force attempted to turn the right, and get round to the Subzee Mundy tent; in order to do this they had to cross the road, and the ground which has now been cleared of all jungle; as soon as they had got on to the road, with a body of Cavalry which came up from the Edgha, I ordered the officer commanding the light-gun battery to give them three rounds of grape, whilst our light mortars played on them from the crow's nest: they flew back to their cover on the left of the road immediately, and did not again show in any force.

About 10 A.M., the enemy commenced moving off in the direction of the city, but it was not until 4 P.M., that I had the satisfaction of seeing them in full retreat with their guns.

I cannot speak too highly of the coolness of the troops under my command throughout the night; there was no noise whatever—no hurry or confusion; and my warmest thanks are due to all for their gallantry and daring.

This report would have been furnished before, but my duties at this picket would not admit of it.

A return of our loss has already been furnished;

I am happy to say it was slight in comparison with that of the enemy.

I have, &c.

C. REID.

No. 27.

Major Reid to Brigadier-General Wilson.

Main Picket, Hindoo Rao's House,

MY DEAR GENERAL,

August 12, 1857.

MY report of the attack on my position on the night of the 1st, and morning of the 2nd instant, was a hurried affair; but I am, indeed, glad you have given me an opportunity of bringing to notice the names of officers and men who have served under me since the 8th of June last.

I cannot speak too highly of the conduct of the detachment of the 60th Royal Rifles, who have on all occasions behaved admirably. and ever maintained the reputation of their distinguished corps. I would wish to bring to your notice the names of two officers of this regiment, viz., Captain Sir E. Campbell and Captain J. R. Wilson, who have at different times commanded the parties on duty at this post, and from whom I have always received the greatest assistance. Both are most excellent officers, and I beg to recommend them to notice.

My acknowledgments are due to Lieutenant R. H. Shebbeare, now commanding the distinguished Corps of Guides, who has been three times slightly wounded whilst on duty with me here; also to Lieutenant Hawes, Adjutant (likewise wounded), and other officers doing duty with the corps.

Detachments of the 1st Punjaub Infantry, and 4th Sikhs, have since their arrival in camp been constantly on duty at this picket, and have always behaved on all occasions of attack with gallantry.

To Lieutenant Fisher, the second in command of my regiment, and the officers doing duty, my warmest thanks are due. The conduct of the men, you have already been pleased to make honourable mention of ; it only remains for me to say that they have done their duty most cheerfully.

My thanks are also due to the officers and men of the 8th and 61st Foot, who have at different times taken the duties of the Subzee Mundy Picket, which is under my orders.

Yours sincerely,
C. REID.

Adjutant-General of the Army.*

SIR, Bivouac, Bithoor, August 17, 1857.

I HAVE to request the favour of your informing the Commander-in-chief that I marched to this place yesterday.

The mutineers of the 31st and 42nd, from Saugor, the 17th, from Fyzabad, and sepoy of other regiments, with troops of the 2nd Light Cavalry and 3rd Irregulars, united to a portion of Nena Sahib's troops, were, with two guns, in one of the strongest positions I have ever seen : they numbered 4,000 men. The plain, densely covered with thicket, and flanked by villages, has two streams flowing through it, not fordable by troops of any arm, and only to be crossed by two narrow bridges, the furthest of which was protected by an entrenchment armed with artillery. The road takes a turn after passing the second bridge, which protects the defenders from direct fire ; and behind are the narrow streets and brick houses of Bithoor.

I must do the mutineers the justice to pronounce that they fought obstinately ; otherwise they could not for a whole hour have held their own, even with such advantages of ground, against my powerful artillery fire. The streams prevented my turning them, and my troops were received, in assaulting the position, by a heavy rifle and musketry fire from the rifle and battalion companies engaged; but, after a severe struggle, the enemy were driven back, their guns captured, and infantry chased off the field, in full retreat towards Seorajpore. Had I possessed Cavalry, not a rebel or mutineer could have reached that place alive: as it is, they shall not long remain there unmolested.

The loss of the enemy is estimated at 250 killed and wounded: mine is 49, and my numbers are further reduced by sun-stroke and cholera.

I inclose a sketch of the position; returns of killed and wounded, and captured ordnance.

SIR, Camp, Buxar, August 23, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to request you will bring to the special notice of Major-General Sir J. Outram, K.C.B., commanding the Cawnpore and Dinapore divisions, the valuable assistance that has been rendered to the field force under my command, by the following officers of the Stud Department, viz :—

1. Lieutenant Couper, 2nd Native Infantry, Officiating Deputy Superintendent, who placed at my disposal the full number of cattle required for Artillery and Commissariat purposes, as well as horses for officers and volunteer troopers, thereby enabling my force to move within a few hours after its organization.

2. Lieutenant Jackson, 12th Native Infantry, Officiating 1st Class Assistant, who volunteered his personal services and took command of the volunteer troopers, rendering in that capacity most excellent service.

3. Captain the Hon. E. P. R. H. Hastings, 32nd Native Infantry, Officiating 2nd Class Assistant, who also volunteered his services as Staff Officer to the force, and whose distinguished merits have already been recorded in my despatches.

4. Veterinary Surgeon Siddall, who acted as second in command to the volunteer troopers under Lieutenant Jackson.

I trust the creditable zeal and good services rendered to the State by these gentlemen on sudden emergency may be deemed worthy of the consideration of the Government of India, contributing largely as they did to the happy relief of the Arrah garrison, and the pacification of the Shahabad district.

Brigadier-General Nicholson to Major Ewart, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General.

SIR,

(Without date.)

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of Major-General Wilson, commanding before Delhi, that, agreeably to his orders, I marched from this at day-break on the 25th, with the troops noted in the margin,* to intercept a force of the enemy, said to be moving from Delhi towards Bahadurghur, with the intention of attacking us in rear.

On my arrival at the village of Nanglooe, about nine miles from this (and on the road to which I had to cross two difficult swamps), I learned that the enemy had been at Palum the previous day, and would probably reach Nujufghur in the course of the afternoon; I therefore decided on leaving the Bahadurghur road, and, if possible, coming up with, and routing, the enemy at Nujufghur before night-fall.

I crossed a tolerably deep and broad ford, over a branch of the Nujufghur Jheel, near the village of Baprowla, at about 4 P.M., and found the enemy in position on my left and front, extending from the bridge over the Nujufghur canal to the town of Nujufghur itself, a distance of a mile and three quarters or two miles. Their strongest point was an old serai on their left centre, in which they had four guns; nine more guns were between this and the bridge.

It was 5 o'clock before the troops were across the ford, and parallel with the position. As the evening was so far advanced, and I had no guides, I laboured under the disadvantage of being compelled to make a very hasty reconnaissance.

The plan which I determined on was, to force the left centre (which, as I have said, was the strongest part of the position), and then changing front to the left, to sweep down their line of guns towards the bridge.

I accordingly formed-up Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, the 1st Fusiliers, and 2nd Punjanb Infantry (with the exception of 100 men of each corps, whom I had told off on the march as a rear-guard and reserve), with four guns on the right and eight on the left flank, supported by the squadron 9th Lancers and Guide Cavalry; and after the Artillery had fired a few rounds, I advanced and charged with the Infantry. The enemy was driven out with scarcely any numerical loss to us (though Her Majesty's 61st had a most gallant and promising officer, Lieutenant Gabbet, mortally wounded); and I then changed front to left, and so turned the whole position in which their guns were.

The enemy made little resistance as we advanced, and were soon in full retreat across the bridge, with our guns playing upon them, thirteen of their field-pieces having fallen into our hands.

At the same time that I attacked the Serai, I directed Lieutenant Lumsden, Officiating Commandant of Major Coke's regiment, the 1st Punjaub Infantry, to advance, and clear the town of Nujufghur on our right. This service was well performed, and without loss, by Lieutenant Lumsden, who, after passing through the town, brought his right shoulders forward, and followed in rear of the main line.

The enemy's guns were now all in our possession, and I supposed the conflict at an end, when it was reported to me that a few men had concealed themselves in the little village of Nuglee, which was at this time a few hundred yards in rear of our line. I immediately sent order to Lieutenant Lumsden, who was nearly abreast of the village, to drive them out; but, though few in number, they had remained so long that our troops were on all sides of them; and seeing no line of retreat open, they fought with extreme desperation.

Lieutenant Lumsden was, I regret to say, killed, with of his men;* more were wounded; and I was obliged to send back the 61st Regiment to reinforce the 1st Punjaub Infantry. This corps also suffered the loss of another gallant officer, Lieutenant Elkington, dangerously wounded, and men killed, and several men wounded, before the village was in our possession.

The enemy's Cavalry—apparently not less than 1,000 strong—more than once made a show of charging during the action, but were on each occasion driven back by the fire of our Artillery. Our own Cavalry I regretted much my inability to employ against them; but I had been obliged to leave the squadron of the 2nd Punjaub Cavalry under Lieutenant Nicholson, and 120 of the Mooltanees, to look after the baggage; and I had, of Lancers, Guides, and Mooltanees, not more than 300 left to escort the guns and form a reserve.

I passed the night at the bridge, with the 1st Fusiliers and 2nd Punjaub Infantry, and a detachment of Artillery and Lancers. I had the bridge mined, and blown up by the Sappers; and all the waggon and tumbrils which I had not the means of bringing away were also blown up by Major Tombs.

Shortly after daybreak in the morning, I started on my return to camp, and fearing lest more rain should render the ground (already sufficiently difficult) quite impracticable, I brought the column in the same evening.

It only now remains for me to fulfil the pleasing duty of expressing my extreme satisfaction with the conduct of the troops in these operations. No soldiers ever advanced to the attack of a position with greater gallantry and steadiness than Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, the 1st Fusiliers, and the 2nd Punjaub Infantry. No Infantry was ever more ably assisted by Artillery. Major Coke's regiment, under its gallant and lamented officiating Commandant, sustained its high reputation. The troops are likewise entitled to great credit for the cheerfulness with which they bore the hardships they were exposed to. They marched at daybreak, and had to cross two difficult swamps before their arrival at Nanglooe; as it would not have been prudent to take the baggage across the ford at Baprowla, they were obliged, after fourteen hours' marching and fighting, to bivouac on the field, without food or covering of any kind.

The officers to whom I am most indebted for their services on this occasion, and whom I would beg to bring prominently to the favourable notice of the Major-General, are Major Tombs, commanding the Artillery (this officer's merits are so well known to the Major-General that it is unnecessary for me to dwell upon them); Major Jacob, commanding 1st Fusiliers; and Captain Green, commanding 2nd Punjaub Infantry, and Captains Remington and Blunt, and Lieutenants Wilson and Sankey of the Artillery.

I also received every assistance from my Staff and Orderly Officers, Captain Blane, B. M., Captain French and Lieutenant Dixon, Captain Shute. Deputy Assistant Quartermaster General, and Lieutenant Lowe, on the Staff of the Major-General commanding.

Lieutenant Sarel, of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers, to whom I entrusted the command of the Cavalry with the guns, during the action, and of the guard on the 26th, performed those duties very much to my satisfaction; the same remarks apply to Captain Gordon, of Her Majesty's 61st, who commanded the reserve during the action and night of the 25th.

Sir T. Metcalfe was good enough to accompany, and give me the benefit of his local knowledge; he was also present and very forward in the attack on the Serai.

Lieutenant Geneste, of the Engineers, deserves credit for the very complete and successful manner in which he blew up the bridge.

I inclose a return of captured guns; a casualty roll; and a sketch of the ground, prepared by Captain Shute, of the Quartermaster-General's Department.

I have, &c.

Major-General Sir J. Outram to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

*Camp, Thureedon,
September 11, 1857.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-chief, that, on arriving at my camp, Katogun, on the 9th instant, I received definite information that a party of insurgents from Oude, amounting to from 300 to 400, with four guns, had crossed the Ganges near the village of Koondun Puttee, fifteen miles north of Khoga, on the trunk road, between Futtehpore and Allahabad.

Operations against them could be best effected from this encampment, because I could here obtain the best intelligence; and my having apparently passed the direct road to them was likely to throw them off their guard. I accordingly sent orders to halt the leading column, in order to have rested men for the work.

On joining Major Simmons' columns at this place, I despatched, under Major Eyre, a party consisting of 100 of Her Majesty's Fusiliers, 50 of Her Majesty's 64th Regiment, mounted on elephants, with two guns, and completely equipped with tents, two days' cooked provisions, and supplies for three more.

Captain Johnson's detachment of the 12th Irregulars, consisting of 40 men, made a forced march, and concentrated with Eyre's party at Hutgong Khas yesterday evening, having completed forty miles.

For the further proceedings I beg to refer his Excellency to Major Eyre's despatch. His reputation as a successful leader had already been so well established, that I purposely selected him for this duty, in the perfect confidence that he would succeed.

The importance of this success will, I am sure, be fully appreciated by your Excellency and the Governor-General. I now consider my communications secure, which otherwise must have been entirely cut off during our operations in Oude; and a general insurrection, I am assured, would have followed throughout the Doad had the enemy not been destroyed, they being but the advanced guard of more formidable invaders: from which evils having been preserved by Major Eyre's energy and decision, that officer, and the detachment under his command, are, I consider, entitled to thankful acknowledgments from Government, which I am confident will not be withheld.

I have, &c.

J. OUTRAM, Major-General,
Commanding Cawnpore and Dinapore Divisions.

Major Eyre to Colonel Napier.

SIR, Koondun Puttee, September 11, 1857.

I AM happy to have it in my power to report, for the information of Major-General Sir James Outram, K.C.B., that the expedition he did me the honour of entrusting to my command has been attended with entire success, and the daring invasion of this territory from Oude has been signally punished.

I arrived at Hutgong last evening at dusk, where I was joined by Captain Johnson's troop of the 12th Irregular Horse forty in number. As they had marched twenty-four miles, and were in need of rest, I halted till half-past 1 A.M., when we had the advantage of moonlight to pursue our march to Koondun Puttee, where we arrived at daybreak.

The Oude rebels, having been apprised a little previously of our advance, had fled precipitately to their boats, about half-a-mile off. I ordered the Cavalry, under Captain Johnson and Lieutenant Havelock, to pursue them, and followed up myself, with all practicable speed, with the Infantry and guns. We found the Cavalry had driven the enemy into their boats, which were fastened to the shore, and were maintaining a brisk fire on them from the bank above.

On the arrival of the detachments of Hill's 5th Fusiliers and 64th Foot, under Captains Johnson and Turner, the fire of our musketry into the densely-crowded boats was most telling; but the enemy still defended themselves to the utmost, until the guns under Lieutenant Gordon opened fire, when the rebels instantly threw themselves, panic-stricken, into the river. Grape was now showered upon them, and a terrific fusilade from the Infantry and Cavalry maintained, until only a few scattered survivors escaped. Their numbers appeared to be about 300.

Previously to their plunging into the river, they threw their guns overboard, and blew up one of their boats, which had been boarded by a party of Infantry, whereby, I regret to say, one man of Hill's 5th was killed, and ten more or less injured (of whom five were Europeans and five natives). All the officers mentioned above distinguished themselves highly; and the conduct of the men was all that could be desired.

Lieutenant Impey, of the Engineers, and Mr. Volunteer Tarbey, have likewise, by their zeal and usefulness, merited my thanks and commendation.

VINCENT EYRE, Major,
Commanding Field Force.

P.S.—Having heard of another party of rebels at a ghaut higher up the river, I have dispatched the Cavalry to reconnoitre.

*Major V. Eyre, commanding Field Detachment, to Colonel Napier, Military Secretary.
Camp, Futtehpoor,*

SIR, September 12, 1857.

I HAVE the honour herewith to forward a correct return of killed and wounded on the late expedition to Koondun Puttee.

6 I

In the postscript of my despatch of the 11th instant, I mentioned having sent the forty 12th Irregular Cavalry troopers, under Captain Johnson, to reconnoitre, and, if possible, to intercept a party of Oude rebels said to have landed at Ukree Ghaut.

They had, however, retreated across the river before Captain Johnson's troop could get at them; but a small fort which had been recently erected near the Ghaut by the rebels was destroyed by Captain Johnson.

I was informed by Mahomed Zuboor Khan, the Thanadar of Koondun Puttee, that, had not the Oude invaders been checked, and a portion of them destroyed by our troops, it was their intention to overrun the whole country between Futtehpoor and Allahabad, with a view of interrupting our communication and impeding our operations.

He also assured me that the following persons on this side of the river had taken an active part in these disturbances and hostile designs, viz., Bhunmur Sing Zemadar of Ukree, (Ramashae (haet) of Hutgaen (an active confederate of the former), Seetta Bux and Pulwan Sing of Burgulla, and Nur-lusta Kumarodeen Hoossain of Puttee.

I take this opportunity of mentioning that the detachment of the 12th Irregulars had already marched twenty-four miles when they received the sudden order to join me at Hutgaen, and although both men and horses had been a whole day without food they galloped on the whole way to meet me, a distance of nine miles further, guided by that energetic officer, Lieutenant Dawson, of the ; who also took a conspicuous part in their subsequent operations.

I have, &c.,

Brigadier-General G. St. P. Lawrence, Officiating Governor-General's Agent, Rajpootana, to the Secretary to the Government of India.

SIR, Camp, Chellawur, September 19, 1857.

FOR the information of the Governor-General in Council, I have the honour to report that I marched, yesterday morning, with the force as per margin,* upon Ahwa, a walled town, and ghurree of Marwar, where the mutineers of the Jodhpore Legion, joined by the troops of Ahwa and other disaffected thakoors, had taken up a position, which they had been at every pains to strengthen to the utmost.

2. The very vigilant suspicion of the rebels had baffled all attempts to get accurate information of their position by my scouts, and the place, being surrounded by jungle, could not be reconnoitred out of range. I determined to reconnoitre in force, and, if circumstances justified me, to assault it at once:

3. I had a strong advanced guard, as per margin,† and, as we came on through the thick jungle, I sent on a small party of the Cavalry at a gallop, with Lieutenant Heathcote, Deputy-Assistant Quartermaster-General, and Lieutenant Bannerman, Adjutant, Kotah Contingent, to feel where the rebels actually were. A few of their sowars, who were looking out, hastily retreated before this party, and one of them, who had dismounted to fire, was taken prisoner. The party reported that the rebels were out in force close under the walls of the town, of which we could now see the topmost buildings rising, as it were, out of the jungle.

* Five Horse-Artillery guns, under Captain Petrie; 195 Her Majesty's 83rd, under Major Heathy; 2 squadrons (about 200 swords) Bombay Lancers; 250 Mhairwarra Battalion, under Lieutenant Carnell; detachment (30) 12th Bombay Native Infantry.

† 2 Horse-Artillery guns; 1 troop 1st Lancers; 50 Her Majesty's 83rd Infantry; 50 Mhairwarra Battalion.

4. Going a few yards on, fire was at once opened on the column ; this was promptly and efficiently answered by two guns under Lieutenant Swanson, which I had ordered to the front from the advanced guard. The main column at once moved up to support, and skirmishers were thrown out from the Infantry, supported by Cavalry on the flanks. The five Horse-Artillery guns, ably directed by Captain Petrie now opened their fire. Large bodies of the enemy were seen scattered by our shot and shell, and hurrying under the walls ; and they were apparently driven by our fire out of their entrenched position. Their firing, however, (especially against my right, and from two 9-pounder guns lately belonging to the Jodhpore Legion), was hotly kept up. One of our howitzers (trail being old Bengal pattern) was disabled by its own recoil ; and one man killed and two wounded at another gun, which had one of its wheels destroyed by a round shot. I therefore took ground to my left, and, on getting a good view again of a musjid from which the enemy were firing, and of groups of them collected under its walls, our guns opened on them as before, with manifest effect.

5. As it was made plain the place could not be carried by a coup-de-main with the force under me, and as parties of the enemy on my right were threatening to attack the baggage, which the nature of the country rendered very assailable, notwithstanding a strong guard for its protection, I decided on changing the direction of the column, so as to have it between my baggage and the enemy, and counter-marched to my former right. I ordered two of the guns to be fired on some of the enemy still visible, who had been trying to get round at the baggage, but having that now secure on my reverse flank, no further molestation was offered.

6. Under the existing circumstances, renewing the attack appearing unjustifiable, I determined to draw off the force, but ready, and in order, to repel and follow up the enemy, should he provoke me to do so. No further movement on their part being attempted, I retired leisurely on this place, about three miles distant from the scene of action, and am at present halted here.

7. It is with deep pain I have to announce the death of Captain Monck Mason, Political Agent at Jodhpore. He had arrived with some of the Maharajah's men to join me on the field before Ahwa. He seems to have mistaken some of the enemy's Horse for ours, and was shot down after going with them a short distance. The loss of this excellent officer could not but be deplored, but under such sad circumstances has been a great grief to me. The loss suffered by the troops was, I am thankful to say, very trifling, as the accompanying Return will show.

8. I have great satisfaction in reporting my entire approval of the conduct of the troops throughout; the brunt of action fell entirely on the Artillery; but, though neither Cavalry nor Infantry had the opportunity of being actively engaged, their steady and zealous obedience under fire was most praiseworthy.

I have, &c.

G. ST. P. LAWRENCE,
Governor-General's Agent.

Fixed Light at Block Island, Rhode Island.

THE United States Lighthouse Board has given notice, that on and after the 28th day of October, 1857, a single light would be exhibited from the lighthouse recently built on the extreme north point of Block Island, at the entrance to Long Island Sound, Rhode Island, to replace the two lights which were shown at one-third of a mile to the southward of this position, when the temporary light exhibited during the erection of the new building would be discontinued.

The light is a white fixed light at an elevation of 60 feet above the sea at high water ; it illuminates an arc of the horizon from E.S.E. round northerly to S.W. by S., being intercepted by the island for the remaining points of the compass, and it should be visible from the deck of a vessel in ordinary weather at a distance of 13 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is a Fresnel lens of the fourth order.

The light tower is 14 feet square, with its base 10 feet above high water, and has a keeper's house of two stories attached. The whole building is of brick, and coloured white.

Lights on the Breakwater at Leghorn

THE Grand Ducal Government of Tuscany has given notice, that on and after the 1st day of December, 1857, the following lights will be exhibited from the breakwater and jetty now in course of construction at the port of Livorno or Leghorn.

1. A fixed red light will be shown at the southern head of the curved breakwater, at 43 yards to the northward of the outer blocks of stone which appear above water. It will bear from the present Faro or light tower of the port W. 7° N. or W. $\frac{2}{3}$ N. distant 440 yards.

2. A fixed green light will be shown at the north end of the same curved breakwater, which will bear from the existing mole head of the port N. $53^{\circ} \frac{1}{2}$ W. or N. W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. distant 480 yards.

3. A fixed white light will be shown from the south-west extremity of the straight jetty which is now in course of erection on the north side of the port of Leghorn ; and it will be moved outwards as the works advance.

All the above lights will be lighted from sunset to sunrise except when the state of the sea will not admit of access to the heads of the unfinished jetties. In this special case a single fixed white light will be exhibited from the head of the present Mole, which with the existing Faro will indicate the points which serve as a base to determine the position of the ends of the above-mentioned curved breakwater.

The illuminating apparatus of the four lights will be dioptric or by lenses, but the order or strength of the lights, and their heights respectively above the level of the sea, are not yet determined upon.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 4, 1857.

Buckingham-Palace, December 3, 1857.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart., C.B., Deputy Great Chamberlain (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby de Eresby), and the Treasurer of the Household, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the State Robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order; —the sword of state was borne by the Earl Granville, K.G., Lord President of the Council, the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester, and the crown by the Marquess of Lansdowne, K.G.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness The Prince Consort on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esq., Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their immediate attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament :

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Circumstances have recently arisen, connected with the commercial interests of the country, which have induced me to call Parliament together before the usual time.

The failure of certain joint-stock banks, and of some commercial firms, produced such an extent of distrust as led me to authorise my Ministers to recommend to the Directors of the Bank of England the adoption of a course of proceeding which appeared necessary for allaying the prevalent alarm. As that course has involved a departure from the existing law, a Bill for indemnifying those who advised and those who adopted it will be submitted for your consideration.

I have observed, with great regret, that the disturbed state of commercial transactions in general has occasioned a diminution of employment in the manufacturing districts, which I fear cannot fail to be attended with much local distress. I trust, however, that this evil may not be of long duration ; and the abundant harvest with which it has graciously pleased Divine Providence to bless this land, will, I hope, in some degree mitigate the sufferings which this state of things must unavoidable produce.

While I deeply deplore the severe suffering to which many of my subjects in India have been exposed, and while I grieve for the extensive bereavements and sorrow which it has caused, I have derived the greatest satisfaction from the distinguished successes which have attended the heroic exertions of the comparatively small forces which have been opposed to greatly superior numbers, without the aid of the powerful reinforcements despatched from this country to their assistance. The arrival of those reinforcements will, I trust, speedily complete the suppression of this widely spread revolt.

The gallantry of the troops employed against the mutineers, their courage in action, their endurance under privation, fatigue, and the effects of climate; the high spirit and self-devotion of the officers; the ability, skill, and persevering energy of the commanders, have excited my warmest admiration: and I have observed with equal gratification that many civilians placed in extreme difficulty and danger have displayed the highest qualities, including, in some instances, those that would do honour to veteran soldiers.

It is satisfactory to know that the general mass of the population of India have taken no part in the rebellion, while the most considerable of the native Princes have acted in the most friendly manner, and have rendered important services.

I have given Directions that papers relating to these matters shall be laid before you.

The affairs of my East Indian dominions will require your serious consideration; and I recommend them to your earnest attention.

The nations of Europe are in the enjoyment of the blessings of peace, which nothing seems likely to disturb.

The stipulations of the Treaty which I concluded with the Shah of Persia have been faithfully carried into execution, and the Persian forces have evacuated the territory of Herat.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have given directions that the estimates for the next year shall be prepared, for the purpose of being laid before you.

They will be framed with a careful regard to the exigencies of the public service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

Your attention will be called to the laws which regulate the representation of the people in Parliament, with a view to consider what amendments may be safely and beneficially made therein.

Measures will be submitted for your consideration for simplifying and amending the laws relating to real property, and also for consolidating and amending several important branches of the criminal law.

I confidently commit to your wisdom the great interests of my empire ; and I fervently pray, that the blessing of Almighty God may attend your Counsels, and may guide your deliberations to those ends which are dearest to my heart, the happiness and prosperity of my loyal and faithful people.

India Board, December 4, 1857.

THE following Despatches have been received at the East India House :

No. 1.

Lieutenant-Colonel J. D. Macpherson, Military Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjaub, to the Military Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 400.

SIR, Lahore, August 8, 1857.

I AM instructed, by Sir John Lawrence, K.C.B., Chief Commissioner of the Punjaub, to forward, for the information of the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council, a copy of Brigadier-General Nicholson's despatch, relative to the defeat and dispersion of the Sealkote mutineers, together with a copy of a brigade order issued by the Brigadier-General to the troops under his command.

2. A report of the defeat of the mutineers has already been submitted in the political department, No. 28, dated 18th ultimo, since which fully 150 of the mutinous soldiers who had escaped, have been seized and executed.

I have, &c.,

J. D. MACPHERSON, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Military Secretary to the Chief Commissioner.

No. 2.

Brigadier-General Nicholson, commanding Punjab Moveable Column, Goordaspore, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

Head Quarters, before Delhi, Goordaspore, July 19, 1857.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor herewith to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, an account of my proceedings, and of the column under my command, since the date of my last letter (the 27th ultimo).

2. In it I reported the disarming of the 33rd and 35th Regiments, Native Infantry, and the reasons which had induced me to have recourse to that measure.

3. On the same date I commenced retracing my steps from Philour, and on the 5th July, encamped with the column at Umritsur.

4. I selected this station for an encampment, merely on account of its centrality, my position there enabling me to afford speedy aid, if required, either to Lahore or the Jullundur Doab, while, at the same time, it overawed the Manjha, and rendered hopeless any attempt to mutiny on the part of the 59th Regiment Native Infantry.

5. On the morning of the 7th, I received intelligence of the mutiny of the 14th Native Infantry, at Jelum, and that it was successfully holding against the force sent to disarm it, under Colonel Ellice. I waited throughout the day and the following night, in the hope of hearing of the defeat of the 14th, but this expectation not having been realized, and unfavourable accounts continuing to arrive, I reluctantly felt myself obliged to disarm the 59th Native Infantry, at sunrise on the 8th.

6. I feel bound, however, to place on record my belief that, both in conduct and feeling, this regiment was quite an exceptional one at the present crisis.

It had neither committed itself in any way, nor do I believe that, up to the day it was disarmed, it had any intention of committing itself, and I may deeply regret that, even as a precautionary measure, it should have become my duty to disarm it. I beg very strongly to recommend this corps, both as regards officers and men, to the favourable consideration of Government.

7. Early on the morning of the 10th, I received intelligence by telegraph, that the troops at Sealkote, consisting of the 46th Native Infantry, and the right wing 9th Light Cavalry, had broken out into open mutiny the previous morning. This intelligence was confirmed half an hour later, by a musician of the 46th Native Infantry, who rode in express with the news. I immediately disarmed the left wing 9th Cavalry, with the column, a step I had refrained from when disarming the 33rd and 35th Regiments, lest it should prematurely excite the wing at Sealkote.

8. In the course of the day, information reached me from various quarters that the Sealkote troops had marched in an easterly direction the previous evening. Their object was evidently to plunder the station of Goordaspore, and get the 2nd Irregular Cavalry there to join them; they would then no doubt have proceeded, viâ Noorpoor and Hushyarpore, to Jullundur, whence they would have made the best of their way to Delhi. At Noorpoor they expected to be joined by the 4th Regiment Native Infantry, and at Hushyarpore, by the 16th Irregular Cavalry.

9. It was evident that, as the mutineers had two days' start, and as Goordaspore was something over 41 miles from my encampment, no time was to be lost. I, therefore, decided on reaching that station in a single forced march, and this, with the aid of ekkas and ponies for the infantry, was successfully accomplished in less than 20 hours.

10. The mutineers were, at this date (the 11th), at Noorkobe, about 15 miles on the right bank of the Ravee. Fearing that, if I opposed their passage of the river, they might break away southwards and so escape me, I decided on allowing them to cross without molestation, and accordingly remained at Goordaspore until 9 a.m., the following morning, when, hearing that they had commenced crossing by a ford at the Trimmoo Ferry, about nine miles distant, I moved out against them with a force as per margin.*

11. I came upon them at noon, about a mile on this side the river: their infantry was drawn up in line, its right resting on a serai and dismantled ghurree, its left on a small village and clump of trees ; their cavalry appeared to be pretty equally distributed on the flanks.

12. I advanced to the attack in the following order, viz. :

Three guns light field battery in the centre ; the troop of horse artillery, equally divided, 100 yards on either side ; 300 of Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry, with Enfield Rifles, in extended order at one pace between, and on the flanks of, the artillery ; the remainder of Her Majesty's 52nd, with the Punjaub Infantry, were in rear as supports and reserve. The New Police Ressalas I employed to mask the artillery until, at about 600 yards, a threatened charge of a party of the mutineer cavalry induced me to unmask and unlimber the three guns on the left to check it. The sight of the guns had the desired effect, and we resumed our advance, except that the police, being now no longer useful as maskers, and seeming undesirous of engaging, were ordered to the rear.

13. My intention was to advance to within 300 yards of the mutineer position, and then open fire simultaneously from the artillery and Enfield Rifles, the latter weapons being known to be thoroughly effective at that distance, while the smooth bore musket, with which alone the mutineers were armed, is comparatively useless.

14. The action commenced by the mutineers' infantry opening upon us with file firing at as nearly as possible the above distance ; we lost no time in replying, and for about ten minutes they stood up very well indeed against the great odds opposed to them, many of them advancing boldly up to the very guns ; meanwhile the cavalry had made several rushes in detached parties on our flanks and rear, but had always been repulsed by the file firing of our infantry.

15. The New Police Ressalas fled when threatened with a charge, but, considering their want of discipline and how very recently they had been raised, I cannot say that I consider them very culpable. There were, however, some honorable exceptions.

16. The mutineers were followed up to the bank of the river by the artillery, which occasioned them some little loss both in crossing and after they had gained an island in the centre, on which they had a 12-pounder iron gun. A few rounds were fired at us from this piece, but without effect.

17. The enemy left dead upon the ground on which they fought 120 men ; many more were swept away by the river. Their wounded were probably not less than double the above number. All their camp equipage, &c., on this side of the river fell into our hands.

18. The want of cavalry (which crippled us sadly during the action), the depth of the water in the ford, and the fatigue the troops had undergone on the previous day, all conspired to prevent me from attempting to pursue the enemy across the river. I therefore left the Punjaub Infantry with Lieutenant Boswell in the serai, and brought back the European Infantry and Artillery to their encampment at Goordaspore, there to await news of the further movements of the mutineers.

19. On the 13th, I appointed Captain Adams, Assistant Commissioner (kindly placed at my disposal by Mr. Roberts, the Commissioner,) to command the detachment at the Ghaut, with a view to his watching and furnishing intelligence of the remnant of the mutineers on the island. From this officer's information, corroborated as it was from other quarters, I ascertained that the discomfiture of the mutineers in the action of the 12th, had been much more complete than I had at first supposed, and that not more than 300 men remained with the gun on the island ; also that all, or very nearly all, of those who had dispersed had first divested themselves of their arms and accoutrements.

20. I accordingly at once decided on attacking the remnant on the island, and, with this view, on the evening of the 15th, got down two boats from ferries high up the river, all the boats in our immediate neighbourhood having been sunk by the civil authorities on the first news of the approach of the mutineers. At daybreak on the morning of the 16th, Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry, and one company of the Punjaub Infantry, with a company, Police Battalion,* crossed, one mile and a quarter below the enemy's position, our guns, placed higher up the stream, keeping the enemy's gun in play. When the whole of the infantry had crossed, the advance commenced, the 52nd leading in skirmishing order. The affair was over in a few minutes, without any check, and with a loss to us of only six men wounded. A few resolute men among the mutineers died manfully at the gun ; the rest fled, and were either slain on the bank or driven into the river.

21. I do not need to dwell upon the services which the column has rendered the State in these operations ; his Excellency will himself thoroughly comprehend and appreciate them.

My best thanks are due to officers and men of all grades and both arms for the cordial and valuable assistance I have throughout received from them, more particularly to Colonel Campbell, commanding Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry, Lieutenant-Colonel Dawes, commanding the Artillery, Captain Bouchier, commanding No. 17 Light Field Battery, Captain Blane, Her Majesty's

* Lieutenant Boswell with another company, was employed in watching a ford higher up the river.

52nd, my Brigade-Major, and Captain Grindlay, 6th Light Cavalry, Deputy Assistant-Quarter-master-General to the column.

Lieutenant Angelo, 59th Native Infantry, Lieutenant Dixon, 9th Light Cavalry, and Lieutenant Baillie, 35th Native Infantry, also made themselves extremely useful in reconnoitring and other ways; and I much regret that a severe wound, received by the latter officer, will temporarily deprive me of his services.

22. I cannot conclude without expressing my obligations to Mr. Roberts, the Commissioner and Superintendent of the Division, and to Captain Adams, the Assistant Commissioner of Goordaspore. Both officers were present in the affairs of the 12th and 16th, and afforded me much valuable assistance throughout, in the way of information. Captain Adams also commanded the Punjaub Infantry and Police Detachment at the Ghaut from the 13th to the 16th instant, and the detachment which crossed the river on the latter date.

Lieutenant Perkins, Assistant Commissioner, Umritsur, was present at the action of the 12th, and had his horse wounded.

I enclose returns of casualties.

I have, &c.,

H. J. NICHOLSON,

No. 3.

Moveable Column Orders by Brigadier-General Nicholson, Commanding Camp Goordaspore.

July 17, 1857.

THE last remaining party of the Sealkote mutineers was yesterday morning destroyed and its gun captured.

The object of the forced march of the column from Umritsur to this place having been thus successfully accomplished, the Brigadier-General desires to return his sincere thanks to officers and men of all arms and grades for the cordial and valuable assistance he has received from them throughout these operations.

The Brigadier-General considers that the column has reason to feel proud of the service it has rendered the State within the last few days.

By a forced march of unusual length performed at a very trying season of the year, it has been able to preserve many stations and districts from pillage and plunder, to save more than one regiment from the danger of too close a contact with the mutineers; and the mutineer force itself, 1,100 strong, notwithstanding the very desperate character of the resistance offered by it, has been utterly destroyed or dispersed.

It will be the pleasing duty of the Brigadier-General to bring prominently to the notice of Government in detail the services rendered by officers and men on this occasion, and he entertains no doubt but that those services will be appreciated and acknowledged as they deserve to be.

Major of Brigade.

*Koer Sing's Palace, Jugdispore,
August 13, 1857.*

SIR,

MY letter of yesterday will have informed you of the successful march of my force upon this place, and the complete route and dispersion of the rebel Koer Sing and his army.

2. Leaving Arrah at 2 P.M. on the 11th, I marched eight miles, and encamped for the night on the bank of the Gagur Nuddee.

3. Resuming the route next morning at 6.30 A.M., I proceeded without difficulty as far as Rumnean, where for two miles the road passed over rice-fields, and was in many places under water ; had heavy rain fallen, this road must have been impassable for guns.

4. At 9 A.M. I halted to refresh the troops and animals for an hour ; at 10.30 we detected parties of the enemy's horse and foot occupying the village of Tola Narainpore, evidently with the view of disputing our passage of the river immediately beyond it. I forthwith pushed forward skirmishing parties from the 5th Fusiliers and Wake's Sikhs in that direction, backed up by Jackson's valuable little troop of Shahabad Volunteer Yeomanry. This elicited a sharp fire, which was maintained on both sides with great spirit; as our main body approached nearer, I advanced two guns to the front, and opened a fire of grape on a party of the enemy, whose heads I could just discern in ambush, about 300 yards distant.

5. This caused them to rise in some confusion, discovering large masses who had been lying in close concealment. The men of Her Majesty's 10th now became so impatient to be led to the charge that, instead of continuing the fire from the guns as I had intended, I yielded to them the honour of putting the foe to flight. With loud and continued shouts they advanced and charged, led on in the most noble manner by Captain Patterson, impetuously driving all before them. The sepoys fell back on the large village of Dullaur across the river, where entrenchments had been thrown up. There they endeavoured to make a stand, but were driven out by the joint efforts of the gallant 10th and 5th Fusiliers, the latter under Captains L'Estrange and Scott.

6. Thence our route lay through a dense and difficult jungle, for one mile and a-half to Jugdispore, throughout which a running fight was maintained, during which two guns were captured.

7. Jugdispore was but feebly defended, and at 1 P.M. we took possession of Koer Sing's noted stronghold, wherein we found large stores of grain, ammunition, and other materials of war.

8. Koer Sing has fled to the Jutoorah jungle, south of this, with a few followers, and the villagers around Jugdispore are sending in tokens of their submission.

9. It now remains for me to recommend, to the favour of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and of Government, those to whose gallant deeds I am indebted for the success that has (under Providence) attended my efforts. Besides those already named above, Captains L'Estrange and Patterson make special mention in their reports of the individuals named in the margin.*

10. Mr. A. C. Wake, of the Bengal Civil Service, at the head of his Arrah Sikhs, nobly sustained the reputation already acquired by his heroic defence of the fortified house at Arrah, against overwhelming odds; he was gallantly seconded by Mr. J. C. Colvin, Civil Service.

11. The Honorable Captain Hastings, behaved with his accustomed gallantry and devotion, everywhere making his presence felt beneficially. Lieutenant Wylde, my Acting Quartermaster, in like manner seconded me most ably and bravely.

12. The Volunteer Yeomanry of Shahabad were admirably headed by Lieutenant Jackson, 12th Native Infantry, and Lieutenant Kelly, who reports favourably of Messrs. Barber, Nicholl, and Burrows.

13. The Veterinary Surgeon Siddall has also rendered me good service.

14. The field hospital could not be better managed than that under the superintendence of Assistant-Surgeon Eteson, whose zeal and soldierly conduct have been conspicuous. Staff-Sergeant Melvill, of the Artillery, has proved himself a most deserving and excellent soldier. To him I confided the howitzer for the protection of my rear, which was at one time threatened, and was preserved intact by his skill and judgment.

15. It would be unjust to omit the valuable aid I have received from Syed Azeem-ood-deen, Deputy Collector of Arrah, in assisting me to procure the best information. Mr. B. N. Samuels, Head Clerk of the Shahabad Office, furnished me with an admirable map of my route to Jugdispore, and acted as my guide on the line of march. I always found his information most accurate, and consider him well deserving of reward.

I have, &c.,

V. EYRE, Major,
Commanding Field Force.

P.S. — Mr. Littledale, the Civil Judge of Arrah, volunteered to accompany the expedition, and I was glad to avail myself of his experience.

No. 6.

Captain L'Estrange to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Dinapore Division.

SIR, Jugdispore, August 13, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to report that an expeditionary field force left Arrah on the 11th instant, having been detained here since the 3rd instant, waiting for the arrival of reinforcements, in order to attack the rebel chief, Koer Sing, and the remainder of those mutineers who had been so completely routed by us on the 2nd instant, at Beebeegunge, and who had taken refuge in Koer Sing's stronghold at Jugdispore.

The difficulty attending the enterprise was, by universal report, very great. The roads were represented as being, at this season of the year, almost impassable : and the position of Koer Sing and his followers was deemed, by all who had any knowledge of the country surrounding him, as being inaccessible.

Under all these circumstances, a feeling of doubt, if not of apprehension, as to the success of our expedition, might easily have pervaded troops less confident than ours were, in the judgment, talent, and courage of our leader.

Our force consisted of two 9-pounder guns, one 24-pounder howitzer, 197 men, Her Majesty's 10th (commanded by Captain Patterson), my detachment Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers (137 men), 150 Sikhs from Arrah and Patna, and 16 mounted volunteers, the great number of whom had been with us, and had rendered us such great assistance at Beebeegunge.

We marched on the evening of the 11th instant, about half-way between Arrah and Jugdispore, and there got intelligence that we might expect to meet the enemy at a village called Dullaur, about two or three miles from Jugdispore, and close to a nullah, which was rather broad, but supposed to be fordable.

Our order of march was as follows :—

An advanced guard of 50 men of the 5th Fusiliers, commanded by Captain Scott, and 50 Sikhs, commanded by H. Wake, Esquire, Magistrate of Arrah ;

The two 9-pounder guns, flanked on either side by the remainder of the 5th Fusiliers in single file ;

A division of 100 men, Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, formed up in column of sections ;

The baggage elephants, &c. ;

The 24-pounder howitzer, defended by the remainder of the 10th and Sikhs;

The rear-guard, consisting of the Patna Sikhs, under command of Lieutenant Robertson, late 7th Bengal Native Infantry.

In consequence of the rain which fell during the night of the 11th instant, we found the roads very heavy ; but all hands went cheerfully to work, and, as we expected, came in sight of the enemy about 11 A.M. They appeared in considerable numbers, and could be plainly seen moving about through the woods. Our skirmishers immediately rushed forward, and opened a brisk fire on the rebels, who occupied the wood to our front and right, and very soon forced the mutineers to "right incline," and join one of their strong reserves which was entrenched behind a parapet $4\frac{1}{2}$ feet high, and about 60 yards in length.

This body of men was completely hidden in dense jungle, and protected in front by the nullah, which I have before observed was between us and the village of Dullaur, and had they remained concealed a short time longer, until our main body had reached this nullah, our loss must have been very great. Our skirmishers brought right shoulders forward, and charged the entrenchment. I immediately gave notice to our main body of the position of the enemy, which very soon indicated itself by a tremendous fire upon us all, while our skirmishers rushed upon the rebels in front ; the division, in column of sections, Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, attacked them in flank and rear, and I ordered my men, who were protecting the guns, to contribute their fire at long ranges, as occasion might require. The rebels, whose number I estimate at about 1,200 men, stood their ground with unexpected obstinacy, but our charge could not be resisted, and we soon saw them flying through the jungle and making for the village, closely pursued by the skirmishers; our main body then crossed the nullah, advanced through the village, and previous to re-entering the jungle I reinforced the skirmishers, who effectually cleared the way for us, although the enemy kept up a dropping fire upon us until we arrived in the heart of the city. The time between our first meeting the enemy and finding ourselves in possession of Koer Sing's boasted stronghold was about two hours and a half, during the first hour of which a tremendous fire and very hard fighting was kept up on both sides.

From this account it will be seen that our skirmishers carried everything before them in the most gallant style; our main body was at the same time exposed to great danger, and was remarkable for its extreme steadiness throughout the engagement. I have now great pleasure in bringing before your notice the distinguished gallantry of Captain Scott, Ensign Oldfield, Colour-Serjeants Cattermole and McMames, all of the 5th Fusiliers; on this occasion, the former officer's courage and daring in the field are equalled only by the cheerfulness and zeal with which he performed every branch of duty. Captain the Hon. E. P. Hastings was, as usual, conspicuous in the thick of the fight, and I cannot sufficiently thank him for all the services he has rendered to us; our Interpreter's (Lieutenant Wylde) conduct fully justifies the report which I had the pleasure of making to you from the camp near Arrah; and I hope it will not be considered as out of my province if I include in the list of those who so highly distinguished themselves, the name of Lieutenant Jackson, commanding the volunteers, Lieutenant Kelly, and Veterinary-Surgeon Siddall, of the same force, also Mr. Wake, who commanded his party of the Sikhs with great judgment.

The loss of my detachment consists of one man killed, and four wounded.

F. W. L'ESTRANGE, Captain,
5th Fusiliers, Commanding Detachment.

SIR, Jugdispore, August 13, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you that, on our approach to Dullaur Nullah, I received an order from the Honorable Captain Hastings to throw out skirmishers on our front and left, the enemy having suddenly opened a sharp fire on the column. I accordingly advanced the 1st Division, consisting of the grenadiers and a sub-Division of No. 4 Company Her Majesty's 10th Foot, who in the most gallant manner charged and carried successively two villages and some patches of jungle. I cannot say how many of the enemy were killed, as they retreated in all directions in the utmost confusion before our men, being unable, it would seem, even to look at our bayonets. I afterwards reformed at the village of Dullaur, and rejoined the column.

Skirmishers were afterwards sent out on our right and front from the same Division, and a sub-Division of the 2nd Division, consisting of the left sub-Division of No. 4 Company, and the right sub-Division of No. 6 Company, under Lieutenant Barlow, till we came to Jugdispore, which you are aware we found abandoned by the enemy. I cannot sufficiently express my admiration at the good conduct of the men in this brilliant affair. My loss is, Privates Maurice Carey and Nicholas Walsh wounded.

When the conduct of all was so good, it is difficult for me to distinguish particular individuals ; but I should be committing an injustice if I did not bring to your notice the names of the following officers, non-commissioned officers, and men, viz., Lieutenant Beale, Serjeant Neat, Corporal Baldwin, Privates Macdonald, Purcell, Riley (Grenadiers), and Yates and Connorton, No. 4 Company.

I have, &c.,

Camp, Jugdispore,

SIR, August 14, 1857, 2.30 P.M.

YOU will probably have received my dispatches of the 12th and 13th, giving particulars of the encounter with the rebels at Dullaur, and successful advance to this place.

Early this morning I detached a company of Her Majesty's 5th Fusiliers and 100 Sikhs, with the Yeomanry Volunteers, the whole under Captain L'Estrange, to Jutowrah, where Koer Sing has a residence.

The party has just returned with information that the place was empty, though Koer Sing had recently been there. He is reported to have gone towards Rhotas, the sepoys have dispersed entirely, and the country hereabouts is quite quiet.

I am destroying the town, and preparing to blow up the palace and principal buildings around it. To-day I partially destroyed a new Hindoo temple on which Koer Sing had recently lavished large sums ; I did this because it is known that the Brahmins have instigated him to rebellion.

Captain L'Estrange reports having destroyed
1857. 6 N

Koer Sing's new palace at Jutowrah, and Lieutenant Jackson, with the Volunteers, on their way back to the camp, set fire to the residences of Oomar Sing and Dhyal Sing, the two brothers of Koer Sing.

I am desirous now of ascertaining the wishes of the higher authorities with respect to my future movements : my own judgment prompts me to march to Gya and settle that part of the province, were I certain that such a demonstration is still a desideratum.

My European force enjoys excellent health ; to-day I have lost one Sikh from cholera.

V. EYRE, Major.

Commanding Field Force.

P.S.—I have ascertained that the loss of the enemy in killed and wounded in the action at Dullaur on the 12th, exceeded 300.

SIR,

August 21, 1857.

I HAVE the honour, by desire of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for submission to Government, letters in original, relative to the military operations that have been carried on by Major V. Eyre against the mutineers under Koer Sing in the Arrah district.

2. I am to request you will be good enough to inform the Governor-General in Council that his Excellency highly approves of the judgment evinced by Major Eyre throughout these movements, and of the gallantry and perseverance of the officers and men under his command, in bringing them to a triumphant conclusion.

3. Sir Colin Campbell, I am to add, recommends to the favorable notice of his Lordship, the persons brought prominently forward in these dispatches; but regrets to have to disapprove of the destruction of the Hindoo temple at Jugdispore by Major Eyre, under a mistaken view of the duties of a commander at the present crisis.

4. The return of the inclosures is requested when done with.

Captain R. C. Lawrence, in political charge of the Cashmere Auxiliary Force, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Delhi Field Force.

SIR, Camp, Delhi, September 22, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Major-General commanding the Delhi Field Force, the operations of the Kissun Gunj column of assault, on the morning of the 14th instant, subsequent to Major Reid being wounded.

2. On assuming command of the column, I found the different detachments of which it was composed, so broken, and disorganized, by the heavy fire of the enemy, that it was impossible to form them up in broken ground, and, under a severe fire, to renew the attack on the Kissun Gunj batteries. All I could effect, was to keep the enemy in check, which was done, for the course of an hour, without losing ground, in the expectation of the arrival of artillery, for which Major Reid had made a requisition previous to his being wounded. This aid did not arrive. The enemy appeared in large numbers on our right flank. I was apprehensive that they might get into our rear, and endanger the safety of the line of batteries below Hindoo Rao's house, and of the camp itself. I therefore directed the troops to retire, which they did leisurely, and in as good order as the nature of the ground would permit, keeping up a heavy fire upon the enemy. I then strengthened the Subzee Mundi picket, and directed the occupation of the batteries above alluded to by detachments from the column.

3. The Jummoo troops, detached under command of Captain Dwyer, for the occupation of the Eedgah, met with unexpected opposition, and were totally unsuccessful. This circumstance added much to the difficulties under which the main column labored, enabling the enemy to advance on its right flank, and endanger its rear, and more particularly the safety of the Subzee Mundi picket, which was hotly pressed. Four 6-pounder guns belonging to the Cashmere troops, detached under Captain Dwyer, were, I regret to say, captured by the enemy. The circumstance under which this misfortune occurred, did not come under my personal observation. I therefore called upon Captain Dwyer for a report, which I herewith forward in original, for submission to the Major-General. I concur with Captain Dwyer in considering that the detachment under his command was inadequate to oppose the force brought against it.

4. As blame may be attached to the Jummoo troops for the loss of their guns, I feel bound to state my opinion that the portion of them attached to the main column behaved as well as could be expected. When tried and experienced soldiers, both European and Native, were unsuccessful, what could be looked for from undisciplined and ill-armed men, such as compose the Jummoo Contingent.

The loss sustained by this force on the 14th instant, viz., 22 killed and 67 wounded (in addition, 4 sowars of mounted police were killed, and 17 wounded), which has been already reported to Major-General Wilson, shows that they shared in the danger and difficulties of the day.

5. Major-General Wilson is well aware of the strength of the position which was held by the enemy at Kissun Gunj, and of the nature of the ground over which the attacking force had to move. On the morning in question the enemy were prepared in large numbers for an attack on their position. They had evidently received intimation that such was intended. After the attack commenced, they received considerable reinforcements from the city. Under these circumstances, I look with confidence to the Major-General attaching no blame to the troops engaged in this unsuccessful affair.

I have, &c.,

R. C. LAWRENCE, Captain,

In political charge of Jummoo Auxiliary Force.

Captain H. Dwyer, 59th N.I., attached to the Cashmere Force, to Captain R. C. Lawrence, in political charge of the Jummoo Auxiliary Force.

SIR, Camp, Delhi, September 22, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for your information, that, on the morning of the 14th instant, I proceeded, in accordance with the instructions I received, with 400 men and four guns, of the Cashmere force, towards the Eedgah, for the purpose of occupying and holding it.

The road was most difficult for artillery, and, to enable the guns to get into the Rohtuck Pucka road, which leads to the Eedgah, a portion of stone wall had to be levelled.

The noise, I believe, prepared the enemy to receive us, as, on reaching the road, we were attacked by about 2000 men, who lined all the walls on the right hand side of the road.

We immediately opened fire with four guns and some zumboorahs, and continued to fire for about three-quarters of an hour. We had not been firing long when the Kissun Gunj Battery fired into us from the left, and, finding that we were getting out-flanked, and that the enemy did not appear to be suffering much from our fire, owing to their protection by stone walls and jungle, I ordered an advance, in view to effect an entrance into the Eedgah, if possible.

This advance, I am sorry to say, was not effected, notwithstanding the utmost exertions on the part of Lieutenant Tennant of the Engineers, Lieutenants Graham and Manderson, and myself. A small body of infantry could not be collected to support the guns, as the whole of it had, almost from the commencement, proceeded to skirmish in very extended order, contrary to my repeated orders.

On the order for the guns to limber up being given, no horses could be got ; for, while the guns were being worked, the horses had been made over to grass-cutters, who took most of them away altogether ; five or six horses I saw killed ; the rest were never brought back, and I was informed that they also had been killed.

The attempt to secure the Eedgah was, I regret to say, a complete failure ; but it appears to me that the force I had was quite inadequate to effect that object.

A body of 100 mounted police, which accompanied the detachment, behaved admirably, and remained to the last. The ground, however, rendered it impossible for cavalry to charge.

Ram Singh, one of my orderlies, killed a man, by whom I was attacked, and is himself badly wounded; the other, Chundah Singh, had his horse killed.

I HAVE the honor to forward, for transmission to Major-General Gowan, C.B., commanding in the Upper Provinces, and through him to Government, the accompanying report of the operations of a detachment of Irregular Cavalry I sent out, under the command of Lieutenant Hodson, on the 14th instant, to watch a party of the enemy who had moved out from Delhi on the Rhotuck road, and to afford support, if necessary, either to Sowput, or our ally the Jheend Rajah.

Lieutenant Hodson most fully carried out my instructions, to my entire satisfaction, and his report will shew that the whole of his detachment, both officers and men, behaved throughout in a most gallant and effectual manner.

It must have been most gratifying to Lieutenant Hodson to find his new regiment so steady and staunch in their first engagement with the enemy.

I particularly request that Major-General Gowan will bring to the notice of Government the ready and loyal conduct, on this occasion, of the Jheend Rajah, and the good service performed by his troops. I have already, through Colonel Dunsford, commanding the Rajah's troops, expressed my acknowledgments to the Rajah for the ready assistance he afforded on this occasion, and from the commencement of our operations before Delhi, and also my satisfaction at the favourable report made by Lieutenant Hodson of the gallantry of his men.

my command on the night of 14th and 15th instant, under verbal instructions from Major-General Wilson Commanding the Field Force.

2. My instructions were to watch a party of the enemy who had moved out from Delhi by the Nujufgurh road, with the avowed purpose of threatening our communications with Sowput and the Grand Trunk road, or if marching to attack Hansi and the Rajah of Jheend, to ascertain their precise object and direction, and to afford support to either Sowput or the Jheend Rajah as might be necessary. I was also to examine the state of the roads and country, with a view to the probable necessity of a larger force taking the field.

3. On reaching Boanah by way of Azadpoor and the Canal Bank, I ascertained that the enemy had passed the 14th at Samplah, and were said to be moving towards Rhotuck. I therefore pushed on to Khurkowdah, on the road from Boanah to that town, reaching it about noon on the 15th.

4. Having been informed that a number of Irregular Cavalry men, whose homes were in the village, had arrived the day before from Delhi at Khurkowdah, I took measures for securing the several entrances to it and attempting their capture, sending a small party of the Guide Corps to surprise and arrest the leading man, named Bisharut Ali, a Resaldar of the 1st Irregular Cavalry. Both objects were accomplished, only two sowars having had time to effect their escape before the village was surrounded. I then entered the village with a party of dismounted sowars. From information received from the villagers, I was able to seize several of the mutineer sowars before they had time to arm. A large party, however, took refuge in the upper story of a house belonging to one of the lumberdars of the village, and defended themselves desperately. They were eventually overpowered and destroyed, but not without considerable difficulty and several casualties on our side, Lieutenant H. Gough and seven men being wounded. I subsequently caused those of the captured who were proved on inquiry to have been in the service of Government, and to have joined the rebels, to be executed.

5. During the afternoon of the 15th, the enemy broke up from Samplah, and marched to Rhotuck, where they gave out that they were going to remain for two or three days. I marched after them on the morning of the 16th towards Rhotuck, by Sussaineh Hamaioonpoor and Balout. On reaching Bohur, five miles short of Rhotuck, I ascertained that the rebels had suddenly marched early in the morning towards Medinha, on hearing of our movements ; I therefore halted for the day, the rain being very heavy.

6. On the morning of the 17th, we moved on Rhotuck. On approaching the town, and riding on to reconnoitre with a small party, I found a large body of armed men drawn up at the old fort in front of the place, accompanied by a few sowars. They immediately opened fire on us, and as we withdrew to bring up the detachment, followed us up the road, firing and yelling in derision.

The instant the head of the column arrived, they were charged, dispersed, and driven into the town, leaving thirteen of their number dead. They subsequently turned out to be Rangurs, Kusais, and other turbulent inhabitants of the town, headed by Bahur Khan, the Chief of the Rangurs.

7. After riding round Rhotuck, and reconnoitering the surrounding country, and the approaches to it, I encamped in the open space in rear of the kutchery buildings, at the junction of the road, by which we had marched from Bohur, with the main road to Delhi. Some of the zemindars and Hindoos of Rhotuek came out to me immediately afterwards, and through their instrumentality the detachment was amply provided with all necessary supplies : no further attempt was made to annoy us.

8. At about seven o'clock the next morning I received information that Bahur Khan had gone, during the night, to the camp of the rebels, on the Hansi-road, and brought back three hundred Rangur horsemen belonging to different irregular cavalry regiments to assist him in an attack upon us. Three or four minutes afterwards a large body of horsemen dashed up the roads from the town, at speed, followed by a mass of foot-men, armed with swords and matchlocks, certainly not less than 900 or 1000 in number. At the moment of the attack a party of twenty-five Jheend horsemen, who had come from Gohanah, on hearing from me of our approach, were crossing the road towards our camp, and found themselves suddenly charged by and intermixed with the enemy's horse.

They defended themselves with their earbines, and thus checked the attacking party, two of their number being wounded. The whole of the horses of the detachment having been kept saddled, no time was lost in turning out, and the instant the twenty leading men were on their horses the enemy was charged and driven back in confusion towards the town, their flight being covered by the matchlock men who had occupied some buildings and compounds between the kutchery and the town. Directly the whole of the detachment was ready and formed up, I sent what little baggage and followers we had to the rear, under a sufficient escort, and prepared for a further attack. I formed the main body on the road in three lines, the guides in front, sending the troop out to the right front under Lieutenant Wise, and one to the left under Lieutenant Macdowell, ready to take the enemy in flank should they again charge up the roads (of which there are three) leading from the town to our position. These movements were covered by skirmishers and by the excellent fire of the Jheend horsemen, armed with matchlocks, whom I desired to dismount and drive back by their fire any party of the enemy who might come from under shelter of the buildings. This service they performed exceedingly well and most cheerfully.

9. Finding that our ammunition was nearly exhausted after some time had elapsed, and that there appeared little chance of the enemy coming from their cover to attack us again, I determined to draw them out into the open country behind our position and endeavour to bring on a fight there. Every thing turned out as I had anticipated. My men withdrew slowly and deliberately by alternate troops (the troop nearest the enemy by alternate ranks) along the line of the Bohur road, by which we had reached Rhotuck, our left extending towards the main road to Delhi, the Jheend horsemen protected our right and a troop of my own regiment the left. The enemy moved out the instant we withdrew, following us in great numbers, yelling and shouting and keeping up a heavy fire of matchlocks. Their horsemen were principally on their right, and a party galloping up the main road threatened our left flank. I continued to retire until we got into open and comparatively dry ground, and then turned and charged the mass who had come to within from 150 to 200 yards of us.

The Guides, who were nearest to them, were upon them in an instant, closely followed by and soon intermixed with our own men.

The enemy stood for a few seconds, turned, and then were driven back in utter confusion to the very walls of the town ; it being with some difficulty that the officers could prevent their men entering the town with the fugitives. Fifty of the enemy, all horsemen, were killed on the ground, and many must have been wounded.

10. Nothing could be better than the conduct of all concerned. The Guide Cavalry behaved with their usual dashing gallantry, and their example was well emulated by the men of my new regiment, now for the first time engaged with an enemy. They not only remained under fire unflinchingly, but retired before the enemy steadily and deliberately, and, when ordered, turned and charged home boldly. It would have been hopeless to expect this, but for the magnificent leading and admirable management of the officers in command of the several troops, Captain Ward and Lieutenants Macdowell, Wise, C. J. Gough, and H. Gough. The difficulty of their task will be appreciated when it is remembered that, with the exception of the Guides, none of the party had been drilled or formed, or knew anything of field movements.

11. After their defeat, as I subsequently ascertained, the Rangur horsemen evacuated the place the same evening, carrying away their wounded with them. The whole of the Rangurs and Kussaies of the town also fled during the night for refuge to the neighbouring villages. As soon as I had reassembled the detachment on our original ground and ascertained personally that no parties of the enemy remained outside Rhotuck, I moved round by our right to the northern side of the town on the Gohana road and encamped at Dusseca, the first village sufficiently large to furnish us with supplies.

I was in direct communication with Jheend, twenty-two coss distant, and with Gohana, where a body of the Rajah's troops are stationed; and, by way of Khylore, my communication with camp, and, by way of Khurkowdah, with Sowput, was perfectly secure. I was also prepared to move off to the right towards Hansi to General Cortlandt, should he attack the rebel force moving in that direction. This force had moved off from Medinha to Mehnin on our reaching Rhotuck, and thence to Moondahab, and on the 18th evacuated the Rhotuck district and marched to Barsee, five coss from Hansi, in considerably diminished numbers.

12. On the 19th I halted at Dusseea, receiving at day break a valuable reinforcement in the shape of eighty well equipped horsemen from Jheend, with the promise of infantry and a gun if I required them. They had already been sent off by the Rajah with his usual ever ready zeal, and would have been available in a few hours. On the evening of the 19th, I received the Major-General's orders to return towards camp and march the next day to Khurkowdah, and on the 21st by a circuitous route to Sowput.

13. I cannot close this without testifying to the excellent conduct of the Jheend horsemen throughout the whole of our proceedings. Nothing could have been better than their behaviour from first to last, both in keeping up our communications, in enduring fatigue and bad weather, and in gallantry in action. This is not the first time I have had experience of the good service they have rendered. At the action of Badleesurai on the 8th of June, they particularly distinguished themselves, and they did no less well on the present occasion. I trust the Major-General will be pleased to convey his acknowledgements of their conduct to the Rajah.

Assistant Adjutant-General, Lahore.*

SIR, Delhi. October 16, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith a copy of Colonel Greathed's report of his engagement with the rebels in the cantonment of Agra on the 10th instant.

It is gratifying to know that all the enemy's guns were captured, though the return alluded to in Colonel Greathed's letter has not come to hand. I am given to understand that they were twelve in number, and some of them heavy ordnance.

The conduct of the troops engaged seems to have been admirable in every respect, and will, I trust, meet with the approbation of Major-General Gowan.

I have, &c.

A. PENNY, Major-General, Commanding Field Force.

No. 41.

Lieutenant-Colonel E. Greathed to the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Delhi.

SIR, Camp, Agra, October 11, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Major-General Commanding, that, in consequence of urgent letters from Agra, I marched from Hattrass at 6 P.M. on the 9th, carrying the European infantry on elephants and carts, and encamped on the Brigade Parade-ground at this place about 8 A.M. Yesterday at half-past 10 o'clock my camp was suddenly attacked in the front and right flank. I galloped to the front and found the artillery getting into action, and Her Majesty's 9th Lancers in the saddle. I proceeded myself with Her Majesty's 8th Regiment and the 4th Punjaub Infantry to the right flank, for the purpose of dislodging the enemy, and taking their guns, which were raking our camp. On the way I took with me the 1st, 2nd, and 5th Punjaub Cavalry, extending the infantry in skirmishing order with their supports. I took the cavalry to the open space near the European Infantry Barracks, with directions to move as circumstances would permit. The 9-pounder Agra battery had by this time come up ; I advanced them in support of the infantry on the road leading from the Artillery Parade-ground to the Dholepore road, and the skirmishers advanced and cleared the compounds to their front ; the Punjaub Cavalry, under Lieutenant Watson, had then the opportunity of making a most gallant charge, driving off the enemy's sowars and capturing four guns. After this the rebels made no stand on the right, but the left continued to be hotly engaged, and the enemy's sowars advanced with great determination on the guns, one of which was disabled from its gunners having been cut down, and for the moment in the possession of the enemy ; it was however instantly recaptured, and the 9th Lancers charged the sowars and drove them from the field. I regret to say that two most excellent officers, Lieutenants French and Jones, were wounded, the former mortally, and I fear that little hope can be entertained of the recovery of Lieutenant Jones. I advanced during this time on the Dholepore road, capturing guns as we went on, and the 9th Lancers and artillery, supported by the 75th and 2nd Punjaub Infantry, advanced on the left, taking four guns on their way. The whole line now moved to the front, the Punjaub Cavalry, as usual, performing most excellent service on the flanks, till we reached a village three miles from hence, where we halted for a short time, the whole of the enemy being then in full flight: we were now joined by the 3rd Europeans, and Colonel Cotton, commanding at Agra, came up and took command of the whole of the troops. The enemy's camp was descried about two miles in advance, and we marched upon it, the road strewed in all directions with baggage and carts; the infantry was ordered to halt at the camp, and the cavalry and artillery pursued the enemy to the Kharee Nuddee, ten and a half miles from Agra. The enemy had crossed the river before we reached it, leaving behind him all his guns, a return of which is attached. The artillery fired grape and round shot at the retreating enemy across the river, with good effect. The country all round was covered with fugitives, of whom a large number were cut up; they have all now crossed the Kharee Nuddee. After a short halt we returned to camp, and the captured guns were all brought in during the night. I have not been able to estimate the enemy's number, as in addition to the Indore force, and the Neemuch and the Nusseerabad brigades, Sepoys were found killed belonging to 16th Grenadiers, Hurrianah Light Infantry, Gwalior Contingent and several others. The whole country as far as one could see was covered with fugitives, but of these many were probably camp followers and rabble. I have never seen such a rout, and, had our artillery and cavalry been fresh, few would have crossed the Kharce Nuddee, but they had marched forty-one miles in less than thirty hours before arriving at Agra. It is impossible to say too much of the excellent conduct of the whole of the troops, officers and men, and I trust it will meet with the approbation of the Major-General commanding the Field Force at Delhi.

It is my intention as soon as I have been joined by the detachment, now on its way from Delhi, to proceed towards Futtyghur, with a view of effecting a junction with General Havelock's force, subject to the approbation of General Penny.

I have, &c,

E. H. Greathed, Lieut.-Colonel, Commanding Moveable Column.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that from and after the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, the County Court now holden by the name of "The Courty Court of Yorkshire, holden at Wetherby," shall be holden by the name of "The County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Tadcaster," and the said Court now holden at Wetherby shall be holden at Tadcaster instead of at Wetherby.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that all the provisions of the "Summary Procedure on Bills of Exchange Act, 1855," shall apply to the two Courts of Record of the borough of Colchester, called the Law Hundred and Foreign Courts.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the undermentioned churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz.—

In the churchyard of BALDOCK, Herts, from the first of January to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; in the churchyard of St. Mary, BATTLE, and in the burial-grounds of the Unitarian and Zion chapels, in that parish, from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, on the same conditions as those contained in an Order in Council of the thirtieth of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in respect of the said churchyard and burial-grounds; in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Independent Chapel, Cheecse-lanc, of the Independent West End Chapel, of Salem Chapel, and of the Baptist Chapel, all in WELLINGBOROUGH, from the first of January to the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; in St. Andrew's Churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Independent and Baptist Chapels, in WHITTLESEY, from the first of January next to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; in the churchyard of NEW WINDSOR, in the burial-grounds of the Baptist Chapel, and in the Acre Burial-ground, in Windsor, from the first of December instant to the first of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-fourth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued, as therein mentioned, with certain exceptions, in the General Cemetery in the old parish of BIRMINGHAM, and whereas by another Order in Council of the second of February last, the operation of the said Order, so far as it related to the said cemetery, was postponed until the thirty-first of December last, and it seems fit that the said first-mentioned Order be again varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of the said Order in Council of the twenty-fourth September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as regards interments in the Birmingham General Cemetery, be further suspended to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight; and it is also ordered that in the meantime the following regulations be observed, viz.; That in common graves therein, and in those of the Church of England Cemetery, not more than four bodies be buried in any such grave; every coffin buried in them shall be separated from any other coffin by at least a foot of earth, and shall be buried at least four feet below the surface, and every such grave to be filled in on the day of burial and not again opened. And that on and after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, one body only be buried in any common grave, and no such grave shall be re-opened within fourteen years. No unwall'd grave shall be re-opened within fourteen years after the burial of a person above twelve years of age, or within eight years after the burial of a child under twelve years of age, unless to bury another member of the same family, in which case a layer of earth not less than one foot thick shall be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin ; but if, on re-opening any grave, the soil be found to be offensive, such soil shall not be disturbed. No coffin shall be buried in any unwall'd grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground, unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years of age, when it shall not be less than three feet below that level.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the sixteenth of November last, burials were directed to be discontinued in the churchyards of Saint Mary and Holy Trinity, ULVERSTON, and in the Roman Catholic Burial-ground in that parish, except so far as was compatible with the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eight of the Regulations for New Burials-grounds, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the twelve last words of the seventh of the said Regulations be omitted in the application of such Regulations to the above-named churchyards and burial-ground.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2nd day of December, 1857.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the representations made (as set forth in this Gazette) by the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that no new burial-ground should be opened in any of the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that interments in the same should be discontinued with the following modifications:—

graves which were in existence on the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, burials be discontinued in the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Square Chapel, Holy Trinity Church, Salem Chapel, Sion Chapel, Saint James's Church, and Hanover-street Chapel; that the above excepted vaults and brick graves be used on the following conditions: that no coffin be buried within three feet of the ordinary level of the ground; that, when required, the vaults and graves be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in; and that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches thick, and be separately entombed in an airtight manner; that in the burial-grounds of the Square Chapel, Holy Trinity Church, Salem Chapel, Sion Chapel, Saint James's Church, and Hanover-street Chapel, the only bodies buried be those of the husband, wife, parents, unmarried children, and brothers and sisters of persons already interred; and in the parish churchyard, the bodies of the husband and wife of persons already buried. That in the Halifax General Cemetery burials be forthwith discontinued on the east side, within thirteen yards of all dwelling-houses; and also in the burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, South Parade, with the exception of six hundred and seventy-five square yards of unoccupied ground on the east side, and of family vaults and graves which were in existence on the first August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; that in the General Cemetery and Burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body be buried in each grave, and that the burials be

should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth day of January next.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas a postal convention was some time since made and entered into between Her Majesty's Government and the Government of the Republic of New Granada, and is still in force, and a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, was also duly made for the purpose of better carrying into effect the terms of such convention, dated the 22nd day of February, 1848, whereby it was ordered and directed that the letters and newspapers therein mentioned might be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any port in New Granada subject to the several rates of postage, and to the regulations therein contained.

And whereas it is expedient that the said Warrant dated the 22nd day of February, 1848, should be repealed, and that such rates of postage should be charged, and such other regulations made with respect to the letters and newspapers hereinafter mentioned as are hereinafter contained.

1. Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said before mentioned Acts, or any of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct that the said Warrant, dated the 22nd day of February, 1848, and the several rates of postage and the several orders, directions, and regulations therein mentioned and contained, shall cease and determine, and shall be, and the same are hereby, repealed and revoked.

2. And we do further order and direct as follows (that is to say), on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in, or addressed to, any part of the republic of New Granada, and transmitted between any part of the United Kingdom and any port in New Granada, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, the rates of British postage following (that is to say) :—

If the sea conveyance be by packet-boat, a rate of one shilling.

And if by private ship, a rate of eight pence.

3. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in, or addressed to, any part of New Granada, transmitted by the post between any port in New Granada and any of Her Majesty's colonies or possessions or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom (letters transmitted through the United Kingdom between New Granada and France, or any foreign country through France only excepted, which letters are to be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as if this Warrant had not been signed), there shall be charged, taken, and paid, the rates of British postage following (that is to say) :—

For the conveyance of every such letter between any port in New Granada and any part of the United Kingdom, if the sea conveyance be by packet-boat a rate of one shilling, and if by private ship a rate of eight pence.

And for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and such colony or foreign country.

4. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by packet-boat or private ship (without passing through the United Kingdom) between any of Her Majesty's colonies and any of the ports of New Granada, or between the French colonies of Martinique or Guadaloupe, and any of the ports of New Granada, or between any ports in New Granada, there shall be charged, taken and paid, a rate of British postage of four pence.

5. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by packet boat between any foreign port at which such packet may touch (Martinique and Guadaloupe excepted), and any port in New Granada (without passing through the United Kingdom), there shall be charged, taken and paid a rate of British postage of one shilling.

6. All letters so respectively transmitted as aforesaid, if exceeding half an ounce in weight, shall be subject to the several additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say) :—

On every letter so transmitted, if exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every letter so transmitted, if exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight of any letter so respectively transmitted as aforesaid, above the weight of three ounces, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage; and every fractional part of such additional ounce shall be charged as an additional ounce in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one-half of an ounce in weight.

7. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service, and seamen and soldiers employed in the service of the East India Company, are now by law entitled to of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

8. And we further direct that such printed newspapers as are hereinafter mentioned may be sent by the post, according to the regulations and rates hereinafter contained (that is to say)

Foreign newspapers sent direct by packet-boat between any port in New Granada and any other foreign port without passing through the United Kingdom, at a rate of two-pence each.

9. Every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

10. Every printed newspaper which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders directions, regulations, and conditions following (that is to say) :

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding 31 days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered at the General Post-office in London, and shall be posted within 15 days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

12. The rates of postage chargeable on letters and printed newspapers, respectively transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

13. The respective letters and newspapers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to re-directed rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be re-directed and again forwarded by the post.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," it is enacted that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and, at any time after the passing of that Act, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and that the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage should extend to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas, it is expedient that further regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of, and reduction of the postage now payable on, the letters hereinafter mentioned :

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said recited Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows :

1. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post by vessels not being packet boats, between the United Kingdom and any place beyond the seas (at whatever place within the United Kingdom the letter may be posted or delivered), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now chargeable on such letters, a uniform British rate of sixpence.

2. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post by vessels not being packet boats, between any places beyond the seas, through the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now chargeable on such letters, a uniform British rate of one shilling.

3. On every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant exceeding half an ounce in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows, that is to say :

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

4. The several letters transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several orders, directions, and regulations contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to re-directed rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be re-directed and again forwarded by the post, so far as the same are applicable to such letters.

5. Nothing in this Warrant contained shall affect or alter the postage now payable upon letters transmitted by the post by vessels not being packet-boats under or pursuant to a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 20th day of December, 1856, relating to letters transmitted between the United Kingdom and France, or under or pursuant to a certain other Warrant of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 24th day of September, 1857, relating to letters transmitted between the United Kingdom and Belgium, or any other letters transmitted by the post by vessels not being packet-boats the ship rate of postage whereof (if not exceeding half an ounce in weight) is less than sixpence.

6. H. W. NORMAN, Lieutenant,
Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army.

No. 3.

Major-General A. Wilson, Commanding Field Force, to Captain Norman, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Camp before Delhi, August 30th, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Major-General Gowan, C.B., Commanding the Forces in the Upper Provinces, and for submission to Government, that, learning that a large force of rebels had moved out from the city in the direction of Nujufghur for the purpose of attacking us in the rear, cutting off our supplies, and capturing the siege-train now en route from Ferozepore, I detached a column under Brigadier-General Nicholson on the morning of the 25th instant, to intercept them.

I enclose herewith the Brigadier-General's report of his operations, with plans of the route pursued by the column, and of the action of Nujufghur, with returns of the killed and wounded, and ammunition expended, as well as of the captured ordnance and ammunition. I also enclose a copy of a field-force order I have issued on the occasion.

To Brigadier-General Nicholson's judgment, energy, and determination I attribute mainly the glorious result of the expedition, and next, to the steadiness and gallantry in action, and the cheerfulness under great privation and fatigue exhibited by the officers and men placed under his command.

They all most richly deserve my highest praise, and, in forwarding this report for submission to Government, I beg that Major-General Gowan will bring to the favourable notice of Government the name of Brigadier-General J. Nicholson, as well as all those officers mentioned in his report as those to whom he was most indebted for their service on this occasion.

I have, &c.,
A. WILSON.

Field Force Orders by Major-General A. Wilson Commanding.

Head Quarters, Camp before Delhi, 30th August, 1857.

MAJOR-GENERAL WILSON, Commanding the Force, begs to offer his most hearty thanks and congratulations to Brigadier-General Nicholson, and the force which moved from camp under his command, on the morning of the 25th instant, on the very successful issue of the operations they were engaged in. This force made a march of 18 miles over a country intersected with swamp, at the end of which they fought an action with the enemy, variously estimated at 4,000 to 6,000 men, gained a complete victory, capturing all the enemy's guns (13 in number); and, owing to the difficulty in getting up the baggage and provisions, had to bivouac on the ground, without food or covering of any kind. The next day the troops marched back, arriving in camp same evening.

2. The Major-General considers he is indebted for the glorious result of these operations to the judgment and energy displayed by Brigadier-General Nicholson, the steadiness and gallantry of the troops in action, and the cheerfulness with which they bore the fatigue and hardships they were called upon to undergo.

3. The Major-General has much pleasure in publishing the following extract from Brigadier-Nicholson's report,* and in assuring all therein mentioned that he will bring them to favourable notice in his report to the Commander of the Forces in the Upper Provinces, for submission to Government.

No. 5.

Lucknow Residency, September 30, 1857.

MAJOR-GENERAL Sir James Outram, having, with characteristic generosity of feeling, declared that the command of the force should remain in my hands, and that he would accompany it as Civil Commissioner only, until a junction could be effected with the gallant and enduring garrison of this place, I have to request that you will inform his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief that this purpose was effected on the evening of the 25th instant. But I must first refer to antecedent events. I crossed the Sye on the 22nd instant, the bridge at Bunnee not having been broken. On the 23rd I found myself in the presence of the enemy, who had taken a strong position, his left posted in the enclosure of the Alum Bagh, and his centre and right on low heights.

The head of my column at first suffered from the fire of his guns, as it was compelled to pass along the Trunk-road, between morasses ; but as soon as my regiment could be deployed along his front, and his right enveloped by my left, victory decided for us, and we captured five guns. Sir J. Outram, with his accustomed gallantry, pressed our advance close down to the canal ; but as the enemy fired with his artillery and with guns from the city, it was not possible to maintain this or a less advanced position for a time, but to become * necessary to throw our right in the Alum Bagh, and restore our left, and even we were incessantly cannonaded throughout the twenty-four hours, and the cavalry, 1500 strong, swept round through lofty cultivation, and the sudden interruption upon our baggage massed in our rear (sic in orig.).

* See No. 38 of papers published in the London Gazette of Nov. 24, 1857. The date of Brigadier-General Nicholson's dispatch is August 28, 1857.

The soldiers of the 90th Regiment, forming baggage guard, received the charge with gallantry, and lost some brave officers and men, shooting down, however, 25 of the troopers, and putting the whole body to flight.

They were finally driven off by two guns of Captain Olpherts' battery. The troops had been marching three days, under a perfect deluge of rain, irregularly fed, and badly housed in villages ; it was thought necessary to pitch tents, and permit them to halt on the 24th. The assault on the city was deferred until the 25th. On that morning, our baggage and tents were deposited in the Alum Bagh, under an escort, and we advanced. The 1st Brigade, under Sir J. Outram's personal leading, drove the enemy from a succession of gardens and walled enclosures, supported by the two brigades which I accompanied. Both brigades were established on the canal, at the bridge of the Char Bagh. From this point, the direct road to the Residency is a little less than two miles, but it was known to have been cut by trenches, and crossed by pallisades, at short intervals, the houses also being all loop-holed. Progress in this direction was opposed, so the united column pushed and deployed along the narrow road which skirts the left bank of the canal. Its advance was not seriously interrupted until it came opposite the King's palace or Kissurah Bagh, where two guns and a body of mercenary troops were entrenched. From this entrenchment a fire of grape and musketry was poured, under which nothing could live. The artillery and troops had to pass a bridge partially under its influence, but were then shrouded by the buildings adjacent to the palace of Fhureed Buksh.

Darkness was coming, and it was proposed to halt within the court of this Mehal for the night; but I esteemed it to be of such importance not to leave this beleaguered garrison, knowing that succour was at hand, that I ordered the main body of the 78th Highlanders and the Regiment of Ferozepore to advance.

This column rushed on with a desperate . . . by Sir J. Outram and myself, Lieutenants Hudson and Harhood,* of my Staff, and overcoming every obstacle, established itself within the enclosure of the Residency.

The . . . Garrison may be more easily conceived than described; but it was not until the next evening that the whole of my troop, guns, tumbrils, and sick and wounded, continually exposed to the attack of the enemy, could be brought step by step within this enclosure and the adjacent palace of Fhureed Buksh.

To form a notion of the obstacles overcome, a reference must be made to the events that are known to have occurred at Buenos Ayres and Saragossa: our advance was through streets of flat-roofed and loop-holed houses, each forming a separate fortress. I am filled with surprise at the success of operations which demanded the efforts of ten thousand good troops; the advantage has cost us dearly.

The killed, wounded, and missing—the latter being wounded soldiers who, I regret to say, have fallen into the hands of a merciless foe—amount to 464 officers and men: Brigadier-General Neill, commanding 1st Brigade; Major . . . , commanding Artillery; Lieut.-Colonel Bazely, a volunteer with the force, are killed. Colonel Campbell, commanding 90th Infantry; Lieut.-Colonel Tytler, my Deputy Assistant Quarter-master-General, and Lieutenant Havelock, my Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, are severely, but not dangerously, wounded.

Sir James Outram received a flesh wound in the arm, in the early part of the action, near Char Baugh, but nothing would subdue his spirit; and, though faint from loss of blood, he continued to the end of the operation to sit on his horse, which he only dismounted at the gate of the Residency. As he has now assumed the command, I leave to him the narrative of all events subsequent to the 25th instant.

H. HAVELOCK,
Brigadier-General.

The Officiating Secretary to the Government of the North West Provinces to the Secretary to the Government of India, in the Military Department.

SIR, Agra Fort, October 19, 1857.

I AM directed by the Chief Commissioner to forward, for submission to the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council, the accompanying reports and returns received from Lieutenant-Colonel Cotton, commanding at Agra, and Lieutenant-Colonel Greathed, commanding the moveable column detached from the force before Delhi, describing the action of the 10th instant, in which a large force of the mutineers was completely routed, with loss of all their guns and camp, and the plunder which they had previously accumulated.

2. These reports are so full and clear that little is left to be added on the part of the Chief Commissioner, beyond a brief recapitulation of the events which preceded the attack upon the cantonments, and an acknowledgment of the services of those officers and troops to whom, under Providence, this success is to be attributed.

3. The daily communications which have been made from the Intelligence Department will have informed his Lordship of the movements of the Mhow mutineers, who remained, apparently undecided as to their subsequent course, at Dholepore, until they were reinforced by the Neemuch Brigade, when an attack upon Agra seems to have been finally determined upon.

4. For several days there was a report that an onward move would be made on the following day, but no actual change of position took place until the 6th, when the force broke ground, and intimation of this was received and communicated to the military authorities the same day.

5. Colonel Greathed, with his column, had by this date arrived at Ackrabad, one march from Allygurh, on the trunk road, in the direction of Cawnpore, and an express was immediately despatched, requesting him to advance towards Agra, unless he had good grounds for believing that he could come up with the fugitive brigade of mutineers, which was pressing towards the eastward.

6. The information of subsequent days proved the necessity for obtaining reinforcements for the protection of Agra, and Colonel Greathed was therefore directed, on the 7th, and, by a subsequent more urgent letter, on the 8th, to hasten towards this place, and, in case of any delay in advancing the main column, to push forward at all events 500 cavalry, and a troop of horse artillery.

7. On the morning of the 9th a vidette of militia cavalry, which had been sent out to reconnoitre, was driven in by the enemy's horse, and pursued to within two or three miles of cantonments. This occurrence, proving the close proximity of the enemy, was communicated to Colonel Greathed at once, and it was deemed of sufficient importance to render it advisable to forward the letter by an officer. This service was performed by Captain Patton of the 3rd European Regiment, Fort Adjutant of Agra, and the Chief Commissioner desires to acknowledge his obligation to this willing and energetic officer, for the promptitude with which the despatch was conveyed to Colonel Greathed's camp.

8. The subsequent events and their result are detailed in the reports. The Chief Commissioner would only observe that to Colonel Cotton's high personal qualifications, both as a soldier and a commander, we owe the completeness of this success. Led by him, the tired troops were inspired to continue the pursuit of the flying enemy, until the capture of all his guns, camp, and plunder, deprived him of the means of further aggression; and rendered the dissolution of his army inevitable.

Lieutenant Colonel Greathed, commanding the moveable column, brought his men into action with a rapidity and precision that entitle him to the highest praise, and when it is remembered that the column had only just come off a long and harassing forced march, the steadiness of the men, and coolness of the officers, entitle all to the warmest commendation.

It gives the Chief Commissioner much pleasure to bring specially to the notice of his Lordship the services on this occasion of The trifling loss of our troops in killed would have been a subject of more sincere congratulation, had not the list included the name of Captain French of the 9th Lancers. This valuable officer fell mortally wounded, in a most spirited and decisive charge, in which his Regiment, led by Capt. Anson, broke and dispersed the enemy's cavalry.

12. Lieutenant Jones was at the same time severely wounded, but it is trusted that he is now in a fair way to recovery.

13. Subsequent information shows the enemy's force, scattered and dispirited, are endeavouring in small disorganised parties to reach the vicinity of their homes, which are chiefly in the Oude Provinces.

Lieutenant-Colonel H. Cotton, Commanding at Agra to C. B. Thornhill, Esq. Officiating Secretary to Government, N.W.P.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward, for the information of the Chief Commissioner, and transmission to Government, the following account of the action which took place at this station on the 10th instant, with the mutinous troops from Mhow (23rd Native Infantry and 1st Light Cavalry), increased by part of the fugitive forces from Delhi, and malcontents from Dholepore, and the neighbourhood, and which resulted in the most complete rout of the enemy, with the loss of all their guns, camp equipage, baggage and plunder.

The Chief Commissioner is aware of the very imperfect information we have from time to time received of the movements of this body, and that it was not until about ten o'clock on Saturday morning, when I was arranging with him for moving out the troops to the Kharee river, that intelligence was brought in that a sudden attack had been made on the camp of the moveable column under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Greathed, which had arrived that morning.

I lost no time in repairing to the camp, when I took command, and found that the enemy, now completely hidden by the high standing crops, had opened a heavy fire from a strong battery in the centre, supported by several guns on each flank, and were sweeping our position with a powerful cross fire.

Our troops had been drawn up by Colonel Greathead in a most judicious manner ; a flank attack, made by a large body of cavalry under cover of the Khelati Ghilzie lines, had been effectively repulsed with great loss to them by a brilliant charge of the picket of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers, led by Captain French and Lieutenant Jones.

Their attack was then soon overpowered and turned into a complete rout, notwithstanding several ineffectual attempts to make a stand, our guns following them up steadily, and the cavalry cutting up all within their reach on both sides of the road. The pursuit was continued during the rest of the day for a distance of eleven miles, until the enemy had been driven across the Kharee, and thoroughly dispersed, with the loss of all their guns, twelve in number, camp, equipage, baggage and plunder.

Considering that the attack was made before the camp was pitched, and after the troops (with the exception of the 3rd European regiment, and Lieutenant Pearson's battery) had performed a long and harassing forced march, and been under arms for fully 26 hours, too much praise cannot be bestowed on the troops engaged in this brilliant affair ; but especially is praise due to the detachment of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers, whose charge I have noticed above, and who, in addition to several of their men disabled, and Lieutenant Jones, who was very severely wounded, had the misfortune to lose their commanding officer, Captain French, whose untimely death is a great loss to the service.

In connection with this action, it is my desire to bring prominently to the notice of the Government, and the Chief Commissioner, Major Ouvry, commanding the cavalry, Major Turner, commanding the artillery, and Captains Remington and Blunt of that branch also ; Captain Bouchier, commanding Light Field Battery ; and Lieutenant Pearson, commanding No. 21 Light Field Battery ; Captain Anson, commanding Her Majesty's 9th Lancers ; Lieutenant Watson, 1st Punjaub Cavalry ; Lieutenant Probyn, 2nd Punjaub Cavalry ; Lieutenant Younghusband, 5th Punjaub Cavalry ; Captain Green, 2nd Punjaub Infantry ; Lieutenant Paul, 4th Infantry ; Lieutenant Gough, commanding Hodson's Horse ; and Lieutenant Lang of the Engineers ; Colonel Riddell of the 3rd European Regiment ; Lieutenant Vere, and all under their command ; to Captain Norman, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army ; Captain Wilson, Deputy Judge Advocate General ; Captain Anson, Orderly Officer to Colonel Greathed ; Captain Bannatyne, Brigade Major of the moveable column ; Majors McLeod and Montgomery, Brigade Major ; Captains Patton and Rawlins, my personal Staff ; Major Eld, and Captain Roberts, Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General moveable column, I feel indebted for their services in the field. To Colonel Greathed, commanding the moveable column, who apparently was not aware of my being on the field until I had ordered the advance, my thanks are due for the assistance rendered in the pursuit.

I beg to append a return of killed and wounded, and a list of the ordnance taken, amongst which will be observed several pieces of large calibre.

I have, &c.,

No. 11.

Lieutenant-Colonel E. H. Greathed, Commanding Moveable Column, to the Deputy Assistant-Adjutant-General Field Force, Delhi.

SIR, Camp Agra, October 13, 1857.

IN recapitulation of my hasty letter of the 11th instant, I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of the Major-General Commanding the Field Force, Delhi, that after a march of 44 miles in 28 hours, the moveable column under my command encamped on the Parade Ground at this station, at 8 A.M., on the 10th instant. At half-past 10 o'clock, 4 guns were heard by us on our right flank, and the assembly was sounded. I galloped to the front and found the artillery already in action, and the 9th Lancers in their saddles, formed up in squadrons. The enemy had attacked our front and right flank with his artillery, which raked the camp; on seeing this, I moved with Her Majesty's 8th, the King's Regiment, and the 4th Punjaub Infantry (taking with me on the way the three squadrons of the 1st, 2nd, and 5th Punjaub Cavalry) to the right, with the view of cut-flanking and capturing the guns on that flank. I must not omit to mention that when I reached the front, three minutes after this surprise, I found the whole of the troops, without exception, drawn up on their respective alarm posts, as if for parade. I extended the infantry along the road leading from the parade ground to the Infantry Barracks, in skirmishing order, with supports, with orders to advance to their front and clear the compounds of the enemy's infantry. Taking with me the Punjaub Cavalry, I then proceeded to the European Barracks, and pointed out to Lieutenant Watson the open ground upon which I conceived he might work with effect; how admirably he did so will be seen in his own report. By this time the Agra 9-pounder Battery came up, and I advanced it in support of the right flank of the infantry, on the road leading from the Artillery Parade Ground, and the enclosures were speedily cleared; in doing this, the 4th Punjaub infantry distinguished itself, as it did throughout the day. The advance of the infantry and battery enabled Lieutenant Watson to make the charge and capture the guns and standards, and after that the enemy did not make any stand, although they continued to fire round shots as they retreated. I continued the pursuit to a village three miles on the Gwalior road, and halted to enable the left to come up; here we were joined by the 3rd European Regiment, who took their place in the line, detaching two companies to support the Punjaub Infantry engaged in driving out the enemy, who still hung on our flanks in the jungle and topos on our right.

Colonel Cotton, commanding the Agra garrison, then assumed command, and the pursuit was continued to the Kharree Nuddee with artillery and cavalry, the infantry finally halting at a village five miles on the Gwalior road, where the enemy's camp had been pitched. The rout was now complete, and the whole face of the country covered with fugitives. The enemy fled across the Kharree Nuddee, under the effective fire of grape and round shot from our artillery.

The accompanying Return from Major Turner will show that twelve guns were captured, and the enemy lost the whole of his tents, baggage, and ammunition. I have reason to believe that scarcely a cart was taken across the river, and most certainly not one gun.

The conduct of the troops engaged during the whole affair was beyond any praise of mine; but it is my duty to bring, to the special notice of the Major-General commanding, their admirable steadiness at the outset of the action, when taken completely by surprise, and when a great part of the troops were scarcely on the ground; the quickness with which the artillery came into action under a destructive fire, and its subsequent services, were worthy of their reputation.

The cavalry showed throughout the day that they were led by officers who combined steady-

The infantry drove the enemy flying from the enclosures, and pursued them for several miles with the most persevering resolution, and the conduct of the Punjaub Infantry Regiments, which had had no assistance from carriage during the march, deserves the most favorable notice. The Sappers and Miners were also most steady and forward in the pursuit. I refer you for details of the operations on the left to Major Ouvry, as I was not able to leave the right till the enemy was in full flight.

The cavalry and artillery marched over at least 64 miles, and the infantry 54 miles of road in less than 36 hours, besides moving through fields during action. Captain Bouchier's 9-pounder battery had marched in during the night from Hattaras, 30 miles without a halt.

I beg to bring prominently to the favourable notice of the Major-General commanding, the gallantry and unwearied exertions of the whole of the troops engaged.* The artillery under Major Turner was led in a manner which caused general admiration. Major Ouvry, as usual, did the most efficient service with his cavalry. The 9th Lancers distinguished themselves under Captain Anson during the whole day, and most particularly in a gallant charge on a large body of the enemy's Sowars, in which they rescued a gun, which had been temporarily disabled. The conduct of Lieutenant Watson, seconded by Lieutenant Gough,

* Her Majesty's 9th Lancers; 1st Punjaub Cavalry; 2nd Punjaub Cavalry; 5th Punjaub Cavalry; 1st Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery; 2nd ditto, 3rd ditto ditto; No. 17 Light Field Battery; Engineers; Her Majesty's 8th, the King's Regiment; Her Majesty's 75th Regiment; 2nd Punjaub Infantry; 4th Punjaub Infantry; Lieutenant Pearson's Agra 9-pounder battery.

Lieutenant Probyn, and Lieutenant Younghusband is entitled to the warmest praise. These officers appear to have all the qualities which distinguish the cavalry officer. I am happy to say that Lieutenant Younghusband's injuries, though severe, will not detain him long from his duty.

Captain Hinde particularly distinguished himself in command of the 8th, the King's Regiment, in the capture of an 18-pounder at a village, and the dispersion of the mutineers who attempted to resist him. I have also to bring to the notice of the Major-General the services of Captain Gordon, commanding Her Majesty's 75th Regiment; Captain Green, commanding 2nd Punjaub Infantry; Captain Paul, commanding 4th Punjaub Infantry.

My best thanks are due to the untiring exertions and able assistance of Captain Norman, Assistant Adjutant-General; Captain Roberts, Assistant Quartermaster-General; and Captain Bannatyne, my Brigade Major, who rendered me the most active aid throughout the day.

Lieutenant Ximenes, my orderly officer, also did good service.

I have, &c.,
E. H. GREATHED,
Lieutenant-Colonel commanding
Moveable Column.

To the admirable arrangements of Captain Dickens, Deputy Assistant Commissary-General, it was owing that we were able to make the forced march from Hattrass, and arrive in time to intercept the advance of the mutineers on Agra. I have to thank Lieutenant Pearson and the officers and men of the 9-pounder battery under his command, for their valuable aid throughout the action.

Major English, commanding the left wing of Her Majesty's 53rd Regiment, to Major-General Mansfield, Chief of the Staff to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

SIR,

Camp, Chuttra, October 3, 1857.

MY message from Hazareebaugh of the 29th will have told you of my intention to move upon Chuttra. On the night of that day I marched to Lillio Chak, 16 miles, and heard positively that the Ramghur mutineers were advancing on the former place. The road being very intricate, and Lieutenant Daunt volunteering for the duty, I directed 50 Sikhs, under that officer, to precede the column two or three hours on the road, and to send back what information could be picked up. On the afternoon of the 30th, I advanced to Tutoohur, 10 miles, and the next morning, the 1st, to Dowoonee Chak, 5 miles. In the afternoon I went on to Dooree, 6 miles from Chuttra, and there heard that the enemy were plundering that town, and yesterday at daybreak I moved to its succour. Captain Smyth, from intelligence received from Major Simpson and various natives, having sketched out the accompanying plan of the town and the enemy's camp, I determined to move round the south of the town, and on clearing the cultivation, push on my skirmishers to the right and make my attack. On clearing the jail, I found the enemy in position on the brow of a hill to my right. The reconnoitring party, under Lieutenant Daunt, strengthened by ten picked men of the 53rd, with Captain Cannon, the Instructor of Musketry, pushed to the head of the rice fields, and filed behind some rocks and underwood. Captain Fendall, with the skirmishers, advanced to the right in open order through the cultivation, and was soon hotly engaged. The supports followed the route of Lieutenant Daunt's party, who, on emerging from the broken ground, came upon the enemy and joined the skirmishers; the whole, on reaching the brow of the hill, most gallantly rushed on the two guns that had been playing upon us for some time. Lieutenant Smythe, quickly followed by Lieutenant Helsham, of the 53rd, had the honor of seizing the first gun, the second falling to Lieutenant Daunt. The men, being now quite blown, stopped on the road leading to the west to reform, upon which the mutineers rushed on us in force and brought their two remaining guns to bear, sending a large number to attack our right flank; at this moment, Captain Smyth, with the assistance of Privates Nichols and McFee, of the 53rd, got a gun loaded with grape to bear upon the enemy; Major Simpson with a reserve of Sikhs issued out of the lane near the jail upon the flanking party, the support joined, and the whole, with a shout, gallantly led by Captain Fendall and all the other officers, rushed into the enemy's camp, silenced the third gun on its left, and throwing their right shoulders forward, stormed the remaining guns, which fell to Lieutenant Daunt. The enemy then lost heart and fled, leaving about 40 men dead on the ground. We took 4 guns and waggons complete, the regimental colours and camp equipage, 46 carts laden with ammunition, 10 elephants, and 29 pair of ordnance bullocks. Captain Fendall, in command of the skirmishers, deserves the highest praise for the skill and intrepidity with which he led the advance; he was ably supported by Lieutenants Helsham, Smythe, and Daunt. It was splendid to see these last rush on the guns; the supports were taken up in gallant style by Lieutenants Taylor and Clarke. Captain Cannon, attended by Serjeant Dynon, was on the left of the skirmishers the whole time, dealing destruction to the gunners with their rifles.

I have derived every assistance from Major Simpson, the Commissioner; he has supplied me well with provisions, and his intelligence is excellent; his arrival with the reserve was most opportune.

The following men of the 53rd particularly distinguished themselves, Acting Serjeant - Major Ennis, Serjeant Dynon, Bugler Murray, and Privates Quin, Edgan, Farrel, Nichols, McFee, and Ashton (since dead).

I am requested also to bring to your favorable notice the conduct of Subadar Utter Sing, Sikh Battalion, and Uttum Sing; the whole body behaved with great gallantry.

I wish to bring to your special notice the able support and assistance that I have on all occasions received from my Staff-Officer Captain Smyth, of the Horse Artillery, particularly in yesterday's action, when it was mainly owing to his zeal and activity that we were enabled to obtain the information that allowed me to bear on the enemy's position from the most favorable point.

It is now my painful duty to enclose a list of the killed and wounded of the 53rd; the latter will detain me here two or three days. The Sikhs had one man killed and nine wounded.

I have, &c.,

Regiment, Commanding Left Wing.

SIR,

October '23, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that yesterday morning, at 3 A.M., the troops, as per margin,* under my personal command, marched from Bullode on Dhar, joining the troops, also named in the margin,† which I had detached under Major Robertson, for the protection of Mamipoor, at Goolora; at daylight the combined column, advanced on this place, in the following order: the advance guard, under the command of Captain Gall, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, accompanied by Captain Mayne, 6th Regiment Madras Light Cavalry, in command of a small reconnoitring party of the 1st Regiment, C. H. C.; the 25th Regiment, Native Infantry, leading the column, followed by the detachment, Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, 4-2 Artillery, and squadron 14th Light Dragoons. Within three miles of the town of Dhar, the reconnoitring party came on a piquet of the enemy, near the village of Dameelee, and were fired on; as this piquet fell back on the village, we were obliged to halt and examine it: immediately after this, we heard firing from heavy guns from the Fort of Dhar; and on our approach to the open plain, we saw Major Kean's column,* which had marched on Dhar, from Mhow, by a perfectly different route, about two miles on our right, engaged with the enemy, who came out to meet them from the east side of the town, and were driven back with loss, being charged by Captain Barrett's Dragoons, and Major Orr's Cavalry, as well as fired into by Captain Hungertford's half battery, and the Light Cavalry, and Her Majesty's 86th Regiment.

On our advance, we found a large body of the enemy posted on hillocks to the south of the town, with three guns, two sixes, and one three-pounder, in advance. The enemy's front could only be approached by a bund of a tank, rough and stony, with a deep muddy road below it; he had skirmishers also in strong broken ground in a ravine on our left flank; to meet them the detachments, Her Majesty's 86th Regiment and 25th Regiment Native Infantry, were thrown into skirmishing order with a small party of the 1st Regiment of Cavalry of Hyderabad Contingent, attached to Captain Mayne, on their left, to assist in clearing the ground, which was done, assisted by a few rounds from Captain Woollcombe's guns. On their retiring, and almost simultaneously, Captain Woollcombe's battery nearly silenced the three guns on the hill, disabling the limber of one, and damaging the gun-carriage of the other, making also the enemy's body of infantry retire into the ravine behind the brow of the hill. At this period Captain Gall, with part of a troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, and Lieutenant Macdonald, with twenty-five of the 3rd Regiment of Cavalry of the Hyderabad Contingent, charged up the hill and got possession of the three guns. The enemy, after firing a volley, hastily retreated. Captain Woollcombe's battery then advanced on to a ridge, and opened fire on the retreating enemy and on the fort, distant about 900 yards. On the south-west bastion of the fort an iron 18-pounder gun is placed, from which the enemy fired with good aim, but fortunately did no harm, although the shot came amongst the troops. The 25th Regiment Native Infantry, on ascending the ridge, turned the serviceable 6-pounder gun against the fort, working it with right good will, and calling forth the applause of all who saw them. Finding that the range at which all our artillery was firing was too distant to be effectual, and that we could not get the gun nearer, I withdrew the troops and encamped beyond the ridge, keeping possession of it with my piquets. I am now waiting most anxiously for the arrival of our 8-inch howitzer and mortar, which unfortunately could not be got ready in time to accompany the force; if they had, I have every reason to believe that we should have been in possession of Dhar this day.

The troops behaved with very great spirit. The two leading men in the charge of the Cavalry of the Hyderabad Contingent, who took the small standards from off the enemy's guns, were reported to me by Captain Gall and Lieutenant Macdonald, as having behaved with the greatest gallantry; I have, therefore, with Colonel Durand's concurrence, promoted both of them to Duffedars; one of them has been wounded rather severely. Colonel Durand, Agent to the Governor-General for Central India, accompanied my force, and was present throughout the action. Captain Mayne, 6th M.L.C., did good service in conveying my orders to Major Kean's column when at a distance, and to other parts of the rather extended field of operations.

I have, &c.,

C. S. STUART, Brigadier,
Commanding Mhow Field Force.

Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons—1 serjeant, and 2 troopers, wounded.

3rd Regiment Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent—
1 jemadar and 1 trooper, killed; 1 jemadar and 4 troopers, wounded; 1 trooper missing.

About 40 of the enemy are believed to have been killed.

GENERAL ORDERS by the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council.

Fort William, 5th November, 1857.

No. 1383 of 1857.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council has received a despatch from Major-General Wilson, in continuation of that which was published in the notification No. 1,257, of the 8th ultimo, and completing the narrative of the capture of Delhi.

The reports and returns which accompany this despatch establish the arduous nature of a contest carried on against an enemy vastly superior in numbers, holding a strong position, furnished with unlimited appliances, and aided by the most exhausting and sickly season of the year.

They set forth the indomitable courage and perseverance, the heroic self-devotion and fortitude, the steady discipline and stern resolve of English soldiers.

There is no mistaking the earnestness of purpose with which the struggle has been maintained by Major-General Wilson's army. Every heart was in the cause; and whilst their numbers were, according to all ordinary rule, fearfully unequal to the task, every man has given his aid, wherever and in whatever manner it could most avail, to hasten retribution upon a treacherous and murderous foe.

In the name of outraged humanity; in memory of innocent blood ruthlessly shed, and in acknowledgment of the first signal vengeance inflicted upon the foulest treason, the Governor-General in Council records his gratitude to Major-General Wilson and the brave army of Delhi. He does so in the sure conviction that a like tribute awaits them, not in England only, but wherever, within the limits of civilization, the news of their well-earned triumph shall reach.

Major-General Wilson has testified to the earnest and efficient support which he has received from every branch of the force under his command.

To Major F. Gaitskell, who, on Brigadier Garbett being disabled by a wound, assumed the command of the artillery in the field, and to the officers and men of that arm—to Lieutenant Colonel Hogge, Director of the Artillery Dépôt, who volunteered his services as Commissary of Ordnance with the siege train—to Captain J. Young and to the other officers of that branch, the Governor-General in Council tenders his cordial thanks for their exertions during the whole siege.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Baird Smith, for the able and successful conduct of the siege operations, under the discouragement of sickness and pain, the best thanks of the Governor-General in Council are eminently due. This distinguished officer was admirably seconded by Captain A. Taylor and the officers and men of the Engineer Brigade.

To Brigadier Hope Grant, C. B., commanding the Cavalry Brigade, and to Brigadiers J. Longfield and W. Jones, C. B., commanding the Brigades of Infantry, the Governor-General in Council offers his warm acknowledgments of their excellent service ; as also to Colonel Campbell, commanding Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry ; to Major C. Reid, Sirmoor Battalion ; to Colonel Jones, commanding 1st Battalion, Her Majesty's 60th Rifles ; and to Colonel J. Dennis, of Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry, to whose care the charge of the camp was confided during the operation against the town. The manner in which these officers have discharged their duties is highly appreciated by the Government.

It is a matter of the deepest regret to the Governor-General in Council, that the mortal wounds received by Brigadier-General Nicholson in the assault, to the success of which he so eminently contributed, have taken from the army of India one of its brightest ornaments, and have deprived the State of services which it can ill afford to lose. The services rendered by Lieutenant-Colonel H. Burn, attached as Field Officer to the 1st Brigade of Infantry, and by Captain Seymour Blane, (Her Majesty's 52nd Light Infantry,) Brigade-Major to Brigadier-General Nicholson, have earned the approbation of the Government.

The Governor-General in Council cordially acknowledges the admirable manner in which the Staff of the Field Force and the General Staff of the Army have performed their arduous duties ; and to Brigadier-General Chamberlain, Adjutant-General of the Army ; to Captain H. Norman, Assistant Adjutant-General ; to Major E. S. Ewart, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General ; to Captain E. B. Johnson, Assistant Adjutant-General of Artillery ; to the officers of the Quartermaster-General's Department, Captain D. M. Shute and Captain H. M. Garston ; as also to Captain W. S. Hodson, who has performed good service with his newly-raised regiment of Irregular Horse, and at the same time conducted with great ability the duties of the Intelligence Department ; to Lieutenant F. S. Roberts, attached to the Artillery Brigade as Deputy Assistant-Quartermaster-General ; to Lieutenant-Colonel Keith Young, and the officers of the Judge Advocate General's Department ; as well as to Captain C. Barchard, Captain J. R. Turnbull, Captain H. D. Lowe, Lieutenant R. C. Low, and to Major H. A. Ouvry, attached to the personal Staff of Major-General Wilson. the Governor-General in Council offers his best thanks, for the zealous assistance which they have afforded to their Commander and to the State. The Governor-General in Council has much pleasure in recognizing the valuable aid rendered to the Force, by the officers of the Civil Service who have been attached to it, and his Lordship in Council desires to record his approbation of the services of Mr. Hervey Greathed, whose untimely death is a heavy public loss ; of Mr. C. B. Saunders, and of Mr. R. H. Clifford, who made themselves most useful to the Major-General in action ; and of Sir T. Metcalfe whose gallantry in conducting the assaulting Column under Colonel Campbell through the city was conspicuous.

While tendering his thanks to the Officers, whose conduct on the occasion of the final assault of the city has been brought under his notice, the Governor General in Council is anxious not to overlook the gallantry displayed on other occasions by several officers who were debarred by wounds or sickness from joining in the operations of that day. The distinguished services of Brigadier St. G. Showers, of Colonel A. M. Becher, Quartermaster-General of the Army, of Lieutenant-Colonel Seaton, C. B., 35th Native Infantry, of Lieutenant-Colonel Murray Mackenzie, Major J. Coke, and Captain H. Daly, commanding the Guides, deserve the recognition, and have gained the approval of Government.

Lieutenant-Colonel W. B. Thompson, Deputy Commissary-General. and the other officers serving in the Commissariat Department, are entitled to the thanks of the Governor-General in Council, for the efficiency with which their duties were performed.

The arrangements made by Superintending Surgeon E. Tritton, for the care and comfort of the numerous patients in hospital, have been most satisfactory, and the Governor-General in Council has pleasure in offering to that Officer, as well as to the Regimental and Staff Officers of the Medical Department by whom he was supported, this acknowledgment of their good service.

The Governor-General in Council desires to express to the non-commissioned officers and men of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers and Carabiniers the great satisfaction with which he has received the report of the cheerful and effective assistance rendered by them to their comrades of the Artillery in working the batteries.

To all the troops, European and Native, to the officers, non-commissioned officers and men serving with the field force, his Lordship in Council offers his hearty thanks for the gallantry, perseverance, skill, and discipline which they have displayed throughout the service on which they have been employed.

Where so much has been done to command admiration, it is difficult fairly to select acts for particular notice. But the Governor-General in Council feels that no injustice will be done to any man if he offers a tribute of admiration and thanks to the brave soldiers who, under Lieutenants Home and Salkeld, accomplished the desperate task of blowing open the Cashmere Gate.

From first to last, from the first advance of the devoted little band against the ramparts, throughout the perilous operation so successfully achieved, to the last act of the Bugler Hawthorne in tending his officer's wounds under a heavy fire, this deed was one of deliberate and sustained courage, as noble as any that has ever graced the annals of war. It will be the care of the Governor-General in Council, that the brave men, Englishmen and Natives, who survive to share the glory of it, shall not go unrewarded, and that the memory of those who fell shall be honored.

It is a satisfaction to the Governor-General in Council to find that, in estimating upon a late occasion the eminent services rendered by the Chief Commissioner of the Punjaub to the State during the siege of Delhi, and in expressing his earnest thanks for them, he has spoken the sentiments of the individual best able to appreciate those services at their true value. To the indefatigable exertions of Sir John Lawrence, Major General Wilson frankly attributes his own success.

There remains to the Governor-General in Council the pleasing duty of noticing the part taken in the contest before Delhi by some of the neighbouring Native Chiefs.

The loyal and constant co-operation of the Maharajah of Pattiala and his troops; the steady support of the Rajah of Jheend, whose forces shared in the assault; and the assistance given to the British arms by Jan Fishan Khan and Sirdar Meer Khan Saib, well call for the marked thanks of the Governor-General in Council.

These true-hearted chiefs, faithful to their engagements, have shown trust in the power, honor, and friendship of the British Government, and they will not repent it.

The Governor-General in Council will also have the gratification of thanking Maharajah Runbeer Sing of Cashmere, for the timely support given by the Jummoo Contingent, placed by His Highness under the command of Captain Richard Lawrence. The conduct of the ruler of Cashmere has been that of a sincere ally.

No. 22.

Major-General Wilson, Commanding Delhi Field Force, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Delhi, 22nd September, 1857.

IN continuation of my despatch of the 16th instant, I now have the honor to forward a report, for the information of the Major-General Commanding in the Upper Provinces, His Excellency the Commander-in-chief, and the Government, of the further operations of the force under my command since that date.

During the 17th and 18th, we continued to take up advanced posts in the face of considerable opposition on the part of the rebels, and not without loss to ourselves, three officers being killed, and a number of men killed and wounded. On the evening of the 19th, the Burn Bastion, which had given us considerable annoyance, was surprised and captured.

On the morning of the 20th, our troops pushed on and occupied the Lahore Gate, from which an unopposed advance was made on the other bastions and gateways, until the whole of the defences of the city were in our hands.

From the time of our first entering the city, an uninterrupted and vigorous fire from our guns and mortars was kept up on the Palace, Jumma Musjid, and other important posts in possession of the rebels; and as we took up our various positions in advance, our light guns and mortars were brought forward and used with effect on the streets and houses in their neighbourhood.

The result of this heavy and unceasing bombardment, and of the steady and persevering advance of our troops, has been the evacuation of the palace by the King, the entire desertion of the city by the inhabitants, and the precipitate flight of the rebel troops—who, abandoning their camp, property, many of their sick and wounded, and the greater part of their field artillery, have fled in utter disorganization; some 4 or 5,000 across the bridge of boats into the Dooab, the remainder down the right bank of the Jumna.

The gates of the palace having been blown in, it was occupied by our troops at about noon on the 20th, and my head quarters established in it on the same day.

The great diminution of our strength by losses in action during the last few days, added to the severe sickness prevailing among the troops, has prevented my immediately organizing and sending a column in pursuit, but a force as per margin,* under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Greathed, will march to-morrow morning towards Bolundshuhur and Allyghur, to intercept the rebels, whose intentions are said to be to cross the Jumna at Muttra. My intelligence, however, I regret to say, is very defective.

The King, who accompanied the troops, it is believed, for some short distance, last night gave himself up to a party of irregular cavalry, whom I had sent out in the direction of the fugitives, and he is now a prisoner under a guard of European soldiers. Three of the Shazadas† who are known to have taken a prominent part in the atrocities attending the insurrection, have been this day captured by Captain Hodson, and shot on the spot.

Thus has the important duty committed to this force been accomplished, and its object attained; Delhi, the focus of rebellion and insurrection, and the scene of so much horrible cruelty, taken and made desolate; the king, a prisoner in our hands; and the mutineers, notwithstanding their great numerical superiority, and their vast resources in ordnance, and all the munitions and appliances of war, defeated on every occasion of engagement with our troops, are now driven with slaughter in confusion and dismay from their boasted stronghold.

The details of the operations have been so fully entered into in my previous despatch and annexed reports and returns from the various commanding officers, that little remains for me to say, but to again express my unqualified approbation of the conduct and spirit of the whole of the troops, not only on this occasion, but during the entire period they have been in the field.

For four months of the most trying season of the year, this force, originally very weak in number, has been exposed to the repeated and determined attacks of an enemy far out-numbering it, and supported by a numerous and powerful artillery. The duties imposed upon all have been laborious, harassing, and incessant, and, notwithstanding heavy losses, both in action and from disease, have been at all times zealously and cheerfully performed.

I beg to add my most cordial concurrence in the commendations bestowed by officers commanding brigades, columns, and detachments, on the officers and men named in their several reports, and I have to express my own deep obligations to those officers themselves for the valuable assistance I have at all times received from them.

To Major F. Gaitskell, who recently assumed the command of the artillery in the field, consequent on Brigadier Garbett having been disabled by a wound, and to the officers and men of that distinguished arm, to whose energy and untiring zeal the successful issue of the operations is so largely attributable, I have to offer my hearty thanks. And particularly am I indebted to that excellent officer, Lieutenant-Colonel Hogge, Director of the Artillery Dépôt, who volunteered his services as Commissary of Ordnance with the siege train, through whose able superintendence of the park, and arrangements for the supply of ammunition to the batteries, our artillery was enabled to deal out the destruction which was effected; as also to Captain J. Young, Deputy Commissary, and Mr. J. Stolesbury, Assistant Commissary of Ordnance, for their exertions during the whole siege.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Baird Smith, Chief Engineer, who, in ill-health and whilst suffering from the effects of a painful wound, devoted himself with the greatest ability and assiduity to the conduct of the difficult and important operations of the siege—to his gallant and eminently talented Second, Captain A. Taylor, and to the whole of the officers and men of the Engineer Brigade, my thanks and acknowledgments are especially due for having planned and successfully carried out, in the face of extreme and unusual difficulties, an attack almost without parallel in the annals of siege operations.

To that most brilliant officer, Brigadier-General J. Nicholson, whose professional character and qualifications are so well known and appreciated, I am under the greatest obligations for the daring manner in which he led his column to the assault; and I deeply deplore that his services are for the present lost to the State.

To Brigadier Hope Grant, C.B., commanding the Cavalry Brigade, and to Brigadiers J. Longfield and W. Jones, C.B., commanding Infantry Brigades. I am deeply indebted; and I have to offer my best thanks to Colonel G. Campbell, commanding H. M.'s 52nd Light Infantry, and to that intrepid and excellent officer, Major C. Reid, of the Sirmoor Battalion, both wounded whilst gallantly leading columns of attack; as also to Colonel J. Jones, commanding the 1st Battalion 60th Royal Rifles—a regiment which has shown a glorious example, both in its daring gallantry and its perfect discipline, to the whole force—for the ability with which he covered the advance of the assaulting columns.

I have pleasure also in bringing favorably to notice the services rendered by Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Burn, attached as Field Officer to the 1st Brigade of Infantry, and by Captain Seymour Blane, H. M.'s 52nd Light Infantry, Major of Brigade to Brigadier-General Nicholson.

Colonel J. L. Dennis, of H. M.'s 52nd Light Infantry, whom I placed in charge of the camp during the operations, is entitled to my thanks and acknowledgments for the able dispositions he made with the troops under his command, for the due protection of his important charge.

To the officers of the General Staff of the Army, and to those of the Staff of the field force, my cordial acknowledgments are due for the admirable manner in which they have performed their responsible duties :

To that very distinguished officer, Brigadier-General N. B. Chamberlain, Adjutant-General of the army, who, though still incapacitated by a severe wound previously received, proceeded to the ridge at Hindoo Rao's and performed essential service after Major Reid had been wounded, and it became necessary to resume that position :

To Captain H. W. Norman, Assistant Adjutant-General of the army, who, on this, as on each and every occasion, has been distinguished by his gallantry, zeal, and professional ability :

To that experienced officer, Major R. S. Ewart, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General, and his gallant and energetic co-adjutor Captain D. M. Stewart, Deputy-Assistant Adjutant-General, who have conducted the duties of this important department with the force much to my satisfaction ; and to Captain E. B. Johnson, Assistant Adjutant of Artillery, who volunteered to command the 24-pounder breaching battery, most ably and effectually carried out the duty assigned to him, and who rejoined my personal Staff on the morning of the assault, and who has, throughout these operations, given me the most zealous and efficient support:—I am greatly indebted for the assistance they have afforded me.

I beg also to bring very favorably to notice the officers of the Quartermaster General's Department, Captain D. C. Shute, and Captain H. M. Garstin, and Captain W. S. R. Hodson, who has performed such good and gallant service with his newly-raised regiment of Irregular Horse, and at the same time conducted the duties of the Intelligence Department under the orders of the Quartermaster-General, with rare ability and success; also that active and gallant officer, Lieutenant F. S. Roberts, attached to the Artillery Brigade, in the capacity of Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-General.

Lieutenant-Colonel Keith Young, Judge-Advocate-General also, and his Deputies, Captain T. C. Maisey and Captain H. W. Wilson, most zealously assisted me in carrying my orders.

To the officers of my personal Staff—Captain C. H. Barchard, who has served with me first as my Orderly Officer and subsequently as Aide-de-Camp, and to whose zealous and untiring exertions I am deeply indebted—to Captain J. R. Turnbull, 2nd Aide-de-Camp—Captain R. H. D. Lowe and Lieutenant R. C. Low, Extra Aides-de-Camp, I am under great obligations for the zeal and readiness with which they on this, and all other occasions, have performed their duties. My thanks are also due to Major H. A. Ouvry, who attended me on the day of assault.

For the valuable aid at all times rendered by the officers of the Civil Service who have been attached to the force, I have to record my warm acknowledgments. Mr. Hervey Greathed, Agent to the Deputy Governor, North-Western Provinces, (whose subsequent sudden death I deeply lament,) and Mr. C. B. Saunders, both of whom attended me in action, and made themselves most useful ; Sir T. Metcalfe, Bart., whose gallantry in conducting Colonel Campbell's Assaulting Column through the city was conspicuous ; and Mr. R. H. Clifford, who was also in attendance on me, are all entitled to my thanks.

Whilst, however, in acknowledging the services of those officers whose good fortune it was to be present at the assault and in the action of the 14th, I have only performed a grateful duty, I should be greatly wanting if I failed to record the names of those who have previously distinguished themselves, but who, incapacitated by wounds or sickness, were unable to join in the operations of that day.

Amongst these I have specially to notice Brigadier St. G. D. Showers, whose cool gallantry on the numerous occasions in which he has been engaged, has been conspicuous :

Also Colonel A. M. Becher, Quartermaster-General of the Army, who, though prevented by a severe wound, received in June last, from taking an active part in the field, has at all times rendered me zealous assistance :

Lieutenant-Colonel T. Seaton, C.B., of the 35th Native Infantry, attached to the force, a most valuable and experienced officer, of whose services I have been deprived owing to a wound received by him on the 23rd July :

That admirable officer, Lieutenant-Colonel Murray Mackenzie, Commanding the 1st Brigade of Horse Artillery, of whose services I have also been deprived by a wound which he received when in charge of the heavy batteries at an early stage of our operations :

That officer so distinguished in our Frontier Warfare, Major J. Coke, Commanding the 1st Punjaub Rifles, severely wounded at the head of his regiment on the 12th August, and the gallant Commander of the Guides, Captain H. Daly, who was very severely wounded leading a most daring charge on the enemy's guns in the action of the 19th of June.

I need not observe how largely the success and efficiency of an army depends on the regularity of its supplies. Under circumstances of peculiar difficulty, in a district the population of which has been inimical, and in which civil authority has ceased to exist, this force has, from the commencement, been kept well and sufficiently provisioned with supplies of every description, the issue of rations to the soldiers having been as regular, both in quantity and quality, as in cantonments. My warmest thanks are therefore due to Lieutenant-Colonel W. B. Thompson, Deputy-Commissary-General, the admirable and indefatigable head of that department in the field ; as also to Lieutenant T. H. Sibley, Principal Executive Officer, to Lieutenant Waterfield, and to the other officers serving in that department.

With the medical arrangements of Superintending-Surgeon F. Tritton I have every reason to be satisfied, and he is entitled to my cordial acknowledgments. At such a trying season of the year, and in a notoriously unhealthy locality, the sickness and mortality has of course been heavy. In addition to those suffering from disease, the hospitals have received almost daily accessions of wounded men. The labours, therefore, of the Medical Department have been unceasing, notwithstanding there has not been at any time the slightest failure in the arrangements for the care and comfort of the very numerous patients.

Amongst those medical officers whose unwearied zeal and superior ability have come prominently before me, are Officiating-Superintending-Surgeon C. McKinnon, M.D., who has been in medical charge of the 1st Brigade Horse Artillery ; Surgeon J. H. Ker Innes, 60th Royal Rifles ; Surgeon J. P. Brougham, 1st Fusiliers ; Surgeon E. Hare, of the 2nd Fusiliers ; Assistant-Surgeon J. J. Clifford, M.D., of the 9th Lancers ; and Assistant-Surgeon W. F. Mactier, M.D., on the personal staff of the late Commander-in-chief.

Credit is also due to Surgeon D. Scott, M.D., Medical Storekeeper.

The duties and offices of Provost-Marshal to the Force have been conducted by a very deserving old non-commissioned officer, Serjeant-Major Stoud, 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery, whom I recommend to favourable consideration for a commission.

The names of other non-commissioned officers deserving of a similar reward I shall have the pleasure of submitting hereafter.

I should neither be fulfilling the repeatedly expressed wishes of the artillery officers attached to this force, nor following the dictates of my own inclination, if I failed to acknowledge the valuable assistance which has, throughout the operations before Delhi, been most cheerfully given by the non-commissioned officers and men of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers and the 6th Dragoon Guards in working the batteries. Without it, owing to the comparatively small number of artillerymen, I should have been quite unable to man the batteries efficiently, or keep up the heavy fire which, aided by these men, I have happily been able to do. To these regiments, therefore, and to Brigadier Grant, who so readily placed a certain number of his men at my disposal for such purpose, I tender my best thanks.

It would be an omission on my part, were I to pass over in silence the good services and loyal conduct of one who has already been rewarded by the Government for the friendly assistance he rendered to our army in Affghanistan ; I allude to the Nawab Jan Fishan Khan, who, with his brave nephew, Sirdar Bahadoor Meer Khan, and their retainers, accompanied me from Meerut, was present at the actions on the Hindun, and has since taken part in nearly every action in which this force has been engaged.

Of the loyal services rendered to the State by the Rajah of Pattiala, which must be so well known to the Government, it may not be considered necessary for me to speak ; but it is incumbent on me in my capacity as commander of this force to acknowledge officially the great assistance the Rajah's troops have afforded me in enabling the numerous convoys of ammunition and stores to travel in security and safety to my camp under their escort and protection.

Equally is it my duty to bring prominently to the notice of Government the admirable service performed by the Jheend Rajah and his troops, under command of Lieut.-Colonel H. F. Dunsford. They have not only had very harassing duties to carry out in the constant escort of convoys of sick and wounded men, ammunition, &c., but they have also aided me in the field on more than one occasion, and finally participated in the assault of the city.

Lastly, I trust I may be excused if I thus publicly acknowledge the all-important and invaluable aid for which I am indebted to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, Sir John Lawrence, K.C.B., to whose indefatigable exertions in reinforcing me with every available soldier in the Punjaub, the successful result of our operations is, I unhesitatingly pronounce, attributable; and I take this opportunity of recognizing the advantage derived from the presence of the troops of His Highness the Maharajah Runbeer Sing in alliance with the British force, the moral effect of which has been great. And, although unsuccessful, I regret to say, in the actual accomplishment of that part of the operations in which the Jummoo Contingent was engaged on the 14th, I can attach no particle of blame to those troops, as I consider, under the circumstances in which they were placed, the very strong position which they had to attack, and the prolonged and determined resistance which they encountered from an enemy superior to them in number, arms, training, and experience, that they behaved, under their gallant commander, Captain R. C. Lawrence, and the other British officers serving with them, to whom my best thanks are due, as well as they could have been expected to do.

Captain Lawrence's report of his operations is annexed.

I have, &c.,
A. WILSON, Major-General,
Commanding Delhi Field Force.

No. 23.

Major F. Gaitskell, Commanding Artillery Brigade, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Field Force, Delhi.

SIR, Delhi, September 19, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to submit, for the information of the Major General Commanding Field Force, my report of the operations of the Artillery Brigade under my command from the evening of the 6th to the morning of the 14th September.

The first guns* were placed in a light battery on the evening of the 6th September to the left front of the Sammy House Picquet, and about 950 yards from the Shah Bastion. These guns, with four heavy guns in the light batteries on the ridge, and two light guns at the Crow's Nest, were placed under the command of Captain Remmington, of the 1st Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery, the light guns for the purpose of keeping the ground clear between the Shah Bastion and Kissengunge, and the whole to aid generally in the defence of our right flank. These objects were principally attained on several occasions during the time the siege batteries were on play, from the 8th to 14th September, in repelling the attacks of the enemy on our right (No. 1) Siege Battery.

No. 1 Siege Battery was commenced on the evening of the 7th September, and although originally intended for ten guns, was subsequently divided into two portions—the one on the right, under Major Brind, to silence the fire of the guns on the Shah Bastion, distance 700 yards, containing five 18-pounders, and one 8-inch howitzer; that on the left four 24-pounders, under Major Turner, (until that officer was compelled to leave from severe sickness, when Major Kaye received the command) to ruin the defences, and keep down, as far as practicable, the fire of the Cashmere Bastion, distant 850 yards. The two portions of this battery not being sufficiently ready on the morning of the 8th September, only two guns in each were enabled to open fire; but during that day and the following night the whole were got into position, and a steady and most efficient fire was kept up from the right portion until the assault on the morning of the 14th instant, being a period of seven and a half days, at a most sickly season of the year, and there being no relief or only a partial one for officers and men. From the left portion the fire was kept up until the afternoon of the 10th, when the battery caught fire, and was destroyed, fortunately only a few hours before the guns were to have been removed to No. II Battery.

On the night of the 10th September No. II Battery, also consisting of two portions, was armed,—the right with seven 8-inch howitzers, and two 18-pounder guns, under Major Kaye,—and the left, consisting of nine 24-pounder guns, under the command of Major J. H. Campbell, until the evening of the 11th, when, I regret to say, he was compelled, from a severe grape shot wound, to make over the command to Captain E. B. Johnson. The right portion of this battery was placed at a distance of 500 yards from the Cashmere Bastion; and was designed to destroy the masonry parapet of the bastion, dismount the guns, strip off the musketry parapet in the left face for 200 yards, and destroy a small tower in the curtain. The fire from this portion of the No. II Battery was sustained during the 11th, 12th, and 13th by day and night, and with the greatest success. The left portion of this battery, nine 24-pounders, opened fire at a distance of 500 yards, for the purpose of effecting a breach in the curtain immediately adjoining the right flank of the Cashmere Bastion, about half past five, A.M. on the morning of the 11th September, and by nine o'clock every gun on the bastion was silenced, and until the night of the 13th September an incessant fire was kept up with five guns in making the breach, the other four being directed on the defences of the Cashmere Bastion, and of the parapet of the curtain.

The Siege Battery No. III, under Major E. W. S. Scott, was armed on the night of the 11th instant, with six 18-pounder guns at a distance of 160 yards from the left face of the Water Bastion, mounting six heavy and two light guns, and a fire was opened from four guns at 1 P.M. on the 12th; a greater number of guns could not be used at once, as the embrasures required constant repairs. There were also twelve 5½-inch mortars attached to this battery, under Captain Blunt, which shelled the interior of the bastion and the ground to the left of the church. By one P.M. of the 13th instant, the wall was pierced, and a practicable breach of about 60 feet wide was made by dusk the same evening. It was subsequently ascertained that, in addition to effecting the breach, four of the enemy's guns were rendered unserviceable, and the carriages of the two light guns destroyed.

No. IV Siege Battery, under the command of Major Tombs, consisting of four 10-inch and six 8-inch mortars, was armed on the evening of the 9th September, but did not (pursuant to orders received) open fire until the morning of the 11th, from which date until the assault an incessant and destructive fire was kept up from the whole battery on the following points; viz.—the Cashmere Gate and Bastion, the Church, Skinner's House, and the Water Gate and Bastion.

The several batteries ceased their fire on the morning of the 14th, shortly before the assault was made.

I beg to recommend to the most favourable notice of the Major-General Commanding, the services of Majors Brind, Campbell, Scott, Turner, Kaye and Tombs, Captains Remington, Johnson and Blunt, for the admirable manner in which they exercised the duties of their respective commands; and I cannot praise too highly the conduct of every officer non-commissioned officer, and soldier, who performed their duties with the greatest energy, and bore the constant exposure and hardship with the utmost cheerfulness, and I beg to recommend their services as recorded in the reports of officers commanding batteries, herewith forwarded, to the Major-General's favourable notice. I have also to acknowledge the services of Captain the Honorable A. Anson, Her Majesty's 84th Regiment, and the officers of other branches of Her Majesty's and the Company's services who volunteered to serve with the Artillery, and who have been reported of most favourably by Commanding Officers of Batteries.

My best acknowledgments are also due to Lieutenant-Colonel Hogge, Commissary of Ordnance, for the arrangements he made in his Departments; likewise to Lieutenant J. S. Frith, my Brigade-Major, for his services during the operations, and the assistance he has afforded me at all times.

I desire also to report the valuable services rendered by detachments of Her Majesty's 6th Dragoon Guards (Carabiniers) and 9th Lancers, who did duty in the several batteries, and who, by their steady conduct, gained for themselves the highest approbation from the several officers commanding batteries.

I have to deplore the loss of two gallant officers of the Artillery—Lieutenant Hildebrand, who was killed in No. II Battery on the 8th September, an officer who had performed much valuable service during the time the force has been at Delhi; and Captain R. C. H. B. Fagan, who was killed in No. IV Battery on the evening of the 12th. This officer, whose career during the whole period that the force has been at Delhi, was marked by unceasing energy and conspicuous devotion to his profession, had gained for himself the respect of officers and men in every branch of the force.

The casualties among the non-commissioned officers and men in the several batteries was not, I rejoice to state, great, and principally caused by the light guns which the enemy brought out against the siege batteries during the period under report.

A roll of casualties, from the 6th to 14th instant, is forwarded.

I have, &c.,

No. 24.

Major F. Gaitskell, Commanding Artillery Brigade, to the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General, Field Force, Delhi.

SIR, Delhi, 19th September, 1857.

IN continuation of my letter, No. 20, of this date, I have now the honour to report the operations of the Artillery Brigade on the 14th September, during the period, of and after, the assault.

The orders for the assault having been received during the night of the 13th September, immediate arrangements had to be carried out for the relief of the officers and men of the Horse Artillery; and three detachments of Foot Artillery were told off, consisting of 60, 20, and 20 men, each under a subaltern, to accompany the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd columns of assault respectively, in order to take possession of the guns on the ramparts, and turn them on the city.

These arrangements were, as far as practicable, carried out; and at the same time the Cavalry Brigade.* The left half of the 1st Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery were unable to join Major Reid's column. as there were not sufficient Foot Artillerymen to relieve the men of that troop on the right batteries.

* Sic in orig.

The Troop of Horse Artillery, under Major Tombs, with the Cavalry Brigade, was actively engaged with the enemy, who were in a ruined suburb near Pahairpoor, outside the Cabul Gate of the city, where their infantry, supported by guns, occupied the ruined mud houses at a distance of about 250 yards. There being no infantry with these guns, which were unable to dislodge the enemy from their position, and while holding their own, our guns suffered very severely, for in addition the enemy brought grape from a heavy gun at the Lahore Gate to bear on them, thereby compelling the 2 advanced guns of the troop to retire about 20 yards, and the enemy's infantry advancing, was only held in check by repeated rounds of grape. At this time the right half troop of Captain Remmington's troop, under Lieutenant Lindsay, joined ; but still the enemy continued a very heavy fire of grape and musketry, causing many casualties among men and horses. Some of the Belooch Battalion now joined, and the enemy's fire gradually slackened, and Major Tombs' Detachment retired slowly and in good order, after two heavy guns had by his orders been gallantly spiked (under a galling musketry fire) by Lieutenant G. B. Traill.

Two pieces of Captain Money's troop of Horse Artillery were detached under Lieutenant C. Hunter, who opened fire on the enemy's cavalry and infantry, who were making towards our rear, and directed the fire on Kissengunge until the enemy had retreated beyond the range of his guns.

The remainder of the Horse Artillery, consisting of the Head Quarters and remainder of Captain Money's troop (as also Major Turner's troop which was to have accompanied the 1st and 2nd Columns of Assault, but for the men not having been able to be relieved from the Siege Battery where they were stationed in sufficient time) was left for the protection of the camp with the troops under the command of Colonel Dennis, Her Majesty's 52nd Regiment.

No. 14 Light Field Battery, under Major Scott, was attached, on the morning of the 14th September, to the Reserve Column under Brigadier Longfield, and at 10 A.M. two guns were posted at the street next the College Garden, two at the Cabul Gate, and two at the street passing Skinner's House ; but were not actively engaged.

Two guns of No. 17 Light Field Battery were attached to the 1st Column of Assault, and two to the 2nd Column ; but all four were subsequently detached, under Captain Bouchier, to support the Cavalry Brigade, where they relieved Major Tombs' troop of Horse Artillery, which had suffered very severely in men and horses, and after opening fire on Kissengunge and checking the enemy's advance from that direction, were in the evening, with their four guns, posted with the Cavalry Brigade, at Ludlow Castle.

I beg especially to bring to the notice of the Major-General Commanding, the conduct of Major Tombs, his officers and men, which was in strict accordance with their past gallant services.

I also recommend to the favourable notice of the Major-General, the services of Majors Scott and Turner, Captains Bouchier and Remington, and Lieutenants Wilson, Lindsay, Traill, and C. Hunter, and all the non-commissioned officers and men under their command.

I inclose the reports of officers commanding, and trust that the services of the Artillery Brigade will be considered to have been such, during a long and arduous period, as to elicit the approbation of the Major-General Commanding the force.

Brigade.

No. 25.

Lieutenant-Colonel R. Baird Smith, Chief Engineer, Delhi Field Force, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Delhi Field Force.

Head Quarters, Delhi,

SIR,

September 17, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to submit herewith, for the information of the Major-General commanding, the following Report of the operations carried on by the Engineer Brigade under my command during the siege and capture of Delhi.

2. To make these more intelligible, I may first detail very briefly the leading and characteristic features of the place.

3. The Eastern face of the city rests on the Jumna, and during the season of the year when our operations were carried on, the stream may be described as washing the base of the walls. All access to a besieger on the River Front is, therefore impracticable. The defences here consist of an irregular wall with occasional Bastions and Towers; and about one-half of the length of the river face is occupied by the palace of the king of Delhi and its outwork—the old Mogul Fort of Selimgurgh.

4. The river may be described as the chord of a rough arc formed by the remaining defences of the place. These consist of a succession of Bastioned fronts, the connecting curtain being very long, and the out-works limited to one crownwork at the Ajmere Gate and Martello Towers, mounting a single gun at such points as require some.

additional flanking fire to that given by the bastions themselves. The bastions are small, mounting generally three guns in each face, two in each flank, and one in embrasure at the salient. They are provided with masonry parapets about twelve feet in thickness, and have a relief of about sixteen feet above the plane of site. The curtain consists of a simple masonry wall or rampart sixteen feet in height, eleven feet thick at top, and fourteen or fifteen feet at bottom. This main wall carries a parapet loopholed for musketry, eight feet in height and three feet in thickness. The whole of the land front is covered by a berm of variable width, ranging from sixteen to thirty feet, and having a scarp wall eight feet high; exterior to this is a dry ditch of about twenty-five feet in height and from sixteen to twenty feet in depth. The counterscarp is simply an earthen slope easy to descend. The glacis is a very short one, extending only fifty or sixty yards from the counterscarp; using general terms, it covers from the besieger's view from half to one-third of the height of the walls of the place.

5. These details will, I trust, be sufficient to give a general conception of the nature of the defences of Delhi. They are, in a word, modernised forms of the ancient works that existed when the city fell before Lord Lake's army in 1803. They extend about seven miles in circumference, and include an area of about three square miles.

6. The ground occupied by the besieging force presents some features deserving of notice here, as having exercised a most important influence on the plan and progress of the works of attack. On the western side of Delhi, there appear the last outlying spurs of the Aravelli Mountains, represented here by a low ridge which disappears at its intersection with the Jumna, about two miles above the place. The drainage from the eastern slope of the ridge finds its way to the river along the northern and north-western faces of the city, and has formed there a succession of parallel or connected ravines of considerable depth. By taking advantage of these hollow ways, admirable cover was constantly obtained for the troops, and the labour of the siege most materially reduced. The whole of the exterior of the place presents an extraordinary mass of old buildings of all kinds, of thick brush-wood, and occasional clumps of forest trees, giving great facilities for cover, which, during the siege operations at least, proved to be, on the whole, more favorable to us than to the enemy.

In anticipation of the siege, means had been taken to store the engineer park with all the materials and tools likely to be required during the operations; the siege train placing the artillery means in an equally satisfactory state of efficiency; ground was broken as soon after its arrival as possible, being on the night of the 7th September, 1857.

7. The project of attack submitted by me to the Major-General Commanding, and honored with his sanction, provided for a concentrated, rapid and vigorous attack on the front of the place, included between the Water or Moira and Cashmere Bastions, provision being made at the same time for silencing all important flanking fire, whether of artillery or musketry, that could be brought to bear on the lines of advance to be taken by the assaulting columns. Due care was also taken to protect the exposed right flank of the trenches from sorties. The left was secured by being rested on the river and by the occupation of the Koodsee Bagh—a very strong post in front.

8. The best information procurable indicated that, on the front of attack, the fire from twenty-five to thirty pieces might have to be subdued.

To effect this, fifty-four siege guns were available, and were distributed as follows :—

Siege Battery No. 1, for ten pieces, by which six* were to be directed against the defences of the Shah or Moree Bastion, with the object of ruining them and preventing the flank fire from bearing on the advance of the assaulting column. The remaining four† were directed against the Cashmere Bastion, with the object of diverting its fire from the covering and working parties engaged on No. 2 Battery.

Siege Battery No. 2, for eighteen pieces,‡ designed to breach the curtain to the right of the Cashmere Bastion, to destroy the defences of the bastion itself, and to strip off the parapet for about 200 yards on each side of the breach, and thus deprive infantry of all cover.

Siege Battery No. 3,|| for eight heavy guns and 12 cohorn mortars, designed to destroy the defences of the Moira or Water Bastion, and to maintain a heavy fire of shells on both the Water and Cashmere Bastions. In the original project, the site of this battery was about 330 yards from the Water Bastion; but, subsequent examination making it doubtful whether the position was an effective one, Captain Taylor pushed a reconnaissance in advance to the Custom House or within 160 yards, and finding there an excellent site for a breaching battery, reported the circumstance to me. I obtained at once the Major-General's sanction to this bold advance, and it is satisfactory to be able to say that Battery No. 3 was constructed with remarkably few casualties, and

proved one of the most efficient of the series. It was, however, limited to six breaching guns, and in the demolition of the light parapets was aided by 9-pounders.

Battery No. 4, for ten heavy mortars,* to shell the whole of the ground between the Water and Cashmere Bastions, and the localities in the neighbourhood, where the enemy would be likely to find shelter.

9. On the extreme right, four heavy guns were left in position, and on an advanced plateau on the ridge, a battery for six field guns† was constructed, by which the only route open to the enemy's sorties would be swept by grape. Although the enemy gave some annoyance with light guns in this direction, he was unable to make a single effective sortie.

10. At different times, between the 7th and 11th, these bastions opened fire with an efficiency and vigor which excited the unqualified admiration of all who had the good fortune to witness it. Every object contemplated in the attack was accomplished with a success even beyond my expectations; and I trust I may be permitted to say that, while there are many noble passages in the history of the Bengal Artillery, none will be nobler than that which will tell of its work on this occasion.

11. On the night of the 13th, the breaches in the curtain between the Water and Cashmere Bastions were examined personally by Lieutenants Greathed, Medley and Lang, of Engineers, who reported both in excellent condition for assault. No. 1 Siege Battery had effectually disposed of the Moree Bastion; No. 2 had completely destroyed the musketry cover near the main breach; No. 3 had done the same near the Water Bastion breach; and it was evident that the place was ripe for the assault. On reporting the circumstance to the Major-General, he issued instant orders, naming the next morning or that of the 14th for this critical operation.

* 4 10-inch mortars, 6 8-inch mortars: Total 10.

12 The details of the assault will be best laid before the Major-General by the Brigadiers commanding the different columns. I will, therefore, only state here how the distribution of the Engineer Officers was made :

1st Column, under Brigadier-General Nicholson.

Captain	A. Taylor,
Lieutenant	Medley,
„	Bingham,
„	Lang,
Ensign	Chalmers.

2nd Column, under Brigadier Jones, Her Majesty's 60th.

Lieutenant	Greathed,
„	Hovenden,
„	Murray,
Ensign	Gustavinski.

3rd Column, under Brigadier Campbell, Her Majesty's 52nd.

Lieutenant	Home,
„	Salkeld,
„	Tandy,
Ensign	Nutball.

4th Column, under Major Reid.

Lieutenant	Maunsell,
„	Tennant.

Reserve Column, under Brigadier Longfield.

Lieutenant	Ward,
„	Thackeray.

These Officers accompanied the columns to which they were attached during the assault, and I grieve to say that a large proportion fell wounded, more or less dangerously, under the heavy fire of the enemy.

13. It only remains for me, in closing this report, to bring, under the favorable notice of the Major-General Commanding, the Officers of the Brigade whose merits have been conspicuous.

To my Second in Command, Captain Taylor, Director of the Trenches, I have been indebted for the most constant, cordial, and valuable assistance throughout the whole period of the operations. Gifted with rare soundness of professional judgment, his advice has been sought by me under all circumstances of difficulty or doubt, and I find that I cannot express too strongly to the Major-General my sense of the valuable services this Officer has rendered.

To Captain Chesney (very severely wounded), Brigade Major of Engineers, I have also hearty acknowledgments to make for the uniform efficiency, zeal, and intelligence with which he has conducted the duty of his office.

Lieutenants Greathed and Maunsell, Directing Field Engineers on the left and right attacks respectively, have earned my warm approbation by the manner in which they performed duties involving great labour and exposure. Both guided columns of attack, and both, I grieve to add, were severely wounded while doing so.

The gallantry with which the Explosion Party, under Lieutenants Home and Salkeld, performed the desperate duty of blowing in the Cashmere Gate in broad daylight, and in the face of the enemy, will, I feel assured, be held to justify me in making special mention of it. The party was composed, in addition to the two officers named, of the following :—

Serjeant John Smith	} Of the Sappers and Miners.
„ A. B. Carmichael..
Corporal F. Burgess, alias Joshua Burgess Grierson.

Bugler Hawthorne H.M.'s 52nd.

14 Native Sappers and Miners.

10 do. Punjab Sappers and Miners.

Covered by the fire of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, this party advanced at the double towards the Cashmere Gate ; Lieutenant Home, with Serjeants John Smith and Carmichael and Havildar Madhoo, all of the Sappers, leading and carrying the powder bags, followed by Lieutenant Salkeld, Corporal Burgess, and a section of the remainder of the party. The advanced party reached the gateway unhurt, and found that part of the drawbridge had been destroyed ; but passing across the precarious footing, supplied by the remaining beams, they proceeded to lodge their powder against the gate. The wicket was open, and through it the enemy kept up a heavy fire upon them. Serjeant Carmichael was killed while laying his powder, Havildar Madhoo being at the same time wounded. The powder being laid, the advanced party slipped down into the ditch to allow the firing party under Lieutenant Salkeld to perform its duty. While endeavouring to fire the charge, Lieutenant Salkeld was shot through the leg and arm, and handed over the slow match to Corporal Burgess, who fell mortally wounded just as he had successfully performed his duty. Havildar Tiluk Sing, of the Sappers and Miners, was wounded, and Ram Heth Sepoy, of the same corps, was killed, during this part of the operation.

The demolition having been most successful, Lieutenant Home, happily unwounded, caused the bugle to sound the regimental call of the 52nd Regiment as the signal for the advance of the column. Fearing that amidst the noise of the assault the sound might not be heard, he had the call repeated three times, when the troops advanced, and carried the gateway with entire success.

I feel assured that a simple statement of the facts of this devoted and glorious deed will suffice to stamp it as one of the noblest on record in military history. Its perfect success contributed most materially to the brilliant results of the day, and Lieutenants Home and Salkeld, with their gallant subordinates, European and Native, will, I doubt not, receive the reward which valour before the enemy so distinguished as theirs has entitled them to.

Lieutenant Home mentions with special approbation the cool courage of Serjeant John Smith, and while sincerely regretting their loss, he states that the gallantry shown by Serjeant Carmichael and Corporal Burgess could not have been surpassed. Bugler Hawthorne's conduct has also been particularly commended. This brave man, after performing his own dangerous duty, humanely attached himself to Lieutenant Salkeld, bound up his wounds under a heavy musketry fire, and ultimately had him removed without further injury, and I beg to commend him most cordially to the favorable notice of the Major-General.

The following native officers and Sepoys of the Sappers and Miners are reported by Lieut. Home to have shown the most determined bravery and coolness throughout the whole operations; Havildar Madhoo, who accompanied the advance under Lieutenant Home, Soobadar Toola, Jemadar Bisram, Havildars Tiluk Singh and Rantaroy, and Sepoy Sahib Sing, who were with the firing or reserve parties. The remarkable courage shown by the native officers and men in assisting their wounded European comrades deserves to be mentioned as showing the excellent feeling between them.

Lieutenant Medley (wounded) was appointed to guide the 1st division of the 1st column to the main breach, which he had personally examined the night before, and, though shot through the arm, continued with the column till it was established in the Cabul Gate. Lieutenant Lang was appointed to similar duties with the 2nd Division, and both officers have earned my best thanks by the gallant and efficient manner in which they did their work. Lieutenant Hovenden (wounded) conducted the ladder party of the 2nd column, and here, as on all occasions, showed the intelligence and gallantry which have made his services so valuable during the siege.

I beg also to bring under the notice of the Major-General the good service on this occasion of Lieutenant Bingham, an old and most meritorious officer, whose gallantry in action on previous instances had led the Government to confer upon him the commission of Lieutenant. He commanded a party of the corps of Sappers and Miners, in the assault of the main breach, with his accustomed bravery, and I respectfully recommend him for favorable consideration.

To Lieutenant H. A. Brownlow (dangerously wounded), who had charge of the engineer park, I have to offer my most cordial acknowledgments, for his incessant exertions to expedite the works. This officer was dangerously wounded while carrying to the 3rd column materials and tools which it was supposed to be in need of.

I have only further to bring under the notice of the Major-General Commanding, the admirable conduct of the remaining officers and men of the brigade. None could have displayed a higher and better spirit than they have done, and, whether in the trenches, in the assault, or during the occupation, they have been forward and zealous in every duty. I may be allowed to refer especially to the gallantry and devotion of the Sappers and Miners, under their Acting-Commandant Lieutenant Maunsell—a remnant of the corps which mutinied in May last. Throughout the whole operations these men have shown a distinguished bravery and fidelity to their salt, and it has been my agreeable duty to bring from time to time special instances of these qualities to the notice of the Major-General. The Punjab Sappers and Miners, under their Commandant, Lieutenant Gulliver (of whose valuable services I was deprived during the siege by his severe illness), and their Acting-Commandant Lieutenant Home, have done excellent service, and give the best possible promise of being an efficient and soldier-like corps.

The Pioneers, under Lieutenant Bingham, have proved to be a most useful and fearless body of men. Though designed for work only, and being unarmed, and only rudely organised for the occasion, they have shown perfect readiness to work under fire, and have taken their turn in the most exposed and dangerous positions it has been necessary to occupy.

I take the liberty of mentioning here that, since I joined this camp, I have received most valuable aid in military arrangements from my assistant (in the Civil Department) Mr. Harry Marten

I deeply regret the heavy list of casualties which accompanies this report. In Lieutenant Tandy the corps has lost one of its most gallant and promising young officers; but I earnestly hope that the Government will be only temporarily deprived of the services of the wounded, all of whom, I am happy to be able to report, are doing well.

I have, &c.,

W. BAIRD SMITH, Lieut.-Colonel,
Chief Engineer, Delhi Field Force.

No. 26.

Brigadier J. Hope Grant, Commanding Cavalry Brigade, Delhi Field Force, to the Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General.

Head Quarters,

SIR, Delhi, September 17, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Major-General Wilson, that according to instructions received, I proceeded before daylight on the morning of the 14th with 200 of H. M.'s 9th Lancers, and 410 Natives from the Guides, 1st, 2nd and 5th Punjaub Cavalry, and Hodson's Horse, 3 guns of the 1st Troop Horse Artillery, and 4 guns of the 2nd, to the neighbourhood of the 1st Field Battery, where I remained till the assault of the town had commenced. At about 6 o'clock the Major-General sent me instructions to proceed to the front. I formed up opposite the walls of the town—the 9th Lancers forming the advanced party, the Irregular Cavalry the reserve,—and proceeded till I came to the Moree Bastion, which was in our hands. We advanced on to the Cabul Gate ; and at this point a most heavy fire of grape and musketry was opened upon us, —the grape coming from the Lahore Gate, and the musketry from the gardens and houses of Kishengunge on our right between 2 and 300 yards off. Major Tombs, who was in command of the guns, as fine an officer as there is in the Company's service, drove the enemy out from our right flank, and succeeded in spiking two guns in battery,—one an 18-pounder, and the other 12-pound iron gun. We retired a short distance to get out of the severe fire that was opened upon us ; but, in so doing, the enemy came out in great numbers through the gardens, and it was necessary to retain our position to prevent the enemy from taking our batteries and the Cashmere Gate. A party, consisting of an officer and 80 of the Infantry Guides, came down to our support, and, though so small a number, went gallantly into the gardens and took up a position in a house close to the battery. I regret, however, to say, the officer in command, a most gallant young fellow—Lieutenant Bond—was wounded in the head and had to be taken away; but the Guides held out most bravely till they got surrounded in the house and were in great danger. A detachment of the Belooch Battalion, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Farquhar, however, came to their assistance, and brought them away in safety. The fire now slackened, and we were enabled to retire a short distance where we had little to fear.

2. I beg leave to state I have never in the whole course of my life seen so much bravery and so much noble conduct displayed by men as was the case in the Brigade I had the honor to command. Major Tombs and the two officers under him in command of the two troops,—Lientenant Wilson and Lieutenant Lindsay,—as well as the Adjutant Sankey, did their duty in a manner most praiseworthy, and the enemy were completely checked by the fire from their guns. In the 1st Troop, one European and one Native were killed, 4 horses killed and 9 wounded. In the 2nd Troop, 1 European and 1 Native killed, 17 Europeans and 13 Natives wounded, 13 horses killed, and 9 wounded, and one officer's charger. Nothing could be finer than the conduct of the 9th Lancers, one squadron commanded by Captain French, and the other by Captain Sarel, the whole by Captain Drysdale. Not a man flinched from his post, though under this galling fire for two hours, and when a poor fellow got knocked over, it seemed to put the men in good spirits. I am sorry to say, however, the 9th Lancers had 38 men wounded, 61 horses killed, wounded and missing, and the officers lost 10 horses.

3. The behaviour of the Native Cavalry was also admirable. Nothing could be steadier, nothing could be more soldier-like than their bearing. The Guide Cavalry, commanded by Captain Sanford—a most excellent and useful officer,—on outpost duty, lost 1 Native Officer killed, 1 non-commissioned officer, and 14 privates. Lieutenant Hodson commanded a corps raised by himself, and he is a first-rate officer, brave, determined, and clear-headed. Lieutenant Watson, commanding the 1st Punjaub cavalry, Lieutenant Probyn, commanding the 2nd, and Lieutenant Younghusband the 5th, are also most excellent officers. I was afterwards joined by Captain Bouchier's Battery, which was of great service and enabled us to hold our position.

4. I beg especially to bring to the notice of Major-General Wilson, the names of the officers mentioned in this despatch, and also that of Captain Hamilton, my Brigade-Major, a most excellent officer in every respect, ready and willing to do his duty whenever he is called upon. His horse was shot upon this occasion.

5. Also that of the Honorable Captain Anson, my acting Aide-de-Camp, who got wounded in the hand by a musket shot. He is most useful and energetic, and promises to be a first-rate officer. Also Captain Rosser, of the Carabiniers, and Captain Hall, of the 4th Irregular Cavalry, who were also extra Aides-de-Camp on that day. The former, I am sorry to say, was struck by a musket ball in the head, and there are little hopes of his recovery; the other had his horse shot under him. I beg also to mention the name of Lieutenant Jones, Deputy-Assistant Quartermaster-General, who is most zealous and attentive to all his duties. Colonel Custance, of the Carabineers, commanded the reserve, which he did to my satisfaction. I regret I am unable to give a return of the casualties in several of the Regiments of Native Cavalry, as I have not yet received them; but the whole shall be sent as soon as practicable.

I have, &c.,

Commanding Cavalry Brigade.

Captain W. Brookes, 75th Regiment, to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Field Force.

SIR. Camp before Delhi, 17th September. 1857.

IN compliance with an order received from Lieutenant-Colonel Herbert, 75th Regiment, I have the honour to forward, for the information of Major-General Wilson, commanding Field Force, the following report of the proceedings, so far as they are known to me, of the 1st column of attack, under Brigadier-General Nicholson, who was unfortunately severely wounded on the day named, and obliged to relinquish the command.

The regiments composing the 1st column—Detail of Artillery; 300 men Her Majesty's 75th Regiment; 250 1st European Bengal Fusiliers; 500 2nd Punjaub Infantry; which were to assault the breach in the Cashmere Curtain Gate, were under arms at 3 A.M. on the morning of the 14th; and moved to the assault as follows. The 1st Fusiliers, led by Brigadier-General Nicholson in person, escalated the left face of the Cashmere Bastion. Her Majesty's 75th Regiment and 2nd Punjaub Infantry, covered in splendid style by a portion of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, moved to assault the breach on the left of the Cashmere Gate. Colonel Herbert, 75th, being wounded on the Glacis, the command of this portion of the assaulting column devolved on myself, and it is with great pleasure that I testify to the gallant conduct of all the troops engaged. Lieutenant Fitz Gerald, Her Majesty's 75th Regiment, led up the breach most nobly, and I regret that this officer's death from a grape shot immediately afterwards renders my venturing to bring his name to the notice of the General commanding useless. The column, on being established within the city, re-formed, and agreeably to orders from Brigadier-General Nicholson, moved towards the right. During this movement the enemy maintained a heavy flanking fire, and inflicted much loss on the column. The loss was also considerable. On reaching the various batteries, Moree, &c., a party of men were left to occupy them, and the column dashed on at a rapid rate. On reaching the head of the street at Cabul Gate, the enemy again made a resolute stand, but were speedily driven forward. A portion of the 1st column was halted here, and proceeded to occupy the houses round the Cabul Gate; a portion of the 75th, commanded by Captain Freer, Her Majesty's 27th Regiment, attached, supported by myself, continued the pursuit, accompanied by some men of other corps, 60th Rifles, 1st European Bengal Fusiliers, &c. On advancing about 200 yards along the Rampart Road, which here became so narrow that scarce 4 men could stand abreast, the enemy opened a heavy and destructive fire from an iron gun on the wall and a small brass gun on the pathway, together with musketry from behind a barrier on the road. I regret to say that, notwithstanding repeated charges up this narrow channel, the troops did not succeed in effecting a passage. The loss was so severe, both in men and officers, that I felt it my duty to desist, after two hours, from any further attempt. Brigadier-General Nicholson at this period joined us, and, while endeavouring to induce the men to renew the attempt, was severely wounded; and, finding that each effort only caused further loss without success, I finally drew off the men and retired to the Cabul Gate. Brigadier Jones' column joined us here, and I placed myself under the Brigadier's orders.

I have, &c.,
W. BROOKES, Captain,
75th Regiment.

Brigadier William Jones, Commanding 2nd Column, to Major-General Wilson, Commanding Field Force, Delhi.

SIR, Cabul Gate, Delhi, 17th September, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report that the 2nd column, consisting of the corps as per margin,* paraded, agreeably to order, on the morning of the 14th instant, and immediately moved down to the attack of the Water Bastion. The column was told off into a storming party, supports, and reserve. The former consisted of 75 men of Her Majesty's 8th Regiment, under the command of Captain Baynes, and 75 men of the 2nd Fusiliers, under the command of Captain Hay, late 60th N. I.; the supports of 175 men of Her Majesty's 8th Regiment, 75 men of the 2nd Fusiliers, and 50 men of the 4th Sikh Infantry.

Brigadier General Nicholson having communicated with me, we arranged that the 1st and 2nd columns should move forward simultaneously, as soon as the skirmishers of the 60th Royal Rifles had covered our front. This having been done, the 2nd column advanced through the breach in the most gallant manner, and took possession of the walls without the slightest check. The moment the column entered the Treasury Garden, it turned to its right, and proceeded along the wall under the ramparts as far as the Cabul Gate, where it established itself, having left a party in charge of the Moree Bastion, and thrown out piquets in commanding positions along the right and left of the canal.

* Her Majesty's 8th Regiment; 2nd Fusiliers; 4th Sikh Regiment of Infantry.

One of the enemy's guns on the Cabul Gate was immediately turned upon the Lahore Gate, from which the enemy were firing grape and round shot.

I cannot speak too highly of the conduct of the troops under my command; and my best thanks are due to Lieutenant-Colonel Greathed, commanding Her Majesty's 8th Regiment; to Captain Baynes, of the same corps, who led the assault; to Captain Boyd, commanding 2nd Fusiliers; and to Captain Rothney, commanding the 4th Sikh Infantry; also to Lieutenant Greathed, of the Engineers, who gallantly conducted the party carrying the ladders, until he was unfortunately wounded; and to Lieutenant Hovenden, of that corps, who was also wounded in the performance of the same dangerous duty.

I am also much indebted to my immediate staff, Captain Burnside, Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, my Brigade Major, and Lieutenant Sloman, Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, my Orderly Officer, who rendered me every assistance during the operations.

I have, &c.,
WILLIAM JONES, Brigadier,
Commanding 2nd Column.

No. 29.

Colonel G. Campbell, Commanding H.M.'s 52nd Foot, and in Command of the 3rd Column of Assault, to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR, Delhi, 16th September, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Major-General, the operations of the 3rd Column of Assault, which was under my command, on the morning of the 14th instant.

It consisted of 240 of H.M.'s 52nd, 500 of the 1st Punjaub Infantry, and 260 of the Kumaon Battalion. On the order for the several columns to advance, the explosion party at once proceeded towards the Cashmere Gate, upon which they advanced with most fearless intrepidity. The explosion was accomplished successfully; but I regret to say that, out of the seven brave officers and men who composed it, five of them fell. Immediately upon the report of the explosion, the storming party, consisting of a company of H.M.'s 52nd, under the command of Captain Bayley, advanced with a cheer, and overcoming all resistance, speedily secured the gateway; the supports, consisting of 50 men of H.M.'s 52nd, 50 of the Kumaon Battalion, and 50 of the 1st Punjaub Infantry, followed the storming party at a distance of 50 yards. The entire column having entered the main guard, and re-formed as speedily as possible, proceeded to carry out the orders issued by the Major-General, viz., to advance upon the Jumma Musjid, and, if possible, to occupy it as well as the Kotwallie. Before quitting the neighbourhood of the walls, some of the enemy being still within the Water Bastion, I detached a party to clear it out, which was done at the point of the bayonet, the enemy who escaped the bayonet jumping over the parapets on to the river side, where they were destroyed. We cleared the adjoining Cutcherry compound, also the houses in its neighbourhood, the church, and the Gazette Press compound. The column carrying everything before it without much opposition. I proceeded through the Cashmere Durwaza Bazar, marked out as our line of advance. Hearing that a gun was placed in position bearing down the street, upon arriving at the point where the gun could be seen, I detached a party to get to its rear, through a bye street ; but, before this party arrived at its point, the gun was taken with a rush without loss, except Lieutenant Bradshaw, who, regardless of danger, received a discharge, which killed him on the spot. We proceeded without opposition through the Begum's Bagh. Upon arriving at the gate which opens on the Chandnee Chouk, the gate of the Dureeba was found to be shut. This difficulty, however, was speedily overcome through the good conduct of a native, Mahun Singh, a Chuprassie, who, accompanied by five men of the 52nd, volunteered to endeavour to open it. The column then passed up the Dureeba without opposition, except from musketry from a few houses. Upon arriving at the turn which brings the Musjid into view, and at about 100 yards distant, the side arches were found to be bricked up, and the gate itself closed. It was too strong to be forced open without powder bags or artillery, neither of which were with me,—the former in consequence of the Engineer and his party having fallen, and the latter not having been able to enter the Cashmere Gate, as the bridge had been destroyed ; and moreover the houses on each side the street were filled with the enemy.

I remained at this point about half an hour, in the hope of hearing of the successful advance of the other columns at the Lahore and Ajmere Gates. At the expiration of this period, many men having fallen by the fire from the surrounding houses, I judged it expedient to fall back upon the Begum's Garden, which we held for at least an hour and a-half under a heavy fire of musketry, grape and canister.

Captain Ramsay, of the Kumaon Battalion, who had diverged to the right from the column, and had been in possession of the Kotwalee for some time, here rejoined the column. Having communicated with the head-quarters, and ascertained that the 1st and 2nd columns had not advanced beyond the Cabul Gate, I fell back upon the church.

The operations of the column, I regret to say, were attended with considerable loss; but the number of those who fell I am at present unable to state.

It now becomes my duty to bring to the notice of the Major-General the gallantry and good conduct of all the troops concerned, more especially H. M.'s 52nd Light Infantry, who led the column from first to last, and who, I consider, fully maintained its high reputation. The officers to whom I am more particularly indebted are Lieutenant Salkeld, of the Engineers, who personally fastened the powder bags to the gate, fixed the hose, and, although fearfully wounded, contrived to hand to a non-commissioned officer of the Sappers and Miners the light to fire the train; Lieutenant Home, of the Engineers, who also accompanied the explosion party; Captain Bayley, H. M.'s 52nd, who commanded and led the storming party, and who was unfortunately wounded approaching the gate; Captain Crosse, H. M.'s 52nd, who commanded the supports; Major Vigors, who commanded H. M.'s 52nd; Captain Ramsay, who commanded the Kumaon Battalion; Lieutenant Nicholson, who commanded the 1st Punjaub Infantry, and who, I regret to say, was wounded shortly after the entry was effected; Captain Synge, H. M.'s 52nd, who acted as my Brigade-major to the column.

I have further the gratification of bringing to the especial notice of the Major-General the invaluable assistance I received from Sir T. Metcalfe, who was at my side throughout the operations, and fearlessly guided me through many intricate streets and turnings to the Jumma Musjid, traversing at least two-thirds of the city, and enabling me to avoid many dangers and difficulties.

It is difficult to select individuals from the ranks, where all behaved so well, who may have particularly distinguished themselves ; but I have no hesitation in specifying the following non-commissioned officers and soldiers as deserving of peculiar reward, viz.—the non-commissioned officers of the Sappers and Miners, who formed the explosion party ; Bugler Robert Hawthorne, H. M.'s 52nd, who accompanied the explosion party and sounded the signal to advance ; No. 1104, Serjeant-Major Streets, H. M.'s 52nd, whose gallantry and good conduct was conspicuous up to the time he was severely wounded ; No. 2764, L. Corporal Henry Smith, H. M.'s 52nd, who carried away a wounded comrade under a heavy fire of grape and musketry in the Chandnee Chouk ; No. 1836, L. Corporal William Taylor, H. M.'s 52nd, whose conduct was conspicuous throughout the operations.

I have, &c.,

G. CAMPBELL, Colonel.

Commanding H. M.'s 52nd and the Column of Assault.

I am unable to state the names of the non-commissioned officers of the Sappers and Miners who were with the explosion party.

No. 30.

Brigadier J. Longfield, Commanding Reserve Column, to the Deputy Adjutant-General, Field Force, Delhi.

SIR,

Delhi, September 17, 1857.

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Major-General Commanding the Field Force, that, in accordance to orders received, I took the command of the reserve column, as per margin, * at half-past three o'clock on the morning of the 14th instant.

The whole of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Jones, were detached for the purpose of covering the three attacking columns.

The Belooch battalion, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Farquhar, were, according to orders, detached to the advanced batteries.

When, about two-thirds of the way from the camp to the Cashmere Gate, I received orders to reinforce the attacking column; Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Deacon, and the right wing of the 4th Punjaub Infantry, under command of Captain Wild, were sent forward.

The remainder of the reserve column, namely, the left wing of the 4th Punjaub Infantry and the Jheend Force, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Dunsford, then proceeded, the attack on the Cashmere Gate being successful.

The Jheend force occupied the Cashmere Gate and the Main Guard.

The 4th Punjaub assembled at the church and formed part of a column of attack on the College and grounds.

A party of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles and the 4th Punjaub Infantry had already compelled the enemy to withdraw the gun they had placed at the gate of the College Compound. Captain Wild then charged up to the house with his corps, and gained the building with a loss of three sepoy and two Native officers killed, and 22 sepoy wounded.

* Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, 200; Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, 250; Belooch Battalion, 200; 4th Punjaub Infantry, 550; Jheend Force, 200. Total 1,400.

Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, on rejoining the reserve, proceeded to Ahmed Alli Khan's House.

Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Deacon, which had been already detached to support the attacking column, proceeded to the Cabul Gate.

A return of the casualties that took place has been already forwarded.

I have a great deal of pleasure in stating that I received every assistance and support from the Commanding Officers, namely, Lieutenant-Colonel Jones, Her Majesty's 60th Rifles; Lieutenant-Colonel Deacon, Her Majesty's 61st Regiment; Lieutenant-Colonel Farquhar, Belooch Battalion; Lieutenant-Colonel Dunsford, Jheend Force; and Captain Wild, 4th Punjab Infantry.

Captain Nicoll, Major of Brigade, and Captain Campbell, 2nd Fusiliers, my Orderly Officer, rendered me every assistance in their power.

J. LONGFIELD, Brigadier,
Commanding Reserve Column.

No. 31.

Captain Muter to Major W. S. Ewart, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General.

SIR, Camp, Delhi, September 17, 1857.

AT dawn on the 14th September, the column of attack on Kishengunge, in the order and strength as per margin,* was drawn up at the Subzee Mundee Serai, under command of Major Reid.

* 50 men, 60th Rifles; 200 men, Sirmoor Battalion; 160 men, 1st Fusiliers; 200 Guides; 25 Coke's Corps; 65 Kumaon Battalion; 80 Her Majesty's 61st Regiment.—
Total, 780.

The Jummoo Contingent commenced the attack before our artillery had arrived, and Major Reid, wishing to support the attack, moved down the road in a column of fours, covered by 25 riflemen in skirmishing order.

The enemy opened fire from the bridge over the canal, and from behind walls, and the loop-holed Serai of Kishengunge; Major Reid fell wounded in the head. The fall of their gallant leader checked the advance of the Goorkhas. The Fusiliers came to the front at the double, led by Captain Wriford.

The rush of the Rifles and Fusiliers placed them for a moment in possession of the breastwork at the end of the Serai; but those men, unsupported, were unable to maintain the position under the heavy flanking fire to which they were exposed.

The native troops lined a garden to the right of the road, and Lieutenant R. H. Shebbeare, whose gallantry in this trying affair was the admiration of every one, with a few of the Guides and some Europeans, took possession of a Mosque. Every effort was made here to reform the troops, and charge the enemy's position, but without success, though many Officers sacrificed themselves in the attempt.

As I observed columns of the enemy's Horse and Foot taking ground to our right, and as I saw they were in great force to our front and left flank, I considered the object of the attack so far gained in having directed the attention of the enemy from the main point of attack. Fearing also that the enemy's great strength might encourage him to attack our batteries on the hill, I thought it right, as I had succeeded to the command on the fall of Major Reid, to reoccupy the position from which we had been withdrawn. This was accomplished with little further loss, under cover of the Crow's Nest Battery, which fired shrapnell a few feet over our heads, and with the most admirable precision and fatal effect to the enemy.

This battery was commanded by Lieutenant H. I. Evans, of the Artillery.

I cannot close this report without mentioning the noble way in which two officers and one serjeant fell in the attack. Captain G. G. McBarnet, attached to the 1st Bengal Fusiliers, died at the head of his men at the first rush, and Lieutenant A. W. Murray, of the Guides, was killed, while gallantly seconding his immediate superior, Lieutenant Shebbeare, who was himself struck by two balls.

I am much disappointed in learning that Serjeant Dunleary, of the Fusiliers, a man whose conduct was conspicuous throughout, was killed in the field.

Annexed is a statement of our loss, which, I regret to say, has been very heavy.

I have, &c.,

D. D. MUTER, Captain,

Her Majesty's 1st Battalion, 60th Royal Rifles.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 332.

Fort William, Foreign Department, the 6th November, 1857.

REFERRING to the Notifications from this Department, Nos. 140 and 185, dated the 18th June and 1st July last, in which the services of the Persian Expeditionary Force were acknowledged, the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council desires to express his obligations to the clergymen who were attached to the force, and to certain officers whom Lieutenant-General Sir James Outram, K.C.B., omitted to notice in his despatch.

The Reverend Messrs. Badger, Watson, and Schwabe, and the Reverend Mr. Strickland, Roman Catholic clergyman, were assiduous in their attention to the spiritual wants of the officers and European troops during the continuance of the campaign, and have established a claim, as well to the gratitude of those who benefited by their ministrations, as to the thanks of the Government of India.

Captain Playfair, of the Bombay Engineers, was Field Engineer under the late Major-General Stalker at the affair of Bushire and the capture of Bushire, and he acted in the same capacity at Khooshab, and again at Mohamreh, under the command of Lieutenant-General Sir James Outram. On all occasions, Captain Playfair made himself conspicuous by his zeal and activity, and won the approbation of his superiors.

Captain Good commanded a detachment of Her Majesty's 64th Foot, on the expedition to Ahwaz, and contributed to the signal success which was there achieved.

Lieutenant W. Gray, late Deputy Assistant Commissary-General, was in charge of the Executive Commissariat duties at Bushire, which were of an extensive and important character, and were conducted by that officer with commendable zeal and efficiency.

The services of these officers have been noticed by Lieutenant-General Sir J. Outram, K.C.B., with much approbation, and the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council has great pleasure in tendering to them the thanks of the Government of India.

THE Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council has received official information of the evacuation of Bushire by the British troops on the 2nd October. The Island of Karrack is the only spot of Persian soil which is still in the occupation of the British Government, and the relinquishment of that post only awaits the receipt of authentic intelligence by the officer in command, that the conditions of the treaty of peace concluded on the 4th March last have been completely fulfilled by the Persian Government.

In making this announcement, it becomes the gratifying duty of the Governor-General in Council to record the sense which is entertained by the Government of India of the services rendered by Brigadier-General Jacob, C.B., and the officers under his command.

When Lieutenant-General Sir J. Outram, K.C.B., left Bushire in progress to Mohamreh, the command of the troops remaining at the former post was committed to Brigadier-General John Jacob; and subsequently, when the Lieutenant-General was re-called to India, all the military and political authority which had been exercised by him, devolved on Brigadier-General Jacob. The admirable discipline, order, and efficiency, which have been maintained amongst the troops under Brigadier-General Jacob's command at Bushire, and the judgment with which he has discharged all his high and important functions, entitle that very distinguished officer to the warmest thanks of the Government of India.

The confidence with which Lieutenant-General Sir J. Outram resigned his command into the hands of the Brigadier-General, has been fully justified by the issue. The British troops leave behind them in Persia a reputation, not for valor alone, but for discipline, moderation, and justice ; and it is to Brigadier-General Jacob especially, and to the able officers by whom he was surrounded, that this gratifying result is due.

Brigadier-General Jacob, C.B., has expressed his obligations to the field force under his command.

The thanks of the Government of India are especially due to Brigadier Wilson, K.H., Brigadier Stuart, Commanding the Cavalry at Bushire, and Brigadier Honner.

Colonel Trevelyan, Commanding the Artillery, has zealously and usefully aided Brigadier-General Jacob in matters beyond the ordinary range of his duty, and Major John Hill, commanding the Engineers, has done excellent service.

To the officers commanding regiments, and to the heads of departments, high credit is due, for the perfect order and efficiency maintained during the whole period of occupation ; and to none more than to Superintendent Surgeon Stovell, who has labored to preserve the health of the Army with assiduity and success.

Captain Felix Jones, of the Indian Navy, Political Resident and Civil Commissioner of Bushire, has, together with the officers under his orders, earned the best thanks of the Governor General in Council for the mode in which his charge has been administered.

The various duties which have fallen to Commodore Rennie, Indian Navy, since the cessation of hostilities, have been scarcely less important than those previously discharged by him ; and through the ability and zeal of himself and the officers under his command, they have been performed in a manner to call for the marked approbation of the Governor General in Council.

Finally, the Governor General in Council begs to offer his cordial thanks to all the officers, the non-commissioned officers, and men, composing the Force under the command of Brigadier General Jacob, C. B., for their orderly conduct and their steady discipline during the occupation of Bushire, and to assure them that it will be his care to bring their service under the favorable notice of Her Majesty's Government and the Honorable the Court of Directors.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council,

G. F. EDMONSTONE,

Secretary to the Government of India.
